Had Another Hearing.

The Slavs who took part in the riot at Sykesville, September 14, when Jacob B. Sykes was badly injured, were given a hearing before 'Squire Asa Sykes, son of the man who was almost killed, and because he bound them over to court there seemed to be a doubt in the minds of some of the "legal lights" defending the Slavs about the legality of the Sykes court in this case, and the whole gang were given another hearing before 'Squire Al. Baur in Brookville Monday forenoon and he put them all under $500 bail for their appearance at court. Some DuBois parties gave bail for all the Slavs. Jacob Sykes was able to attend the hearing at Brookville and give in his testimony.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT SUNDAY.

George Heckman Was Shot in Abdo men-Taken to Hospital Monday. George W. Heckman, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Heckman, of Revnoldsville, was accidentally shot in the abdomen Sunday night by a nine-yearold brother. It was a 38-calibre revolver and it is almost a miracle that George was not instantly killed. Mrs. Heckman and two sons, George and James, drove to Troutville Sunday to spend the day with George Weber's family. About nine o'clock Sunday night they got ready to start home and were standing in the ball when the young lad said he was afraid of the "dagoes" at Big Soldier, George pulled the revolver out of his overcoat pocket and said "this will protect us from the dagoes," and the little fellow grabbed the revolver and in trying to get it out of James' grasp the weapon was discharged, the ball entering George's body between the second and third buttons on lower part of vest, deflecting to one side. Had the ball gone straight death would have been instant.

Drs. Neale and King, of Reynoldsville, and two Troutville doctors were called. Monday morning the young man was taken to the hospital at Punxsutawney.

George Heckman was 20 years old the 24th of last May. He is a painter and paper hanger by trade. He is a sober and industrious young man and the report of the shooting was a shock to his numerous young friends at this place.

We learned by telephone this morning that Heckman is getting along nicely and that there is good hopes of his recovery.

Found Dead in Bed.

Thomas Benton McKee, of Soldier, who was familiarly known as "Bent" McKee, died suddenly from neuralgia of the heart between 1.00 and 2.00 a. m. Friday, September 19, 1902. Mrs. Mc-Kee was sick and her husband got up between 12.00 and 1.00 a. m. to give her medicine and then returned to bed without complaining about not feeling well. About an hour afterward his wife heard him groan and spoke to him but he did not answer ber and she tried to raise him up, but dissolution had taken place. The doctor said his sudden death was caused by neuralgia of the beart. The deceased was a farmer, but worked in the mines occasionally. He had been working in a country bank near Soldier and on Thursday he remarked to a fellow workman that he had not felt better in years than he had that day. His sudden death was a great shock to his wife and family and a surprise to his numerous friends.

Funeral service was held at his late residence at 1.30 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church. Inerment was made in Beulah cemetery beside a son and daughter who preceded the father into the Great Beyond. "Bent" McKee was 53 years old. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. David Mc-Kee and was born near Punxsutawney. Was married to Emma Belle Pantall, of Punxsutawney. He moved to Soldier 20 years ago and was well known in this section and had numerous friends. He was the father of nine children. seven of whom, with widow, survive him. The names of the children are: Carl S., Roy P., Mary Olive, Malcolm, Fannie, Bion and Annie.

"Mr. Plaster of Paris."

"Mr. Plaster of Paris," a musical farce comedy, as its name implies, with just enough plot to hold the laugh provoking incidents together, will be the attraction at the Reynolds opera house to-night, Sept. 25. The comedy deals with the suspicious and their attendant rediculously funny predicaments of one Abindiah Binks, who has married the beautiful, dashing young widow, Mrs. Plaster, relict of the late Mr. Plaster of Paris, who is supposed to be dead, but is very much alive, and who, through the aid of Abel Sigh, an Oklahoma divorce lawyer, succeeds in mixing things up in general, which necessitates the utmost endeavors of both mind and muscle of Nels Nelson, a Swede, to straighten out. The comedy is one of the best of the many farces before the public and is presented by a company of funny players all of whom are artists. The music is of the catchy kind, dances are graceful and the many specialties delightful. The scenic arrangement is brilliant, and carried special, that a detail production of this laugh making play may be made everywhere. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store.

Try Strictly Home Players.

The editor of Punxsutawney Republican, who accompanied the hand ball players to Reynoldsville last week, in a write-up of the contest says, "We were clearly outclassed from the very start, but took our defeat good naturedly,' but he persists in prevaricating about the whist games played last fall when Punxs'y was not "in it." The Republican further says in same article: "Reynoldsville never amounted to anything baseball, and it has been several years since they have even attempted to support a team." That may be so, but if the Republican's town will pick out a team strictly Punxsy's boys, not salaried players, Reynoldsville can pick out a strictly home team that will give Punxs'y a warm game, if not a defeat.

Bright as Lightning. The main brake of the arc light circle burned out at the power house about 4.30 a. m., Sunday. The entire power house was illuminated even brighter than a flash of lightning. It was so bright the electrician had to stop the engine to shut off the light to see what trouble was. Tom Scott, who lives nearby, says it was the prettiest thing he ever saw.

The Park Stock Co. opened its return engagement here on Monday night to a packed house. The plays and performances are even better than before and that is saying a great deal. For the balance of the week a strong list of new plays is promised. If good patronage and hearty applause are indications of success, then the Park Stock Co. has made a lasting success here.-St. Marys Gazette Sept. 18. At Reynoldsville every night this week under a

BRILLIANT HOME WEDDING

L. Gourley and Miss Mayme Sutter the Happy Contracting Parties.

The marriage of Miss Mayme Sutter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sutter, of West Reynoldsville, and L. L. Gourley, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gourley, at the residence of the bride's parents at 4.00 p. m. Thursday, September 18, 1902, in the presence of almost one hundred invited guests, was a brilliant affair. Rev. W. Frank-Reber, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this place, performed the ceremony. Miss Lona Neff, of Hastings, was maid of honor, and Lyle O. Gourley, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Myrtle Smith, of Driftwood, played the wedding march from Lohengrin, and during wedding coremony and congratulations she played "Hearts and Flowers." The window curtains were down and the parlor was illuminated with crimson shaded lights. The corner of room where ceremony was solemnized was draped in white, trimmed with smilax. Large palms were also conspicuous. The bride's gown was white silk tissue over white silk, trimmed with embroidered chiffon and silk. She carried a bunch of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was in pink chiffon over pink silk. Dr. W. A. Henry and Miss Ella E.

Seeley received the guests. An elegant luncheon was served on the porch and lawn. Colored waiters from Brookville served the luncheon. It was a fashionable and elegant wedding all the way through. The bride is a handsome and charming young lady of the blonde type, and the groom, who is foreman of the Reynoldsville Volunteer, is a promising young man.

The wedding presents were beautiful and valuable, consisting of china cabinet, ent plass silverware, china linens, &c. Mr. Gourley and bride left here on the 6.15 p. m. train over the P. R. R., and never has a bride and groom received such a shower of rice as did this couple. D. B. & W. B. Stauffer, grocerymen, whose store is hardby the passenger station, sold over sixty pounds of rice and no doubt some of the party got rice at other stores. Mr. and Mrs. Gourley stopped off at Falls Creek until midnight "flyer" on B., R. & P.

and went north on a wedding trip. They will be absent ten days. For a time they will make their home with the brido's parents. THE STAR joins their many friends in vishing them unlimited happiness in ife's meanderings. The bride was a member of the Presbyterian Book Club and the member of that club gave her a "kitchen shower" the evening preceding the wedding. The "kitchen shower" consisted of about fifty pieces of tinware.

Revival Campaign. Special services are being held all this week at the Salvation Army hall under the leadership of Adjutant Geo. Davis, and Captain Keeler, Army evangelists. The services are of a most interesting, lively and inspiring character, Adjutant Davis has been engaged in evangelistic work for a long time, he is a very enthusiastic worker, an interesting and entertaining speaker and his ermons are full of good things. Captain Keller, who travels with the adjutant, is a good musician also a good singer. Both he and the adjutant play various instruments and plenty of music and singing is a leading feature of the services. The services are held at 8.00 p. m. each evening. Next Sunday evening Adjutant Davis will speak on a special subject, "Something awful about another man's wife," Who the lady is he refuses to say, but all are invited to go and hear for themselves. It is announced that on Tuesday evening of next week the local Salvation will call off their meeting here and hold a meeting in Brookville instead. The whole corps with their entire complement of officers, Adjutant Davis, Captain Donnersburg and Captain Keeler will take part and an interesting service is promised to our Brookville friends.
