THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE ATTENDED THE ANNUAL BUCKWHEAT REUNION.

A Day When Old Friends Met and Talked of the Events of Long Ago.

The Buckwheat Reunion in Coleman's grove at Goodville, Indiana county, has become an annual event that is looked forward to with a great amount of anticipated pleasure by a large number of people, as it is an occasion when brothers and sisters, uncles, aunts, cousins and old time friends meet to spend a pleasant day together. From the farm lands in the section of the county where the reunion is held young men have gone into the various walks of life, statesmen, lawyers, doctors, preachers, etc., and although some of them live in distant states, they arrange to visit the old homes about the time of this reunion. Friendship and good will has been one of the main features of this reunion, but on account of the large crowds that assemble in the Coleman grove for the reunion, money sharks are becoming more conspicuous each year, and unless those in charge of the reunion keep a tight rein on this class of fellows the original intent of the reunion will be lost sight of entirely.

Having heard so much talk of the Buckwheat reunion, having been born within a few miles of Goodville and having a number of old acquaintances in that neighborhood, ye editor was one of the half hundred people of this place who attended the reunion Thursday. Through the kindness of Joseph S. Hammond, superintendent of the R. & F. C. R'y, we left here at 6.30 a. m. on a special train of engine and one coach. At Falls Creek our car was attached on to rear of a special train on B. R. & P. We arrived at the grove before nine o'clock and there was already a large crowd on the grounds. Rigs had been arriving all morning from the rural districts within a radius of 15 to 20 miles, and they continued to come until noon, when there were seven or eight thousand people in the grove and the woods surrounding the grove were full of hacks, buggies and wagons. Had the baskets of good things to eat been piled in one heap it would have made an immense pile.

"How do you do Mary? I have not seen you for 15 years. You were a little girl then." "Hello Jim! Its been 20 years since we met last." These were common expressions on the grounds. Some people shook hands at Goodville Thursday who had not seen one another in the past quarter of a century. A more orderly and good natured crowd never assembled in one grove than the crowd at Goodville Thursday. Everybody was there for a day of pleasure, and they were not disappointed. While the older people found pleasure in shaking hands and talking with relatives and friends, the younger portion of the crowd found pleasure in the merry-go-round, swings, shooting gallery, striking machine, etc. The Reynoldsville quartette—Dr. Harry B. King, Will Herpel, Will and John Strauss—came in for a large share of attention when they sat down on a grassy spot and tuned up.

The following Reynoldsville people attended the Buckwheat Reunion: G. M. Davis and wife, J. M. Moore and wife, E. Neff and wife, Solomon Shaffer and wife, John C. Barto and wife, D. B. Stauffer and wife, M. M. Davis and wife, Emma Davis, Iva Moore, Hannah Stauffer, Mrs. J. M. Stephenson, Mrs. F. P. Miller, Mrs. E. L. Evans, Frank Stauffer, Lawyer G. M. McDonald, Dr. Harry B. King, Charles Davis, Will Herpel, John and Will Strauss, David Postlewait, Lora and Ella Kline, Tacy Dempsey, Mrs. W. C. Gibson, Mrs. J. W. Dempsey, Mrs. E. Foster, Margaret McKernan, Ethel Johnston, Ida Showers, Emma and Anna Smith, Mrs. Grant Pierce, Mrs. Charles Fry, Hood Knox, George H. Mundorff, Preston Skinner, Bert Skinner, Thomas Weston, G. E. Rishel and Mai Yoeman.

Dr. King, Will Herpel, John and Will Strauss, male quartette, furnished Reynoldsville car with some good music on the way over to reunion. Will and John Strauss had a mandolin and guitar with them and they know how to get music out of the instruments.

Baum, of Reynoldsville, left on Tuesday, August 12, for a ten day visit at Sunbury, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

There will be a lawn festival held here on Thursday evening, August 14, to which every one is cordially invited.

Messrs. C. K. and Cliff Mohney, who are employed with George Sharp at Lawsbe, Clearfield county, are home for a short time.

Miss Clara Shaffer, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. B. R. Raymer, at Reynoldsville, the past week, returned to her home in this place Saturday.

J. L. Ewing Dead.

Joseph Lemon Ewing died at his home on the South Side last Saturday at 3.10 p. m., after a lingering illness of catarrh of the stomach, in the fifty-ninth year of his age. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, Rev. H. G. Dodds, pastor of the M. E. church, in the absence of Rev. Charles A. Clark, of the Presbyterian church, officiating. The G. A. R. Post and the O. U. A. M. lodges attending in a body, the Mechanics furnishing a beautiful floral wreath for the occasion. The remains were taken to Rural Valley, the home of his childhood, on Monday, and laid to rest beside those of his first wife.

Mr. Ewing was a son of John Ewing, one of the pioneers of Armstrong county, and was born March 26, 1844. He was a soldier in the Civil War, being a member of Company K 155 Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers. After devoting a number of years of his life to the huckstering business in Armstrong county, the deceased moved to Brookville, where he acted as agent for a sewing machine company. He afterwards moved to Reynoldsville, where his wife died September 11, 1898. He then came to Punxsutawney, and on January 10, 1899, was married to Mrs. Annie Spencer, of this place, who survives him. He leaves one son, John H. Ewing, of Reynoldsville, and one daughter, Mrs. E. E. Anderson, of Hazelwood.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Camp Alexander.

The annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans' Field Encampment Association was held at Camp Alexander, near Summerville, the past week, beginning Thursday and closing yesterday. The attendance was larger this year than on any previous year, especially on Sunday. Sixty-two excursion tickets were sold at this place Sunday and a number drove to Camp Alexander. There were 320 tickets sold at Brookville Sunday.

We visited Camp Alexander Friday afternoon. It is a delightful place for an encampment. A large shady grove surrounded by level fields and within a stone's throw of Red Bank creek, where the boys can bathe or fish. There were 55 tents in the camp Friday.

Contribution From This District.

Secretary Gilbert, of District No. 2, U. M. W. of A., was in town last evening. He stated that he had sent, on Monday last, $16,000 to the striking anthracite miners, all collected from this district. This shows the union sentiment in this district. When men who work under ground all day in constant danger of life and limb, go down in their pockets and hand over money that has been earned by the most arduous toil, then one is convinced that these men are in deep and most solemn earnest in the cause of humanity.—DuBois Searchlight.

Excursion to Niagara Falls.

On Saturday, August 23rd, the Pennsylvania Railroad will sell special excursion tickets to Niagara Falls and return good going on trains indicated below and good to return on regular trains until August 27th, inclusive, at the following low rates: Train leaves Brookville at 8.50 p. m., rate, $4.50; Reynoldsville, 8.23 p. m., $4.50; Falls Creek, 8.10 p. m., $4.50; DuBois, 8.00 p. m., $4.50. Passengers from New Bethel, Brookville, Reynoldsville, Falls Creek and DuBois change at Red Bank to through train, leaving that point at 11.03 a. m.

All Were Saved.

"For years I suffered such untold misery from Bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnston, of Broughton, Ga., "that often I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from Asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is the best Croup medicine in the world." A trial will convince you it's unrivaled for Throat and Lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at H. Alex Stoke's drug store.

Excursion to Niagara Falls.

The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg R'y has placed on sale at Reynoldsville special excursion tickets to Niagara Falls and return, limited to 15 days, at $7.90. These tickets are sold on Tuesdays of each week during July, August and September.
