

To Bicycle Riders

We wish to say that we have a full stock of tires and everything needed for the wheel, and that we are in shape to do all kinds of repairing. If your "bike" is out of repair, bring it in, we will put it in shape for the summer's riding.

C. F. HOFFMAN, The Jeweler.

House Cleaning Time

House cleaning time means wall papering time, and both are here. This is the season of the year when the house can be renovated, cleaned and brightened, to the best advantage and with the best results.

STOKE,

the Druggist's, before you place your order. You will be disappointed if you don't.

A Little of Everything.

Howe's moving pictures at Assembly hall May 5th. The miners, after two weeks' strike, returned to work last Thursday morning. The Falls Creek Herald is now published twice a week, on Tuesday and Friday.

"Dub" Sharp caught a trout a foot long near the water works dam one day last week. Bishop Fowler's lecture last evening was the last number on the public school lecture course. Tickets for Howe's moving pictures will be on sale at Stoke's drug store at 8.00 a. m. Saturday, May 3rd.

The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association sold $2,600 at the monthly meeting on Monday evening. One or two diamond drills will be put to work in Washington township, near Sandy Valley, soon to test for coal.

James Hughes, proprietor of Hughes Hotel, Rathmel, and L. L. Henry of the same place, went over to Mosquito Creek, Clearfield county, Monday trout fishing.

The Baptist Young People's Union held a social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wilson on third street last Thursday evening. The young people had a delightful time. Refreshments were served.

Five new members will be initiated in Lodge No. 519, B. P. O. E., of Reynoldsville this evening. Several of the new members come from outside towns. A stag social will be held in the Elk rooms after the initiation.

A freight wreck occurred on the Low Grade Division near Beanezette last Friday night. Twenty-four cars were wrecked. No person injured. The west-bound passenger train, due here at 8.23 a. m., did not arrive here until 10.00 a. m. Saturday.

F. A. McConnell expects to receive the blue prints to-day from the architect for the new addition to Frank's Tavern and will then be ready to receive bids for building same. Mr. McConnell expects to begin the new addition about the first of May.

J. N. Garrison, formerly of Brookville, a well known lumberman, died at New Brighton, N. J., Wednesday, April 16, 1902, and was buried in Brookville cemetery Saturday afternoon. Cancer of stomach was cause of death. Mr. Garrison was 63 years old.

W. W. Higgins, sewing machine agent, who came here in January to take charge of Singer Sewing Machine Company's business at this place, spent Sunday with his family at Johnsonburg. Mr. Higgins will move his family to Reynoldsville about the first of May.

The executive committee of the Jefferson County Sunday School Association met in Big Run on Saturday, April 19th, and made out program for the convention to be held in Big Run May 21-22. Programs will be sent all schools. Pastor, superintendent and two delegates expected from each school. Excursion rates over railroads.

Mention was made in THE STAR last week that bit for diamond drill testing for coal on the Tom Reynolds land had been lost in the hole, which suspended the testing operation. The bit was found Thursday morning. W. H. Cummins, the fifth street blacksmith, who is an expert and a genius in his line of business, made the fishing tools to get bit out.

Rev. Page and Rev. Chase, representatives of the Anti-Saloon League, were in Reynoldsville Sunday presenting the aims and object of the Anti-Saloon League to the people. Mr. Chase spoke in the Baptist church Sunday morning and in the M. E. church Sunday evening, and Mr. Page spoke in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. They were both good talkers.

B. R. & P. R. officials, on special train, were in Reynoldsville Monday forenoon. The party was composed of the following persons: President Yates, Vice-President Iselin, General Supt. Merchant, Chief Engineer Flossch and Superintendents Gardner and Johnston of the Middle and Buffalo and Rochester divisions, and L. W. Robinson, general manager of the R. & P. and J. & C. C. & I. Co.

Richard Mitchell, assistant superintendent of the Metropolitan Insurance Company's work in this section, who came to Reynoldsville last September, has been transferred to the Punsxutawney office to take charge of the company's business at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are real pleasant people and during their short sojourn in this place they made many warm friends who are sorry to see them leave Reynoldsville.

In a letter to Prof. G. W. Lenkerd concerning the Howe moving picture entertainment to be given in Assembly hall Monday, May 5th, Mr. Howe says: "We are going to bring a great exhibition. Every picture will be new, including a series showing for the first time in the history of the world moving pictures of thrilling scenes in the Alps, also Miss Alice Roosevelt and Prince Henry christening the emperor's yacht and other pictures of equal merit. We will also present the last part of a program from last time as agreed."

R. D. Beer, who resided in West Reynoldsville a quarter of a century and took an active part in municipal affairs, moved to Homestead this week, that is moved his household goods, as there were no members of family here to move. Mrs. Beer is in California yet, where she spent the winter for benefit of her health, one daughter lives in North Dakota, one son in Nebraska, son and daughter in Chicago, son in Allegheny, and Miss Orpha has not finished her school in Winslow township yet. She will go to Homestead as soon as she closes her school. The family have many friends at this place who are sorry to see them move away.

Tucker-Williams. John Thomas Tucker and Mrs. Jane Williams were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reddick at 8.00 p. m. Thursday, April 17, 1902, by Rev. J. C. McEntire. The wedding was a quiet affair, only immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker have the best wishes of their many friends.

Bishop Fowler's Lecture. Bishop Charles H. Fowler, of Buffalo, N. Y., delivered his lecture on "Abraham Lincoln" at Assembly hall last night before a large audience. The Bishop spoke two hours and twenty-five minutes, in a clear and forcible manner, telling how Lincoln grappled with the intricate affairs of the day and solved them rightly.

After the lecture Bishop Fowler was taken to Falls Creek in a carriage in time to catch the night express on B. R. & P. for Buffalo.

David Bell Dead. David Bell died at his home at Soldier Tuesday morning, April 22, 1902, from asthma. Funeral services at his late residence at 2.00 p. m. to-day, conducted by Rev. Gold, pastor Sykesville Baptist church. Interment will be made at Sykesville. David Bell was born in Scotland May 23, 1840. Had resided in Jefferson county fifteen years. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, having joined Livingstone St. Andrew No. 573, Motherwell, Scotland. He was the father of eight boys and three girls.

Died Suddenly. George E. Brown, a well known insurance agent of Brookville, died suddenly in DuBois yesterday forenoon while looking after some insurance business. Heart trouble, from which he had been suffering for sometime, was cause of death. Mr. Brown was in Philadelphia recently to consult a doctor and he was informed then that he might die any minute and could not live over three years. The body was taken to Brookville on the 5.30 train last evening. Mr. Brown was a director in the First National bank of Reynoldsville. Funeral at 3.00 p. m. Thursday.

Died Sunday Morning. James A. Smith, of Jamestown, N. Y., brother of our townsman, O. F. Smith, died at the home of his niece, Mrs. W. H. Bell, at 4.15 a. m. Sunday, April 20, 1902, after several days' illness with pneumonia. Mr. Smith had been visiting in town since January. Funeral service was held at residence of Mr. Bell at 2.00 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church, and interment was made in Prospect cemetery. Deceased was 62 years old. He is survived by two sons, his wife having died several years ago. Mr. Smith was an old soldier and was a member of the Protective Home Legion.

Hair-Raising Adventure. One night last week a few young men of West Reynoldsville were meandering home through the sombre shadows they were startled to hear what sounded to them like the cry of a wild cat, and to see the wild animal jumping around in the street ahead of them. The young men were wrought up to a high state of excitement and got a little shaky in the knees, one or two of them were ready to skedaddle for home in another direction. Finally the brave ones got up courage enough to make an investigation and they found a domesticated feline with a tin can over its head. The cry of the cat in tin can is what gave it the ferocious sound.

New Postmaster. Ex-Sheriff Edward C. Burns, Reynoldsville's new postmaster, took charge of the office yesterday. Bert Burns, son of postmaster, will be assistant postmaster and Miss Margaret Schultz will be clerk. Miss Schultz was assistant postmaster during President Cleveland's first term, when her father, W. C. Schultz, was postmaster, and she, therefore, is not new at the business, in fact she made an excellent assistant. Mr. Burns expects to devote his entire time and attention to the office and will very likely dispose of his livery business.

Ex-postmaster A. M. Woodward, who owns a good livery stable, has not decided yet whether he will engage in any other business or not. For the present, at least, he will devote his time to the livery business.

Whist Game at Punsxutawney. A team of whist players selected from the Elk lodge went to Punsxutawney Thursday evening and played a team representing the lodge at that place. As the hour was late when play began only 24 deals were played. As a matter of course Reynoldsville won. The score was 62 to 46. The Punsxutawney boys are royal entertainers, jolly good fellows in every way and fairly good whist players, but were so much over-matched that the game was less interesting than if the players had been more equal in the technical knowledge of the game. A return game will soon be played and to make it more equal and interesting only our second and third class players will be pitted against their best. This will, no doubt, make a close game, with probably the chances still a little in favor of Reynoldsville.

Knights of Malta. On Wednesday, April 30th, commencing at two o'clock sharp in the afternoon, Mystic Commandery No. 313, Ancient and Illustrious Order Knights of Malta, will admit a class of fifty-eight Black Knights to the ten higher degrees of the order. Nine degrees will be exemplified by Grand Instructor Sir Geo. H. Pierce in the afternoon, and at the evening session, beginning promptly at eight o'clock, the Appendant Order of the Red Cross and Sepulchre will be conferred by the degree staff. Supreme Generalissimo Sir John Gowland will be present at both sessions. All Sir Knights are urged to be on time at both sessions—notice with particulars having been mailed to each one. The exercises at the council chambers will be followed by a social in Bell's hall and a banquet at Hotel Belnap. The banquet and social will be participated in by the members, their ladies, and invited guests. The ladies and invited guests will assemble at Bell's hall at nine o'clock in the evening, a reception committee will be on hand to receive the guests. Companions can procure banquet tickets from the executive committee at the council chamber during the afternoon session.

Returned from the Southland. Jonathan Deemer, a McCalmont township farmer who went to Ulmers, South Carolina, in January with a dozen or more of other men to work for the Miller Lumber Company, and also for benefit of his health, returned to his home last Saturday. He had excellent health all the time he was away excepting a slight cold he caught while spending a day or two at Charleston, S. C. A few days before Mr. Deemer started for home a party of northerners took an excursion ten miles up the Salkohatchee river in boats and they shot one hundred moecasin snakes, and Mr. Deemer says it was not a good day for snakes. The party was composed of following persons: Adam Miller and daughter, Isaac Pifer and daughter, H. C. Gourley, wife and daughter, Milton Stahlman, J. M. Deemer, J. K. Pifer, David E. Pifer, Isaac Hoffer, Luther Pifer, E. A. Drummond, Scott Syphrit, S. B. Reed, William McCaskey, B. J. Borden, Jonathan Deemer, all of this section, and Mr. Cadway, of Ulmers, S. C.

Died Monday. At 9.45 a. m. Monday, April 21, 1902, Mrs. A. W. Smith died at her home at Grove Summit, this county, after a lingering illness from cancer of the stomach. Funeral at 10.00 a. m. to-day. Mrs. Smith's maiden name was Miss Lizzie Rankin. When ten years old, then an orphan, Lizzie was taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Corbett, who lived in Prescottville at that time. She remained at Mr. Corbett's until she was married. She seemed like one of the family.

Sent to "Pen." Charles C. Buffington, who was arrested last January on charge of forgery and who attempted to break out of jail several weeks ago, was tried in the Jefferson county court last week and was found guilty. Judge Reed sentenced him to three years and six months in the penitentiary.

Prohibition Convention. The Jefferson County Prohibition convention will be held in the I. O. F. E. hall at Falls Creek on Thursday, May 1, 1902, at 2.00 p. m. for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention, to re-organize the county and to transact such other business as may come before the convention. All who are interested in the temperance movement are invited to this convention. S. SHAPPER, Chairman.

Letter List. List of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., week ending April 19, 1902: George Turner, H. T. Lockwood, G. Groves, Esq., Frank Foster, Rev. T. Reynolds, J. Frank O'Hara, Foreign—Giuseppe Eoddeo, Pasilo Pasco. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above. A. M. WOODWARD, P. M.

White goods at Sutter's from 10 cents to 75 cents per yard. Priester Bros. are selling carpet samples below cost. Big bargains. Russell H. Conwell, the noted lecturer, will deliver his popular lecture on "Acres of Diamonds" in the DuBois Baptist church, Tuesday, April 29, 1902, at 8 p. m. Tickets 50 cents. Ladies' dress skirts at Sutter's from $3.00 to $12.00. Call and see them. Guaranteed a fit.

Mother in Israel Gone. Mrs. Robert Stevenson, one of the good mothers of Beechwoods, has gone to her reward, but her good deeds will live after her. Mrs. Stevenson died at her home on Wednesday, April 16, 1902, after a hard but patient battle with consumption. Amidst all her suffering she had implicit faith in the Great King Immanuel, whom she knew would go with her "through the valley and shadow of death." Funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. Stevenson Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. Frank Reber, of Reynoldsville, and Rev. George H. Hill, of Beechwoods. The interment took place in Beechwoods cemetery.

Priscilla Kyle was born August 23, 1842. June 14, 1866, was united in marriage to Robert Stevenson. Into them 7 children were born, three of whom preceded the mother "into that bourne from whence no traveler e'er returns." William F., who lives on farm, Dr. Charles R., of Dolaney, Clarence W. and Miss Mary E., at home. Mrs. Stevenson united with the Presbyterian church at Corsica in 1865, the year before she was married, and in 1866, after her marriage, she transferred her membership to the Beechwoods Presbyterian church. About ten years ago Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson transferred their membership to Reynoldsville Presbyterian church. Mrs. Stevenson was one of those quiet women, with a lovable disposition, who had a kind word for everybody and was ever ready to do a kind act. She will be greatly missed in the home circle.

Missionary Lecture. The illustrated lecture given by the Rev. Howard Campbell Friday evening in the Presbyterian church was well received. Mr. Campbell has been working as a missionary among the Laos people for about seven years. He is located at the Chiang Mission station and has been associated with James and Alex Waite, of this place, since the fall of 1890. He reports that the Waite boys readily acquired the language and are ardent and tireless workers in presenting the claims of the christian religion. A most encouraging feature of the work among that people is their ripeness for the gospel of Jesus Christ. They are not hostile toward the christian missionary, but very friendly. The Buddhist priests frequently grant the missionary the use of their temples when he is making an itinerary, and, then, attend the services. As a result, many of the Buddhist priests are now numbered among the most efficient native ministers who are preaching the saving gospel of God's dear Son.

Free Lectures. Prof. J. M. Buffum, of Philadelphia, will deliver free lectures in the Reynoldsville M. E. church on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week on "Character Building." He will give a "chalk talk" at 4.15 this afternoon in M. E. church for boys and girls. Prof. Buffum was in DuBois all of last week and the DuBois Express of Friday says: "Prof Buffum is certainly creating an interest in the city which has not been equalled by any, if we are to judge by the immense audiences that have greeted him every evening since he began his work. Last evening a large and cultured audience gathered at the Presbyterian church where professor gave his seventh lecture on "Who Foots the Bills?" and he presented an array of facts and statistics that were truly appalling.

Notice to Our Readers. Many of our wide-awake housekeepers will be glad to learn that a New Home Rebate Stamp Association has been organized, consisting of the following enterprising merchants who give the rebates stamps: J. J. Sutter, "New Dry Goods Store," H. W. Eason & Co., Clothing, D. Nolan's Shoe Store, The Bon Ton Bakery, J. H. Baum, Prop'r., C. R. Hall, House Furnishings, E. S. Straw-cutter & Bro., Meat Market, Chas. S. Kirehartz, Bicycles and Sporting Goods, E. A. Jones, Groceries, Mrs. Mary Prindle, Confectionery & Margaret Evans' Racket Store. A collectors stamp book in which to paste the stamps can be had free at any of the above named stores or at headquarters, J. J. Sutter's.—2t.

Died in Hospital. Charles A. Ackerman, of this place, died in the hospital at Rochester, Pa., at 8.00 a. m. Saturday, April 19, 1902. Mr. Ackerman was at Rochester on business and he took ill at the hotel on Friday, April 11. He was taken to the hospital the following Sunday and an operation was performed on him the same day for a rupture. His wife was sent for on Monday and she went to Rochester that evening. In several days it was found that another operation was necessary, and it was performed at 3.00 p. m. Friday, but the second operation was too much for his constitution, and the following morning he closed his eyes in death, his earthly career was ended. Mr. Ackerman was unconscious from midnight Friday until his life ebbed out.

William Copping went to Rochester Saturday afternoon and returned Sunday noon with the young widow and all that was mortal of her husband. Funeral services were held at the residence of Squire Joseph T. Guthrie, uncle of Mrs. Ackerman, at 2.30 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery. Charles A. Ackerman was 33 years old. His parents reside in a suburban town of Boston, Mass. May 14, 1901, Mr. Ackerman and Miss Minnie Kelley were married at residence of Mr. Guthrie in the presence of a large number of invited guests and their prospects seemed bright for a long and happy life, but the ruthless hand of death has robbed Minnie of her companion. Mr. Ackerman was not a member of any lodge and did not carry any life insurance. Mr. Ackerman was a good moral man, having no bad habits, and was very hopeful at all times, and before submitting to second operation he kissed his wife and said: "Good bye, I will soon be at rest."

"David Garrick." A most agreeable surprise was in store for all who attended the monologue entertainment by Willard D. Howe in Assembly hall last Friday evening. Mr. Howe had his audience with him from start to finish. The evening was all too short for the hearers. In "David Garrick" he impersonated eleven different characters, changing from one to the other with a suddenness that was at once surprising and pleasing. The situation portrayed furnished plenty of humor for the mirthful audience. Mr. Howe certainly deserves all the many expressions of praise that have been given him. He is a man of the highest culture and literary attainments, being a graduate of Yale University. He has also been well schooled in the art of expression under the masters of the day. Principal G. W. Lenkerd has engaged him to train the Senior and Junior classes for their commencement and contest work. As announced last Friday evening, Mr. Howe will give another entertainment, entitled "David Copperfield," in the Assembly hall on Monday evening, May 12th. It is certain that all who heard "David Garrick" will want to hear "David Copperfield," and those who failed to attend last Friday night should avail themselves of this opportunity.

School Directors' Association. A meeting of the Jefferson County School Directors' Association will be held on Tuesday, May 6th, at 9.00 a. m., in the court house at Brookville. Following is program for convention: What school apparatus and supplies are necessary that the best results be obtained? Discussed by J. W. Smith, Wm. Bruckey, J. C. Smith, F. E. Dixon and Dr. J. B. Neale. How can greater interest in our schools be aroused and the co-operation of parents secured? Discussed by W. A. London, J. Q. Adams, George A. Shannon, Levi McGregor, D. M. Hindman. Characteristic of a successful teacher. How keep such teachers in the profession? H. H. Brocius, Will H. Tyson, P. A. Hardman, Amos Goss, W. C. Smith. Why establish township high schools? How may it be done? Robert Humphreys, William Stewart, S. T. North, P. A. Hunter, O. O. Anderson. Question box. Geo. W. Porter. JOHN A. NEWCOMB, Pres. S. LEE STEWART, Sec.

Mrs. F. O. Sutter will have a millinery opening Thursday and Friday of this week. Everybody come. Persons wanting picture frames or moulding should remember that G. J. Corwin's big reduction sale only lasts two weeks longer. Better call early and get what you want. We can supply your needs in the paints or window shade line. Any size shade made to order. Stoke. See the colored counterpanes at Sutter's for $1.00 a piece. Something new. Clothcraft. Try our want column; one cent a word. Fashions in carpet change like fashions in clothes, so we want to sell this season's carpets this season. Won't you let us show you some of those beautiful floor coverings. Carpet lined and laid for you. J. R. Hillis.
