WHAT'S THE USE OF BEING DISAPPOINTED

When you buy drug store goods of us, take them home and find that you wanted something, come right back and explain to us, and we will gladly exchange for whatever you may desire. We want all our customers to feel that our store is conducted to supply them with what they want to buy—not what we may want to sell. Tell your neighbors what a good drug store this is. In so doing you will do us a very great favor and one that will be gratefully appreciated.

Rev. Driscoll Guest of Honor.
 Rev. Edward M. Driscoll, who was assistant rector of St. Joseph's parish at Oil City over a year, recently promoted to rectorship of the congregation at New Bethlehem, was given a farewell reception in Oil City on Tuesday evening of last week. The Oil City Derrick says: "Father Driscoll was presented with a well-filled purse by the members of the congregation through the Very Rev. Father Sheridan, V. G., as a substantial evidence of the esteem in which he is held by the members. "Recent changes by the Ordinary of the Erie diocese resulted in Father Driscoll's promotion to the rectorship at New Bethlehem. The change was so sudden and unexpected to both the reverend gentleman and the congregation that the latter had no time to fittingly express their appreciation of Father Driscoll's kindness of heart, gentleness of manner, and worth as a priest, fitly denoted during his incumbency of the assistant rectorship of St. Joseph's. Members of the congregation constituted themselves a committee and arrangements were made to surprise him. Accordingly, on Tuesday he was called to this city and in the evening called to the C. M. B. A. Hall, where many members of the parish, together with Very Rev. Father Sheridan, rector of St. Joseph's, Rev. Father McKallion, assistant rector, and Father Gannon, temporarily attached to St. Joseph's, had gathered. The programme consisted of musical selections, presentation of purse and luncheon, served by the ladies of the church."

Albert Sydow. The Emerickville P. O. S. of A., of which deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body. It was an unusually large funeral.

Birthday Party.
 'Squire Joseph T. Guthrie, of West Reynoldsville, an old veteran who reached the 77th mile stone in life's journey Monday, August 25th, was given a birthday party by his estimable wife that evening. It was somewhat of a surprise to the old veteran. He was informed that several friends would be invited to his home for a six o'clock dinner, but was not informed that forty-five friends would be present, and he was surprised when so many people assembled at his home, but he enjoyed the occasion as much as if he had planned it himself. An excellent six o'clock dinner was served. It was an enjoyable affair and the guests, in bidding the host good night, wished him many happy returns of his natal anniversary.

Mr. Guthrie enlisted in Company K, 77th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry on 19th day of September, 1861, and remained in that regiment until close of war, over four years. He was somewhat elated over the fact that, as he says, he caught up to his regiment on Monday, his 77th birthday.

Killed by Fall of Rock.
 George Wiley, son of Charles Wiley of this place, was killed Saturday forenoon, August 23, 1902, about eleven o'clock, by a fall of rock in the coal mine at Anita, No. 10 drift. Wiley was working in a room with John Butson and his two sons, and Isaac Butson. They had finished the place they were working in and were gathering up their tools to go out when the rock fell, striking Wiley across the kidneys. He lived about twenty minutes after the accident. The other four had a very narrow escape. Wiley was 21 years old the 4th of July last. He was a single man. Funeral services were held at home of John Butson, at Anita, with whom deceased had boarded, Monday morning, conducted by Rev. H. T. Teagarden, Ph. D., and the body was brought to the home of bereaved parents at this place. Another service was held at the home of parents Monday afternoon by Rev. Teagarden and interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

Call for Stenographers.
 The Reynoldsville Business College has received calls from Pittsburg for four stenographers within the past week, but, unfortunately, had only two to place, as those graduates who are not already engaged in this line of work have places ready for them. William Warren left for Pittsburg on Monday to accept one of the positions and Robert Robertson will go to Pittsburg September 1st to take charge of another. Stenographers from this school are in demand, as they all use the Van Sant system of touch typewriting, which stamps them as professionals wherever they go.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING.
 T. C. McEnteer and Miss Annie E. Black Married Yesterday Morning.

A pretty wedding occurred in the St. Mary's Catholic church in Reynoldsville at 9:00 a. m. Tuesday, August 26, 1902, when Miss Annie Elizabeth Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Black, of Reynoldsville, and Thomas C. McEnteer, of West Reynoldsville, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bridesmaid led the way down the aisle, followed by the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Frank J. Black. They met the groom and best man at the altar. Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Father P. J. Donahue. The bride was dressed in white silk tissue, carrying a white prayer book in her hand. Miss Margaret Elizabeth Stoko, of this place, who was bridesmaid, was dressed in white. Martin Gleason, of Driftwood, an engineer on Low Grade Division, was groomsmen.

A wedding dinner was served at The Mansion, home of bride's brother, Frank J. Black. It was a very fine dinner. Mr. and Mrs. McEnteer left here on the 1:32 p. m. P. R. R. "flyer" on a short wedding trip to Oil City and Chautauque. They will return the latter part of this week.

The wedding party drove from The Mansion to P. R. R. station in carriage and some wag in the party got a large sheet of cardboard with the words, "We are married," printed in big letters upon it and fastened card on carriage, and Martin Gleason had a cow bell under his coat and when the carriage started he began ringing the cow bell and kept it up all the way through town. The groom protested, but could not stop the ringing of bell and finally had to submit. They boarded the train amidst a perfect shower of rice.

The bride is a fine young lady, highly esteemed by her friends and acquaintances, and Mr. McEnteer is certainly to be congratulated on securing such an excellent wife. Mr. McEnteer is a train dispatcher in the P. R. R. office at this place and is a gentleman who is highly esteemed in the community. THE STAR joins in wishing this couple unlimited happiness and prosperity.
