A NOVEL SCHEME FOR THE BETTER VENTILATION OF COAL MINES.

Hugh Haggerty has Invented a Device for Getting Air and Food to Entombed Miners.

Hugh Haggerty, of Lindsey, visited the family of his brother, Thomas Haggerty, in this place several days the past week and was a caller at THE STAR office yesterday forenoon. Mr. Haggerty spent thirty years of his life in and about the coal mines as miner, foreman, fire boss, &c., and is well posted in mine work. He has gotten up a plan in shape of a tube for better ventilation in mines and to save life in case of men being entombed in the mines, which frequently occurs in various parts of the country. If Mr. Haggerty's plan is put in use, men can be communicated with in case of entombment and food can be sent to them through the tube, which can be run into every part of a mine where cars are lifted or left. Mr. Haggerty recently returned from a trip through the Connellsville and other coal regions and he has presented and explained his plan of better ventilation, &c., to a number of mine superintendents and mining engineers and they all speak very highly of it. Mr. Haggerty hopes to get his plan introduced into some of the mines in Pennsylvania soon.

Fire at Falls Creek.

Early Friday morning Falls Creek was visited with a $30,000 fire. Hotel LaMontagne was one of the buildings destroyed. The DuBois Courier says the losses were divided up as follows: Gilbert LaMontagne, hotel building, $15,000, insurance about $8,000; H. S. Emery, proprietor of the hotel, furniture and stock, $8,500, insurance $2,500; Mrs. Hindman, of DuBois, dwelling house, $2,000, fully insured; John Hicks, farmer of Warsaw township, Jefferson county, $1,500, no insurance; John Draper and Harvey Pastorius, occupants of Mrs. Hindman's house, furniture and other effects, $1,000, no insurance. Added to these are the smaller losses of the fifty or sixty guests of the hotel who succeeded in saving very little of their belongings, some of them escaping in the apparel they wore at the time they were aroused from their slumbers.

Rathmel.

Joseph Painter and family visited at Falls Creek Sunday.
Mrs. Wyse visited at Eleanora and DeLaney last week.
Miss Mary Smith, of DuBois, spent Sunday with her parents here.
James Thompson and son, Harry, of Eleanora, spent Sunday with their family here.
W. H. Thomas, of Clearfield, visited his parents here over Sunday.
The Fourth will be very quiet here, as there seems to be nothing special on program for the day.
Rev. A. J. Meek preached an interesting sermon here Sunday afternoon.

Just Mention a Word to the Editor.

There never was a paper in any locality that gave us all the news, says an exchange. It is often that some persons come or go that the editor does not see. It happens that a family is missed several times. They get the impression that the paper does not care to mention them or has a grudge against them. It is a mistake. The paper has no ill-feeling, no spite, no enmity against anybody. Most people take the local paper. Don't be afraid to give the editor news of interest. Perhaps you think the paper has shown partiality; but try and see if it doesn't treat you well if given a chance.

Saves A Woman's Life.

To have given up would have meant death to Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from a severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often," she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was completely cured." Sufferers from Coughs, Cold, Throat and Lung Trouble need this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by H. Alex Stokes. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Letter to Mr. Jim Sharp.

Reynoldsville, Pa.
Dear Sir: Two names stand for the best of everything in paints, the Longman & Martinez Pure Paints. They are just the paints to decorate your town or country home; to brighten it up, making it fresh and attractive, and ideal in appearance. They cost in the original packages a few cents per gallon more than thin paints, but when the necessary oil is added their cost is about $1.20 or 30 cents per gallon less than thin paints. Please go to Reynoldsville Hardware Co. for prices, color cards, etc. Very truly,
LONGMAN & MARTINEZ,
Paint Makers.
