Worn Out Expression

Every druggist ever known advertises "Pure Drugs." Of course druggists themselves know that there is a whole lot of substitution and adulteraof substitution and adultera-tion being done all the time not to speak of down-right buying of cheap, stale stuff and known to be so—but label-ed "Pure Drugs."

But the general public also knows that there's "lying" somewhere; for no class of men is perfect. When every last druggist says that he sells "Pure Drugs," there's certainly a screw loose in the honesty valve.

The question is, "Who can you believe?

Come in and let us show you our back room and down stairs and behind our prescription counter and everywhere through the store—then judge of the quality and freshness and purity of our drugs.

James C. Brown, of Union township, a nephew of Mrs. Joseph Shaffer, of Reynoldsville, died last Friday and was buried at Roseville Sunday. Deceased was 35 years old. His death was caused by stomach trouble. He is survived by his wife and four children. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shaffer and Miss Ethel Shaffer, of this place, drove to Roseville Sunday to attend the funeral.

Rev. John Waite, ex-treasurer of Jefferson county, now pastor of a Presbyterian church at Olena, Ohio, visited his parents near this place last week. Rev. Waite only accepted the work at Olena for one year, which will expire the second Sunday of October, when he will accept a call to Callery Junction, Pa., near Pittsburg. Mr. Waite says he likes the ministerial work very much. James G. Pentz, a student in Alle gheny College, Meadville, who spent the summer vacation at his home in this place, returned to Meadville yesterday to take up the fourth year's work in that institution. Mr. Pentz has been elected an assistant in the science department of the Allegheny College, a place of honor for a young man. This will not interfere with James' regular studies in the college.

One thousand square yards of special cenery, all on a magnificent scale and adjustable to any size stage, is carried by the Frank Davidson company. This assures absolute scenic perfection to "The Folks up Willow Creek," and will virtually make an entire new stage in our opera house, all of the stock scenery being removed. Such a display of mechanical effects was never before attempted, and is well worth seeing. The date is Thursday, September 18th. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store.

Accused of Burning Barn.

The 19th of last July the barn of Samuel Kougher, near Rathmel, was burned and a man named Jacob Sutter, who had been working for John Smith at Rathmel, was suspected of setting the barn on fire. Sutter disappeared the next day after barn was burned and warrant was issued for his arrest. Last Saturday Policeman Palmer, of Punxsutawney, arrested Sutter at that place and he was brought to Reynoldsville and lodged in the lock-up until Monday forenoon when he was taken to Rathmel and given a hearing before Squire John Smith, who sent Sutter to iail to await trial in the county court. John Leach took him to jail Monday afternoon.

Gone to Pacific Slope.

Campbell, of this place, who was an employe at Hopkins' big saw mill sixteen years, having charge of creek work, has resigned his position at that mill and Monday of this week, with his wife and son, Howard, left here for Tacoma, Washington, where he has been offered a good position to take charge of the creek work of a large mill. Mr. Campbell is an excellent and trustworthy workman, who, no doubt. will be successful with his new employers in the far western country. If the climate agrees with Mr. Campbell and family they expect to make that section their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell's friends here were sorry to see them move so far away.

Building New Tailorshop. D. M. Bolger, one of our popular and irst-class merchant tailors, is having a new building erected on his lot on corner of Fourth street and Willow alley. The first floor will be fitted up for Mr. Bolger's tailorshop and the second floor will be occupied by him for dwelling. Men began the work of excavating for cellar and foundation last week. H. A. Swab has contract to erect the building, which is to be completed by the first of next year. Mr. Bolger has his new building planned so that it will be a convenient shop in which to do his work. The location is not far from Main street and Mr. Bolger is so well known that his numerous patrons will have no trouble in finding him when he moves into his new building.

An Amateur Company. A dozen boys and girls of this place, ranging in age from 9 to 12 years, organized a company and played "The Farmer's Daughter" last Saturday afterpoon in the vacant room in rear of Centennial hall, on Fourth street. Price of admission one cent. Door receipts 78 cents. Old dry goods boxes, &c., were used for seats. Next Saturday afternoon the same "kidlets" will play , East Lynne" or at least make the attempt to play it. The performers in "The Farmer's Daughter" were : Marion Harris, Frances Green, Hallie Burns, Zelma Shaffer, Tressa Burns, Helena Guthrie. Florence Green, Florence Ferrin, Frank Burns, Ray Guthrie, James Dillman, Fred Mohney.

When the boys and girls get two dol-lars in the treasury the money is to be given to some poor family.

AN OLD SOLDIER GONE.

George Roller, Sr., Died Yesterday After-noon after a Lingering Illness.

George Roller, Sr., who had been a resident of Reynoldsville twenty-seven years, moving here in 1875, died at the nome of his son, George Roller, Jr., on east end of Main street at 3.30 p. m. Tuesday, September 16, 1902. His death was the result of general debility. For nine months before his death be was lying at home of his son in a helpless condition, could not even feed himself. Funeral services will be held at residence of George Roller, Jr., at 2.30 p. m. Thursday, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of Baptist church, of which deceased was a member. Interment in Beulah cemetery.

George Roller was born in Maryland September 2, 1825, making him 77 years and 14 days old at time of death. He was married twice and was the father of sixteen children, thirteen of whom, with second wife, survive him. His first wife died in 1872 before he moved to Reynoldsville.

The deceased was an old soldier, a nember of Company I and a member of the Grand Army Post in this place. Mr Roller was a brickmaker by trade and at one time operated a brick yard near West Reynoldsville town hall and also one on poverty flat.

A Parliament of Religions.

The services in the Baptist church Sunday evening, "A Parliament of Religions," was given under the direction of the Foreign Missionary Society of that church. Four young ladies were dressed in the costumes of four countries where missionary work is being done by the society having charge of the services. The exercises were excellent and could not help but impress the large audience of the need of missionary work as they listened to the story of the sufferings and humiliation of women in the heathen countries.

Mrs. G. G. Williams, vice-president of the Foreign Missionary Society, conducted the devotional exercises. Mrs. Maud Booth was the leader, and she certainly performed her part in an excellent and very creditable manner. She is a fine talker. Five young ladies represented the following religious and were dressed in the costumes of the countries they represented:

Hindu, Miss Edith Harris; Confu danist, Miss Minerva Williams; Buddhist, Florence Siple; Mahammedan, Miss Clara Lewis; Christian, Miss Lucile Mitchell. The young ladies performed their parts nicely. The choir rendered some special music.

Tennis Tournament.

There was a lawn tennis tournament on the Reynoldsville court Monday afternoon between Brookville and Reynoldsville players, but the visitors were too skillful for the home players. The result of contest was as follows:

Frank Henderson and John D. Evans, Brookville, Paul Riston and Dr. Clifford Kaucher, Reynoldsville, score 6-2;

Second game, Darrah Corbett and Francis Hall, Brookville, Frank P. Alexander and F. H. Beck, Reynoldsville, score, 6-0; 6-0.

Third game, Wakefield Corbett and Gordon Foster, Brookville, Dr. John H. Murray and Dr. L. L. Means, Reynoldsville, score 6-1; 7-5.

PUNKS'Y PLAYERS DEFEATED.

Can't Play Hand Ball With Reynolds-ville Artists-Didn't Win a Game.

Thomas J. Rodgers, editor of Punx-'y Republican, brought eight or nine hand ball players over to Reynoldsville Monday with the expectation of defeating the Reynoldsville players, but the visitors failed to get one game out of four or five games played, and then our best players were crippled and not in condition to play good alley ball. Bro. Rodgers telephoned to editor of

THE STAR Monday forenoon that the players would be here in the afternoon and at the request of some of our players we asked him to postpone the visit until Tuesday afternoon, but he said that Reynoldsville was afraid to play them and wanted to postpone the game on that account. They came, met the enemy and were badly defeated. They, no doubt, would have a whole bunch of excuses for the defeat when they got back to Punxsutawney, but they were simply outclassed, and that was the only reason. It was a good natured and friendly contest. Following is a list of names of players and scores.

First game, score 15-6; players-Reynoldsville, Alex Riston, O'Hare, Fred Butler. Punxs'y, Fred Hemer, George D. Jenks, John St. Clair.

Second game, score 15-13; players-Reynoldsville, Fred K. Alexander, Joseph Williams, H. Ward Eason. Punxs'y, Fred Hemer, G. Duff Zeitler, Ed Strumph.

Milliren's Funeral.

An announcement of Abram Milliren's death appeared in THE STAR last week. Just before going to press last week we were informed by a son of deceased that the funeral services would be held in the Baptist church at 2.00 p. m. Thursday, but the family afterwards ded to have funera the late residence of Mr. Milliren. Rev. J. W. Myers, pastor of the Lutheran shurch, conducted the services. The deceased was an old soldier and ome of the old veterans and a firing squad from Sons of Veterans Camp atended the funeral. Interment was made in the Baptist cemetery.

Died at Corsica.

Mrs. Alice Gricks, wife of Thomas Gricks, jr., formerly of this place, died at the home of her parents in Corsica at 11.00 p. m. Thursday, September 11. 1902. Consumption was the cause of death. Funeral took place Saturday afternoon. The relatives of this place and a dozen members of the Daughters of St. George drove to Corsica and at tended the funeral. The deceased was 24 years old. She is survived by her husband and one child.

Adjutant George Davis and Captain Keeler, two successful Army evangelists, will conduct a revival campaign in the Salvation Army hall, corner Fourth and Main streets, from Saturday, September 20th, to October 1st. Adjutant Davis is expected to preach in the Presbyterian church at 11.00 a. m. Sunday, Sept. 21st. Adjutant Davis and Captain Keeler come highly recommended and have produced most wonderful results, thousands being converted and christians made stronger through their efforts. All are invited to attend these meetings and christians to join with us. CAPTAIN.

DEATH FROM HEART TROUBLE. Isaac Cable Dropped Dead at His Farm in Paradise Monday.

Isaac Cable, who resided on Jackson street, went to his farm in Paradise early Monday morning, expecting to return to his home in this place before noon, but he did not return home alive. He had helped to load some oats and in going from barn to house he had an attack of heart trouble and fell down on his knees. He was able to get up again and talk, and thought he was able to start for home, but in about ten minutes he fell over dead. His body was brought to Reynoldsville Monday evening. Funeral services will be held at the German Reformed church in Paradise, of which denomination be was a member, this afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Reynoldsville Baptist church, and interment will be made in cemetery near church.

Isaac Cable was born in Northumberland county, Pa., October 17, 1833, making him almost 69 years old at time of death. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cable, moved to Pinecreek township, near Emerickville, about 1848. The deceased moved to a farm in Paradise 33 years ago, where he resided until a couple of years ago when he moved into Reynoldsville. He was married to Sarah Conrad, who died about 28 years ago. February 13, 1875, he was married to Mary Ann Conrad, sister of his first wife. Nine children were born to first wife, two of whom died when young, and two were born to second wife, who survives her husband. The names of the children are as follows:

John, of Soldier, William, of Big Run, Isaiah, of Reynoldsville, Joseph, of Emerickville, Mrs. Emma Aurand, of DuBois, Frank, on old homestead in Paradise, Mrs. Annie Burkhouse, of Emerickville, Pauline and Daniel J. Cable, at home on Jackson street.

Second Game of Ball.

The day of the merchants' picnic at Wishaw a game of base ball was played between the business men of the north and south sides of Main street, resulting in a victory for the southsiders. Last Thursday afternoon a second game was played on the ball grounds at this place, the northsiders being the winpers this time. Score 8-9. It was an intensely interesting game. John H. Wagner's hard hit and H. Alex Stoke's catch of a naughty fly at an opportune time, were some of the features of the game. The third game will be played to-morrow afternoon, and as each side has won a game apiece and to-morrow's game will decide the championship, it will be a game worth traveling several miles to see. The line-up in last Thursday's game was as follows: Southside-W. D. Williams catcher,

John H. Wagner pitcher, H. W. Eason first base, Fred J. Butler second base, Harry Herpel short stop, F. P. Alexander third base, W. W. Deible right field, Ed. Foster center field, H. Alex Stoke left field.

RIOT AT SYKESVILLE.

Sykes Seriously Injured—Eleven Slavs Taken to County Jail.

A fight occurred at Sykesville Sunday evening between a few Americans and about 35 Slavs, and it all started over a ten cent ball. The Slave bad been drinking all day and about six o'clock in the evening two of the Slavs took a ball from a lad on the street named Kellar and because the boy demanded the return of ball one of the Slavs slapped him. About that time the boy's father made his appearance and the trouble began. Jacob B. Sykes and three or four other Americans tried to stop the fight, as a half dozen slavs had attacked Kellar, but in a few minutes a number of other slavs appeared and took a hand in the fight. They used stones and clubs freely. Mr. Sykes was seriously injured, but will likely recover. About twenty-five Slavs were arrested and had a hearing at Sykesville Monday afternoon, but only eleven were bound over to court. Eight or nine of the participants in the fray skipped out and have not been arrested yet.

Constable Leach, with four deputies, brought the eleven Slavs to Reynolds ville about 2.00 a. m. yesterday and put them in the lock-up until the 6.44 & m. train and then took them to the county jail, handcuffed in pairs.

We understand that foreigners have been having drunken sprees at Sykesville most every Sunday during the summer, to the great annoyance of the citizens, yet no one took steps to put a stop to such conduct.

Brick and Tile Company.

Men began breaking ground Monday for the new plant of the Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Company, which is to be located south of the glass plant, between the R. & F. C. R'y cut and Sandy Lick creek. The building is to be 40 by 110 feet. It is to be a six kiln plant and will give employment to at least twenty men to start with. One kiln will be started as soon as possible to make brick to complete the plant. The company has bought ten acres of fine clay, or shale, across the creek from where plant' will be located. A bridge will be built across the Sandy Lick creek at that point and the clay will be transported across the creek to plant on an incline team enilway.

It is the intention of the company to equip the plant with the most modern machinery to manufacture common red brick, repressed brick, buff brick, paving brick, hollow block and drain tiling. The company expects to be ready to put brick on the market about the first of next year.

The directors of the Roynoldsville Brick & Tile Company are : A. O'Donnel, sr., Henry Horpel, G. W. Lenkerd, C. C. Gibson, Dr. John H. Murray and H. L. Hoke. The officers are: President, A. O'Donnel; vice-president, Henry Herpel; secretary, G. W. Lenkerd; treasurer, C. C. Gibson.

G. W. Lenkerd is to be manager of the plant.
