KICKERS' COLUMN.

A "Ricker" Column has been opened in The STAR, through which compains may be made without the identity of the complainant being made public. If you have anything to complain about, send it in. The name of the complainant must accompany the complaint as a guarantee of good faith, not for publication.

If the "kicker" column of THE STAR is still at the service of the public i would respectfully ask a hearing.

The unnecessarily prolonged blowing of the glass plant whistle last year became a public nuisance, but the disgraceful and uncalled for exhibition last Sonday calls for severe displeasure If the fault lies with the directors, a new board is badly needed. If it is done by orders of an official under their control, he should be replaced by a man of some judgment. If the repeated nuisance is committed by an employee at his own sweet will, he should receive different orders or be discharged. A corporation need not be a public nuisance because it happens to be a public benefit. It is high time some judgment was shown in this matter by some person or persons officially connected with The Star Glass Co., of Reynoldsville, Pa.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF PROF. C. V. SMITH, PRINCIPAL-ELECT OF THE REYNOLDSVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

cal sketch of Prof. C. V. Smith, prin- accepted the principalship of Bedford cipal-elect for the public schools of Reynoldsville. He was born near position six years. During this year's Middletown, Md. Attended the public schools in the immediate vicinity and at | qua, held at Mt. Gretna from July 1 to the age of eighteen entered a private preparatory school in his native town. Here he continued his studies far enough to admit him to the freshmen class at Franklin and Marshall College. During the ensuing two years be taught in the public schools and at the same time pursued his preparatory studies sufficiently to enable him to enter the sophomore class under conditions. In 1887 he was admitted to that class at Franklin and Marshall from which institution he was graduated in 1890 taking third honor and delivering the Lehman, has been placed in the hands salutatory on commencement day. For two years after graduating he served as the principal of the Collegiate Institute at Walkersville, Md. In 1892 he was given the professorship of Greek, German, Mathematics and the Sciences in Mercersburg College which position he filled very acceptably. When Dr. W. M. Irvine succeeded Dr. G. W. Aughinbaugh in 1893 as president of Mercersburg College, Prof. Smith was made a member of the faculty at the head of the Latin department. The next year he was transferred to the de-partment of History. German and the Natural Sciences. In this capacity he Dogs have rights. If they don't have them their owners certainly assume them for them. Rights to run over your grounds; tear up your lawn and garden; pile old bones and carrion on your flower beds; snap and growl at children-even bite them, chase, worry and kill your best mouser: howl and yelp all night; distribute flies without sewerage. Inquire of E. Neff. fear or favor. Oh, yes; dogs certainly have rights. A fact vehemently demonstrated if some one ventures to kick or kill one of the worthless brutes. The average man would be a king had he the average assumed rights of the average yellow dog,-Oil City Blizzard.

Advertising is to the merchant what plowing and sowing is to the farmer. Imagine a farmer trying to raise a crop by sitting on the fence as he looks over a ten acre field wishing that a nice crop of wheat or corn would spring up in it. Ridiculous, isn't it? But not any more so than the merchant who hides a stock of goods away in a store room and then sits on the counter, hoping that people will come in and buy.-East Aurora Advertiser.
