DO YOU WANT YOUR TIRE SET RIGHT?

L. M. Snyder's Shop, on Jackson St., near 5th, Reynoldsville.

It does it's work absolutely right— no guess work about it. All four wheels can be dished exactly the same to a hair line and we don't take the wheels off the

We would respectfully call your attention to the above machine. It certainly fills a long feit want in regard to tire setting. Bring the buggy or back and have the tire set. If you don't say it does its work better than the old fushioned way YOU WILL HAVE NOTHING TO PAY. This machine and the EXCLUSIVE RIGHT OF TERRITORY (which includes Reynoldsville and a radius of seven miles) cost us a large sum of money and was purchased only after one of the manufacturers brought the machine here to my shop and we operated on a large number of wheels in the presence of mechanics, liverymen and others oest competent to judge on the setting. They all PR/NOUNCED THE MACHINE PERFECT and the only reliable method of setting the right. No splitting of rims by driving the bolts out and in again or knocking threo of of wheel. The wheels on your buggy are like the feet on your borse—if spoiled, the balance is of little account. It will pay you to have it done right. N. B.—We also do FIRST CLASS HORSE SHOEING AND REPAIRING OF ALL KINDS. And carry in stock a fine line of Buggies, liacks and Delivery Wagons, wheels, tops, cushins, dashes, shafts, otc., and we usually have a few second hand jobs in good order for sale cheep.

We, the following liverymen, have witnessed the SCHAU COLD SET TIRE SETTER operated by L. M. Snyder and it certainly DOES ITS WORK PERFECTLY and we consider it the only method of setting tire right.

AND TWO HUNDRED ABODE BY THE STUFF (1st Samuel XXV Chapter, 13th Verse.)

BY "UNCLE WILLIAM." Suggested by Rev. A. J. Meek's sermon from the above text on Sunday, May 25, 1902. When this text was announced very odd did;

It sound,
Yet it fitted in place like a muff,
And we listened intent to the Pastor expound
That "Two hundred abode by the Stuff." It carried us back to the days long ago When David would brook no rebuff, But wherever he led there would Israel go And ever "Abide by the Stuff."

Then we thought it was potent in every-day life. TWhen caught in despondency's slough This text would apply though trouble be rife If we but "Abide by the Stuff."

In the great Civil war when the call was to arm. Knowing well that the life would be rough. Brave thousands responded from village and farm And nobly "Abode by the Stuff."

In all walks of life whether pensant or prince
If we're courteous and pleasant, not rough
Success will attend us and fully convince
That we all have "Attode by the Stuff."

If a christian be zealous, be honest and true, Your religion don't use as a bluff. Be faithful, the master will carry you through If you but "Abide by the Stuff.",

Don't try with religion to cover your sins. Don't stoop to deceive with such guff, A wolf in sheep's clothing, in life never wins For they never "Abode by the Stuff." When admonished or counseled, to set you aright,
Be patient, don't get in a buff,
Bemember all darkness will merge into light
If you only "Abide by the Stuff."

When tempted and tried and with sorrow cast down,

And the pathway seems tollsome and rough seek to emulate Pavid of Scriptural time When "Two hundred abode by the Stuff."

Then when trials are over and death lays And the Master has said ""Tis enough," Come higher, your mission has ended below, Ye have nobly "Abode by the Stuff."
