With the approach of September the showing of fall lines begins. We want to assure the patronage of this community that as has been our custom for years, we are again preparing to show the very best products of both the American and European manufacturer. Never in the history of merchandising in Reynoldsville has there been as careful preparation made as this season. The result of which is left entirely to the good judgment of the trade. We desire to say we realize our patronage has been built up and the confidence of the trade established by honesty of purpose and vigilant perseverance in our attempt to give you good honest merchandise and the very best assortment to be obtained in the leading markets, and to give it at the very lowest prices possible consistent with good goods. In this way we have established ourselves and in this way we believe we can continue in our present progressive state. We are placing on display this week for
