NUMBER 29.

Saturdays keeps him so busy that he cannot follow the baying of the hound, but never the less he enjoys a feast on bunnies occasionally, as some of our nimrods sympathize with him in his plight and "whack up" with him, thereby lessening life's burdens somewhat.

Jack Kuhns, of near Punxsutawney, who operates a sawmill in our vicinity, was seen on our streets one day last week.

Mr. Teltrick, of whom we made mention last week, moved into town a few days ago. Welcome, such men as Mr. Teltrick into our midst, as we do good citizens.

Our town very nearly witnessed a "scrap" at the butcher shop last Saturday night. John, I glory in your spunk for putting the "Dago" out of your meat market.

James Beattie, one of our hustling young townsmen, is giving his house a coat of paint at present. That is right Jim, set a good example and you will always find someone following suit.

FORMAL OPENING OF THE ELKS' NEW CLUB ROOMS

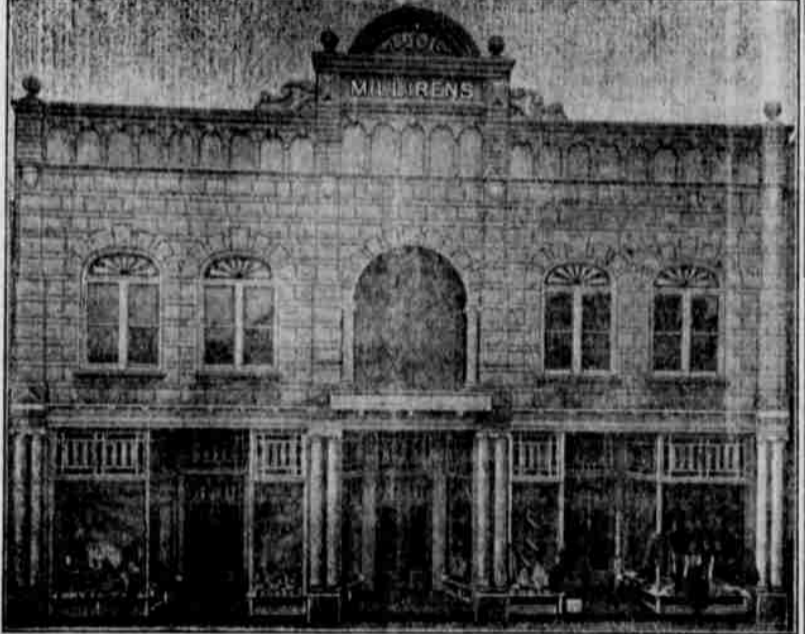

Reynoldsville Lodge now has Finest Suite of Rooms in this Section of the State.

NEARLY FIFTEEN HUNDRED PEOPLE VISITED THE ROOMS WEDNESDAY

Equipped in the most Luxurious Fashion and Conveniently Arranged for Service and Pleasure—Thursday a Large Number of Visiting Elks were Entertained and Given a Banquet.

Last Wednesday afternoon and evening the Reynoldsville Lodge of Elks held a public reception in their elegant and spacious new quarters, occupying the entire second floor, 60 by 100 feet, of the Milliren magnificent stone fifteen hundred people visited the rooms Wednesday afternoon and evening, and many of our people were surprised at the magnificent rooms of the Elks. Such expressions as, "the rooms are grand," "fine," "lovely," &c., were heard from front block. The rooms were elaborately decorated with the lodge colors, purple and white. The work indicated that the decorators thoroughly understood their business. The decorations added considerably to the appearance of the quarters occupied by the Elks. It is estimated that from twelve to numerous visitors. Light refreshments, Macaroons, Lady Fingers and punch were served to all who cared to partake. An orchestra of five pieces furnished fine music for the occasion. The musicians were Frank P. Alexander, Frank Smith and Miss Frances King, of Reynoldsville, Dr. Nickerson and Mr. Farber of DuBois.

Thursday afternoon and evening the lodge of Elks of Reynoldsville entertained the Elks of this section. There were at least a hundred visiting Elks present. The Harris Quartette of Pittsburg, accompanied by H. F. Blansy, the monologue artist and jolly entertainer, also of Pittsburg, were present to assist in making the opening of the Elk rooms a most enjoyable affair.

The dance hall and lodge rooms, which are connected with folding doors, were turned into a large banquet hall and five long tables, that would seat two hundred people, were loaded with choice edibles, best the market would afford, and about eleven o'clock the Elks and their guests were seated at these tables giving unmistakable evidence of their appreciation of the cuisine production under which the tables fairly groaned—the menu was elaborate. Joseph Bensingler, the genial proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, of DuBois, who has been a member of the Elks for twenty-one years, acted as toastmaster, and he proved himself a master in that capacity. "A feast of reason and a flow of soul" was indulged in for an hour after the "inner man" had been satisfied. Squire M. M. Davis was the toastmaster's first victim, which was unexpected, but Squire was equal for the occasion, and his toast was the best given at the banquet. There were Elks present from Punxsutawney, Clearfield, DuBois, Ridgway, Kane, St. Marys, Brookville, Clarion, Kittanning, and other places, and in response to call from toastmaster they complimented the Reynoldsville Elks on the beautiful and convenient quarters they now occupy—the finest Elk rooms in this section of the state.

The Reynoldsville Elks proved to the visitor's that their hospitality is unlimited.

The Elk rooms were planned especially for the purpose now used and they are as "handy as a pocket in a shirt," and consist of ladies' parlor, gentlemen's parlor, billiard room, card room, ball room, lodge room, kitchen, ladies' cloak and toilet room, two ante-rooms, property room, gentlemen's toilet room and bath room. The rooms are elegantly furnished. The furniture in ladies' parlor is upholstered in silk damask and a Wilton velvet ring on floor. The furniture in gentlemen's parlor is upholstered in leather and a Body Brussels rug on floor.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from Rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the Kidneys, purify the blood and cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50 cts at H. Alex Stokes drug store.

Rev. Irl Hicks Almanac. To say that this splendid work of science and art is finer and better than ever, is stating it mildly. The demand for it is far beyond all previous years. To say that such results, reaching through thirty years, are not based upon sound sense and usefulness, is an insult to the intelligence of the millions. Prof. Hicks, through this great Almanac, and his famous family and scientific journal, WORD AND WORKS, is doing a work for the whole people not approached by any other man or publication. A fair test will prove this to any reasonable person. Added to the most luminous course in astronomy for 1903, forecasts of storms and weather are given, as never before, for every day in the year, all charmingly illustrated with nearly two hundred engravings. The price of single Almanac, including postage and mailing, is thirty cents. WORD AND WORKS with the Almanac is $1.00 a year. Write to WORD AND WORKS PUBLISHING CO., 2201 Locust street, St. Louis, Mo., and prove to yourself their great value.
