service in 1903.
Grant Shuster, the horse dealer who has been at Hotel McConnell barn the past week, sold a number of horses and made several trades.
Rev. J. E. Doan administered the ordinance of baptism at the Baptist church last Sunday evening after preaching an excellent sermon.
Some newspaper editors seem to think that if an editor should see property in some town outside of the one he resides in that it is dreadfully wrong to mention the fact in his paper.
A. Katzen is erecting a new store at Big Soldier to take the place of the one destroyed by fire a few weeks ago. The new building is 18x40 feet, two stories high. A new store will be opened in the new building as soon as it is completed.

A large black bear was hanging in front of Frank's Tavern in this place yesterday. Dennis Burgoon killed his bearship. It weighed 395 pounds.

Mrs. Milton Johns was called to Kittanning Saturday to attend the funeral of a brother, which took place near Kittanning Sunday afternoon. Mrs.
Johns was accompanied by her son Earl.

Communion services will be held in Presbyterian church on next Sunday, December 21st. Proprietary services on Friday evening at 7.45. The special offering on this day will be for the Board of Freedmen.

Decker, Clark and Stuart's Big Comedy Company is coming to Reynoldsville.
Watch for date. Some of the talent of the company is Bruce Clark, comedian and dancer. John Stuart, eccentric comedian, Harry and Alice Decker, songs and sketches.

Patrick Hays preferred charges against Truman London, William Byers, Harry McKee and Thomas Clayton before Squire E. Neff last week for assault and battery. The case was win-ned by the defendants paying the plaintiff $50.00 and paying costs of prosecution.

The person that took the fur neck scarf at the dancing school last Wednesday evening is requested to return same at once, as they are known. If it is not returned by Monday evening, Dec. 22, their name will be published. No questions will be asked if returned by said date. Please leave at THE STAR office.

A meeting of the directors of the Summerville Telephone Company was held in Brookville Tuesday forenoon.
A dividend of 6 per cent was declared, to be paid before January 15. Considering the number of new 'phones and new lines put in this year, this shows that Summerville Telephone Company stock is a good investment.

John H. Corbett is talking of casing the Centennial building in brick next year. There are two good store rooms in the building but the rooms don't rent as well on account of it being a wooden building as they would if it was cased in brick, besides it would make a great improvement on the appearance of the large building.

The Baptist Young People's Union elected the following officers for first six months of 1903: President, George Woodford; vice-president, Irven Ren; secretary, Miss Maude Meek; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George G. Williams; treasurer, Oris Shalesley; organist, Miss Lucile Mitchell; assistant organist, Miss Anna Klahr.

An extra amount of advertising came into THE STAR office the first of this week, making necessary for us to issue a supplement and compelling the editor to pull off his coat and set type. Therefore, if THE STAR does not contain as much local news this week as usual, our readers will know the reason why and will please overlook our shortcomings this time.

Yesterday a lady drove up to a hitching post across the street from H. W.
Eason's clothing store and tied the horse with lines. The horse began backing and the farther it backed the tighter the lines were drawn and finally the horse fell down. H. W. Eason noticed the trouble the woman had gotten into and he ran to the rescue and got the horse up.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church elected the following officers last Friday evening for first six months of 1903: President, Olie Ross; 1st vice-president, Harvey Deter; 2nd vice-president, Christine Brown; 3rd vice-president, Flora Northey; 4th vice-president, Aida McEntire; secretary, George White; treasurer, Nelson Smith; librarians, Hershall Barry, John Northey and James Bennett.

Murphy and Willard Comedy Company appeared at the Reynolds opera house three nights last week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and then disbanded, going their several ways Monday. It is reported that the company was a good one, but they failed to make much of a hit in Reynoldsville. The attendance was small each night. The small boys who awaited around the door until after the first act were admitted free each night.

If you lose or find anything, have anything to trade or sell, try THE STAR want column. A lady lost a hat last week and she put a notice in our want column and the hat was brought into this office on Friday. If you lose an article and it is found by an honest person a notice in THE STAR will put you in possession of the lost article, but of course if some dishonest person finds the article an advertisement will not bring it back to loser. However, in most cases they are returned to owner.
Try our want column.

Modern innovation has asserted itself in Simeville's noble revival of Shakespeare's immortal tragedy of love and passion, "Romeo and Juliet," to be given in Reynolds opera house December 24.
In addition to a splendid acting company, gorgeous and historically correct costumes, scenery properties and electric effects, will be added. Shakespeare is very strongly in evidence this year, forced into view by the public demand for better and stronger plays than the modern dramatics seem able to provide.

W. F. Marshall Has Resigned.

Wm. F. Marshall, who was secretary for the Star Glass Company, has resigned that position. A. T. McClure is acting as temporary secretary.

Leg Broken by Fall.

Mrs. J. A. Myers slipped on the cement pavement in front of Butler Bros' store Saturday afternoon and fell, breaking her left leg above the ankle. The cement walks are very dangerous when there is a little snow on them.

Amputated Finger on Fodder Cutter.

Forrest Singer, a lad of this place who is about eleven years old accidentally cut the first finger of his left hand off last Friday on a fodder cutter.
Forrest was cutting some corn fodder and got his finger under the knife with above result.

Pastor Installed.

Rev. J. H. Myers was installed Sunday evening as pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church of Reynoldsville. Rev.
J. L. Fisher, of Shannondale, conducted the installation services. Rev. Myers is an earnest worker and will, no doubt, give the Lutheran church good service.

Quarterly Meeting.

The first quarterly meeting of present conference year will be held in the Reynoldsville M. E. church as follows: Love feast at 7.30 Thursday evening; preaching Friday evening by Presiding Elder Dr. A. R. Rich, followed by quarterly conference; preaching at 11.00 a. m. Sunday, followed by sacrament of the Lord's Supper; preaching Sunday evening by Presiding Elder Rich.

Must Clean Sidewalks.

Town council proposes to enforce the ordinance compelling property owners to see that the snow is shoveled off their sidewalks after a reasonable time after the snow falls, and we have been requested by a member of council to say that all sidewalks that are not cleaned in 24 hours after this paper is published that the street commissioner will see that the snow is removed and the property owner will have to pay 20 per cent above actual cost of doing the work.

Old Lady Dead.

Mrs. Christie Margaret McKee died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J.
W. Walker, at Rathmel Monday, December 15, 1902. Funeral this afternoon at the Walker residence, conducted by Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church. Interment in Prospect cemetery. The deceased was born in Nova Scotia July 25, 1819, making her 83 years old last July.
She was the mother of 11 children, 7 of whom, 6 daughters and 1 son, survive Mrs. McKee. She had resided in Rathmel 9 years.

Ladies Lodge Instituted.

Mrs. James A. Tyson, Mrs. Robert Sayers and Mrs. Joseph Reed, of Pleasant Valley Temple, Reynoldsville, went to Westville last Friday and instituted a new lodge at that place, to be known as the Pride of Westville, Temple No.
49, Ladies of Golden Eagle. This new Temple was instituted with forty-one members, and would have had forty-three candidates; had it not been that two were called away to attend a funeral. The Reynoldsville ladies say the new Temple starts out under most favorable circumstances. The ladies had a very pleasant time at Westville.

Boy Injured—Ribs Broken.

William Schugrow, young son of Tim Schugrow, was badly injured almost in front of THE STAR office Monday forenoon. The lad was hanging on the rear end of a sled riding up Main street and he jumped off sled and started to run to sidewalk and ran in front of a horse and sleigh. The driver did not see the boy in time to stop his horse and the boy was knocked down, and it is claimed that the horse stepped on the boy's back, but that cannot be possible, else the little fellow would have been crushed to death. The boy sustained two fractured ribs on left side.

Annual Banquet.

The first annual banquet of the L. C.
M. B. A. was held in the P. O. S. of A. hall Monday night. It was a real pleasant social event. The Star orchestra was present and enlivened the banquet with excellent music. The L.
C. M. B. A. has a membership of fifty and new applications are being handed in at almost every meeting.
The following new officers were elected for ensuing term: Past President, Mrs. August Balauf; President, Mrs. P. F. Flynn; 1st vice-president, Miss Kate Feicht; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Thomas Windle; financial secretary, Mrs. P. A. Hardman; treasurer, Miss Kate Fitzpatrick; recording secretary, Mary McDonald; marshal, Mrs.
M. O'Brien.

August Walters, agent for Kane Steam Laundry and shoe shining artist, has moved his paraphernalia to the City Hotel where he will be found ready to attend to laundry business or shine shoes.

Don't forget to come to the "Sock Social" at the home of Mrs. W. L.
Fisher Friday evening. A good time insured. Refreshments free.

For fine Christmas candies and fruits go to Burge's corner grocery.

TROLLEY LINE NEWS.

Trolley Cars Will Run Into Town Today—Run Regular Next Week.

Had it not been for the cold rain yesterday the track would have all been laid and a trolley car would have run into town yesterday evening. It is the expectation that a car will get into town to-day. Mr. Kipp informed yesterday that he expects to have the track in condition to begin running cars next Wednesday or Thursday regularly between Reynoldsville and Paxunatowney. A car will leave town every half hour.

The fare from Reynoldsville to Eleanora will be 15 cents and from here to Paxunatowney 35 cents. L. J. McEn-tine will be ticket agent for the street car company at this place. Office in the Building and Loan Association office.

Be Up and Doing.

In last week's issue of THE STAR we suggested that an effort be made to land another industry in our midst, and why not? Does any person in town know of an industry that is looking for a location? Perhaps some of our business men have an application sticking in a pigeon-hole of his desk. If you have get it out and make the fact known and it may not be too late yet to locate the plant here. We consider Reynoldsville an excellent town, just as good as any other town in the state for the size, but there is no reason why it should not be larger and better if our citizens desire a better town. It depends entirely on the live citizens of Reynoldsville whether the town advances and keeps up with the prosperity all around us, or retrogrades. We have plenty of room for expansion, are not handicapped for want of railroad facilities, cheap fuel, good water, street cars, electric lights, &c., for we have all these and other advantages, in fact we have a real good town, then why not make strenuous efforts to enlarge? Let us be up and doing.

"Line Busy."

The Summerville Telephone Company's line is kept busy between Reynoldsville and several surrounding towns every day. When a call is made for some person in another town it frequently occurs that the operator at central office will say, "Line busy." Last Friday afternoon we made four attempts to get the use of line to talk to a party in Brookville before we succeeded. That evening we happened to meet Joseph S. Hammond and W. T. Cox, directors of the Summerville company, on the street and mentioned the fact that the telephone company had too much business for their present service, and suggested that another line be strung between Reynoldsville and Brookville at least. Mr. Cox said:
"Yes sir, the line is kept busy all the time. There are people talking over telephones now that never thought of using telephones fifty years ago."

Presiding Elder's Schedule.

Dr. A. R. Rich, new presiding elder of the M. E. church for Clarion district, will visit the following places this week: Thursday evening will preach at Falls Creek and hold quarterly conference; Friday evening will preach in M. E. church at at Reynoldsville and hold quarterly conference; Saturday afternoon and evening; Sunday morning; Reynoldsville Sunday evening.

A Card.

I hereby thank the people of Reynoldsville and vicinity for their past liberal patronage, and wish to inform them that I have engaged Mr. A. R. Lerch, another first-class barber, so that hereafter you will not have to wait so long to be "next." Yours respectfully, HERPHEL, the Barber.

"The Jolly Earthquake."

Dr. Russell Conwell, one of America's greatest lecturers, delivered his humorous lecture, "The Jolly Earthquake," in Assembly hall Monday evening. Dr.
Conwell was not at his best, on account of not recovering from a severe cold, but being able to lecture last week at all, but for two hours this great orator, philanthropist and author, held the close attention of his audience. While there was considerable humor in the lecture, yet interwoven through it all was a great truth that should be the means of scattering more sunshine along life's pathway for those who heard the lecture and all the people they come in contact with. If there was more laughter and less moroseness in the world there would not be so much sadness, and less strife. Dr. Conwell says men are so busy striving for the "Almighty dollar" that they don't have time to enjoy life. The lecturer was about right.
Laughter will drive away many imaginary ills and make people think that life is worth the living. It would be a godsend if a "laughing earthquake" would strike more homes. We hope to have the pleasure of hearing this famous lecturer sometime again, either on "The Silver Crown," "Herodism of Private Life," or some of his other great lectures.

Mothers' Club Meeting.

At the Mothers' Club meeting last Friday afternoon Mrs. J. W. Gillespie was elected president and Mrs. George Kline, Mrs. W. C. Elliott and Miss Jillia Kirk were appointed as a new program committee.

Plans were discussed for the raising of money to purchase an encyclopedia for the schools.

Those who failed to attend missed an exceptionally good program.

The first number was a fine piano solo by Miss Frances King, after which Rev. Perry A. Reno gave an excellent address on "Home Entertainment." His helpful words on how to amuse and interest the children in the home found an echo in the heart of every mother present.

A song entitled "Hunt Margery" was then sung by a ladies quartette, composed of Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. Stoke, Miss King and Mrs. Reno.

It is urged that all mothers and friends of education attend these meetings.

MRS. MAUDE BOOTH, Sec.

Directors' Day.

The Jefferson County Directors' Association will hold its eighteenth semi-annual convention on Thursday, Jan. 1, 1903. The directors will meet in the Court House at 10.00 a. m. The following topics will be discussed:

- 1 What improvements should be made in the management of our schools?
- 2 What is true economy in school affairs?
- 3 How can we induce successful teachers to remain in the profession?

Election of five delegates to the State Convention.

Election of officers for the ensuing year.

Addresses by Hon. Henry Houck, Deputy State Superintendent, Dr.
Corson and Dr. Brumbaugh.

All directors who are in attendance during institute will be provided with complimentary tickets for the entertainments by applying to the County Superintendent.

Notice to Delinquents.

We have a few subscribers who are considerably in arrears on their subscription to THE STAR, that we have sent several notices to who failed to respond by sending in the cash. We have never sued any person, and don't want to be compelled to do so, but we must get some of our subscription accounts settled, and if we cannot get the money by kindly asking for it, we will have to resort to some other method.
The postal law makes strict provisions for newspaper subscriptions.

The positive demand for the legitimate drama, rendered in an adequate manner, has literally forced the production of Shakespeare's most beloved play, "Romeo and Juliet." The Simeville presentation of the beautiful love story will be staged and costumed in such a manner as to delight the eye of the most exacting play-goer. Everything, scenery, costumes, properties and effects, will all be made specially for this one complete production to be given in Reynolds opera house December 24.

Body Exhumed Sunday.

Another chapter has been added to the record of the unknown suicide that was buried in the Reynoldsville Cemetery last Wednesday forenoon after having been kept at J. H. Hughes' undertaking rooms twelve days without being identified. It was stated in THE STAR last week that the editor of this paper had sent a picture of the dead man to chief-of-police at Bradford, with an account of the suicide, as it was claimed that the man said he had a wife and three children living in Bradford and that he had been working at Bradford. Saturday evening John Quinton, of Bradford, came to Reynoldsville to claim the body of the dead man as his father, as the picture that had been sent to Bradford looked exactly like his father, who had been working at Bradford and who had not been heard from for over five weeks.
And another thing that led him to think that it was his father, Martin Quinton, was the fact that the name Matter was on the shirt, for that was the way Mrs. Quinton marked her husband's shirts. The body of the unknown man was exhumed Sunday morning to see if the young man could identify it as the body of his father, but one glance at the dead man was sufficient to convince the young man that it was not his father. The body was buried again until some one else comes to identify it. There is a woman near New Kensington that thinks it is possible that it is her husband. It is a good thing that Undertaker Hughes embalmed the body, as it may be exhumed several times yet, as the dead man seems to have resembled so many different people—Joseph Bailey, Oliver Motter, Martin Quinton and now another woman thinks it is the body of her husband.

Some of our citizens seem to think yet that the dead man was Joseph Bailey, but they are mistaken. W. C.
Schultze was at Shawmut last week and he says Bailey is at that place alive and at work.

Two Advertising Schemers.

Last week two smooth looking and prevaricating advertising schemers were in town getting up what they called a "Directory of the Different Local Unions of Reynoldsville," but the Union part was only a ruse of the schemers to make it easy for them to get the merchants to advertise. The traveller made a dummy of the directory and began their work of fraud and deception by marking two of the advertising spaces taken by one of the large and judicious advertising firms of town, without consent or knowledge of the firm, and on the strength of that they secured four or five advertisements, but these advertisements were afterwards cancelled. Some places where they failed to get an advertisement they got the name of proprietor or firm and wrote an advertisement and afterwards tried to collect money for same, and when refused they threatened to sue for their money, but they didn't sue any person, and five or six, perhaps more, of the merchants, refused to pay them a cent, not even compromise by paying half. The schemers lied about the number of copies of the directory they were having printed. They claimed they were having 500 copies printed when they only had 100 printed and about half of them were never taken out of the printing office.
They left here on the first train out Saturday morning and an officer from Doyle's car set into town on the 8.25 a. m. train after them. They were wanted for skipping a printing bill of $32.00 at the DuBois Courier office.
