

Wishaw.

Mrs. Isaac Crossman, of near town, is ill at present.

W. P. Miller visited his parents near Troutville last Sunday.

R. M. Sechrist, of DuBois, paid his parents a visit one day last week.

Mrs. James Potter and family, of Desre, called on friends in the West end the first of the week.

There were no services in town on Sunday as the minister, Rev. Tengarden, was unable to be present.

The butcher of this town is doing a rushing business at present. He was unable to supply the demand last Saturday.

W. H. Robar, of Sykesville, was in town one day last week looking up delinquent pupils, as he is the attendance officer of this district.

Charley Dicke, one of our promising young men, is installed as assistant butcher in Mr. Johnson's meat market on South Main street.

These five days gives our hustling contractor, J. V. Young, a good start on the company houses on the hill. Four are completed at present.

The trolley road is now almost completed through our town from Eleanor. Speed the day when we can board the cars at this place for Reynoldsville.

Charles Faceomeyer, of Eleanor, passed through town last Friday on his way to New Bethlehem to visit his folks who are ill with typhoid fever.

This week finishes one month of night school in our village and the scribe takes the pleasure of saying that the boys mean business, which means the proper employment of the time by the boys in attendance.

Mr. David Drumbaugh was in town one day last week soliciting funds for the enlarging of the cemetery at the Syphrit church. This is a move worthy of the consideration of every one in our community and, therefore, should receive unanimous support.

Next Tuesday will be election day, boys. Turn out and show your colors by exercising the greatest privilege an American citizen enjoys. A good turnout is desired for the reason that in the future we might want a voting precinct at this place, hence the necessity of a full vote from this part of the township.

Paradise.

The apple butter and sourkraut season is here.

Curt Wells and family visited at John Lotts on Sunday.

Wayde Breaker visited at C. E. Strouse's over Sunday. A good turnout is desired for the reason that in the future we might want a voting precinct at this place, hence the necessity of a full vote from this part of the township.

Rev. Spencer has been busy the last few weeks making pastoral calls.

Fred Deemer, of Deemers Cross Roads, spent Sunday in Paradise.

A. P. Wells and wife, of Gobblers Knob, Sunday in Paradise.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Syphrit attended church at Dutch Paradise last Sunday afternoon.

Jacob Henninger and son, of Reynoldsville, called on Paradise friends one day last week.

The Ludwick-Lott hydraulic elder press was shut down last week on account of scarcity of water.

The paper hangers have been busy papering Frank Hillis' new house the past week. Looks rather suspicious, Frank.

Coal for sale at the Strouse-Sheesley bank.

Mrs. Harry Klinglesmith, of Reynoldsville, visited her sister, Mrs. Cathers, last Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Sykes and Mrs. Asa Philippi, of Sykesville, visited Mrs. Martin Strouse last Wednesday.

J. M. Strouse and Lee Sheesley attended the neck-tie social at the Best School house last Saturday night.

Emerickville.

Misses Edith Schugars and Bertha Stalman spent Saturday in Reynoldsville.

C. A. Burkhouse drove to Summer-ville last week and purchased a fine cow.

The Misses Aida, Bessie and Aimee Baum, of Reynoldsville, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. H. G. Schugars and Mrs. Jos. Mottren visited in Reynoldsville Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Pfifer and Mrs. London, of Sykesville, attended the birthday party given in honor of Mrs. Jeremiah Mowery, in this place Friday.

Mrs. S. T. Stormer, who has been very ill with rheumatism the past eight months, is in a very critical condition. Drs. T. C. Lawson and A. F. Balmer amputated her right arm Sunday.

The body of Mrs. Jacob Fyock, who died at Port Barnett Oct. 23, 1902, was brought to this place for burial on Saturday. Interment in the West end cemetery. Funeral services conducted by Rev. Albert Sydow.

Being misinformed we stated in last week's letter that Mrs. W. H. Mowery attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Lindsey, of Kane, we wish to say that we were mistaken. She attended the funeral of her brother, Wm. Isthman, of Mill Stone.

Out of Death's jaws.

"When death seemed very near from a severe stomach and liver trouble, that I had suffered with for years," write P. Muse, Durham, N. C., "Dr. King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave me perfect health." Best pills on earth and only 25c at H. Alex Stokes drug store.

Discouragements for Merchants.

A groceryman of Reynoldsville said to editor of THE STAR one day last week: "Merchants have a good many discouraging things to contend with. We pay taxes, help support the schools and churches, and help to support the town in various ways, are called upon for aid when people are in need, are expected to contribute liberally when there is a celebration, reunion or anything special going on, and yet some of the very people who expect us to contribute to these things, buy most of all, in the long run pay as much as they would at home for the same goods. They help merchants of other towns who do not spend any money in our town, unless it is for an occasional dinner and horse feed while in town delivering goods. During a strike since I have been in business at Reynoldsville the groceryman contributed cash to support strikers and in some cases the money was sent out of town to buy groceries."

It is a real fact that too many of our people patronize merchants of other towns when they should patronize home merchants and by so doing help build up the town they live in. A good way to kill a town is not to support its business men. When we have just as good stores in Reynoldsville as can be found in neighboring towns, our merchants sell at as small profit as other merchants, and the town would be no good if we did not have merchants, is it reasonable that our people should order new dresses, &c., by mail or buy groceries from out of town firms who send solicitors around to take orders? Just stop, for a minute, and suppose you were engaged in business in Reynoldsville and the people would send out of town to buy goods that you handled. How mad would you get about it? If our merchants were exorbitant in prices and handled a poor grade of goods it would be different. But that is not the case.

Arrested at Brookville.

W. H. Carey, a glassworker of Jeanette, came to Reynoldsville last week and secured work in the glass plant. He said he wanted to move his family to Reynoldsville, but didn't have the necessary money to move his family. Wm. Bennett, manager of factory, who is a large hearted and liberal gentleman, loaned Carey $60.00 to move to this place. Carey quietly skipped out to look for work some where else. Mr. Bennett had a warrant issued for Carey for getting money under false pretense. It was not known where Carey went from here, but an officer followed Mrs. Carey, unbeknown to her, and he found Carey at Brookville and arrested him. Carey paid back the $60.00 and $10.00 additional for costs.

What Theodore Roosevelt Says.

An article on "The Presidency," by Theodore Roosevelt, to be published in the November 6th issue of The Youth's Companion, will be of great public interest. When the article was written Mr. Roosevelt had not even been nominated for the Vice-Presidency.

Nothing was then further from his thought than that he would so soon exercise the great powers which are entrusted to the President of the United States.

In view of the circumstances the article possesses an importance more than ordinary, and it will be eagerly looked for. The number of The Youth's Companion containing it, and all the subsequent issues of 1902, will be sent free to new subscribers from the time their subscription of $1.75 is received for the 1903 volume. The new subscriber will also receive The Companion Calendar for 1903, lithographed in twelve colors and gold. Full illustrated announcement of the new volume and sample copies of The Companion will be sent to any address free.

Wreck at Winterburn.

A big freight wreck occurred on the Low Grade Division of the P. R. R. at Winterburn, 25 miles east of Reynoldsville, about six o'clock Saturday evening. A train of 45 loaded cars, two engines, going east, broke in two somewhere between Sabula and Winterburn, unbeknown to train crew, and front end stopped at Winterburn for orders and the rear end crashed into it, wrecking 25 cars on the high fill, where big trussle formerly was. Most of the cars rolled down the embankment, carrying ties and rails with them. Traffic was delayed on the railroad a few hours. It was the most expensive wreck that has occurred on the Low Grade Division for some time.

They who truly love nature should visit the woods these days. Take your gun along for game, if you wish, but there's just as much pleasure without one. The fields, the hills, the woods, always beautiful, are doubly so when the multi-colored tints of autumn paint all in a gorgeous array. Beneath the trees the crisp dead leaves rustle a merry welcome, and now and the rise of a startled pheasant or the rapid passing of a rabbit afford a pleasant surprise. To the pessimist alone they are "the melancholy days," for all others they are the gladdest of the year.

John H. Doubles, the butterine dealer, has begun business again at the old stand, second door east of No. 2 hose house. Price 22 cts per pound. Fresh oysters a specialty.
