Small Pox in Town.

There are several cases of small por n town and great care should be used to prevent the disease from spreading. The cases are in a mild form, which has tendency to make the members of the amilies where disease has developed to be entirely too careless about the mat ter. A communication from Dr. J. C. Savers, medical examiner for the Board of Health, will be found on first page.

Tannery Burned.

The large tannery of the Eagle Tan ning Company, located at Ridgway was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. The fire is supposed to have been started through the explosion of gas meter which was used in connec tion with a gas engine and was fed from a high pressure service pipe. The loss is estimated at from $400,000 to $500,000. Over 35,000 sides of finished leather were destroyed. The company did not carry any insurance.

Fell From Oil Derrick.

Herb G. Lewis, of Imperial, Pa., fell from an oil derrick the first of last week and was badly injured, but not as badly injured, we are glad to state, as was first reported, which was that he had both arms and both legs broken, skull ractured and was injured internally. He did have one arm broken and skull fractured. Herb is now in a hospital at Pittsburg. His father, H. H. Lewis, of this place, went down to Pittsburg Thursday to see him. Herb's numero friends in Reynoldsville will be glad to know that he will_be able to come to nome of his parents this week, at least that is the intention now.

Presented With a Chair. Robert Barker, who was a charter nember of Mazomania Tribe, No. 341, mproved Order of Red Men, of Reynoldsville, and who held an important office in the Tribe, has moved to Hastings, Pa., as stated in THE STAR last week, and some of his Indian brothern decided to give Mr. Barker a substantial token of their appreciation of the faithful manner in which he discharge ed his duties as an officer, consequently at the setting of sun on the second deep of hunting moon, at Hotel Im perial Mr. Barker was presented with a handsome chair. John Warnick made the presentation address.

Yesterday we received from Prof. R. B. Teltrick the catalogue and program of the forty-seventh annual session of the teachers' institute of Jefferson county, to be held in the Belvedere opera house, Brookville, Monday, Depember 29, 1902, to Friday, January 2. 1903. The day instructors and evening sutertainers will be up to the high tandard of excellence which Prof. Teitrick has been engaging for institute week. This promises to be as interest ing and profitable institute as was over held at Brookville, for which our efficient county superintendent deserves praise and credit. We will have more to say about the institute next week.

Golden Engle Ladies Entertained.

Thursday evening of last week, Dec. a "red letter" event occurred with the members of Pleasant Valley Temple No. 25, Ladies of the Golden Eagle. Grand Templar Mrs. Alice Mayer, of Harrisburg, paid Pleasant Valley Temple an official visit and exemplifled the unwritten work of the Degree. The members of Temple presented Mrs. Mayers with a beautiful gold mounted ink well, which was a small token of their high esteem for Mrs. Mayers. The present was greatly appreciated. Nine ladies from McKinley Temple of Eleanora drove to Reynoldsville and attended Pleasant Valley Temple. After the "goat" was locked up and lodge adjourned the ladies all went to Bell's hall where the members of the Knights of Golden Eagle had prepared an oyster supper and entertainment for them. It was a real pleasant and enjoyable occasion, one that the participants will not soon forget. Everybody went home feeling happy.

Impressive Ceremonles.

It is the custom of the B. P. O. E. to hold a memorial service once a year and pay a tribute of respect to the memory of the brothers who died during the year. This beautiful and impressive service was held in the Elk lodge rooms in Reynoldsville at 3.00 p. m. Sunday and was participated in by a large number of members. The memorial service was read by Exaulted Ruler Frank J. Black and responses made by each sub-ordinathe offcer in turn John D. Nolan and Edward Bernard Phalen, whose deaths occurred about five months apart, were the first and only members of the B. P. O. E. at this place to depart this life. We have seen informed by those present that this was an affecting and very im pressive service. The next time the Elks hold such a service they will make It public.

Trolley Line News

Tuesday morning of this week there were two miles of trolley line track to be laid between Reynoldsville and Wishaw. Two crews of men are at work, one on each end of line, laying rack as fast as possible. The company is having trouble getting ties and this may delay the completion of the trolley line a few days. The line has been graded down Jackson street as far as the corner of Sixth street and the rails have been laid down as far as residence of L. J. McEntire.

The line will likely be completed in ime to run cars between this place and Punxsutawney before Christmas.

L. J. McEntire is to be ticket agent for the trolley company at Reynolds ville, in the B. & L. Association building near the public fountain.

Brutal Assault. Saturday night four or five fellows o his neighborhood made a brutal assault n a man named Hays from Eleanors. We understand that warrants have been issued for the fellows who assaulted Hays. From information that we received concerning the affair the assault was made without any excuse for it at all. It is time that some of the "bullies" in this immediate vicinity were dealt with severely for assaulting people. They are entirely too, willing to assault and thump others. Some of them act as if they would rather fight than eat, especially when they get two three drinks of whiskey in them

Bargains in Horse Flesh.

Grant Shuster, the borse dealer, who s pretty well known over the county, as he has advertised considerable, is now at the old Hotel McConnell barn, in Reynoldsville, with twenty head of draft and driving horses for sale or exchange. This will be your opportunity to get a good horse at a bargain, as all the horses must be sold this week. If you want a horse call and see Mr. Shuster. He has a good stock to select from.

Advertising Schemes,

Elsewhere in this issue of THE STAR will be found a communication from a business man of Reynoldsville who suggests that a business men's league be formed at once for various reasons, one of which is to enter into an agreement not to patronize botel registers, chart advertisers and other catch-penny advertising schemes. Business men in other towns, who have given the matter consideration, have discovered that they get very little benefit, if any, from such advertising methods and, as our correspondent states, they have quit patronizing these traveling advertising schemes and have adopted the newspapers almost exclusively for advertising purposes, and as a result the newspapers in many of our surrounding towns have a large advertising patronage all the year around.

There are people who are always ready to give an advertisement to som traveling scheme, and, in some cases pay an exhorbitant price for the ad vertisement, who never advertise in home paper at very low rates. It is sur prising sometimes how easy a smooth ongued stranger can induce person engaged in business to give an adver isement, at the strangers own price for some scheme that will not b nefit the advertiser at all.

Postoffice Inspector. A postoffice inspector was here la week looking for a larger room to move the Reynoldsville postffice into, but we understand that he left town without securing a suitable room for the price Uncle Sam wants to pay. The Inspect or wanted the room in the Nolan block that Mr. Sutter will soon vacate, but didn't want to pay the rent asked. have been informed that Uncle Sam wants a large room, wants the owner o building to put in a large case with 400 lock boxes in it, wants a burgular proof vault in building, roll top desk, light, heat and water included, and will pay $400.00 per annum for same.

We suppose that if an effort nade to move the postoffice very far from its present location, either up or down the street, that there would be howl go up and very likely a long petition sent to Washington protesting against moving it. No doubt Mr. Ross can be pursuaded to build an edition on to the present postoffice building.

Coasting on Sidewalks. Florence Elliott, youngest daughter of W. C. Elliott, had a narrow escape from serious injury Saturday morning by being knocked down by a coasting sled. Coasting and skating on sidewalks are prohibited by a borough ordinance, but the boys and girls keep at it, when sidewalks are in condition for skating, regardless of the law, and pedestrians have to give them the right-of-way or an accident is sure to occur. No one enjoys seeing the boys and girls having a good time more than does the editor of THE STAR, but they should not be allowed to engage in such dangerous sport, to themselves and others, as coasting and skating on sidewalks, and about the only way to put a stop to it is to make several arrests and then the boys and girls will be convinced that the borough ordinance means something.

Christmas Present

For several years we have suggested about this time of year that a subscription to THE STAR for one year would be a suitable Christmas present to give a friend who does not already take THE STAR, and each year a few people act on the suggestion, and for that reason we nake the same suggestion this year. What can you buy for $1.00 that a friend would get as much benefit out of and be reminded every week in the year of the giver, as a year's subscription to THE STAR ? Try it.

AN OPPORTUNE TIME.

Enterprising Citizens Should Make An Effort for New Industries.

At this season of the year, when manufactors are closing up their business for 1902 and are making arrange ments for the future, and some, no doubt, are looking around for new and advantageous locations, just such as Revnoldsville has to offer, would it no be a very opportune time for the enterprising citizens of this town to bestig themselves and make another effort to locate a manufacturing industry or two in our midst. There are few, if any towns, that can offer better induce ments for capitalists to invest money in a large industry than is offered in Reynoldsville. Land will be given free, fuel is cheap, taxes low, good railroad facilities, it fact everything that an industry can find in any other section of the country. A large industry can be operated cheaper at this town than anywhere else. When our town has gotten after an industry in real earnest t has landed the industry, but we have not been chasing as many industries as we should.

We must know this that if we would get an industry we must go after it, they will not force themselves upon us. With good schools, good churches, electric lights, water works, street car line, and soon to have paved streets, cheap fuel, free manufacturing sites good railroad facilities, &c., &c., we can certainly present inducements to capitalists to come our way. If we arouse to our opportunity another industry will be in operation at Reynoldsville before 1903 draws to a close. Shall we be up and doing ?

Has some one in town an application from some industry desiring a location? Being out the application and let it be given due consideration.

To-day the Reynoldsville Business

A Year of Success

College celebrates the first anniversary of its existence under the management of Prof. and Mrs. H. J. Hughes. The growth of this college has been marvelous and speaks well for the ability of the orincipal and instructors. From a feeble beginning with butsix pupils the school has steadily grown until to-day it numbors over fifty regular pupils, with many graduates in responsible positions, and in equipment and quarters takes rank with the leading business colleges in the State. A room in the Henry building was first rented and seemed very large, but before three months had passed it became too small to accommo date the increased number of pupils. In the spring an entire suite of rooms on the second floor of the new Deible block was rented and fitted up especially for the convenience of the college, having an office and separate rooms for the different classes. Several new Smith Premier and Remington typewriters were added, together with other new equipment, and a short time ago the rooms were entirely refurnished. The college is thoroughly modern in ts methods and teaches every branch accessary for a good business education. Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Arithmetic and other branches are taught daily and on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, evening sessions are held which are now attended by many who cannot be present in day time.

The college deserves the hearty feception given to it, and there is no need any person leaving the town to se cure better advantages, for Prof. Hughes offers all that is desired, from excellent methods of teaching to securing situations for his graduates.

To the Revnoldsville Business Men.

I, as a business man of this city, suggest that a business man's league be formed at once for various reasons. One namely at this time, is the advertising schemes, such as hotel registers, chart advertisers and other catch-penny advertising which does the business fraternity no good in returns whatever. We have newspapers that are good mediums of advertising and a benefit to our town. The business men of other towns have abolished patronizing these travelling advertising schemes. Why BUSINESS MAN. not us ? Card of Thanks.

We take this method of expressing our heartfelt thanks to our friends for their kind acts and words of sympathy

THE SUICIDE WILL BE BURIED TO-DAY

All Efforts to Identify the Unfortunate Man were in Vain.

WILL BE BURIED IN REYN-OLDSVILLE CEMETERY.

t is Claimed that he Stayed at Falls Creek the Night before Committing Suicide and Said his Home was at Braddock.

Notwithstanding the fact that Notwithstanding the fact that the man who committed suicide on Main street the evening of November 28, by sending a bullet crashing into his brain, was recognized at first as a man named Mottern, then Oliver Motter and Joseph Bailey, he will be buried to-day unclaimed and unknown, atthough every possible effort was made to have the man identified. Undertaker J. H. Hughes embalmed the body and has kept it in his undertaking rooms. While waiting for some one to identify the body he was experione to identify the body he was experi-menting with his embalming process. Although the body was not buried until to-day, twelve days after death, yet it is in good condition.

This is certainly a remarkable case, and it shows how people can be mis-taken as to identity of persons. The man looked so much like Joseph Bailey that people with whom Bailey had boarded two or three years, declared that it was Bailey, and to prove that they were correct, a scar would be found on right foot, and it was there. Then Bailey's son, in telephoning from Shawmut, said his father also had a scar on right knee, and an examination revealed the fact that the dead man had a scar on his knee, but it is claimed that Bailey is at his home in Shawmut. Another party claimed that the dead man was Oliver Motter from over near man was Oliver Motter from over near Ciarion river, and a telephone message was received here that friends would come after the body. In a couple of hours afterward another telephone message brought the news that Motter was at his home alive.

The editor of THE STAR received a letter last Friday morning from Dr. R. M. Boyle, of Falls Creek, in which Doctor stated that the man who had committed suicide in Reynoldsville had stayed all night in the city home at Falls Creek just previous to taking his Falls Creek just previous to taking his own life and that the nightwatchman had talked to the man awhile. He told the watchman he was a pattern maker. lived in Braddock, had a wife and three children. He had been working at Bradford, had sent all his wages to his family and then contracted pneumonia and for awhile was sick, and without money he started home. He would not beg, but was given something to eat the following morning.

Thinking that there was a possibility that the man did have a family in Braddock, the editor of this paper procured a photograph of the dead man and sent with particulars of the suicide, to with particulars of the suicide, to william Bennett, chief-of-police of William Bennett, chief-of-police of Braddock, and on Monday received the following reply from Mr. Bennett: "Your favor at hand and contents noted. I had my officers to make in-quiry about the suicide, but we could find so trace of any one knowing or recognizing the picture. Should we, however, find out anything we will let you know immediately."

The dead man was five feet 8 inches

The dead man was live feet 8 Inches tall, had heavy mustache, generously sprinkled with gray, heavy eyebrows and was baidheaded. He was a man about 55 years old. At ten o'clock this forenoon Under-taker Hughes will bury the unknown man in the Reynoidsville Cemetery, where just enough ground to bury him in was bought.
