CUBAN RECIPROCITY HALTS.

Expert Sent to the Island to Discover Facts Concerning Industry and Finances.

After a conference between Secretaries Hay and Root it was decided to send General Tasker Bliss to Cuba to investigate the industrial situation and the financial prospect in the island. He is an expert on Cuban tariffs and upon his report will largely depend the extent of the concesdons to imports from Cuba in the re ciprocity treaty that will be present Our government is willing to grant 20 per cent, but Cuba demands on some articles as high as 70 per cent. The fariff of the United States on all articles produced in Cuba is so high that a 20 per cent reduction will mean much to the island. The pres ent duty on sugar is about 100 pe cent, and a reduction of 20 per cen will give a rebate to Cuba of $20 in every $100 worth of sugar sent to this ountry. The duty imposed by Cuba on cotton manufactured goods is about 33 1-3 per cent, and the United States manufacturers shipping cot ton to Cuba under a like 20 per con relate would secure an advantage of only about $6 2-3 on each $100 worth sons arising from the conduct of the only about $6.2-3 on each $100 word. ## BASED ON MUTUAL REGARD.

Honest Intentions Towards All the World, Backed Up With the

Fighting Powers. President Roosevett was the prin cipals speaker at the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce, New York, Tuesday. Besides the foreign diplomats the guests of honor embraced Secretary Root, Secretary Shaw, General MacArthur, Governor Odell and Rear Admira! Barker. address of the President was followed with close attention. Mr. Roosevel said: "This body stands for the tri umphs of peace abroad and at home I think I can say safely that we have shown by our attitude toward Cuba, by our attitude toward China, that as regards weaker powers our desire is that they may be able to stand alone and if they will only show themselves willing to deal honestly and fairly with the rest of mankind we, on our side, will do all we can to help, not to hinder, them. With the great powers of the world we desire no rivalry We believe that the trend of the mod ern spirit is ever stronger toward peace and friendship as the norma international attitude. We are glad that we are on good terms with all the other peoples of mankind, and no effort on our part shall be spared to secure a continuance of these rela-tions. The voice of the weakling or the craven counts for nothing when he clamors for peace, but the voice of the just man armed is potent. We need to keep in a condition of prepa ration, especially as regards our navy not because we want war, but cause we desire to stand with those whose plea for peace is listened to with respectful attention. In the proboms of labor and capital no patent remedy can be devised for the solu-tion of these grave problems in the industrial world, but they can solved at all only if we bring to the solution certain old-time virtues, and if we strive to keep out of the solution some of the most familiar and most undesirable of the traits to which mankind has owed untold degradation and suffering throughout the ages. Arrogance, suspicion, brudifference toward those who are not well-to-do, the hard refusal to con sider the rights of others, the foolish refusal to consider the limits of bench ficent action. From these and from all kindred vices this Nation must be kept free if it is to remain in its pres ent position in the forefront of the peoples of mankind. Good will come even out of the present evils if face them armed with the old homely virtues; if we show that we are fear-less of soul, cool of head and kindly

REVIEW OF TRADE.

Preparations Being Made for Heavy Holiday Business Late Delivery Means Heavy Consumption.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Lower prices for rall-way stocks than at any time since last March do not necessarily indicate loss of traffic not a setback in business. On the contrary, coindle dent with the collapse of the stock market there were numerous evi-dences that manufacturing and transporting interests have not sufficient facilities to meet demands, al-though plants and equipment are now of greater efficiency than at any previous time. Distribution of mer chandise is full; maintained, preparations being made for a heavy holiand frequent complaints of tardy deliveries testify to the heavy consumption. Prospects for continued activity are bright, be-cause of unprecedented harvests, prosperity in the agricultural districts assuring a good demand for other products. Threatened labor controversies have been averted, in some cases wages being advanced while a number of increases were charging conspiracy, District Actor coluntarily given. Italiway earnings continue to advance, the first week of November showing a raise of 4.9 per cent over 1901, and 15.2 per c over 1900. High temperature retards retall trade in seasonable goods. Aside from the expected decline in prices of pipes and tubes there een no evidence of weakness in iron and steel, and all the recent concessions were caused by competition of new plants rather than diminished business. Many purchasers are de-laying orders, however, in the hope that the market will go lower in ther departments, but there is al normal support in the light move ment of coke. Rail mills are fully booked up to next September, and a Canadian road placed a large order in Germany, while structural shapes are in great request, especially for bridges. Eastern manufacturers of foot wear are offering no induce-ments to buyers, and, while no actual advances in prices have occurred. the market is decidedly strong, Western shops are also busy. Sole leather is active and firm, both domestic and export sales being large. Some west-ern tanners advanced prices, which checked business. Limited supplies in first hands and with jobbers have sustained cotton goods, despite the sharp decline in the raw material Clothing manufacturers report encouraging results in their first test of the market on spring garments. Fallures for the week numbered 241 in the United States against 215 last year, and 24 in Canada, compared
