The LAXEST FASHIONS TENTH ANNUAL REUNION OF KNIGHTS OF GOLDEN EAGLE

Held in Reynoldsville last Friday - One of the Largest ever Held.

RESULTS OF THE SPORTING EVENTS.

The tenth annual reunion of the Northwestern Reunion Association, Reynoldsville last Friday, August 15th, was attended by a large crowd and was one of the best reunions ever held by the Association. A number of business places were nicely decorated, which adand clear Friday morning, giving evimembers of the association and friends toward Reynoldsville, and they came on trains, in backs, carriages and buggles and by noon there was a large $25,000 crowd of visitors on the streets of our town. On account of waiting to give all the Golden Eagles an opportunity to enjoy the day's program, everything was postponed until afternoon. A big street parade was the first thing on the program and that came off at 1.30 p. m. Five or six hundred men, women and little girls and two brass bands were in line and they made a fine appearance.

> The line of march ended at Frank's Park where addresses were to have been delivered by grand officers and other speakers, but this was the only part of the advertised program where the people were disappointed, the grand officers failing to come as they had promised to do. Thursday afternoon a telegram was received by the committee that the two grand officers expected could not be here. A large crowd assembled in the park and were called to order by Sam Malcolm, who presided at that meeting. A selection was played by cornet band, prayer offered by Rev. H. T. Teagarden, Ph. D., of Eleanora, and the chairman introduced Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of Reynoldsville Baptist church, who delivered a fine address. Rev. J. C. McEntire, also of this place, was introduced and he gave the people a good address. Prizes were offered to Castles taking part in the parade and were awarded to following Castles by the three judges-L. J. McEntire, L. G. Lidle and C. A. Stephenson-appointed by the committee: First prize, $30.00, Castle making best appearance in line, to Mountain Queen Castle No. 311, of DuBois; second prize, $20.00, Castle having best band in line, to Mountain Queen Castle of Du-Bols: third prize, $10.00, Castle coming ongest distance, to Echo Castle No. 361. of Westville ; fourth prize, $10.00, Ladies' Temple making best appearance in line, to McKinley Temple No. 36, of Eleanora. The judges decided that Echo Castle No. 361, of Westville, deserve honorable mention for their fine appearance in the parade Had it not been for Mountain Queen Castle's paraphernalia Echo Castle would have been given first prize.

E. Neff, Esq., was chief marshall and W. E. Reed was chief of staff.

The sports of the afternoon created considerable amusement for the visitors and were all given as advertised.

Business meeting was held in Bell's hall, called to order by President Edwin Hoare in the chair and E. S. Hoover acting as secretary. First business in order was calling the roll of delegates. This was followed by some discussions on different subjects, after which the meeting was adjourned to meet some time in December. The reason for adjournment was that there was not nearly a full representation of the different Castles in the district. Got the Wrong Trunk, Members of the Mountain Queen Castle, of DuBois, who had charge of the parapheroalia of that Castle, were so elated over the fact that they had won two prizes in the Knights of Golden Eagle parade at Reynoldsville Friday that when they went to get their trunk checked to DuBois they didn't know their own trunk. They first had Dr. King's New Life Pills. Result, the right trunk checked and then had Knights of the Golden Eagle, held in the baggagemaster take the check off and put it on another trunk, which happened to be a lady's trunk. After the train had gone to DuBois the lady called to have her trunk ehecked and as she had not been given a prize that ded to the welcome of the visitors. "Old day she knew her own trunk when she Sol" climbed the eastern horizon bright saw it, but it was not there. Sam Malcolm and William Roan, who were dence of a fine day for a reunion and members of the Reynoldsville committee that had charge of the reunion, were encouraged to set their faces drove to DuBois that night and brought back the lady's trunk so that she could leave on the early train the following morning.

Educational Meetings.

County Superintendent Teitrick has arranged a series of educational meetings for teachers as follows: August 25, Punxsutawney; August 26, Brockwayville; August 27, Reynoldsville; August 28, Brookville.
