Hands Burned With Gasoline,

Miss Sidney Wilson, dressmaker, had her hands and wrists badly burned last Wednesday evening. She had cleaned a pair of gloves with gasoline and being in a hurry to dry the gloves, which were long gloves that lace, she put them on her hands and then struck a match to light the gas in stove to dry gloves. As soon as the match was struck the gloves caught fire and Miss Wilson could not get the gloves off until her hands and wrists were badly burned.

Children's Day Exercises.

The Baptist church was too small to secommodate the large crowd that attended the Children's Day exercises in that church Sunday evening. The exercises were excellent and the decorations were unusually fine. The decorating committee deserves credit for their work. A unique part of the decorations was a bank of ferns and flowers on altar with a fountain playing in the center. The program and decorations were evidence that considerable labor had been spent on preparing for the exercises.

Name of Hotel Changed.

W. W. Wiley, new proprietor of Hotel Belnap, has changed the name of that hotel and hereafter it will be called The City Hotel. Mr. Wiley has made some improvements on interior of hotel and painters are now at work on the exterior of the building. A large porch has been built in front of hotel and when the work is all completed there will be such a change in the appearance of the hotel that the traveling public will hardly recognize The City Hotel as the old Belnap Hotel.

PARK'S BIG STOCK CO.

Will Give a Show Every Evening this Week on Ball Grounds.

Monday evening of this week C. W. Park's Big Stock Company, the largest reportoire company traveling under canvas, played "The Three Musketeers" in the big tent on the ball ground at this place. The tent was packed and a number of the people were unable to get in and had to return home. There were 2,250 people in the tent, not counting any that may have gotten into show without tickets. Last night the company played "Blue and Gray." The program for balance of week is as follows: This afternoon matinee, "East Lynn," this evening, "Rip Van Winkle;" Thursday evening, "Shadows of a Great City;" Friday evening, "Camille;" Saturday afternoon matinee, "Farmer's Daughter," and Saturday evening, 'Notre Dame.'

There are forty members in the troupe. The company is giving firstclass productions in a first-class manner, and as the price is only 20 cents for adults and 10 cents for children there is no doubt but that a large audience will be present each evening this week.

High Noon Wedding.

At high noon to-day, Wednesday, June 18, 1902, Miss Etta Belle Sykes and J. Madison McCreight will be married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sykes, on Jackson street. Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Reynoldsville Baptist church, will perform the wedding ceremony in presence of about fifty invited guests. Miss Lulu Sykes, sister of the bride, will play the wedding march. The bride will be dressed in white organds, trimmed in point lace. The house will be beautifully decorated with cut flowers, potted plants and ferns. An excellent wedding dinner will be served. Guests will be present from Allegheny City, Pittsburg, Oakmont and other places. Mr. and Mrs. McCreight will leave on the 2.15 train this afternoon over the B., R. & P. on a wedding trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Lake Chautauqua.

Miss Etta Sykes, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sykes, prominent citizens of Reynoldsville, is a fine young lady who has many friends in town. Mr. McCreight is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCreight, one of the most highly respected families of Paradise, and is an excellent young man. The young couple will have the best wishes of their numerous friends for a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Ten Teachers Elected.

The school board of this borough held a meeting last Friday evening to elect a principal, assistant principal and eleven teachers. There was a deadlock on principalship and for room No. , taught by Miss Minnie Whitmore last term, who is not an applicant for the coming term. All the other teachers of last term were re-elected, as follows: Prof. F. T. McClure, assistant principal, Margaret Dailey, Julia Kirk, Anna Kunes, Lula Black, Margaret Butler, Nellie Dougherty, Susle Schultze, Mary Patton, Ollie Ross, Myrtle Geist.

June 23rd the board will hold another meeting to vote for principal and for a teacher for room No. 9.

The principal topic for discussion luring the last few days has been the principalship of the public schools.

Magill-McClarren.

Joseph Magill, a farmer from near Baxter, Jefferson county, and Miss Ella McClarren were married at high noon on Wednesday, June 11, 1902, at residence of Ex-county Commissioner A. W. Mullhollan at Rathmel in the presence of a few immediate relatives and friends of contracting parties. Rev J. T. Adams, pastor of the Brookville United Presbyterian church, performed the wedding ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Magill have gone to housekeeping near Baxter.

Church Wedding this Morning,

At eight o'clock this morning Miss Anna McKernan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKernan, of West Reynoldsville, and Albert J. Worden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Worden, of Hopkins, were married in the Catholic church. The High Mass nuptial ceremony was performed by Father Brady. Miss Margaret McKernan, sister of bride, was bridesmaid, and Leo Worden, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride was dressed in white mouselline de sole. Only immediate relatives were invited, but a number of friends assembled at the church to wit ness the wedding ceremony. An excellent wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Worden received a bed room suit, rocking chairs, silverware and other useful presents before their wedding day, and have rooms fitted up on second floor of the Stoke block in West Reynoldsville, where they will go to housekeeping to-day. This couple are both well known, have many friends and are excellent young people. They will have the best wishes of their numerous friends for a prosperous and happy journey down life's pathway together.

Electric Railway Visitors.

Senator J. K. Newell, Gen. J. A. Hill, E. F. Kizer, of Towards, Pa., J. B. Phalin and G. W. Kipp, of Punxsutawney, members of the company that propose extending the street car line rom Eleanora to Reynoldsville, were in town last Friday. We did not have the pleasure of interviewing these gentlemen while they were in town, but have been reliably informed that they will extend their line Reynoldsville if they secure the fsanchise.

T. L. Snyder, of Clearfield, a repre sentative of the New York capitalists who asked the town council of Revn oldsville at the meeting in May for franchise to build a trolly line through this borough, was in town yesterday looking after some matters concerning the proposed trolly line to Eleanora Mr. Snyder says the company he represents is ready to build a trolly line to Rathmel, Soldier, Sykesville, Eleanora and Wishaw if granted a franchise in this borough.

CUPID WINS AGAIN.

Mr. Frank J. Black and Miss Katherine O'Donnel Married Last Evening.

One of the most brilliant weddings that has taken place in Bradford, Pa. for some time, occurred in Saint Bernard's Church at that place at five o'clock last evening, Tuesday, June 17, 1902, when Mr. Francis Jerome Black, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Katherine Isabel O'Donnel, of Bradford, become man and wife. A large number of invited friends and relatives were present to witness the beautiful wedding ceremony. The bride was dressed handsomely. Dr. Harry B. King, of Reynoldsville, attended to the duties of best man and Miss Jean Shenkel, of Bradford, was bridesmaid. E. Will Black, of Pittsburg, brother of groom, A. H. Fasenmyer, shoe merchant New Bothlehem, James Matthews and Will Flatherty, of Bradford, men were ushers. Immediately after the wedding a reception was held at home of the bride's parents at No. 40 Walker Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Black left Bradford on a late train last evening for Buffalo, N. Y., and from there will go to Philadelphia, New York City and Atlantic City on a ten-day wedding trip. They will reside at The Mansion in this place, and vill be at home to their friends after the first of July.

Mrs. Black is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Donnel, formerly of New Bethlehem, and is one of Bradford's fine young ladies. Those personally acquainted with the young lady speak in the highest praise of her. She was prominent in social circles in Brad. ford.

Mr. Black is so well known in Reynoldsville that comment from us seems almost superfluous. We have known him for many years and know him to e a bright and genial young man with a large, kind heart. Our intimate acquaintance with him began when be vas editor of The Paper, the only paper published in Reynoldsville at that time. and ye editor was foreman. Mr. Black is such an able writer that he would have gained fame in the journalistic field had he remained at that line of work. He quit the newspaper business and finally become proprietor of Hotel McConnell, one of our leading hotels which was destroyed by fire last October. The first of this year Mr. Black took charge of The Manslon and is now proprietor of that hostelry. There are few young men that have more warm friends than Frank Black.

Government Appointment.

Prof. H. J. Hughes, familiarly known s "Dick" Hughes, who started the Reynoldsville Business College a few months ago and now has it on a good footing, has been given a government position as United States Gauger at a good salary. Over a year ago Mr. Hughes passed the civil service examination for gauger, but did not get the appointment until recently and he has decided to accept. However, this does not mean that the Reynoldsville Business College is to be closed. A man well qualified to conduct the school will be here in a few days to buy the college from Mr. Hughes. While we are sorry to see Mr. Hughes, who has so much push and energy, severe his connection with the Business College, yet we are pleased to note that he has secured a tent gentleman will take charge of the college.

A Strong Candidate,

W. O. Smith, editor of the Punxsu awney Spirit, is a candidate for con gress on the Republican ticket. The district is now composed of the countles of Jefferson, Indiana, Armstrong and Clarion, the three first named being strongly Republican. Consequently the nomination is desired by others as well as Smith but it appears that he has the inside track. Two years ago when he was a candidate his strength caused a deadlock that lasted many days in the conferees' convention but the other ellow was nominated .- DuBois Express.

REYNOLDSVILLE'S CELEBRATION Greatest Event of the Year-Eclipsing all

The Fourth of July celebration at Reynoldsville this year will be under the auspices of Phil Kearney Camp, No. 36, Sons of Veterans, and arrangements are being made for a big time.

The committee have had large colored posters printed announcing that the celebration at Reynoldsville will be the greatest event of the year, eclipsing all former events. A blaze of glory, fire works, music, base ball, races, speeches, dancing, &c. The festivities will commence with a street parade of civic and military societies, &c. From early morn, with the cannon's first roar until the last rocket is fired at night, there will be one continuous round of pleasure. The best bands have been engaged and will discourse sweet music on the streets. The fireworks will simply astonish all. The committee has contracted for one of the grandest displays of fireworks ever witnessed Eloquent orators will deliver stirring speeches of patriotic and historic char-

Democratic Ticket Nominated.

The Democrats of Jefferson county held their primary election Saturday afternoon and the county convention Monday afternoon. In some precincts there was no primaries held. There was a good attendance at the convention in Brookville. H. H. Brosius was elected chairman of convention, with A. J. Postlewait, of Reynoldsville, G. A. Blose, of Perry township, and H. M. Hindman, of Union township, as secretaries. A. C. Smith was elected chairman. The following ticket was nominated:

Congress, W. L. McCracken, of Brook ville. Sheriff, Terry Gleason, of Washington township. Assembly, Sam'l States, of Bell township. Register and Recorder, Elmer E.

Beck, of Punxsutawney. County Commissioners, Al. Hawk, of Brookville, and Perry L. Wingert, of South Young township.

THOS. TAPPER.

It is not generally known that the Treasurer's sales which were held at the court house Monday, June 9, 1902, will be the last, the legislation under which these sales have been conducted in the past having been suspended by the Act of Assembly of 1901. Under the law as it now stands, where the owner of the land fails to pay his taxes. the County Commissioners simply file a claim in the Prothonotary's office, which thereupon becomes a lien upon the land. An execution may then be issued and the land levied upon and sold by the sheriff. Owners of real estate will save considerable money in costs by paying their taxes promptly in the future.-Punxsutawney News.
