

ROVER C. SHEESLEY KILLED.

John Epler Accidentally Shot Him—Sheesley Died While Bringing Him Home.

Grover Cleveland Sheesley, aged 18 years, the only support of his widowed mother, Mrs. Mary Sheesley, was accidentally shot near Rockton, Clearfield county, at break of day on Friday, July 11th, 1902, by John Epler. The bullet, a .38-caliber, entered his head just above right temple and lodged in his head. Dr. V. R. Spackman, of DuBois, was sent for, who dressed the wound and said there were hopes of the young man's recovery. Sheesley was put on the 12.30 p. m. train at Rockton to bring him home, but before the train arrived in DuBois the young man died. The body was brought on to this place and John Epler, the young man who did the shooting, had to bear the terrible news to Mrs. Sheesley, who had not even heard that her boy was shot. The news was a hard blow to the old lady. The body was taken to Hughes' undertaking rooms and prepared for burial. Friday night the body was taken to the residence of John F. Deemer, on Jackson street, Mrs. Deemer being a sister of the deceased. Sunday morning the body was taken to Emericville for burial. Funeral services were held in the Church of God at Emericville.

About ten o'clock Thursday night Robert V. Siple, John O'Connor, John Epler and Grover Sheesley started from Reynoldsville in a covered wagon to drive to the huckleberry mountains. Sheesley had been driving several hours and when going up a hill east of Rockton he said to Mr. O'Connor, who was in front of wagon, "I am cold, I will get off and walk." Epler didn't know that Sheesley got off the wagon, but at the same time Epler picked up his revolver, that he had been shooting a few minutes before, which he thought was empty, but snapped it to see if there were any more loads in it. Epler did not see Sheesley until after he had shot him. It is supposed Sheesley stepped around the end of wagon as Epler shot. Epler is feeling very badly over the accident.

Grover Sheesley was born in Indiana Co., Pa., June 4, 1884. His father, Simon Sheesley, died near Emericville January 21st, 1900. Grover and his mother moved into Reynoldsville last April, occupying rooms in the Nolan block. Grover was Mrs. Sheesley's only son and his death means much to her. He was a kind boy to his mother. Mrs. Sheesley has four daughters living, as follows: Mrs. Banks Lingering, of Shannonsdale, Mrs. Grant Means, of Salsburg, Mrs. Ed. Hoffman and Mrs. J. F. Deemer, in this place.

On account of Mrs. Sheesley's straitened circumstances, Wm. Foster raised $37.50 on subscription to help pay funeral expenses. Of that amount $25.00 was given the undertaker as part pay, and $12.50 was given to the widow. The three liverymen of Reynoldsville, Thomas Tappan, E. C. Burns and A. M. Woodward, each furnished one carriage free for funeral. We understand that Welsner, of Emericville, raised $14.00 for Mrs. Sheesley at this place.

Excursion to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. The Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Co. announce a delightful excursion above points on Sunday, July 20th. Special train will leave Falls Creek at 10 a. m. Fare, $2.50 for the round trip. This excursion will be thoroughly enjoyed as the great crowds of the American year are avoided. See excursion bills for full information.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers. Persons in Reynoldsville borough who have not paid their 1900 and 1901 taxes are hereby notified that they must pay these taxes before August 15, 1902, or I will positively collect them by law. G. W. SWARTZ, Tax Col.

All persons having back taxes to pay to Winslow township will have to pay them on or before August 15th, 1902, or the same will have to be collected according to law. AMOS STROUSE, Collector.

Celebration at Reynoldsville.

There were not as many strangers in Reynoldsville on the Fourth of July this year as there have been at some of the other celebrations held at this place, but there was no lack of noise from early morning until late at night, and those who did celebrate here seemed to have a good time. A street parade was the first thing on the regular program of the day. Mystic Commandery No. 313, A. & L. O. K. of M., won the $25.00 award, the prize given to home lodge having largest per cent of members in line in the parade.

At the parade the declaration of independence was read in Frank's Park by Rev. Perry A. Kenn and patriotic speeches were delivered by Hon. S. B. Elliott, Rev. A. J. Meek, A. J. Truitt, Esq., and Rev. James H. Jelbart.

The foot and bicycle races were pulled off in the afternoon. Albert Ward won first prize in the half-mile bicycle race and John Renno won first prize in the mile bicycle race. "Duh" Sharp won first prize in the one hundred yard foot race and Harry Gray won the prize in boys' foot race. Joseph Williams and Ben C. Reed were the winners of the box of cigars in the hand ball game. There was to have been a ball game, but on account of the hard rain on the 3rd inst. the ball grounds were not in good condition and the game had to be declared off.

The Falls Creek brass band was in town all day and helped to enliven the celebration with good music.

The celebration was under the auspices of Gen. Phil. Kearney Camp No. 36, S. of V.

Lumber Contract in Oregon

John McDonald, oldest son of P. McDonald, the lumberman of Reynoldsville, left here Thursday for Klamath, Siskiyou county, California, where he will make a contract to cut 50,000,000 feet of timber in one year for the Pockegama sugar Pine Lumber Co. The timber is in Oregon and the mill is in California. This company has over three billion feet of timber in the tract that McDonald will tackle. Two of the engines used on McDonald's Harvey Run contract have been shipped to Klamath for use in hauling timber to the mill. John McDonald has been assisting his father in lumber camps for a number of years and is experienced and understands the lumber business thoroughly. Joseph Christmas and Walter Cole accompanied McDonald to the pine woods of Oregon. John McDonald will likely return in two or three months to gather up a crew of men to take back with him.

Buried at Brookville.

Donald S. Butler, the 9-year-old son of Blon H. Butler, of the editorial force of The Times, died yesterday morning at the residence of his parents in Crafton. He had been ill for some weeks, and for the last ten days there had been little hope for his recovery. Donald was a very attractive child. He was studious and thoughtful, and wise beyond the ordinary boy of his years. He took much delight in his parents' companionship and was to them a friend as well as a son. Always affectionate and dutiful, he suffered uncomplainingly until the end. He will be laid to rest to-morrow at Brookville.—Pittsburg Times, Saturday, July 12th. Miss Isabel Arnold, of this place, went to Brookville Sunday to attend the funeral.
