'Will I Like It'

That is always the question. As you think over whether to buy or not to buy a Brush, or Bottle of Perfume, or Sponge, or Fountain Syringe, or Toilet Article, you say over to yourself, I wonder if that is what I want? Will I be satisfied with it after I get it?

When you are in doubt, just remember that if you trade at our store, and do not like what you have purchased, bring it back in good condition and we will exchange it, or refund your money. We want every customer SATISFIED with every purchase.

And the remarkable thing is that our customers are so well satisfied that we seldom have to refund the money. Come in and see what a pleasant drug store ours is.

STOKE'S PHARMACY.

A Little of Everything.

"Maloney's Wedding Day." "Maloney's Wedding Day" at the opera house Saturday evening. Ex-Governor Pattison will be in Reynoldsville next Monday forenoon. Claude Hamilton is an apprentice in Dr. B. E. Hoover's dental office. P. Doyle, formerly weigh boss at Riverview, Pa., has moved to Wishaw. Edward Reynolds is learning the blacksmith trade in Samuel Sutter's shop. The National banks of Punxsutawney are paying interest on time deposits. There will be communion service in the Baptist church at 11.00 a. m. next Sunday. Miss Anna Martin, of Pittsburg, a niece of C. F. Hoffman, is clerking in his jewelry store. A select dance was held in Frank's Park Monday night. Miller orchestra furnished the music. The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church will hold a hankerchief sale the last week in December. Mrs. William Penhall, of Rathmel, returned Friday from a two weeks' visit at Evans City and Pittsburg. A. F. Yost and James McFadden went to Dent's Run yesterday to build a coal tippie for Frank Williams & Co. William Bennett has had a Summer-ville telephone put in his residence at corner of Grant and Fifth streets. Dozens of students are being enrolled in the Reynoldsville Business College for the short hand course by mail. Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Aimee Reno Bates and Todd Lincoln Seeley October 16th, 1902. George W. Phillips, who worked in Star Glass Co. plant during last fire, moved his family to this place last week. The Punxsutawney News, Horace G. Miller editor, one of our newey exchanges, entered its eighteenth year last week. The organization in the Presbyterian church knows as the "Festival of Days" will give an "old time" concert October 17th. Don't forget the date. The laughing success of the season, "Maloney's Wedding Day," with that popular comedian, James L. McCabe, in the same part. At Reynolds opera Oct. 4.

August J. Benson, of Ellwood City, Pa., was called here the latter part of last week to attend the funeral of his brother's baby. Adelaid Thomas, young son of Robert H. Thomas, had his right arm broken at elbow a few days ago while wrestling with another boy. Austin Blakeslee, the well known coal operator at Coal Glen, has purchased Rev. R. C. Smith's residence at DuBois and will move to that place. Lawrence King, aged seven months, son of Mr. and Mrs. John King, of Proscottville, died September 29th and was buried in the Catholic cemetery yesterday. "Mr. Plaster of Paris," a three-act comedy farce, was the attraction at the Reynolds opera house Wednesday evening with a packed house. Dr. A. F. Balmer, of Brookville, was called to Reynoldsville yesterday morning by J. H. Murray for consultation in Harry Herpal's case, who is dangerously ill with typhoid fever. Mrs. David Ditch and daughter, Miss Tillie, of Rathmel, went to East Brady Saturday to visit friends over Sunday and are taking in the exposition at Pittsburg this week. Brookville has a genuine case of small-pox. Miss Anna Murphy, sister of Miss Nellie Murphy who was in the millinery business at this place a year or two ago, is the victim. The editor of THE STAR received a summons last evening to appear at the United States Court room in the city of Pittsburg on the 20th day of October to serve as a juror in the U. S. Court. Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Clayton, who were married July 2, are now having their first experience of going to house-keeping. They are moving into A. B. Weed's house in West Reynoldsville. H. P. Means, of Frostburg, who is a carpenter, came to Reynoldsville yesterday to build a house on Hill street for his son, Dr. L. L. Means, who is contemplating matrimonial affiliation. Rev. J. Bell Neff, new pastor DuBois M. E. church, and family were in town Friday on their way from Oil City to home of Mrs. Neff's parents, near Skylesville. They drove from here to Skylesville. The new Winslow township bridge over what is known as Syphrit's run, near Mitchell's fields, was finished last Thursday. V. R. Holman, of Sykeeville, built the bridge. It is a twenty foot span bridge. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. George returned Monday evening from their wedding trip. They will remain with Mrs. Georges parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ressler, several days and will then go to Urfamis, Pa., to reside. Philip Loos, formerly a clerk in N. Hanau's store, now in business at Desire, was recently married to Miss Mary Blose, of Sprankles Mills. Philip was in town Monday but did not have his "better half" with him. Tuesday evening of next week, Oct. 7, at 8.00 p. m., Rev. C. F. Cornman, of Curwensville, will deliver a temperance address in Centennial hall under the auspices of the Temperance Union. Rev. Cornman is a good talker. Stealing beer from the foreiners at Big Soldier has become a regular Saturday night practice by some of the English speaking young men of that town, and unless it is stopped something serious will occur there some Saturday night. George Heckman, the young man who was accidentally shot at Troutville the 21st of September and is in the Adria hospital yet, was reported from the hospital this morning as getting along nicely. He will soon be able to leave the hospital. The log cabin silk quilt that was made by Mrs. J. W. Chatham, of Hopkins, and was on exhibition at Bing-Stoke Co. department store, was changed off last week and Miss Minerva Chatham, of Keating, selected the lucky number and got the quilt. Thomas Cathers, of Paradise, the young man who won THE STAR'S one year scholarship to Central State Normal School in Lock Haven in 1901, and spent one year there, returned to that institution on Monday of this week for another term. Thomas is determined to get an education, and he is sure to get it. Drunkenness run riot in this place Monday night. The town is without a night policeman and there were no officers to stop the drunken rowdiness. One young fellow paraded Main street at a late hour with a revolver in his hand and frightened people whom he chanced to meet by flourishing the revolver in front of them. Bert Matson, of Brockwayville, was "held-up" by a highway robber Sunday night near Lane's Mills and had twenty dollars taken from him. The robber held a revolver close to Bert's face and said, "Hands up!" The young man obeyed the command, but afterward wanted to lower one hand to give the fellow his money, but the highwayman said: "Keep your hands up. I will get the money myself," and he did.

Naturalization Court. Judge John W. Reed held naturalization court at Brookville Monday, and eighty-eight men who were born in foreign lands were made citizens of the United States. Double Wedding To-Day. Miss Ida Brewer and Elmer E. Woodward and Miss Josephine Brewer and Willis A. Hoon will be married this afternoon at home of brides' parents in West Reynoldsville. Full particulars in our next issue. Boy Injured in Mine. Joseph McDonald, aged about fourteen years, son of Nick McDonald, had his head badly cut yesterday afternoon in the Hamilton mine. The lad is a trapper in the mine and jumped on a car to ride out of mine and accidentally fell off. Clean the Streets. The paved portion of Main street is badly in need of a good cleaning. The business men should see that the street is cleaned in front of their respective places of business and the street commissioner will, no doubt, see that the dirt is hauled away. Sunday School Rally Day. Last Sunday was rally day in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian Sunday school. A special program was rendered instead of the quarterly review. The attendance was not as large as it would have been had the weather been favorable, but it was an interesting rally. Married at Salamanca. E. O. Dickey and Miss Lillie Ward, two popular young people of Rathmel, were married at Salamanca, N. Y., on Thursday, September 25, 1902, by Rev. Vankuren, pastor of First Presbyterian church at Salamanca. They expect to go to housekeeping in Rathmel soon. Business Change. James Delaney has bought the interest of his partners, Jarvis and Joseph Williams, in the Imperial barbershop, and Mr. Delaney is now proprietor of that finely equipped and excellent barbershop. Jarvis and Joseph Williams will continue to work for Mr. Delaney. Fireman-Horman Nuptials. Henry L. Fireman, of this place, and Miss Kate Horman, of near Wishaw, were married at Brookville on Friday, September 26, 1902, by Dr. James Conway, pastor of the Brookville Presbyterian church. They have gone to housekeeping with Mr. Fireman's mother on Railroad street. Moving to East Brady. John Ward, sr., who has accepted a position as mine foreman for a coal company at East Brady, will move his family from Rathmel to that place this week. Mr. Ward, who is an Englishman, is a descendant from royal blood. He and his family have many friends at Reynoldsville and Rathmel who are sorry to see them move away. Old Folks' Day. It was announced in THE STAR last week that the second Sunday in October would be observed as old folks' day in the Reynoldsville M. E. church, but since that announcement was made it has been decided to observe next Sunday, October 5, as old folks' day. Service at 11.00 a. m. Special music and a special sermon. All the old people over sixty years of age are invited to attend this service. Those who are feeble to walk will be taken to and from church in a carriage if their names are handed to the pastor or committee. Dr. Wheeler Will Leave Town. Dr. A. C. Wheeler, who located in Reynoldsville about a year ago, has decided to move away from town, and will leave here on the 11.32 a. m. train to-day. His goods will be stored at his home at LeBouef, Pa., and Doctor and his wife will travel through Mexico, Arizona and California the coming winter for benefit of doctor's health. That is the reason for taking down his "shingle" in Reynoldsville. Dr. and Mrs. Wheeler are a pleasant and refined couple, and during their short sojourn in Reynoldsville they made many warm friends who are sorry to see them move away. Wedding This Forenoon. At 10.30 this forenoon Milton E. Williams, telegraph operator in P. R. R. office at this place, and Miss Rose Lucile Byrne, daughter of Mrs. Mary Byrne, of Second street, will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic parsonage. Rev. Father P. J. Donahue will perform the ceremony. Miss Marie Bohren will be maid of honor and Will Degan will be best man. The bridal party will take dinner at Hotel Imperial and Mr. and Mrs. Williams will leave here on the 12.52 p. m. P. R. R. "fyer" on a wedding trip to Williamsport, Philadelphia and Atlantic City. When they return from eastern trip they will visit a couple of days with relatives in Clarion county. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will go to house-keeping in rooms over the National bank. THE STAR joins with the numerous friends of this young couple in congratulations and wishing them happiness and prosperity in life's journey.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY. Ex-Gov. Pattison and Other Prominent Speakers Coming to Reynoldsville. On Monday of next week, October 6, Ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison, candidate for Governor, George W. Guthrie, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and other prominent speakers, will attend a Democratic rally in Reynoldsville. The Ex-Governor and party will arrive here on the 8.23 a. m. train over P. R. R. and will leave on the 12.52 p. m. train. The gubernatorial party will be received by reception committee and escorted to Frank's Tavern. Reception for citizens from 9 to 10 a. m. From 10 to 11.30 a. m. meeting in opera house where speeches will be made by Pattison, Guthrie and others. 11.30 a. m. to 12.30 p. m. luncheon at Frank's Tavern. New Officers Elected. At a meeting of the Young Men's Reading Association held last week, the following officers were elected: President, Dr. John H. Murray; Vice-Presidents, Rev. W. Frank Reber and John H. Wagner; Secretary and Treasurer, Dr. L. L. Means. The following committees have been appointed: Executive—G. W. Lenker, James T. Evans and Frank H. Beck. Financial—Rev. A. J. Meek, Hon. S. B. Elliott and George H. Mundorff. Literary—Rev. Perry A. Reno, Dr. B. E. Hoover and W. B. Stauffer. Social—Dr. W. A. Henry, Thomas Thomas and Frederick Dempsey. The reading room was closed for several weeks, but it is now open every evening. Family Scene on Train. A sensational drama in three acts was performed one night last week on the train that arrives here at 9.50 p. m. by a well dressed couple that recently stood at hymen's altar promising to love and protect one another. First act, angry words; second act, man slapped woman in face; third act, several commercial men on train gave the husband a good shaking and threatened to throw him out through one of the car windows if he slapped his wife again. If a man and woman quarrel that way on a train, what a lively time they must have in their own home, the usual place for such scenes. Salvation Stereoph conService. Salvation stereopticon service and farewell meeting in Salvation Army hall this, Wednesday, evening, October 1, at 7.40. One hundred and fifty views of midnight scenes of rescue work, slum and prison work and the reclaiming of the drunkard from the gutter, or the social side of the Salvation Army, will be shown. Explanatory notes by Adjutant Davis. A number of illustrated hymns. Farewell address by Adjutant Davis. Admission, 25 cents, children under 12 years, 15 cents. Students off for College. C. W. Hoffman went to Pittsburg Monday to take the third year course in West Penn Medical College. Mrs. Hoffman will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waite, near this place during this term. Harry L. McEntire went to Philadelphia last Thursday to attend the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. Ira D. Bowser, son of Dr. A. H. Bowser, went to Pittsburg yesterday to become a student in the Western Medical College of that city. Salvation Army Evangelists. Adjutant George Davis, Salvation Army evangelist, who has been conducting a revival campaign in the Salvation Army hall at this place over a week, assisted by Captain Keeler, a sweet singer, preached an excellent sermon in the M. E. church Sunday morning. He is certainly full of zeal and earnestness. Captain sang one selection before the Adjutant began the sermon. Drifting With the Tied. Thursday, September 25, 1902, Hugh Thomas and Miss Olive Carl were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper A. Carl, in Winslow township at 8.00 p. m., by "Squire E. Neff. G. W. Bailey and Bridget M. Sharp were married at the home of Woodward Sharp at 8.00 p. m. Saturday, September 27, 1902, by "Squire E. Neff. Finder will be rewarded by leaving purse and money at Woodring's grocery. It was lost by a poor man. Mrs. William Bennett will give lessons in burnt wood, embroidery and lace to a few pupils. See samples of her work at Millirens department store. Don't forget the Millinery opening of trimmed hats at Miss Sayers' Oct. 9, 10. Up-to-date shoes for men, women and children at Millirens shoe department. All dress goods at J. J. Sutters at cost. Florsheim shoes excel in fit, style and quality—at Millirens.

Bride is Known Here. Miss Maude Clayton, who is well known here, having been an assistant in the Star Glass Co. office at this place during two fires, was married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Clayton, in Kane at 10.00 a. m. Wednesday, Sept. 24, to John H. Markham, Jr., of Beaumont, Texas. The Kane Republican says: "The bride has been a resident of Kane for the past 12 years, and is one of Kane's most highly accomplished young ladies, chief of which is her musical ability. Being possessed of a genial disposition she had the happy faculty of making friends wherever she went. The groom is also well known in Kane where he was formerly interested with his father, Mr. J. H. Markham, Sr., in the drilling of oil wells, but a few years ago he went to the Beaumont oil fields and launched out for himself, where he has been very successful." Disgraceful Conduct. About five o'clock yesterday morning several young fellows, whose names we will not publish at this time, went to home of Roy M. Lewis, on Fifth street, and acted in a disgraceful manner. They tried to get Mr. Lewis to come out of the house, or stick his head out of window, as one of them had a revolver and wanted to blow his head off. From persons who heard the disturbance we understand that the language used was as vile and obscene as is possible for any person to use. It was simply disgraceful. It is high time that such fellows should learn that conduct of that kind will not be tolerated in a civilized community. Students Get Positions. The following students of the Reynoldsville Business College have accepted positions during the past month: William Warren, stenographer and bookkeeper for Dr. Mackenzie, Pittsburg; Miss Sabena Jones, stenographer and typist in William Shaffer's insurance office, Brookville, Pa.; Miss Kate Phalen, stenographer and typist in office of Elk Tanning Co., Reynoldsville, Pa.; Robert Robertson, stenographer and typist for Bindley Hardware Co., Pittsburg; John Foust, shipping clerk for the Star Glass Co., Reynoldsville; Miss Bertha Sykes, bookkeeper for Sykes Woolen Mill Co., Reynoldsville. Good Company. The C. W. Parks Stock Co. that played under canvas on the Reynoldsville ball grounds every evening last week, was greeted with a large crowd Saturday evening,—a full tent—in fact the attendance was good each evening. This company seemed to please a large percentage of the theatre going people of our town. It is a good company. This was their last engagement under canvas this year. The big tent was shipped from here to Kittanning. This week the company is playing in the opera house at Punxsutawney. Buried Saturday. Florence, baby of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Benson, who would have been one year old the 13th of October, died at the home of parents in Clearfield at 1.30 a. m., September 25, 1902, from spinal meningitis. The little body was brought to the home of John Benson, grandfather of the child, Thursday afternoon and funeral services were held at that residence at 2.00 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of Presbyterian church. Interment in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Anti-Saloon Meeting. Mr. Chase, of DuBois, district secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, was in town yesterday and arranged for two meetings in Centennial Hall to-morrow, Thursday. The first meeting will be held at 1.30 p. m., to organize an Anti-Saloon League in Reynoldsville, and at 8.15 p. m., there will be a stereopticon lecture on "Saloon Life in Great Cities." No admission charged for this illustrated lecture, but a collection will be taken up. Mothers' Club. A meeting of the Mothers' Club will be held in the Assembly hall on Friday, Oct. 3, at 3.30 p. m. A full attendance is desired as it is the time for the annual election of officers. The program will consist of a solo by Miss Julia Kirk and an address by Prof. C. V. Smith on "Home Study," the address to be followed by a general discussion of the same subject. Millinery Opening. Mrs. Lizzie Smith, the new milliner, will have an opening in the Murray building on Friday and Saturday of this week, Oct. 3 and 4. Everything of the latest styles. Fine selection of trimmed hats. New purses, belts and ladies' fancy goods at Millirens. Gibson, the optician, gives you the advantages of a thorough education, a long experience and the latest methods in eyework. See his dates. Jno. Kelly's famous shoes for women for fall just in—at Millirens. Best school shoes for boys at H. W. Eason & Co. Be sure to see Miss Sayers' line of fall and winter styles before purchasing. Cotton bats at Sutters were 15c now 10.
