The devotional exercises of the public chools last Friday morning were conducted by Rev. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church. Rev. Meek gave a en minute address to the pupils on the subject of "Character Bullding." He emphacised two important factors in the unfolding of character, namely, decision and perseverance. The address was of a high order and it was greatly appreciated by the teachers and pupils. A complete course in National banking is now in use in the Reynoldsville Business College. This is the most complete course in National banking now in use in business colleges in the United States. It has been modeled from the system now used by the largest banking houses in Chicago. This course has been secured by Prof. Huges at considerable cost, but the plan will be followed out in the future as in the past, that there is nothing to good for the Reynoldsville Busines

Hall, Jessie Corbett, Carrie Jenks, Jennie Jenks, Mary Craig, Minnie Rodgers, Mrs. W. W. Corbett, Oliver Peterson, Capt. S. A. Craig, Herbert Cook, Martin Shick and W. C. Stefle.

Street Railway.

The work of constructing the electric railway between Reynoldsville and Eleanora is being pushed as rapidly as the weather will permit. The company expects to have the line completed as far as the Jefferson Supply Co. store on Railroad street before Christmas if they do not have too much trouble in getting rails. The survey has been made down Jackson street, but unless the company has unusually good success with the work of grading and constructing road, the line will not be built down Jackson street until next spring.

Old Time Citizen.

Henry Aimen and oldest daughter, of Manhatten, Kan., are visiting the former's brother, William Aimen in this place. This is Mr. Aimen's first visit to Reynoldsville in twenty years. He resided here when the town was first laid out in lots and bought the first town lot sold in Reynoldsville. Mr. Aimen says the corn and wheat crops were never better in Kansas than they were this year and that farmers had trouble in getting help to gather in their crops, and that they had to pay from $3.00 to $5.00 a day for harvest hands.

Old Folks' Day.

Last Sunday was old folks' day in the Methodist Episcopal church and a number of the silvery-haired people of the town attended the service at 11 a. m. Those that were not able to walk were taken to and from church in carriages. The Epworth League had charge of the affair. A committee of young ladies met the old folks in vestibule of church and pinned a carnation on each one of them and another committee act ed as ushers and escorted the old folks to front seats, and some of the older ones were seated in rocking chairs. The choir had prepared special and appropriate music and Rev. Perry A. Reno astor of church, preached a sermo ultable for the day. His text was, "Hitherto the Lord hath helped us." med to enjoy the ser

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Rev. P. J. Donwhue Leaves Reynoldsville for Startwell, Ps.

Father P. J. Donahue, who has been in Reynoldsville seventeen months assisting Father Brady in administering to the spiritual needs of the Catholic congregation at this place, has been appointed to take charge of the parish at Startwell, McKean county, Pa., and will leave here on the 11.32 a. m. train to-day for his new charge. The mem bers of the C. M. B. A. and L. C. B. A. gave Rev. Donahue a farewell reception last night in the hall of the parochial school building on Sixth st. In behalf of the members present, Rev. Edward M. Driscoll, of New Bethlehem, in a peat speech, presented Rev. Donahue with a well filled purse. The ladies served refreshments.

On account of his genial and sympathetic disposition Rev. Donahue has made many warm friends, not only among the members of his congregation, who are sorry to see him leave Reynoldsville. The severing of his connections with the church at this place is felt very keenly by the members of the church. Rev. Donahue is an able and eloquent talker and a scholarly gentleman. While his people here are sorry to part with him, he has their best wishes for success in his new parish. Father P. Miller will take Father Donahue's place as an assistant in the Reynoldsville parish. He will arrive here this week.

Morning Wedding.

At 8.30 a. m. to-day John McDonald and Miss Myrtle Jewell were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church. Rev. P. J. Donahue performed the Nuptial Mass. Miss Mary McDonald, sister of groom, was maid of honor, and Will F. Martin, of New Bethlehem, was best man. The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of white silk and the bride's maid was dressed in light blue silk. A wedding breakfeast was served at home of bride's sister, Mrs. L. S. Anderson, on Jackson street. The wedding party will drive to DuBois this forenoon and take the train there for a trip east. They will visit Philadelphia, Atlantic City an other places. The groom is the oldest son of P. Mc-Donald, the well known lumber contractor, and the young man is now making arrangements to take a large lumber contract in California. He is well experienced in that line of business. The bride is a very pleasant young lady who has a host of friends in Reynoldsville. THE STAR joins with the numerous friends of this newly wedded couple in extending congratulations and best wishes for happiness and prosperity in life's journey.

Met Horrible Death.

"Trixie," Frank J. Black's little black dog, met a horrible death on the R. & F. C. R'y Main street crossing at this place Monday forenoon by being run over by a freight train. "Trixie" would stay at The Mansion a few days then visit W. W. Wiley at City Hotel several days, spend a little time with Grier Sweitzer at Hotel Imperial and make an occasional trip to residence of Thomas Black on First street, and it was a visit to the latter place that caused her death. "Trixie" was a smart dog and had a good disposition, consequently had many friends.

Killed Large Heron.

J. E. Crawford and Warren Waite killed a blue heron-species of cranenear the old Sensor camp last Thursday. It measured 64 feet from tip to tip of wing. Mr. Crawford brought the heron to Reynoldsville to have James Lusk, taxidermist, fix it up for him.

GUBERNATORIAL PARTY HERE,

Democratic Meeting in Reynolds Opera House Monday-Large Crowd Present:

Hon, Robert E. Pattison, Democratic candidate for Governor, Hon. George W. Guthrie, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and other prominent Democrats visited Reynoldsville Monday of this week. The gubernatorial party arrived here on the 8.23 a. m. train on P. R. R. in a Pullman car, "Olympic." The reception committee, Keystone hand and a large number of people were at the station to meet the distinguished visitors, who were taken to Frank's Tavern in carriages. A reception was held at the hotel from 9.00 to 10.00 a. m. and from 10.00 to 11.30 a. m. a public meeting was held in the opera house Notwithstanding the inclement weather and unusual hour for holding a po litical meeting, the opera house was County Chairman A. C. Smith called the assemblage to order and Lawver George M. McDonald, of this place, was chosen president of the meeting, with a large number of vice-presidents.

Hon. G. W. Guthrie was first speake introduced. His subject was "Ballot Reform." Ex-Governor Pattison was the next speaker introduced. He talked about "Government Under the Constitution." The Ex-Governor is a good talker and his address was listened to very attentively by the large audience. The third and last speaker was Major M. Veale, of Philadelphia. He spoke of the qualifications of the Republican and Democratic candidates to fill the bighest office in the state.

After the meeting adjourned lunche was served at Frank's Tavern. At 12.40 the Ex-Governor and party returned to the special car, which was attached to the 12.52 p. m. train and they were taken from here to DuBois, where a reception was held in the afternoon.

Mr. Pattison and party were well pleased with the reception given them at this please.

Mothers' Club Meeting.

At a meeting of the "Mothers' Club" ast Friday afternoon in Assembly hall the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. A. J. Meek; 1st Vice-Pres., Mrs. J. W. Gillespie; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. W. C. Elliott; Sec., Mrs. Maud Booth; Treas., Mrs. J. C. Hirst.

The program consisted of a vocal solo by Miss Julia Kirk, and an instructive and practical address by Prof. Smith. He claimed there was not sufficient time in the school room for the mastery of the lessons, hence, there must be home study. The subject was then discussed by a number of the mothers and teachers present. It was decided to have as the subject for the next meeting, "Home Amuse ments." These meetings cannot fail to be helpful to both parents and teachers, and an invitation is extended to all mothers and friends of education to be present. MRS. MAUD BOOTH, Sec.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Two Sisters Married Under Same Beautiful Arch-Elegant Wedding.

The double wedding in West Reynoldsville at two o'clock on the afterno of October 1, 1902, when the two handsome daughters of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brewer were married to Elmer E. Woodward and Willis A. Hoon, was an elegant event in matrimonial ranks. Promptly at two o'clock Prof. Arthur Haskins, author and musician, began playing Mendelsshon wedding march as Elmer E. Woodward, of Monessen, and Miss Ida Emeline Brower stepped into the parlor and under an arch of white carnations, back of which was a beautiful bank of house plants and over topof arch two spotless white doves with spread wings. Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, perormed wedding ceremony. Miss Emeline Weir, of DuBols, was maid of honor and Willis A. Hoon was best man. Leslie Woodward, brother of groom, was to have acted as best man, but he was taken suddenly ill. The bride was dressed in white silk organda, trimmed in point lace, and white baby ribbon and carried a bunch of white roses. The bride's maid was dressed in white India silk. During congratulations Prof.

Haskins played "Old Flower song." At 2.10, while Mendelsshon wedding march was being played, Willis A, Hoon, of Monessen, and Miss Mary Josephine Brewer stepped under the beautiful arch and plighted their vows, Rev. Meek officiating. This bride was also dressed in white silk organda, trimmed with white baby ribbon and point lace, and carried white roses. Miss Lizzie Schugrow was bridesmaid. She was dressed in pink organda. Ward C. Secrist, of DuBois, was best man.

At four o'clock an elegant wedding dinner was served to about 80 guests who witnessed the beautiful wedding ceremony, and amidst a shower of rice and good wishes, the two young men and charming brides left here on the 5.27 p. m. train over P. R. R. train for Monessen, their future home, where Messrs. Woodward and Hoon hold good positions with the Page Wire Fence Co. All four of the young people are well known here and have a host of friends in this section. Mr. Hoon is a son of Mrs. A. H. Hoon, of Main street, and Mr. Woodward was assistant postmaster in Reynoldsville several years while his brother, A. M. Woodward, was postmaster at Reynoldsville.

The cornet band sernaded the wedding party soon after the nuptial knot was tied. The band was at station to help make merry while waiting for the train. The wedding presents were valuable, seful and very pretty, consisting of silverware, china sets, table linens, dishes, towels, cushions, in fact the presents were too numerous to mention. The following out of town people attended the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Brewer, of Perrysville, grandparents of brides, Samuel E. McDonald and wife, Mrs. John R. Hines, Mrs. John Fox, Mrs. Lamel Edman, of Pittsburg, Samuel Simms and wife, Mrs. Mollie Trusel, of Punxsutawney, John Weir and wife, Miss Emeline Weir, Ward C. Secrist, Park Woodward and wife, Bert Titus, of DuBois, Miss Blanche Jones, Andrew McClelland, of Falls Creek, Mrs. Susle Wacob, of
