

The Star.

VOLUME 11.

REYNOLDSVILLE, PENN'A., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1902.

NUMBER 16.

Sandy Valley.
Miss Annie McGhee is visiting in DuBois.
The farmers of this vicinity are complaining of the potato rot.
Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, of Erie, Pa., are visiting at the home of Henry Stevenson.
The festival held at the church Saturday evening was a success, netting $22.00.
J. C. Cribbs is hauling stone these days. He intends putting a collar under his house.
W. T. Cox and wife, Mrs. W. J. Boer and Mrs. Christie took in the picnic at Oak Ridge last Thursday.
Adam Smith and May Stewart, of this place, tied themselves to Brookville last week and were quietly married.
The coal land owned by Mr. Crawford and W. H. Starny, sometime ago, is being taken up and paid for as fast as titles can be secured.
The dread disease, diphtheria, has broken out near the Valley at the home of William Travis. We understand the patients are convalescing.
Mr. and Mrs. James McGhee were called to Falls Creek Sunday on account of the serious illness of Mrs. McGhee's sister, Mrs. Charlotte McGarey.
There is a pair of half starved crows meandering around the Valley. They attack all kinds of poultry. They have already killed and devoured four half grown turkeys on W. T. Cox's farm.
Probably some of the readers of THE STAR don't know why the stream that empties into the Sandy Lick creek near the Valley is called Panther Run. The writer has been informed that away back about the time Monks was hung, a man and a panther had a fight up the run near where the Cox coal bank is now located, and when the fight was finished the man was in three or four sections and the panther was not as hungry as it was when the fight was started. The writer thinks that he has the bayonet of the man's gun, but is not sure.
An engineering corps is working around the valley and there is considerable mystery connected with the matter. They go right into people's gardens and front yards without asking permission, and drive stakes and do as they please in general. If anybody asks them what they are doing they just look wise and keep on driving stakes. There is considerable guessing among the citizens as to what it means. Some think it is for a railroad while others think they are going to slackwater the raging Panther Run. The writer gives it up. He don't know.
Squabble Hill.
Lewis Smith has returned from Pittsburg.
Messrs. Stephenson were threshing on Saturday.
What about that man that had his horse and buggy tied in the middle of the road? Oh! I was just turning around!

Earl Craven took a load of apples to DuBois on Thursday.
Whence came that barefoot step and that bare-headed man?
Jack Smith visited at the home of his parents over Sunday.
Mrs. G. B. Shindler is visiting her parents in Clarion county this week.
Misses Lucy Fox, Eiva Cox and Edna Warnick visited Miss Mary Shindler on Sunday.
We witnessed an unusual sight on our streets on Sunday. It was a fox and a bull-dog hitched together; quite a team!
Rathmel.
W. G. Harris made a business trip to DuBois last Friday afternoon.
Mrs. A. W. Mulholland is visiting her parents in West Virginia.
Hubert Smith and his mother drove to DuBois Sunday evening.
Miss Davis, of near Harrisburg, visited with Miss Lillie Ward last week.
Robert Monroe and sister, Lizzie, of Anita, called on friends here last Sunday.
Mrs. Wm. Tucker, who went to England about three months ago, returned home last Thursday.
Reduced Rates to Denver.
On account of the National Fraternal Congress, to be held at Denver, Col., August 26 to 30, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Denver, Colorado Springs, or Pueblo, Col., from all stations on its lines, at rate of single fare for the round trip. Tickets will be sold and good going on August 22 and 23, and will be good to return until September 30, inclusive. Tickets must be validated for return passage by Joint Agent at any of the above-mentioned points, for which service a fee of 25 cents will be charged.
For specific rates and conditions, apply to ticket agents.

Shatters All Records.
Twice in hospital, F. A. Gullodge, Verbena, Ala., paid a vast sum to doctors to cure a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. When all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve soon cured him. Subdues inflammation, conquers Aches, kills Pains. Rest salve in the world. 25c at H. Alex Stoke's, drug store.
Fiend at Work.
Some soulless ghoul cut the wire cable at Rochester mines last Wednesday night. It was evidently his intention to cause the cable to part when a train load of cars were coming out of the mines, as the cable was cut in several places, in every case all but one strand being severed. What his motives were, no one but himself knows, but it was a malicious trick and one that might have caused serious accident or even loss of life. Fortunately the person whose business it is to see that the cable is all right, discovered the trick in time to prevent an accident.—DuBois Express.
Look Pleasant, Please.
Photographer C. C. Harlan, of Eaton, O., can do so now, though for years he couldn't, because he suffered untold agony from the worst form of indigestion. All physicians and medicines failed to help him till he tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for him that he declares they are a godsend to sufferers from dyspepsia and stomach troubles. Unrivaled for diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, they build up and give new life to the whole system. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by H. Alex Stoke, druggist.

REV. FRANK GRANSTAFF,

Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Marion, Ohio, who will deliver the address in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian Church this evening.

Smith Reunion.
The descendants of William Smith, deceased, held a reunion at the home of James E. Smith in Washington township, Jefferson county, on Thursday of last week. James E. Smith, William C. Smith, of Beechwoods, and Mrs. Anna Miller, of Nebraska, are the only surviving members of the family. The reunion was held in honor of Mrs. Miller, who is visiting in this section. There were a large number present, but all the Smith descendants were not present. A write-up of this reunion appeared in the DuBois Courier Saturday signed "K. T." in which the writer said:
"This reunion did not embrace the different branches of the Smith family residing in the neighborhood, otherwise the farm houses throughout the vicinity would have been left in charge of the house dog and cat. To assemble all the Smiths and their connections would mean a general invitation to all and sundry. The grand total would amount into the hundreds."

All Were Saved.
"For years I suffered such untold misery from Bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnston, of Broughton, Ga., "that often I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from Asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is the best Croup medicine in the world." A trial will convince you its unrivaled for Throat and Lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at H. Alex Stoke's drug store.

Reduced Rates to Pittsburg Exposition.
On Wednesday, September 10, 17 and 24, and October 1, 8 and 15, 1902, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from points on the Low Grade Division, including the Silgo Branch, to Pittsburg at reduced rates, including admission to the Exposition.
These tickets will be good going on regular trains on day of issue, and will be valid for return passage within four days, including date of sale.

Room-sized floor rugs at Hall's.
My! But isn't Reynolds' soda good?
Dorothy Dodd. Here in September.

Edward Cox Drowned.
Edward Cox, a woodsman who was in the employ of P. McDonald at Sherwood and Harvey's Run about ten years, was found dead in the Sandy Lick creek near the Herwind-White shaft above DuBois on Friday noon of last week. There was only about eighteen inches of water in the stream where body was found. He had taken off his hat, coat, vest, collar and tie and shoes and left them on the bank. It was reported through several papers that Cox had committed suicide, but there is a question about that. Twice Cox came very nearly dying from hemorrhage of the stomach and when he was suffering from a hemorrhage he claimed that his stomach would pain him as if on fire, and some of his friends think it possible that he was threatened with a hemorrhage and waded into the water to lie down to cool himself off and became weak and helpless and was drowned. A number of Reynoldsville people were acquainted with Cox, as he boarded at Hotel Imperial for a time.

The Great Punxsutawney Fair.
Going to the Great Punxsutawney Fair? Better go, it promises to be one of the best weeks the town has ever enjoyed. Firemen's convention Monday and Tuesday. Special attractions secured by the association, large exhibits of stock, grain, fruit and everything that tends to make a good fair will be there. The entire five days will be full of amusement and entertainment. Special rates on all railroads.

Same Thing at Reynoldsville.
Punxsutawney has a Saturday night feature that possibly is not possessed by any other town in this end of the State. And that is her Saturday night crowds on the streets. From early evening till ten there is a continued procession of people. Many are out marketing or shopping, some are on pleasure bent, others are out for their health, some appear to wander aimlessly up and down the streets and here and there groups are seen at a stand-still. Men, women, children, girls and boys and an occasional baby carriage. Sometimes a yelping dog gets mixed up in the tramping crowd only to be kicked out into the street where there is more room for it. And did you ever try to catch what the people are talking about? You may be sure they were not all conversing about the same thing. Here come two young ladies and as they pass all you catch is "he said and she said," "is that so?" "well I declare!"—Punxsutawney News.
We have the same thing in Reynoldsville, only the crowds are larger on our streets, and if the editor of the News doubts this statement we can convince him of the correctness thereof if he will come over to Reynoldsville some pleasant Saturday evening and try to get up or down Main street. About the only equal to the crowds on our streets on Saturday evenings will be found on Broadway, New York City.

Reduced Rates to Denver.
On account of the meeting of the National Association of Letter Carriers, to be held at Denver, Col., September 1 to 6, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Denver, Colorado Springs, or Pueblo, Col., from all stations on its lines, at rate of single fare for the round trip. Tickets will be sold and good going on August 29 to 31, and will be good to return until September 30, inclusive. Tickets must be validated for return passage by Joint Agent at any of the above-mentioned points, for which service a fee of 25 cents will be charged.
For specific rates and conditions, apply to ticket agents.

Just Look at Her.
Whence came that sprightly step, faultless skin, rich, rosy complexion, smiling face. She looks good, feels good. Here's her secret. She uses Dr. King's New Life Pills. Result,—all organs active, digestion good, no headaches, no chance for "blues." Try them yourself. Only 25c at H. Alex Stoke's drug store.

The Kind you Like

If you have a taste for correct garments no matter how small price, remember the stock we handle solves the problem.

Fashionable Clothes for Men and Boys of all ages.

In the ready-to-wear department we have suits to fit all and guarantee perfect clothes. Suits and trousers made to order $15.00 to $35.00.

Fitting Shoes for all Weather

A shoe must be heavy enough to protect the feet from the weather and light enough to make easy walking. It is not wise to buy a pair of shoes so heavy they are clumsy or so light that they are not a protection to the feet. The shoes we sell have the right weight and are sold at the right price. For men, boys and youths, ladies, misses and children. Ask to see Walton school shoe for boys.
