THE HIGH SCHOOL .. BULLETIN ..

EDITORIAL STAFF

EDITOR—Helena Black, '09.
ASSISTANT EDITORS—Thomas Nolan, '09, Villa Aleo, '09.
LOCAL EDITOR—John Coleman, '04.

The Reynoldsville High School organized a base ball team during the month of September and the following officers were elected: Manager, Mr. Kern; captain, Tom Nolan; treasurer, Edward Hardman.

Monday September 20th, the True Blue Temperance Society challenged the high school for a game of ball. The challenge was quickly accepted and it was decided to play the game after school on Thursday, Oct. 2. They also decided to play only five innings, on account of not getting started until 4.45. But at the end of the fifth inning the score was 2-2 and it was necessary to play another inning in which the High school put forth their best effort to win the game and by clever judgment and clever work of the pitcher, with the necessary support in the field the score was advanced to 3-2 in favor of the high school. The True Blues feel very gloomy over the loss of the game, but it is expected that they will pick up more courage as well as a few good players when they undertake to play ball with the high school.

The general opinion of the spectators is that the high school team was far in advance of the True Blues in ability and knowledge of the game.

Money is being subscribed by the pupils of the Reynoldsville Public Schools for the support of the base ball team. Prospects are good and a full report will be published in the next issue of the Bulletin.

A new rule has been added to the already long list of rules:

Pupils are not allowed to come to school before 8.40 in the morning and

1.00 o'clock in the afternoon and if they should come before that time they would have to stay in twice so long, but you may be sure if a pupil would come five minutes late that he would not get out ten minutes earlier, but why should he?

The Juniors are thinking of getting "class spoons."

Rev. A. J. Meek gave a very interesting talk on "Character Building" on Friday morning at the chapel exercises.

A photographer visited the schools on Monday and took pictures of all the different rooms. Some are very good.

On account of the monthly examinations last week the literary society was postponed until Monday of this week, but on Monday morning so many not being prepared they decided to have it on Friday, Oct. 10th.

The mock trial which was to have been held October 10th was postponed until Friday, October 17th.

The Twentieth Century Club, of room 13 met Sept. 29, 1902 for the fourth time and elected the following officers for the next month: Pres. Frank Strouse; vice pres., Cora Robertson; sec., Irene Phillippi; critic, Miss Dalley; pianist, Eula Shaffer; reporter, Ethel Kunes.

Prof. Smith gave the Twentieth Century Club an address on Sept. 29, 1902.

Wallace Mitchell visited the society and sang a solo.

We are pleased with the percentage of attendance for the first month of school ending Friday, Oct. 3. The percentage for the girls was 99.7 and the same for the boys.
