

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR CHARTER.

Notice is hereby given that an applicant will be made to the Governor of Pennsylvania on the 25 day of Sept., 1902, by A. M. Applegate, J. H. Corbett, Charles Dinger, G. J. Kerr, Rufus Kirk, M. C. Coleman and Walter D. Williams under the act of Assembly entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," Approved April 29th, 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation to be called Reynoldsville Clay Manufacturing Co., the character and object of which is to manufacture Brick, Tile, Hollow-block and Pottery, and for this purpose to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges of the said Act of Assembly and the supplements thereto.

M. M. DAVIS, Solicitor.
Reynoldsville, Pa., Sept. 2, 1902.

Look Beyond

The first cost when buying paint, once the neutral oil is added to L. & M. paint, you not only have a low actual cost, but your house will stay well painted longer than you wish. You'll get so tired of seeing the same colors year after year, that you'll buy some other shade of L. & M. just for variety's sake.

—THE BIG STORE—

With the approach of September the showing of fall lines begins. We want to assure the patronage of this community that as has been our custom for years, we are again preparing to show the very best products of both the American and European manufacturer. Never in the history of merchandising in Reynoldsville has there been as careful preparation made as this season. The result of which is left entirely to the good judgment of the trade. We desire to say we realize our patronage has been built up and the confidence of the trade established by honesty of purpose and vigilant perseverance in our attempt to give you good honest merchandise and the very best assortment to be obtained in the leading markets, and to give it at the very lowest prices possible consistent with good goods. In this way we have established ourselves and in this way we believe we can continue in our present progressive state. We are placing on display this week for
