C. F. HOFFMAN The Reynoldsville Jeweler

To-morrow is the day of new resolutions. How many New Year resolutions have you made? The R. P. C. Club held a dance in Frank's Pavilion last night. The new county officers will be sworn in at Brookville next Monday. We wish all the readers of THE STAR a happy and prosperous New Year. E. C. Burns, the liveryman, has a fine large tally-ho for sleighing parties. J. J. Sutter is closing out his dry goods store at auction to quit the business. 'Two Married Men,' the great comedy success, at the Reynolds opera house to-night. The teachers' institute is being held in the Belvedere opera house at Brookville this week. John McDonald is going to housekeeping in the Welsh house, corner of Fifth and Jackson streets. Mrs. Anderson, aged about twenty-eight years, died at Eleanor's last Friday night with small-pox. A charter notice for the Bessemer Coal & Coke Company will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The public schools of this place will open again Monday, Jan. 5, after having had a vacation of two weeks. Dr. J. C. Sayers was thrown out of his buggy last week and sustained a fractured rib on his left side. The Reynoldsville Woolen Company mills will begin operation again Friday morning after an eight day suspension. There will be no prayer meeting at the M. E. church Thursday evening, the watch night service taking its place. The annual congregational meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church on Monday evening of next week, January 5th. Amos Deemer has the thanks of the editor of THE STAR for some fine sausage which he brought to this office Monday forenoon. The Winslow township school board met at Frank's Tavern Saturday and gladdened the hearts of the township pedagogues by paying each one a month's salary. William Barclay, who was working at glass plant, got a small piece of glass in one of his fingers about two weeks ago and the same very nearly having to have his finger amputated. The Elk Lodge of this place is making preparations to make the ladies' reception to-morrow evening a very pleasant social event. The ladies will be royally entertained and feasted. The Republicans of Winslow township will hold a suggestion meeting for February election in hose house No. 1 in Reynoldsville on Saturday afternoon of this week, January 3, 1903. Misses Martha and Anna Kunes gave a domino-whist party to a number of their friends last Friday evening. It was a very pleasant social event. Excellent refreshments were served. The work of prayer will be observed by the Baptist congregation, beginning Sunday, January 4, with appropriate sermon by Dr. A. J. Meek, according to arrangements of the Evangelical Alliance. Shakespeare's immortal tragedy of love and passion, 'Romeo and Juliet,' was given at the Reynolds opera house last Tuesday evening by Simville's Romeo and Juliet Co. The company, costumes and scenery were excellent, the production of a first class play.

District Deputy D. W. Atwater is in Punxsutawney this week looking after the interest of the Protected Home Circle at that place. John Young and family, of Belle-vue, formerly of this place, visited friends here the past week. Mr. Young is known as 'Happy Jack.' Mrs. Robert Bone, sr., sent a very generous supply of choice wedding cake to THE STAR office last week and for once, at least, the office force had all the cake they could eat. Accept the hearty thanks of the entire office force, Mrs. Bone, for your kind remembrance. Laura, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tench, of Rathmel, was born July 5, 1902, and died Sunday morning, December 28, 1902, after a brief illness. Funeral services was held at home of parents by Rev. A. J. Meek on Monday at 2:00 p. m. Interment was made in Prospect cemetery. Pauline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Donohier, was born April 15, 1902, and died December 29, 1902. Spinal meningitis was cause of death. Funeral services at residence of the parents this afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. H. Myers. Interment in the Reynoldsville Cemetery. The ninth annual ball of Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, held in Frank's Pavilion Christmas night was attended by the largest crowd that ever attended one of these annual balls. There were 180 couples present. Eighteen couples from Punxsutawney chartered a trolley car and came over to attend the ball. The business of the Adams Express Co. at this place four days of last week, Dec. 22, 23, 24 and 25, was the largest ever handled by this company during any other four days since the office was established here, says the agent, Joseph Shaffer. The outgoing packages in those four days numbered 240, and the incoming packages numbered 408. Frank R. Roberson, the distinguished illustrated lecturer, is booked for Reynoldsville for Feb. 9. He comes under the auspices of the public schools and will deliver his lecture on the Philippines. This will be highly instructive and profitable for as a rule we know comparatively little concerning the customs and life of the inhabitants of those eastern islands. This lecture will be the third attraction of the public school lecture course. Constable O. P. Walker, of Punxsutawney, came into town on trolley line yesterday morning with a prisoner whom he was taking to county jail at Brookville because the fellow refused to lie with his wife. There are numerous cases in this broad land where men would rather go to jail, were it not for the disgrace of the thing, than live with their wives, and there are women who would find the jail a paradise in comparison with living with their mean, contemptible husbands. 'Two Married Men' appeared at the Metropolitan opera house yesterday afternoon and evening and jolled into enjoyment two good-sized audiences. The play proved to be an exceedingly lively farce, somewhat on the order of 'Why Smith Left Home' and 'What Happened to Jones,' rapid and breezy in action, full of humorous dialogue and containing a number of really unique comedy situations.—Pioneer Press, St. Paul, Minn., Sunday, Feb. 15, 1902. At Reynolds opera house to-night, Dec. 31. The following Reynoldsville people went down to Brookville last evening in Burns' tally-ho, took supper at the Commercial Hotel and intended going to hear Dr. Hillis lecture, but as he failed to materialize, they didn't hear him: Rev. W. Frank Reber and wife, Rev. Perry A. Reno and wife, H. Alex Stoke and wife, J. W. Gillespie and wife, A. J. Postlethwait and wife, L. M. Simmons and wife, Mrs. Charles Herpel, Dr. J. H. Murray, Misses Oliva Murray and Nora Kunes. About fifteen school teachers came from Punxsutawney on the trolley line Monday morning on their way to the county institute at Brookville, and had it not been that Burns' tally-ho was at Jefferson Supply Co. store to meet them and that the 8:23 a. m. train was ten minutes late, the school marmas would have remained in Reynoldsville until the 1:32 p. m. train. As it was the tally-ho was driven at a swift pace and the train was pulling out from station when tally-ho arrived, but the train was stopped and the excited teachers were taken on. As was announced in these columns some time ago, the second number of the public school lecture course will be given by the Hawthorne Musical Club January 29th, 1903. This musical organization renders a program unique and novel, something which highly entertains and at the same time is refined. In July, 1902, they gave two evening entertainments before the Pennsylvania Chautauque. The Chautauque in commenting on the second night's entertainment says: "When they appeared again this evening they were greeted by an audience that packed the amphitheatre from center to circumference. The concert was a grand success. All the numbers were excellently rendered. The Hawthorne Musical club is generally considered as having made the greatest hit of the season." Persons getting up a load for a pleasure ride will do well to hire E. C. Burns' tally-ho. It is a fine rig, and you are sure of 'getting there' in good time, as Burns' teams get over the ground at a lively pace. House Burned. A dwelling house on 'poverty flat,' owned by Daniel Whittaker, was burned down about four o'clock yesterday afternoon. The fire company responded to fire alarm, but the fire had too much of a start and the house could not be saved. Consult E. C. Burns, the liveryman, if you want to get up a tally-ho party.

CUPPI'S PRANKS. A Few Matrimonial Contracts Executed—New Homes to be Established. SURETH-RHODEN. John Burgh, a machinist who works in Herpel Bros. machine shop, and Miss Dena C. Rhoden, both highly respected young people of Reynoldsville, were married in the Trinity Lutheran church at this place on Thursday evening of last week, December 25, 1902, before the Sunday school scholars assembled at the church for Christmas treat. Rev. J. H. Myers, pastor of the church performed the ceremony. Mr. Burgh and bride are both fine young people and THE STAR joins their many friends in wishing them joy and prosperity in life's journey. They will go to housekeeping in the Herpel house near machine shop. MILLER-GRIEKS. Paul Miller, of Prescottville, and Miss Martha Grieks, of Reynoldsville, were married at the M. E. parsonage in this place at 7:00 p. m. on Tuesday, December 23rd, 1902, by Rev. Perry A. Reno. Mr. and Mrs. Miller left Reynoldsville Wednesday morning on a wedding trip to Kittanning, Pittsburg and other places. SYPHRIT-LOTT. On Wednesday, December 25, 1902, at the Reformed parsonage in Troutville, George W. Syphrit, of Wishaw, and Miss Catharine B. Lott, of Troutville, were married by Rev. S. C. Stover. They were attended by L. E. Lmth and Miss Anna B. Syphrit. This young couple will reside in Eleanor's in the near future. OSBORN-BLOSE. George F. Osborn, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Annie M. Blose, of Brookville, will be married in Brookville at 9:30 a. m. to-morrow, January 1st, 1903, by Squire Albert Baur. CRIBBS-SHINGLEDECKER. James H. Cribbs, of Sandy Valley, and Miss Mary E. Shingledecker, of Washington township, were married at the residence of Rev. J. C. McEntire in West Reynoldsville on Christmas, December 25, 1902. Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, of Sandy Valley, stood up with the young couple. Watch Night Service. Watch night services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church, beginning at nine o'clock and closing at midnight. For several years this has been the custom of the M. E. church in this place and the meetings have always been pleasant and profitable. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone. The B. Y. P. U. will hold a watch night meeting in the Baptist church this New Year's eve, opening at 8:00 o'clock. From 8:00 to 9:00 a special program entitled 'The Story of the Pink Rose' will be given. At 9:00 an intermission will be taken and refreshments served. The balance of the evening will be occupied by an address by Dr. A. J. Meek and consecration service. 'Two Married Men.' A familiar comedy and a series of novelties will be the bill offered at the Reynolds opera house to-night, when 'Two Married Men' and their company of comedians will hold the boards. The play is of the farce comedy order and is brimful of new songs, dances and specialties. Special scenery and all mechanical effects are carried by the company. Tickets on sale at Stoke's. Omission Last Week. In the list of students home for holiday vacation published last week we omitted the name of Miss Effie Millren, of Allegheny College, Meadville, Winfield S. Sterley, who was attending a business college at Norristown, Pa., and Fred K. Booth, of Western Medical College, Pittsburg. A Pointer. Town council proposes to enforce the ordinance for keeping snow off the sidewalks, and it might save expense and ill feeling if people will bear this in mind and clean the snow off their sidewalks within 24 hours after the snow falls. Has Appendicitis. A. D. Siple will go to the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia in a few days to undergo an operation for appendicitis. Walk Over Shoes. Unwarranted Howl. Editor THE STAR:—I noticed in a recent issue of the Volunteer, under heading of 'Flotsam,' a great tale of woe concerning the Summersville Telephone Company, and the editor of Volunteer does not 'endorse or condemn' it. I have been trying to figure out who the author of the aforementioned article is and also the subject, but have given it up. Would not even undertake to make a guess as to the sex of the author, as part of it sounds quite male-like and other parts of it sounds quite feminine. He or she does not state whether they are a paying patron of the Summersville Telephone Company, or whether it is one of those cases where the company 'entertain angels unawares,' which is quite frequently the case with the telephone company. Why he or she would make such an unwarranted attack on the telephone service without first reporting to the company officials, appears very unjust to the writer of this article. The Summersville Telephone Company is owned and operated altogether by home capital and the dividends are paid out to our neighbors, and the company gives service equal to any other telephone service I have ever used, which has been considerable. One word to 'kicker' that made the attack on the telephone company. If he or she can yell as loud as they can kick hard, I am surprised that they should need a telephone to talk fifteen miles. They can holler down the pike and be heard easily. Now if this chronic kicker will come out and let the company know just who they are, and if they cannot possibly use the service as it now is, the company will probably petition the government to suspend all manner of business at certain stated times to give the 'kicker' a chance to talk, or the company may send to Arabia and get one of Aladdin's wonderful lamps so he or she can hold it in one hand and wish and the other towns will come to 'kicker.' Hoping this article will meet the approval of the party of the first part, I remain yours, SUMMERSVILLE TEL. CO. PATRON. Ladies of the Golden Eagle. MARRIED UNDER AN ARCH. Pretty Home Wedding at Residence of Robert Bone, Sr., Last Wednesday. Miss Margaret Helen Bone, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bone, sr., of Reynoldsville, and James Leslie Schall, of Pittsburg, were married at the home of the bride's parents at 8:00 p. m. on Wednesday, December 24, 1902, by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the Reynoldsville Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of fifty invited relatives and friends. It was a very pretty ring ceremony, and was performed under a floral bell suspended from an arch. Mrs. Richard Bone played the wedding march as the bridal party came into parlor and stepped under the arch. The bride was dressed in white organda, had lilies of the valley in her hair, wore long veil and carried American Beauty roses and white carnations. Miss Mary Bone, of Punxsutawney, cousin of bride, was maid of honor. She was dressed in white and carried roses and carnations. Will Bone, brother of bride, was best man. After the wedding ceremony and congratulations an excellent supper was served. The young couple received a number of valuable and useful presents, consisting of silverware, cut glass, linens, etc. The bride is a real nice young lady, whom we have known since she was a little girl, and we know that Mr. Schall has secured an excellent wife. Mr. Schall is a machinist, who holds a good position in the Westinghouse Electrical works, and is very highly spoken of by those acquainted with him. The out of town guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Phillips, of Wilmerding, Simon Walker, of Homestead, Thomas Bone and wife, of Rositer, Robert Bone, jr., and wife, of Solder, Wm. Fascett, of DuBois, and Mrs. James Buckley, of Falls Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Schall left here yesterday for Wilkesburg, where they will go to housekeeping. THE STAR joins the numerous friends of the bride in extending congratulations and best wishes for a long and exceedingly happy married life. Street Paving. One of the important questions for this borough to consider in 1903 will be street paving, and it is very likely that this proposition will figure conspicuously in the spring election. If the street cars run down Main street, which we understand is the intention now, we don't believe the matter can be delayed after they begin work on street car line, then why not get things in shape now so it will not take all summer to get the paving done? Even if the street car line does not go down Main street, the street should be paved next year anyhow. In fact we hardly see how it can be postponed any longer. The old plank paving is worn out in many places, and can hardly be repaired, and something must be done. Will Main street be paved with brick in 1903? Reductions in Ladies' Misses' and Children's Coats. Our sales this fall and winter have been beyond our expectations, but we have some choice, up-to-date styles left. $18.00 coats—yours for $13.00. $15.00 coats—yours for $10.00. $13.50 coats—yours for $9.25. $10.00 coats—yours for $7.50. $9.00 coats—yours for $6.50. $8.00 coats—yours for $6.00. $7.50 coats—yours for $5.50. $7.00 coats—yours for $5.25.
