Public Drinking Fountain.

The public drinking fountain at corner of Main and Fifth streets is a greater blessing to man and beast than many people are aware of, even the dogs find it a convenient place to lap pure sparkling spring water. There is hardly a minute in the day, from early morn until late at night, that a man, woman, child, horse or dog is not at the fountain enjoying a refreshing drink. The water is piped from a spring under the Presbyterian church. A great howl would be raised if the fountain was removed and many people would then realize what a blessing it has been. Notwithstanding these facts some persons devilishly inclined persist in smashing the drinking cups and putting sticks, stumps of cigars, tobacco quids, &c., into the waste pipes of fountain to stop them up. J. Van Reed and Wm. M. Foster deserve a great amount of credit for looking after the fountain and keeping it in order, for if it were not for the attention they give the fountain it would not be as great a blessing as it has been. Mr. Reed has been in Missouri most of the time for a year and Mr. Foster has kept the fountain in working order. One day last week Mr. Foster put wire screens over the waste pipes and there is not likely to be so much trouble about the pipes being filled up. The only trouble arising from the filling up of pipes is that the water overflows and keeps it wet around the fountain all the time.

If any person is caught destroying the tin cups or damaging the fountain in any way and the same is reported to the town council the guilty party will be punished.

Small-pox at Rockdale.

Mrs. Nancy Boyer, of Rockdale Mills, has developed a genuine case of small-pox, pronounced so after a diagnosis by Drs. Dale, Booher and Williams of Falls Creek. The case is regarded as a very serious one. There are several theories as to how the disease broke out in the Boyer family. One is that a son of Mrs. Boyer has been about McDonald's camp, where a case developed some time ago, and had come in contact with some infected clothing. The house was quarantined Saturday, along with the home of Hiram White, a neighbor who had been rendering assistance during the illness of Mrs. Boyer.—DuBois Express.

Trying to Disrupt Unionism.

Advertisements are being run in eastern newspapers to induce carpenters, bench hands, millmen, machinemen, lathers, plasterers, hodcarriers, and mechanics of all kinds, to go to Los Angeles, Cal., where they are promised steady work at big pay. The Los Angeles County Council of Labor has sent out circulars, one of which was handed to the editor of THE STAR last week with request to make mention of same, which warns the laboring men that the object of the advertisements is to get men to go to Los Angeles in order to disrupt the unions of that city and to break a strike which is being waged against several planning mills.

Croquet Being Revived.

Croquet, a game that was very popular a score of years ago, but in recent years almost in "innocuous desuetude," is being revived again. Croquet is a mild game which has much to commend itself to people of both sexes who delight in outdoor sports. Without undue exhaustion the game gives healthful exercise and recreation. Beside the charm of out-doorness, it is a sociable game, admitting of intervals for conversational balls to be kept rolling. We will not be surprised if croquet becomes the most popular sociable game played next summer.

What the Editor Hears.

Editors are the first to hear of gossip or scandal, indiscretions of men and of women, things unfit for publication, intrigues, clandestine meetings, flirtations of married women, night buggy rides, young girls gone astray, rumors of the married men, and in fact all neighborhood scandal. Editors generally know all the naughty doings in a community no matter how secret. If one half they hear were published, divorce suits would follow in some cases, social ostracism, in others shot guns and gore, imprisonment, lynching, desolate homes, shame, humiliation and misery. The editor also learns of much sham and hypocrisy of life, and it is a wonder he believes anything on earth or in the hereafter. People who abuse him the most often owe their standing in society to his forbearance.—Warren Times
