House Cleaning Time

House cleaning time means wall papering time, and both are here. This is the season of the year when the house can be renovated, cleaned and brightened, to the best advantage and with the best results. Spring decorative ideas are always the prettiest and this year's surpass those of any previous periods. The most decorative line of artistic and practical wall papers is to be found at STOKE'S DRUGSTORE. He handles the famous Pitts-burg paper, and handles it exclusively. No other store in this city has it, and no other No other store in store has a line approaching it in beauty of both color and de-Then, prices are an addsign. Then, prices are an add-ed inducement. Dean, Edward McCreight, John W. Kellock, Mrs. S. B. Saxton, Mrs. G. W. Shaffer, Mrs. Dr. John C. Sayers and Mis-Bertha Copping.

Visited Old Friends.

Joseph Wilt and daughter, Mrs. W S. Wisnor, of York, Pa., who resided on Pleasant avenue a number of years ago, were in Reynoldsville several days the past week visiting old time friends. After Mr. Wilt's wife died he spent four years in Paradise, making his home with William and John Dougherty. Ten years ago he went to Arkansas and and after remaining there sometime be traveled toward the Pacific coast and finally anchored at Olympia, Washington State, near Puget Sound. In April of this year he came to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wisnor, at York, Pa., where he expects to stay to remain permanently. Although Mr. Wilt has been suffering with stomach trouble for sometime, yet he don't look a day older than he did ten years ago.

Knights of Pythias Reumon.

The Knights of Pythias of Western Pennsylvania will hold a reunion at Punxsutawney to-morrow, Thursday, June 12th. A special excursion train will be run from Rathmel and Reynoldsville. Train will leave Rathmel at 6.10 a. m. and Reynoldsville at 6.15 a. m. Train will return to Reynoldsville and Rathmel that night, leaving Punxsutawney at 11.00 p. m. Fare for round trip $1.00. Prominent members of the K. of P. will attend this reunion, which promises to be the best reunion ever held by the Knights of Pythias. A large crowd will go from Rathmel and Reynoldsville.

Inspected Sidewalks.

Dr. Harry B. King and Walter D. Williams, councilmen, were meandering around town last week inspecting sidewalks and they found a large number of sidewalks that need repairing, and the persons owning property where sidewalks are defective have been, or will be, notified to repair same. If they don't do so council will see that the walks are repaired and property owners will have to pay more for the work than they would do if they have the work done themselves.

On Their Wedding Trip.

Mention was made in THE STAR last week of the marriage of Ira Bowser, son of Dr. A. H. Bowser, and Miss Laura Wheeler, daughter of David Wheeler, which occurred at the Wheeler residence on Hill street at high noon June 4, 1902. The connubial ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Frank Reber. pastor of the Presbyterian church. It was a very pretty home wedding, a ring ceremony. The bride was dressed in white silk and the groom wore black. Thirty-three relatives of the contracting parties were present. After hearty congratulations the guests sat down to sumptuous and unusually fine wedding dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Bowser received a number of valuable, handsome and useful presents. All arrangements had been made for the young couple to leave here on the 1.32 p. m. "flyer" on the P. R. R. to spend their honeymoon at Kittanning, Ford City and Pittsburg, but a tele phone message Wednesday morning ansouncing the death of Burl Booth, cousin of groom, changed their plans and they remained in Reynoldsville to attend the funeral, which took place Friday afternoon. Mr. Bowser and wife left here on the 5.30 p. m. train Friday on their wedding trip. It is not known yet positively whether they will remain in Pittsburg, where Mr. Bowser has a good position offered him, or return to Reynoldsville. It is very likely that they will return to this place.

Death From Blood Poisoning. Just as we were going to press last Wednesday morning a telephone mes age was received at this place that Burleston C. Booth, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Booth, of Wilkinsburg, had died that morning at the home of his parents. His death was caused by blood poisoning. Burl was a machinist and injured his hand while working with copper brass. He suffered a few days from blood poison and then got able to go to work again, but only worked a few days when blood poison developed in his throat and soon ended his earthly career. The body was brought to the home of Rev. and Mrs. Jacob Booth, grandparents of de ceased, in this place Thursday eve ning, June 5, 1902. Funeral services were held at residence of grandparents Friday afternoon conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of Baptist church, and interment was made in Baptist cemetery. Burl was born at Limestone, Clarlon county, Pa., June 15, 1882, and would have been 20 years old the 15th of this month. Mr. and Mrs. Booth, who are well known in this place, and have many friends here. have the sympathy of their friends in

LOST MAN FOUND. Daniel Bowlby, Who Caused His Friends

Some Uneasiness Last Week, Returned Home Thursday. Mention was made in THE STAR last week that Daniel Bowlby, an employee at tannery in West Reynoldsville, had mysteriously disappeared Tuesday afternoon and up to the hour of going to press Wednesday forenoon his friends could get no trace of him. Wednesday evening a message was received from Driftwood that Mr. Bowlby was there. Thursday morning Wilson Barry and John Anderson, brother-in-laws of Bowlby, went to Driftwood and Mr. Bowlby returned home with them Thursday afternoon. Mr. Bowlby has been in poor health for some time and his nervous system was run down. A change was made recently in the liquor department at tannery, which he had charge of, and in his nervous condition the new system worried him and in a temporary suspension of the controll of his mental powers he left his work and wandered away from home. He walked to Driftwood, arriving there Wednesday evening. He was rational when he got there, but didn't know where he was. When informed that he was in Driftwood he inquired if there was any person there from Reynoldsville. Frank Caldwell, of West Reynoldsvile, brakeman on Low Grade Div., who is well acquainted with Mr. Bowlby, was in Bowlby something to eat and a bed for the night. Mr. Bowlby had nothing to eat from Tuesday noon until Wednesday evening. Mr. Bowlby went to Straudsburg, Pa., Monday evening to spend a month visiting relatives and recuperating his health before taking up his work again at the tannery.

Officers Installed.

Last evening Mrs. Annie Winslow, District Deputy, installed new officers in Lady Winslow Rebekah Lodge, No. 205, I. O. O. F., of Reynoldsville. After the installation refreshments were served, consisting of two kinds of ice cream, two kinds of cake and coffee, and a social time was enjoyed. Following is list of officers installed: Noble Grand. Mrs. Mabel Ridgeway; Vice Grand, Mrs. Mary Herald; Secretary, Mrs. Margaret Moore; Treasurer, Mrs. Ella Evans: Warden, Mrs. Alice McConnell: Conductor, Mrs. Emma Burgeson; Chaplain, Mrs. Edith Phillippi; In. G. Mrs. Lovie Austin ; Out. G., Mrs. Maggle Orr: R. S. N. G., S. G. Austin : L. S. N. G., M. E. Ridgeway; R. S. V. G., Mrs. Mary Lidle ; L. S. V. G., Mrs. Jennie Womeldorf; R. S. S., Mrs. Jennie Barclay ; L. S. S., Mrs. Carrie Herpel.

Uncle Tom's Cabin. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was played under canvas on the ball grounds at Reynoldsville last evening by a company that is traveling over the country in wagons. The attendence was large and it is said the show was fair. THE STAR did not have a representative there and cannot assert positively to the qualifications of the show. The company went to Rathmel this morning, where the show will be given this evening.
