THE PLEASURE OF DRINKING

Is never appreciated quite so much as on a hot day before our Soda Fountain. Then and there it is a joy not to be denied. Our Soda water is very popular, and steadily gaining in popularity because it represents a rare combination of choice materials, perfect equipment and expert skill in preparing, mixing and serving. That is a good deal to say in one breath, but come and taste the soda drinks, all flavors, and see for yourself how good they are.

Joseph E. Kirkwood, who is preparing himself for evangelistic work and has been a student in Moody's Bible Institute of Chicago, will preach in the Baptist church at this place Sunday evening. He will enter the Bucknell University when fall term begins. Mr. Kirkwood has many friends here who will be glad to hear him preach. His subject will be, "The Wedding Garment."

Prof. C. V. Smith, of Bedford, Pa., who has been elected principal of the borough schools, was in Reynoldsville yesterday getting acquainted with some of the people and was looking for a suitable house to move into. His family consists of wife and one small son, Arthur. Prof. Smith seems to be a very pleasant gentleman and he comes to town highly recommended. A picture and short biographical sketch of Prof. Smith will be found on another page of this issue.

Alfred L. Trumbull, bookkeeper for the Enterprise Silk Co., has resigned his position and will shortly leave for New York city to assume his duties with the American Fashion Co., 853 Broadway. George Farrell, who has been an understudy in this department, will fill the position. We learn that Mr. Trumbull is a very prominent secret society man, being a Past Master and A. & S. R. Mason, Past Grand Commander of the A. & L. O. Knights of Malta, State of New Jersey, and Past Sachem of Red Men.

The long continued blasts of the glass plant whistle about one o'clock Sunday afternoon caused a large number of people to hasten from their homes to see what was burning, as they thought it was a fire alarm. Some of the firemen donned their gum coat and fireman's hat and ran a block or two before they were informed that there was no fire. We judge from the murmurs we heard as people returned to their homes that many of them were indignant. The only reason for blowing the whistle was because the fire had been started in tank.

Child Bitten by a Dog.

Four-year-old son of Simon Bonaire, of Prescottville, was badly bitten by a dog on Monday. The right side of the boy's face was severely lacerated. The dog got its teeth in boy's lower lip and right eyelid. The dog was shot Monday.

Mr. Donahue has not been able to work for almost a year and he hopes that his health will improve on the Isle of the Shamrock.

Decorate the Town.

On Friday of this week the tenth annual reunion of the Northwestern Reunion Association, Knights of Golden Eagle, will be held in Reynoldsville and the town should be decorated in honor of the occasion. Every business man should see to it that his place of business is decorated. Put the town in gala attire and make a good impression on the visitors and they will want to come here again.

Firemen's Meeting.

At a meeting of the fire department held Monday evening of this week, Charles M. Milliren was elected a delegate to attend the Northwestern Fire Association meeting to be held at St. Marys this week. Frank J. Black was elected delegate to the State Fire Association meeting to be held at Bradford in October. It was decided that the whole fire department will attend the meeting in Bradford in October.

Dickey-Loney Nuptials.

James E. Dickey, of Yatesboro, and Miss Viola Doney, of this place, were united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage at Falls Creek on Wednesday, August 6, 1902, by Rev. Cyrus H. Frampton. Yesterday they went to Yatesboro, where they will reside. Both young people are well known in this vicinity, as their parents reside near Reynoldsville. The bride is a daughter of Daniel Doney, of Doemer's Cross Roads. THE STAR joins with their numerous friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for smooth sailing on life's tempestuous sea.

Another Brick Building.

W. S. Ross and A. O'Donnell, sr., who own the lot on corner of Fifth and Jackson streets, will erect a two-story brick building on that lot this summer. The work will be started in a few days. The building is to be 26 by 50 feet, first floor for grocery store, with entrance from either street, and the second story will be fitted up for dwelling. In the course of time these gentlemen expect to erect one or two more brick buildings on the lot, facing on Fifth street. They have one hundred and fifty feet facing on Fifth, which they expect to build up into a solid brick block some day.

Officers of New Company.

At a recent meeting of the following officers were elected for the Reynoldsville Manufacturing Company: President, M. C. Coleman; vice-president, A. M. Applegate; secretary, Walter D. Williams. Albert Reynolds is treasurer. This is the new company that is starting a brick, tile and pottery plant at this place. It is to be located south of the glass plant. The ground is being cleared off now. Blue prints of plans are being made. G. W. Arblaster, who had a plant at New Bethlehem, which was destroyed by fire, will tear down a kiln at New Bethlehem, and move it to this place, and we understand it is the intention of the company to use this kiln to make brick to erect the plant, which will be a large one. When this plant is ready for operation it will give employment to a large number.

Home Wedding.

A very interesting event took place last Thursday evening, Aug. 7, 1902, at seven o'clock at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Dean, of Rathmel, Pa. In the presence of a few invited guests Mr. Charles H. Rea led to the marriage altar Miss Myrta E., the accomplished daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Dean. The father, in a neat ceremony, tied the nuptial knot. Prayer was offered by Rev. A. J. Meek. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Maud E. Rea, sister of the groom, and Mr. J. E. Kirkwood. After congratulations lunch was served. A number of valuable and useful presents were received. The happy pair is well and favorably known and have a host of friends who wish them a prosperous journey through life. The bride had been one of the teachers of Jefferson county and for the past two years was in the employ of the Census department of Washington, D. C. The groom is a well known young business man. They at once entered into house keeping and bid welcome to their friends.

The following out of town guests were present: U. G. Perry, wife and two sons, Oliver and Walter, of Washington, D. C., J. C. Williams and two daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Rhodes, of West Reynoldsville. They were all at their father's bedside when he died at Mrs. Pantall, Mr. Dean died as peacefully as if falling into a sleep.

Thirty-five years ago Mr. Dean settled on a farm of 163 acres in Washington township which is now in splendid cultivation. Last fall he bought a neat home in West Reynoldsville and decided to move into town and take life a little easier during his declining years, but the Grim Reaper cut short his days of comfort and ease.

Funeral service was held at the M. E. church at Sandy Valley at 10.00 a. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. J. C. Meek. Entire of this place, assisted by Rev. A. J. Meek. Interment was made in the Sandy Valley cemetery. Mr. Dean joined the M. E. church at Sandy Valley sixteen years ago, when Rev. Cearing Peters, of Reynoldsville, held a revival meeting at the Valley.

Another home circle is broken, another chair vacant, an active life ended, a kind husband and father, and a good neighbor has gone to that "bourn from whence no traveler e'er returns."

Bitten by Rattlesnake.

"Rattlesnake" Jim Thompson has been going around the past week with his right hand and arm swollen until it "shines like a negro's heel." One of Jim's pet rattlesnakes bit him on the end of index finger and that is the whyfore of his puffedupness. Some naughty boys had been teasing the snakes by poking sticks in the cage at them and when Jim reached in cage to take one of the snakes out they were still mad and Jim lost control of them and got a "swip" on the finger.

Retiring As Presiding Elder.

Rev. R. C. Smith, of DuBois, who has been presiding elder of the Clarion District for six years, preached his last sermon in the M. E. church at Reynoldsville Sunday evening as presiding elder. A new presiding elder for this district will be appointed at Erie Annual Conference to be held in Oil City next month. There are at least three preachers on the district who aspire to the presiding eldership, but it is only a guess now who will be appointed to that office.

Killed With Toy Pistol.

Wednesday evening of last week Bert Cyphret, aged about ten years, son of David Cyphret, of Brookville, accidentally shot himself with a toy pistol, inflicting a wound that caused his death the following evening. The Brookville Democrat says: "Only a blank cartridge was in the pistol, but the wad entered his body near the pit of the stomach, penetrating some distance." Funeral was held Sunday.

Misstatement Last Week.

The statement made in THE STAR last week that August Baldauf had changed his mind about buying the Weiser property on Main street after Thomas Evans had bought the lot from Mr. Weiser, was a misstatement. Mr. Baldauf is ready to close the deal and he and Mr. Evans will likely do so soon, if they have not already closed it.

SILAS JACKSON DEAN DEAD.

Expired Saturday Morning—Cancer of Stomach Caused His Demise.

Silas Jackson Dean, who was one of Washington township's highly respected, hard working and prosperous farmers for 35 years, died at his home on Brown street, West Reynoldsville, at eight o'clock Saturday morning, August 9, 1902, after about six months of intense suffering from cancer of the stomach. Everything that medical skill could do was done for Mr. Dean, but he gradually grew worse until death was the final result. Mr. Dean had always been a healthy, hard working man until about the first of this year when he began to have trouble with his stomach.

Mr. Dean was born at Summerville, Jefferson Co., January 14, 1842, making him 60 years, 6 months and 26 days of age at time of death. He was a son of James Dean, deceased. His parents moved to Washington township in 1860, Feb. 23, 1865, Mr. Dean was married to Amanda Horn who, with one son and three daughters, survive him. The children are: Charles H. Dean, who works in the woods most of the time, Mrs. Anna Rakestraw, of Falls Creek, Mrs. Belle Pantall, of DuBois, and Mrs. Myrtle Rhodes, of West Reynoldsville. They were all at their father's bedside when he died at Mrs. Pantall, Mr. Dean died as peacefully as if falling into a sleep.

Criminal Court.

The August term of criminal court was called at Brookville Monday with Judge John W. Reed on the bench. T. T. Millen, of Oliver township, was appointed foreman of the grand jury and Charles H. Shankey, constable of Barnett township, was given charge of the grand jury. The following constables were appointed tipstaves: W. B. Glenn, of Corsica, J. C. Sanders, of Brookwayville, and A. McKoon, of Falls Creek. When the court opened there were 50 criminal cases on the docket. Some of these have been continued and some settled.

In his charge to the grand jury Judge Reed called their attention to the fact that a prize fight had taken place at Knoxdale on Tuesday evening of last week and he instructed the grand jury to make a careful investigation of the matter and to indict all persons implicated in the disgraceful affair in any manner. While we did not hear the Judge's talk to the grand jury, yet we infer from what we heard of it, that if the guilty parties are brought before him that he will give them the full extent of the law for such pugilistic exhibitions.
