

To Bicycle Riders

We wish to say that we have a full stock of tires and everything needed for the wheel, and that we are in shape to do all kinds of repairing. If your "bike" is out of repair, bring it in, we will put it in shape for the summer's riding. Bring your umbrellas, guns, locks and all kinds of light repairing. You can have it done right at Hoffman's Repair Dept.

House Cleaning Time

House cleaning time means wall papering time, and both are here. This is the season of the year when the house can be renovated, cleaned and brightened, to the best advantage and with the best results. Spring decorative ideas are always the prettiest and this year's surpass those of any previous periods. The most decorative line of artistic and practical wall papers is to be found at STOKES' DRUG STORE.

STOKES,

the Drugist's before you place your order. You will be disappointed if you don't.

A Little of Everything.

"Merry Milk Maids." The parochial school will close next week. Alumni banquet at Hotel Imperial at 9.00 p. m. to-morrow. The new gas engine for Sykes' woolen mill arrived Monday. A new foot bridge is being built across Soldier Run on Worth street. The borough has put in 800 feet of a drain up in the section of town known as "Snydertown." The famous O'Leary cow of Chicago will be seen in the production of the "Merry Milk Maids." Dr. A. J. Meek's subject at Baptist church Sunday morning will be: "Standing by the Staff." At the monthly meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday evening $2,200 was sold. H. Alex Stoke is having a new soda fountain put in his drug store. It will be a beauty when it is complete. Rev. S. C. Stover, of Troutville, will preach in the Baptist church at Prescottville at 3.00 p. m. Sunday, May 25. Miss Belle Arnold had a new Upright Grand, walnut case, piano put into her home yesterday. It is a fine instrument. Some interesting matter for the "High School Bulletin" was crowded out of this issue. It will be published next week. Twenty-five young ladies of Reynoldsville will appear before the foot lights in the production of the "Merry Milk Maids." County Commissioner W. C. Murray took Catherine Dougherty, of Prescottville, to the county hospital at Brookville Saturday. In our local notice last week about Dr. H. W. Truitt selling his dental office we should have said Canton, Pa., instead of Dayton. The following new students have been enrolled at the Reynoldsville Business College: George Hughes, Pearl Barrett and Prof. W. E. Kusselman. Arrangements are being made to properly observe Decoration Day at Rathmel. The exercises will be held in the afternoon. A patriotic entertainment will be held in the Rathmel P. O. S. of A. hall in the evening. The Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania, Knights of Malta, was held in Williamsport last week. Among the deputy grand commanders appointed by Grand Commander Jackson, was W. J. Weaver, of Reynoldsville.

The gypsies who were camping in Tom Reynolds' orchard a week, moved to new pastures yesterday. A number of people had their fortunes told by the gypsy women. We received an interesting letter several days ago from John F. Strauss written at Denver, Col., which was crowded out of this issue. We will publish it next week. Clifford L. Kaucher, son of John H. Kaucher, of this place, will graduate from the Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia next Saturday and will have M. D. attached to his name. The Reynoldsville base ball team has been requested to play ball at Clarion on the 9th day of next month, and if satisfactory arrangements can be made our team will play in Clarion on that date. Reynoldsville has a "mothers' club," but it is not stated whether it is composed of childless matrons, or old maids. Possibly it is a genuine article.—Brookville Democrat. Genuine article, Brookville Democrat. Genuine article, Brookville Democrat. Frank Bonner, of Sandy Valley, who goes to Salmon City, Idaho, in a few days to take charge of a Presbyterian mission church, preached in the Presbyterian church at this place last Sunday evening. Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hines, of Jackson street, died at twelve o'clock Sunday night, May 18, 1902. Gertrude was about one year and a half old. Funeral service was held in the Catholic church yesterday forenoon. L. M. Radaker, of Eleanora, and Miss Ella C. Muth, of Desire, were married at the Reformed parsonage at Troutville, Pa., May 13, 1902, by Rev. S. C. Stover. They will go to housekeeping in the near future in a new house near the home of brides' parents. The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church elected the following officers on 14th inst for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. George McIninger; Vice-President, Mrs. S. S. Robinson; Secretary, Mrs. H. Alex Stoke; Treasurer, Mrs. Albert Reynolds. The Reynoldsville Business College is now in the new rooms in the Delbia block, a description of which was given in the STAR several weeks ago. The rooms are delightful. Excellent light, good ventilation, everything convenient. Students could not ask for better rooms. M. J. Farrell and James Orr, of Century Council No. 789, Royal Arcanum, of Reynoldsville, were in DuBois Saturday afternoon to give Mrs. L. S. Hay, widow of Capt. Hay, who died April 9th, 1902, a check for $3,000, the amount of life insurance Captain carried in the Royal Arcanum. The engine hauling the B. R. & P. southbound "flyer" jumped the track near Reynoldsville last Saturday afternoon and ran over the ties about 200 feet before the train was stopped. Not a car of the train left the track. The train was delayed two hours in getting the engine on track. J. H. Hughes, the undertaker, has bought a new white funeral car, which is a fine piece of workmanship, and is up-to-date in every particular. Mr. Hughes bought a new black funeral car last year and can now use either a white or black funeral car, as the occasion may require. R. E. Shannon, formerly of Conneville, is superintendent of the Metropolitan Insurance Company's work at Reynoldsville, taking the place of Richard Mitchell, who was recently transferred to Punxsutawney. The office of this company is in the H. A. Stoke block. Mr. Shannon expects to move to Reynoldsville next month. The first game of base ball of the season was played on the ball grounds Saturday afternoon by home teams, "Tigers" and glassworkers' club. It was a close and interesting game. The score was 6-3 in favor of the "Tigers." "Dub" Sharp and Jim King were the battery for "Tigers" and Jess Brucey and Wm. Limered did the fancy work for the other club. About thirty-five young people attended the reception and banquet given to the senior class of the Reynoldsville high school in Bell's hall last Thursday by the juniors, sub-juniors and pupils of A grade of room 13. It was a real enjoyable affair. The program consisted of "roasts" and toasts from the senior class. The refreshments were good. The I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge and Daughters of Rebekah Assembly are being held in Erie this week. M. E. Weed is a delegate to Grand Lodge from Lodge No. 824, of Reynoldsville, and E. B. Campbell, of Desire, is the delegate from Eleanora Lodge No. 789. Mrs. James Orr is a delegate to the Assembly from Lady Winslow Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, of this place. The Knights of Pythias of Western Pennsylvania will hold a reunion in Punxsutawney on Thursday, June 12. It is expected that 3,000 Knights will be in Punxsutawney that day. Arrangements are being made to run a special train from Rathmel and Reynoldsville, William Copping and J. W. Gillespie were appointed by Reynoldsville lodge to see about a special train. The Rathmel lodge will also appoint a committee.

Death From Consumption. Thomas Connell, an old citizen of Rathmel, died yesterday afternoon, May 20, 1902. Death was caused by consumption. Funeral service will be held in the Catholic church at this place to-morrow morning. Operation for Appendicitis. Tuesday of last week Dr. J. B. Neale took P. McDonald, the well known lumberman of this place, to the German Hospital in Philadelphia to be operated on for appendicitis. The operation was successfully performed at noon Thursday and Mr. McDonald is getting along nicely. "Rattle Snake Jim." "Rattle Snake Jim" Thompson, of Big Soldier, was in town yesterday with a live snake in his pocket, which he had picked up on his way into town. Jim stopped in front of THE STAR office and gave a little exhibition. The snake bit Jim on one hand and on the chin, but Jim was unconcerned about the snake bite, he seemed to enjoy seeing the reptile show its disposition to fight. Jim was kissing the snake when it bit him on the chin. Dunsmore-Kirkpatrick. We received a letter from Alex S. Dunsmore, of Pittsburg, Monday in which he stated that on Wednesday, May 7th, he was married to Miss Daisie S. Kirkpatrick, daughter of Murray T. Kirkpatrick, of Verona. They were married at the home of the bride's brother, Murray M. Kirkpatrick, at 44th street, Pittsburg. They received numerous presents. They have gone to housekeeping at 164 44th street. Alex's numerous friends here wish him and his wife joy and happiness. Don't Steal Flowers. Some persons have been guilty of going to the town cemeteries this year and plucking flowers from bushes that have been planted by loving hands. Several parties have carried the flowers away in baskets. We can hardly think that any person could become contemptible enough to deliberately steal the flowers from cemeteries, but think that it must be done in a spirit of thoughtlessness, for surely, surely, no one is mean enough to take the flowers if they would give it a moments thought. However, a reward has been offered by one man and some person will be arrested if there are any more flowers taken. The law is severe about such things, and so it should be. Nick Moore Dropped Dead. Nick Moore, a coal miner of Rathmel, dropped dead near his home about noon yesterday, May 20, 1902. Mr. Moore had not been feeling well and did not go to work yesterday morning. He was walking in a field near his home and fell over and died. Heart trouble was the cause of his death. Twenty-one years ago he was married to Lillian Epler, daughter of Major Levi Epler, of this place. The deceased is survived by his wife and seven children. Funeral service will be held in the Church of God at Rathmel at 1.00 p. m. Friday. Mr. Moore was a member of the Improved Order of Red Men of Reynoldsville and that order will attend the funeral in a body. The Custom Changed. It has been the custom for many years to hold union services in one of the churches at this place on the Sunday preceding Decoration day, but it has been decided to change the custom and next Sunday the regular Sunday services will be held in all the churches of town, but the memorial service will be held in the M. E. church and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of that church. Next year the service will be held in one of the other churches, and thus it will be conducted each year. This change has been made because one church is not large enough to accommodate the regular church going people and many are compelled to stay at home that day. Of course a cordial invitation is extended to every person who desires to do so to attend the memorial service in the M. E. church next Sunday at 11.00 a. m. Young Life Ended. Lucy McCleery, who would have been fifteen years old the 24th of this month, oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. McCleery, of Prescottville, departed this life at 7.00 a. m. Sunday, May 18, 1902. She was conscious until the last moment and smiled at her father, who put a piece of ice to her lips a minute or two before dissolution took place. Mr. McCleery had been in the West Penn Hospital, Pittsburg, for treatment and returned home Saturday evening and the excitement to Lucy of her father's return hastened the Death Messenger several hours. Consumption was cause of death. For six years Lucy suffered with rheumatism and a little over a year ago consumption began sapping her young life away. She was a patient sufferer. She had a sweet disposition and was loved by all who became acquainted with her. She was born at Wallaceon, Clearfield county, Pa. Her parents moved to Prescottville twelve years ago, where Lucy was raised and well known. Funeral service will be held in the Catholic church at 9.00 a. m. to-day. High Mass will be said by Father Donahue. Interment will be made in Catholic cemetery.

F. P. Elder Died Suddenly. Francis P. Elder, who resided at Panoast for a number of years and was well known in Reynoldsville, died very suddenly at his home in Falls Creek at 3.25 p. m. Monday, May 19, 1902, from neuralgia of the heart. Mr. Elder was only ill a half hour. He was packing his household goods to move to Hillville, Pa., near East Brady, when he took ill. The deceased was born near West Freedom, Pa., 45 years ago the last of this month. October 19, 1857, he was married to Jane Connor who, with one daughter and one son, Mrs. Wavie Keefe, of Hillville, and Emery G. Elder, of Wilson, Pa., near Pittsburg, survive him. The body will be taken to Catfish and buried in the family burying ground near that place to-day. Mr. Elder was a member of I. O. O. F. lodge of this place and Grand Noble J. N. Small went to Falls Creek yesterday morning to see about arrangements for funeral. Mr. Elder and Ed Lewis, of this place, who spend two or three weeks together every fall in the wilds of Elk county hunting, were very warm friends and Mr. Lewis had gone to Falls Creek on the noon train Monday to help Mr. Elder pack his household goods and was present when he died. Miners' Union Holiday. It was stated in THE STAR last week that Saturday, May 17th, had been set apart as a holiday for all members of the U. M. W. of A. and that meetings were to be held at various places in the country to bear the question of "Government by Injunction" discussed. Arrangements were made for the miners of Reynoldsville, Rathmel, Soldier and Sykesville to hold a meeting in Frank's Park at this place. The meeting was advertised for 10.00 a. m., but at that hour there was not a very large crowd in the park and those having charge of affair changed the place of meeting to the K. of L. hall and by the time they got to the hall the crowd was so large that the hall would not accommodate all who wanted to get in. A number of representative citizens attended the meeting. M. M. Davis, Esq., was the speaker of the occasion and he delivered an able address, which was well received and highly appreciated by those present. His speech was plain and to the point. Walking Club. A "Walking club" has been organized in this place. It is composed of young men who are shut up in store or office all day, and the object of the club is proper exercise. They start out at five o'clock in the morning and walk four or five miles before breakfast. The club was only recently organized and some of those who tried the experiment two or three times have concluded that they are not in need of such an early "constitutional" and have quit the club. Those who have been keeping it up find the early rising and fresh morning air very invigorating and also notice a difference on their appetite. It is not likely that the membership in this club will become very large or that the club will be a permanent organization. Gather up the Rubbish. To keep the streets and alleys clean adds greatly to the appearance of a town and the borough "dads" of Reynoldsville propose to encourage just such a thing by hauling away all rubbish every two weeks, providing the people will gather the rubbish in piles. Every second Thursday teams will go through the streets and alleys of the borough and will haul away what rubbish is found piled up. If every family will see to it that the rubbish is gathered up in front of their residence the day before the wagon makes the rounds it will only be a short time until our town will be neat and clean. Will you help? Memorial Services. On Sunday, May 25th, memorial services will be held in the M. E. church at 11.00 a. m. Rev. Perry A. Reno will preach the sermon. The G. A. R., W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans will meet at 10.00 a. m. in Bell's hall. The Post extends an invitation to all old soldiers to meet with them at this time. COM. The Herald received a calendar of the Commencement Exercises of the Reynoldsville High Schools. Reynoldsville has the reputation of having the best schools of any of the towns of the surrounding country. Prof. Lenkerd, who is principal of the schools, is a successful instructor and is deserving of much credit for the success he has made of them.—Falls Creek Herald. Men's enameled shoes at D. Nolan's shoe store for $2.50, formerly sold for $3.00 and $3.50. Did you see those dress skirts at Sutters? Coming soon the "Merry Milk Maids." DECISION OF THE ARBITRATORS Textile Workers Wage Scale Finally Adjusted by a Committee Representing Employees and Employers. PATERSON, N. J., April 29, 1902. To Local Union No. 250. GENTLEMEN:—The undersigned, constituting the Board of Arbitration appointed under and by virtue of an agreement entered into between your union and the Enterprise Silk Company, dated Reynoldsville, Pa., February 5th, 1902, and under which the said board was authorized and empowered to inquire and adjust the pending dispute over the rates of wages paid by the said firm, beg to inform you that the board has held a number of sessions at which the matter in dispute has been fully investigated and carefully considered in the light of such facts as were available to the board, and with due regard to the interests of both parties to the controversy, respectfully submit the following from the record of the final session of the board, as the result of our labors: Weavers—Present rate to stand. Winders (not learners)—Advanced to $3.75 per week. Quillers (not learners)—Advanced to $3.75 per week. Pickers (not learners)—Advanced to $3.75 per week. Warpers—Present rate to stand. Twisters—$12 per week; lower grade twisters advanced 10 per cent. The foregoing rates to take effect as per section 2 of the said "agreement." With best wishes, we are, Respectfully, etc., J. A. CRAIG, Chairman. THOMAS A. ROBINSON, Arbitrator for the Company. DANIEL TREVAN, Arbitrator for the Employees. A Bold Trick. A young fellow who had been working at the silk mill since last fall quit work Thursday and left here Friday, but before leaving he made a bold attempt to steal a suit of clothes from McClelland, clothier. Thursday evening the young fellow stepped into McClelland's to get a suit. He found something that pleased him and asked Mr. Bell to let him take coat and pants to boarding house that he might try on the pants and also let his chums see the coat, promising to return the suit Friday morning. As the fellow had failed to mention the fact that he had quit work at silk mill, he was allowed to take the clothing home with him. Sometime Friday forenoon Mr. Bell learned that four young men from silk mill, including the one who had taken the suit with him and had not returned it Friday morning, were to leave town at noon that day. Mr. Bell got after the fellow and found that he had already taken his baggage from boarding house on Fifth street to Ross House and the suit of clothes was nicely packed with the fellow's other clothing. When he found that he had been caught in his contemptible attempt to get a suit of clothes without paying for it, he broke down and cried and begged Mr. Bell not to have him arrested. He unpacked his dressing case and returned the suit. Decoration Day. All the Sunday schools and patriot orders of the town are invited to participate in the services of the day. The parade will form on Main street at 9.00 a. m. and March to Benah cemetery, where the usual memorial services will be held. The parade will be formed in three divisions. The first division will be composed of the Sunday schools and will be commanded by Frank J. Black; second division, Patriotic Orders, commanded by R. C. Wilson; third division, Sons of Veterans, Woman's Relief Corps and Grand Army Post, commanded by George W. Stoke, Jr. A special memorial service is being planned for Friday, May 30, at 8.00 p. m. in the M. E. church. Further announcement of this meeting will be made next week. JOS. SHAFER, Chief Marshal. Graduating Exercises. The high school graduating exercises will be held in Assembly hall this evening. Following is the program: Invocation, Rev. Perry A. Reno Solo, Mr. Ernest Gamble Piano Solo, Mr. Edwin Shoner Graduating Address, Dr. Geo. Edward Reed, President Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa. Solo, Mr. Ernest Gamble Presentation of Diplomas by Rev. W. F. Reber, on behalf of the Board of Directors. Solo, Mr. Ernest Gamble A Polisher and Australian, of Skunk Hollow, had an assault and battery case before Squire E. Neff Monday. The case was settled. C. S. Kirchartz is solo agent in Reynoldsville for cut flowers from D. B. Clark, florist, DuBois. JUNIOR ELOCUTIONARY CONTEST. Miss Margaret Stoke Awarded the Gold Medal and Thomas Nolan the Book. Fine Singing by Ernest Gamble. A large audience attended the sixth annual junior elocutionary contest in Assembly hall last evening. It was a well prepared class and the judges had no easy task to perform in deciding to whom they should award first and second prizes. All the contestants are certainly deserving of great praise for the manner in which they entered into the spirit of the contest and for the easy and graceful style manifested in the delivery of their selections. Rev. Dodds was not trying to "taffy" the class or audience when he spoke in such complimentary terms of the fine work performed by the contestants. All in all it was an excellent entertainment, one that any town would have just cause to be proud of, and it was certainly highly appreciated by the audience present. The contestants deserve the congratulations given unto them. The names of the contestants and their subjects are as follows: "Sunshine Johnson".....Golda King "Bobbie Shaftoe".....Vila Aley "Old Malt".....Margie Stoke "Guns".....Nulu Neale "The Light with the Arrow".....Thomas Nolan "How Christmas came to Grappy Shute".....Jay McGaw "The Scolding of Perce Boek".....Edward Hardman "Eva's Visit to the Ogre".....Lena Black "The Judges were Rev. H. G. Dodds, of Brookville, and Prof. A. L. Subris, of St. Marys. Rev. Dodds presented the prizes. He spoke very highly of the work done by the class and of the difficult task that had fallen to the judges to perform. He impressed on the audience the fact that while the decision they rendered might not meet the approval of all, yet they were honest in their decision. Miss Margaret Stoke was given first prize, a gold medal, and Thomas Nolan second prize, a book. Ernest Gamble, the noted basso, appeared before a Reynoldsville audience in Assembly hall last night for the third time and his singing called forth as much enthusiastic applause as it did the first time he sang in Reynoldsville. His deep, tuneful and finely modulated voice charms his hearers. He will sing at Assembly hall to-night. Edwin Shoner, the pianist, who accompanies Mr. Gamble, is a fine musician. Reynoldsville Business College. To the complete course in mercantile business taught in Reynoldsville Business College, a course in manufacturing has been added in which the voucher system of accounts is used. This set illustrates a system of accounts as used by one of the largest steel works in the United States and for completeness is not excelled by any in use. A course in national banking is another new feature added. These two courses have been selected from many on account of the high merit of each. The VanSant touch system of typewriting is used in the Reynoldsville Business College with great success. This is a wide departure from the old system of typewriting as taught in the past. Students using this system do not have to watch the keyboard as they are taught the location of the different keys untirely by touch, thus enabling them to acquire great speed and accuracy in their writing. The Reynoldsville Business College is the only school in this section in which this system is used. The object of this institution is to give the students the best of everything in the educational line regardless of expense. The Reynoldsville Business College will remain in session throughout the summer. This is absolutely necessary on account of the large number of students enrolled. Upon request special classes have been arranged for pupils from the public schools at this place for the summer months. A special course in which bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting and the common branches will be taught will commence Monday, May 26th. Letter List. List of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., week ending May 17, 1902: Mrs. Mary Eschner, Miss Marie De Haven, Mrs. Nora Bennett, Francis Lefcort, Esq., J. J. Morgan Esq., James Tompkins, Frank Sample. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above. E. C. BURNS, P. M. Card of Thanks. We take this method of expressing our heartfelt thanks to the members of Knights of Pythias and friends and neighbors for their kind assistance during the sickness and death of our husband and father.
