Whist's Players Opinion.

It would appear from the evidence thus far that the Whist Clubs of Punxsutawney and Reynoldsville should change their names to the "Amosias Club," as they are certainly very artistic and painstaking liars. If they can't play whist.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

If the above were true Hon. W. O. Smith should be elected unanimously as a past master of the art. He could give their most graceful and prolific liars all kinds of pointers. Where they are feeble beginners it is well known Mr. Smith graduated with honors years ago and has been steadily improving ever since until now he has no peer in that line. All the lying that has been done so far has been done by the editor of the Spirit and others not residents of Reynoldsville. The facts in the case are that Reynoldsville beat Punxsutawney playing whist. Beat them bad and beat them twice, beat them hard and beat them thrice. Our players don't need to lie. They play with their heads and hands and not with their mouths or pen. They wouldn't lie if they could, and couldn't lie if they would. Figures won't lie and the Reynoldsville players have that side of the argument, which is conclusive. WHIST PLAYER.

Theatrical Performance Under Canvas.

The C. W. Parks Big Stock Co. will arrive from Brookville Sunday afternoon. There are about 40 members to the troupe. The company is made up of the very best actors that Mr. Parks could procure and the most of them have played in the leading theatres of the country. The fact of the matter is that Mr. Parks has this year made a rather venturesome experiment. In brief, it is the giving of first class productions in a first class manner under a tent. To do this requires considerable outlay and if the amount that Mr. Parks has invested in this enterprise were named it would astonish the readers of this paper. Those who visit the performances will find a company of the best actors in the land rendering the standard productions upon a real theatre stage with all the scenic effects and accompaniments that one sees in the big city houses. The only difference will be that the roof and walls are of canvas instead of brick and plaster. It requires two large cars to haul the paraphernalia and a baggage car for the 50 big trunks containing the wardrobes. He spares no expense, which is evidenced by the fact it required an outlay of $500.00 to secure merely the costumes worn in "The Three Musketeers." At the Reynoldsville ball grounds opening Monday, June 16th, when ladies will be admitted to the big tent for 10 cents. Don't forget the date. Popular prices, 10 and 20 cents.

Saved From An Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambersburg, Pa. "I was so low after six months severe sickness, caused by Hay Fever and Asthma, that few thought I could get well, but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, used it, and was completely cured." For desperate Throat and Lung Diseases it is the safest cure in the world, and is infallible for Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Affections. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at H. Alex Stoke's drug store.

Mr. L. G. Dibble, who has been in town this week advertising Grain-O and Jell-O, called at this office before he left and presented the editor with a package each of lemon, orange, raspberry and strawberry Jell-O. We found that Jell-O is a delicious gelatine desert preparation, already sweetened and flavored, and prepared for the table by simply pouring boiling water over it. As the price is but 10 cents a package, it seems that all might enjoy this luxury, as every first class grocer sells it.

THIRD SEMI-ANNUAL MUSLIN UNDERWEAR, SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES, AND WHITE GOODS SALE,

From Friday, June 20th, to Thursday, June 26th.

It is needless to emphasize the fact that this is not a sale of the accumulation of odd sizes and unusual styles from the stock of the past season. But for the benefit of any one who may never have had an opportunity to secure these goods at this price, we want to say that every garment is fresh from the Defender Manufacturer—the best Underwear factory in the land. The Sheets and Pillow Cases manufactured by the Defender people also are widely known from the clean material from which they are made and for the skill of the workmen in preparing them for use. We are receiving this week a new shipment of White Goods for which the season is just now making such a demand.

This, then, is not a sale of left overs, but is of fresh and clean seasonable goods at such prices that can't be met in any other way or by any competitor. The Defender Muslin Underwear and Defender Sheets and Pillow Cases have won for themselves such a reputation that we need not further recommended them than to say that these are
