Keep Out of Law's Clutches.
If people do not want things said about them that they are ashamed to see in print, they must avoid those offenses which are "contrary to the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth," and for which they are likely to get into the clutches of the law. The business of a newspaper is to print the news, and in the nature of things it cannot always be agreeable to the parties involved.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING.
Joseph B. Mitchell and Miss Aida B. McEntire Married Sunday Evening.

Miss Aida B. McEntire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McEntire of Jackson street, and Joseph B. Mitchell, son of Lawyer and Mrs. C. Mitchell, of Reynoldsville, who now holds a position as druggist in a Brookwayville drug store, were married in the M. E. church at this place Sunday evening, December 21, 1902, at the close of the public service. It was a complete surprise to many in the congregation, and was intended to be a surprise to the entire congregation, except the immediate families concerned, but the secret had been entrusted to somebody who betrayed the confidence of a friend, and a few persons were present especially to witness the wedding.

At the close of the sermon Miss Erma Robinson presided at the big organ and played a wedding march and the bridal party marched into church and up centre aisle to front of altar, where Rev. J. C. McEntire, grandfather of bride, assisted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church, performed the wedding ceremony, which was a beautiful and impressive ring ceremony. After the young couple had been pronounced man and wife, the bridal party marched out of the church and then the congregation was dismissed. During the entire ceremony the organist played Narcissus softly. The bride was dressed in white voile and carried white roses. The maid of honor was dressed in white and carried pink carnations.

Fred McEntire, nephew of bride, and Wallace Mitchell, brother of groom, were ushers, and Miss Caroline Robinson was maid of honor and Harry L. McEntire, brother of bride, was best man.

The bride is one of Reynoldsville's finest young ladies, and Mr. Mitchell has certainly secured an excellent helpmate. Mr. Mitchell is a highly respected young man of this place. Both young people have many friends here who will wish them success and happiness in life's journey together.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left here on the early train Monday morning for Brookwayville, where they expect to reside for a time at least. THE STAR joins in wishing them unbounded joy and prosperity in life.

"Monkeying" With the Law.
A week or two ago a fellow named McKee was arrested for disorderly conduct and Constable Warnick, who arrested him, allowed McKee to go out to look for money to pay his fine and McKee walked away and did not return with money. Saturday afternoon Constable Warnick, of this borough, and Constable Brochey, of West Reynoldsville, attempted to arrest McKee, but they failed to get him, or rather to hold him after they did get him. McKee went up Main street, about a half square ahead of the constables, defying them, and naturally it created some excitement on Main street. When near Sixth street Constable Brochey made a dash for McKee and the latter started to run and the constable drew a revolver and demanded him to stop, but McKee stopped not, but ran into an alley and hid in a barn.

The constables finally found him and got him out of barn, but some of McKee's friends interfered and he got away from the constables. The law should not be trifled with in that manner, and if we have not officers enough to arrest one man, when a warrant has been issued for him, then enough men should be sworn into service to capture the person wanted. And persons who interfere with an officer when he is performing his duty should be taught a lesson by being arrested and punished for interfering. The law is not a plaything. It should be more rigidly enforced in Reynoldsville.

Jewelry an endless variety in brooches, stick pins, emblem pins, cuff buttons, neck charms, gent's and ladies' watch charms, gent's fobs, &c., at Gooder's, the jeweler.

See the grand gift goods at Millirens. See Shick & Wagner's dolls. Go to Burge's corner grocery for holiday goods, tobacco and cigars. Umbrellas in horn or ivory handles at Millirens. Watches the best and cheapest at Hoffman's. She will like a nice box of stationery. New shades and sizes. Reynolds drug store. A nice china dinner set would make a very good Christmas present. You can save money by buying it at C. F. Hoffman's. Go to Double's for butterine. Sewing sets at Millirens. Buy your wife a sewing machine for Christmas. The White is king. Sold by C. F. Hoffman. Overcoats for Christmas at Millirens.

Should Receive Pay.
At a meeting of the Indiana county school directors last Thursday the question of school directors receiving payment for their services was discussed. We believe the time will come when school directors and members of town council will receive at least a small compensation for their services. There is considerable work and grief connected with these offices and would be nothing more than just that the men who devote time and energy to look after the best interests of a borough or public school should be paid for their work. We want good men for school board and town council and expect them to perform their duties faithfully and we should be willing to pay them for it. They are criticised severely if they neglect their duty, but how often do people praise them for doing their best. If we demand so much from councilmen or school directors we should pay them. At present to be a member of council or school board is even a thankless position.

Narrow Escape From Lynching.
An Italian, who is now in the county jail at Brookville had a narrow escape from being lynched at Anitlast Thursday evening. Two English speaking men got into a warm argument in a barroom and an intoxicated Italian interfered in behalf of one of the men and drew a knife and slashed the other man, Charles Gustus, across the stomach. The infuriated crowd caught the Italian and a rope was procured to lynch him, but some of the cooler headed people succeeded in preventing the crowd from carrying out their proposed awful crime of killing the Italian. Gustus was taken to the Punxsutawney hospital and will likely recover from the ugly wound he received. The Italian was taken to the county jail Friday, whose name is Eugene Manells.

TROLLEY LINE IS IN OPERATION
First Car Entered Reynoldsville Last Wednesday.

WELL PATRONIZED SUNDAY

Punxsutawney, Anita, Eleanor, Wishaw and a Populous District Laying along Twenty Miles of Track now placed in Direct Communication with Reynoldsville.

Last Wednesday the trolley line that connects Punxsutawney to the best town in Jefferson county—Reynoldsville—was connected and a trolley car was run into this borough about 2:00 p. m. The rails were laid, but the track had not been ballasted, and is not yet in shape for running cars regularly, but at the request of a number of people cars were run between Eleanor and Reynoldsville Saturday afternoon and evening and a large number of people came into town on the trolley line to do their shopping and our business men had to hustle to wait on the increased trade that the cars brought to town.

The trolley line will increase the trade greatly in Reynoldsville, and why not? We have as fine stores here as will be found within a radius of 25 miles, in fact, as fine stores as will be found outside of the large cities, and our merchants sell their goods at less price than some of the stores within a radius of fifteen miles of Reynoldsville. This is not blowing, but is an actual fact which any person can prove for themselves if they want to.

The cars were run on Sunday to give people an opportunity to take a trolley ride and a large number of people took advantage of the opportunity. The receipts on this end of the line Saturday and Sunday were almost double the receipts on the Punxsutawney end of line.

Mr. Kipp informed the editor of THE STAR Tuesday morning that Wednesday afternoon of this week the trolley company would begin running one or two cars between Reynoldsville and Eleanor and would keep the cars running the balance of this week and all of next week. The track will have to be ballasted before the cars run permanently. The cars only run to Jefferson Supply Co. store now.

Police Protection Needed.
Rowdyism has been rampant frequently in this borough since the night-watchman has been taken off, and occasionally during the day disorder has been apparent, and it is very likely that during the holiday season drunkenness and disorder will be conspicuous on our streets unless two or three officers are on duty night and day the next eight or ten days. The borough authorities should see to it that good men are appointed to perform police duty. Don't select men that will join in the rabble and get about as drunk as the other fellows. A drunken officer trying to enforce the law is a travesty on the law, and such things have been seen in Reynoldsville in days gone by.

Police protection during the holidays will cost the borough some money, but if the proper men are put on duty and they enforce the law the receipts from arrests and fines will more than pay the extra expense and our town will not be over-run with drunkenness and rowdyism. If this matter has not been attended to already, by all means give it attention immediately.
