A Little of Everything.

School vacation is over. It is easy yet to date a letter 1902. January court begins at Brookville next Monday. Sleighting is excellent and more of the "beautiful" fell this morning. Gus Sun Minstrels at Reynolds opera house Friday evening, January 16th. Miss Georgia Corbett entertained the Presbyterian Book Club last evening. The auditors of Jefferson county are now at work auditing the county books. The Brookville Democrat, one of our excellent exchanges, entered its 26th year last week. The New Year has already brought sorrow to many homes and happiness to many other homes. Karl, young son of John S. Brennan, came very near dying a few days ago with diphtheritic-croup. The public schools re-opened Monday after a vacation of two weeks. A number of new pupils were enrolled. Most all the students who came home for the holiday vacation have returned to the various institutions of learning. John Benson, an employe at the tannery, came very nearly losing his right hand last week in a new machine recently put in operation at tannery. License court will be held in Brookville on Monday, January 19. There are 39 applications for retail license, 2 for wholesale and 4 for brewers' license. Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place, is in New Bethlehem this week assisting the Presbyterian pastor of that place in a series of special meetings. Watch night services were held in the Baptist and Methodist Episcopal churches last Wednesday night and the old year was rung out and the new year in by the bells on those two churches. Frank R. Roberson, who will give his illustrated lecture on the Philippine Islands in this place Feb. 9, is well and popularly known at the summer Chautauques. He never fails to please his audiences. The regular monthly meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will be held at home of Mrs. S. S. Robinson on Grant street Friday afternoon. Luncheon will be served at five o'clock.

Hotel men from all over the county attended a meeting of the Knights of Fidelity held in Reynoldsville yesterday afternoon. F. W. Yetkey, a glass blower, and Miss Carrie Walls were married at the Baptist parsonage December 23, 1902, by Dr. A. J. Meek, Ph. D. Ensigns Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will take charge of the special meetings in the Salvation Army hall next Monday evening. Everybody is invited to attend these meetings. The members of the Bessemer Coal Mining Company of this place went to Butler county this morning to look after the big coal land they are entering into in that county. "Two Married Men" was played at the Reynolds opera house last Wednesday evening. The company is a good one and all the actors played their parts well, but there was not much to the play. The February election is not far off and each party should select the best men possible in making nominations for borough offices. This is a very important matter and it should be given careful consideration before the caucuses are held. Street Commissioner Thos. Claubach and his assistants cleaned the snow and ice off five or six sidewalks for property owners last week, and the property owners will have to pay the borough for cleaning the walks with an additional 10 per cent added thereto. The following new students were enrolled by the Reynoldsville Business College the past week: John Tineh, Rathmel; C. J. Dickey, Wishaw; Winfield Sterley, Miss Mary McCloskey, Miss Edith Hoppel, Miss Mary McCroight, Miss Rena McClellan. David C. Whitehill, of Falls Creek, Jam. A. Campbell and M. M. Fisher, of Reynoldsville, "cracker-jack" checker players, tried their skill at this game in Reynoldsville on New Year's day. We did not learn the result of games, who were victors and the score made. Infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Bradenbaugh, of West Reynoldsville, died Friday morning, January 2, 1903, and was buried in the Reynoldsville cemetery Saturday afternoon. Funeral service was held at residence of parents, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of M. E. church. We received a business letter from C. P. Harding, of Starbuck, Warren Co., Pa., formerly of Reynoldsville, the first of this week, in which he states that game and fish are plenty in the neighborhood of Starbuck. He says: "We can get all the fish we want by just going to the river and pulling them out." Following is the list of new officers who took charge of the Baptist Sunday school last Sunday for 1903: Superintendent, Mrs. G. G. Williams; assistant superintendent, George H. Rea; secretary, Miss Anna Klahr; treasurer, George Rea; organist, Miss Mary McCroight; assistant organist, Miss Emma Davis; librarian, Miss Maude Hoon. The DuBois Morning Herald, after a little over three months' journalistic career, suspended publication on Tuesday last week and the entire plant was purchased by the Morning Courier. The Herald set a lively pace for the other papers in DuBois, but the field was not large enough for two morning papers and the new paper was crowded to the wall. Brookwayville's New Grade Theatre was opened last Friday evening by the "Two Married Men" company that played in Reynoldsville opera house last Wednesday evening. The Record says: "The new theatre is one of the most modern in this section of the state, and is, without doubt, the best play house in Jefferson county and its equal can scarcely be found anywhere in a town of this size." At the semi-annual meeting of the Jefferson County Directors Association held in Brookville last week Dr. J. A. Newcome was elected president of the Association, S. L. Stewart, secretary, and the following delegates were elected to attend State convention: Dr. T. R. Williams, G. H. Small, S. T. North, W. H. Reber, Dr. W. C. Newcome. The next convention will be held in Reynoldsville. A batch of silver half dollars bearing the stamp of 1878, recently put in circulation, has been looked upon with considerable suspicion, some people refusing to accept the coins on account of the old date and bright new looking coin. The half dollars are not spurious but genuine "coin of the realm." Just how it happened that the money was only recently put in circulation will have to be surmised. Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, National Organizer for U. M. W. of A., who spent the holidays with his family in this place, returned to West Virginia the first of this week, where he has been laboring in the interest of the organization for sometime. Mr. Haggerty attended a mass meeting of miners at Weedville Sunday and another one at New Bethlehem Monday evening, going from latter place to West Virginia.

REV. W. F. REBER RESIGNS. Resignation Accepted—To Take Effect Soon—Two Trustees Elected. Rev. W. Frank Reber, the talented young pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Reynoldsville, announced to his congregation Sunday morning that his resignation as pastor of the church would be presented at the annual congregational meeting on Monday evening and requested that it be accepted, and it was accepted at the meeting Monday evening, to take effect about the first of February. Rev. Reber has been pastor of this church about five years. He is an excellent man and has many friends in and out of the church who are very sorry that he and his estimable wife will soon move away from Reynoldsville. Rev. Reber has not fully decided yet just where he will locate, as he has calls from two churches, but it is probable that he will accept a call to a church in Ohio. The other business transacted at the congregational meeting Monday evening was the election of two trustees for three years. L. M. Simmons and A. J. Postlethwait were the trustees elected. Went to Hospital. Al. D. Siple and his brother-in-law, E. E. Miller, left here Monday for the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia, where both will be operated on, Mr. Siple for appendicitis and Mr. Miller for fistula. London-Kuntz Nuptials. On Jan. 1, 1903, at the residence of the bride's parents, Troutville, H. J. London was married to Miss Clara K. Kuntz. The marriage was consummated by the Rev. S. Charles Stover, pastor of the Reformed church, Troutville. A sumptuous dinner was served to which were invited the immediate friends. The young couple contemplate making their future home in Punxsutawney. Telegraph Office Opened. The Western Union Telegraph Company has opened an office in the Keystone Hardware Company store. M. E. Weed, a member of the hardware company, who was at one time a telegraph operator on the Low Grade Division, is manager of the Western Union business at this place. For a number of years our business men have been wanting a telegraph office in the business portion of town and finally it has been established. Mrs. Jack Whittaker Dead. Mrs. Jack Whittaker died at 2:00 a. m. on Saturday, January 3rd, 1903, from apoplexy. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Paul. She was about 45 years old. She was married to Jack Whittaker at Georgetown, Indiana county, Pa., 25 years ago. Two children were born to this couple, both of whom with the husband survive the deceased. Funeral service was held at residence Monday forenoon conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno. Interment in Beulah cemetery. Death of a Little Girl. Helen, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dempsey, of West Reynoldsville, died at 5:00 p. m. on Wednesday, December 31st, 1902. Pneumonia was cause of death. Funeral service was held in the Emrickville M. E. church Friday forenoon, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, and interment was made in the Emrickville cemetery. Helen was a sweet little girl. Mr. Dempsey is in California and the news of his little daughter's death and burial will be sad news for him. Correction in Marriage Notice. In the notice published in THE STAR last week that George F. Osborn, of Reynoldsville, was to be married to a young lady in Brookville on New Year's day, we made a mistake in the young lady's name. Mr. Osborn was married to Miss Annie M. Blaise, daughter of Edward Blaise, who was at one time treasurer at the Star Glass Company plant in Reynoldsville. THE STAR joins with the numerous friends of Mr. and Mrs. Osborn in wishing them happiness and success on the matrimonial sea. Head Struck Bridge. Fred Stauffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Stauffer, of West Reynoldsville, who is a fireman on the Low Grade Div. of P. R. R., had a close call from instant death Sunday. The train he was on was leaving Driftwood and Mr. Stauffer was looking along train from cab window when he suddenly thought of No. 2 bridge at west end of yard and jerked his head into cab, but not quick enough to escape an ugly cut two inches long above his right eye. Two seconds more and we would have had to publish the young man's death notice. Strike at Fuller. There was a short strike at the mines at Fuller, six miles west of Reynoldsville, last week. An American and an Italian had a "scrap" and all the English speaking miners came out on a strike to have all the Italians discharged. Richard Taaf, of Reynoldsville, who is mine boss at Fuller, was at Youngstown, Ohio, when the men came out on strike and the company telegraphed Mr. Taaf to return home to settle strike, and he soon got to trouble adjusted when he got to Fuller and now things are running as smooth as ever.

Married at Big Run. S Park Reynolds, of Frampton, Clarion county, Pa., son of Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, jr., of Paradise, and Miss Ella J. Syphrit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Syphrit, of Paradise, were married at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in Big Run on Thursday, January 1, 1903, at 9:30 a. m. by Rev. Anthony Groves. Pearl Barrett was bridesmaid and Edward Syphrit was groomsmen. Miss Tressa Syphrit and James Sheasley, also of Paradise, were witnesses of the wedding. After the marriage ceremony the wedding party drove to home of bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. In the afternoon Mr. Reynolds and bride drove to Frampton, where they will reside on a farm. This couple are highly respected and honored young people, from excellent families, and have many friends in Paradise who will wish them happiness and prosperity in life's meanderings. Attempted to Steal a Cap. During the Christmas time rush a fellow stepped into Millirens store to buy a cap and when the clerk walked away to wrap the cap up the fellow said to a man standing beside him, "I guess I will take a cap," and he stuck one under his coat, but the fellow didn't know he was committing a theft in the presence of Ex-Constable P. J. Ward, a man that is as honest as the day is long." Mr. Ward managed to quietly inform Mr. Milliren of the man's intention and then stepped out of the store. When would-be-thief was ready to go out of store he was requested to take the cap out from under his coat and leave it in the store. He first denied having a cap that had not been paid for, but when he found that he had to produce the cap or be searched, he pulled the cap out and said it was only a Christmas joke. County Institute. The Jefferson county teachers' institute held at Brookville last week was largely attended and would have been the best institute ever held in the county had it not been for the disappointments in the evening entertainments. Dr. Hillis, who was to have lectured on Tuesday night failed to fill his engagement, and Senator Dolliver, who was booked to lecture on Thursday evening, failed to appear. Prof. Teitrick provided good substitutes for his corps of day instructors, but the people were disappointed all the same because they did not hear the men they expected to hear. Trolley Crossover Not In. The trolley cars have only been running as far as the Jefferson Supply Company store on account of the fact that the cars cannot cross the R. & F. C. R. Y tracks at that point until the crossover is put in. The crossover arrived Saturday and it was the intention to put it on Sunday and have the trolley cars running down Jackson street to Sixth street on Monday, but the crossover was for a straight track and there is a curve in the railroad track at that point and the crossover had to be sent to DuBois Iron Works to be changed. It is not likely that the trolley cars will be running down Jackson street before Monday of next week. The new trolley cars have not arrived yet, but are expected any day. Town Not Quarantined. A report appeared in the Pittsburg Dispatch yesterday from Punxsutawney in which it was stated that Eleanora, a town of about 2,000 inhabitants, six miles out from Reynoldsville, had been quarantined on account of so many cases of small-pox at that place. The report was not correct. The town has not been quarantined. Week of Prayer. This is the week of prayer and special meetings are being held in the Baptist and Methodist Episcopal churches every evening this week. There were two conversions at the Baptist church Sunday evening. The special meetings will be continued in the M. E. church all of next week, and probably will be continued in the Baptist church all of next week also. Good Coasting. Coasting on Grant street, from school house to Fourth street, has been excellent for several nights and a large number of coasters are out in the evenings enjoying the dangerous and exhilarating sport. One of the lightning express speed bobs, with four or five boys on it, runs down from Brown's residence to Fourth street, four squares, in about 25 seconds. Bargains in every department at Millirens. Call and see A. G. Milliren's new grocery store in Centennial building. Ladies' coats cut away down at Millirens. Special rates for those who enroll in the Reynoldsville Business College for night or day sessions before Jan. 10th. Don't fail to visit Millirens muslin underwear sale. Men's overcoats reduced at Millirens.

GREAT SOCIAL EVENT. The Ladies' Reception Given by The Elks Was a "Swell" Affair. Last Thursday evening the B. P. O. E. Lodge of this place held a ladies' reception in their elegant rooms, which, without exaggeration, was the greatest social event that has ever taken place in Reynoldsville; it was certainly a "swell" affair. Many of the ladies were dressed in evening costumes and the gentlemen wore full dress suits. The ladies, many of them at least, were taken to and from the party in cabs. The rooms were nicely decorated with the lodge colors and potted plants. Each lady was given a beautiful bouquet of cut flowers as she entered the rooms. The banquet was all that could be desired by the most fastidious epicurean, it was luxurious. There were 160 persons present and 150 were seated at the tables at one time. An orchestra of five pieces rendered excellent music during the evening. Dancing, card playing and other games were the entertainments furnished. From the reports given by those who were present, it was a very enjoyable and pleasant reception, in fact so exceedingly pleasant that some of the ladies are inquiring when the next reception will be held. Catholic Ladies' Bazaar. The bazaar held by the ladies of the Catholic church during holiday week was a success, but it would have been more of a success had the ladies been able to secure a suitable room to hold the bazaar in. They first opened the bazaar in the vacant room next door to Gooder's jewelry store, but that room was too small and the ladies finally moved the bazaar to Bell's hall. They cleared $270.00 from bazaar. A picture, mirror, rocking chair and doll were chanced off. Fred Foley got picture, Samuel Ensell the mirror, Miss Julia Stoko the chair and John Geisler the doll. Miss Marie Bohren sold over 1,500 chances on the picture at 10 cents a chance. Miss Josephine Burgeon sold the chances on chair and William Murphy sold chances on the mirror. Joan Geisler had charge of the guessing contest on doll, which Father Brady named Eve, and as no one guessed the name of the doll, it was given to Joan. Coal Deal at Camp Run. The New York & Pennsylvania Co., operators of the large paper mill at Johnsonburg, have bought 140 acres of coal land from A. O'Donnell & Sons at Camp Run, four miles west of Reynoldsville, and have reopened the old Ammerman mine that was first opened in 1875. This company will ship the coal to Johnsonburg for their own use. They use six hundred tons of coal daily at the paper mills. The company is now ready to ship coal but cannot get cars. The coal will be hauled to railroad on sleds and wagons until spring and then a short branch will be built up the run and a tippie built. D. M. Straitwell, who was one of the men that first opened the present mines at Fuller, is superintendent of the new coal works at Camp Run. Hawthorne Musical Club. At each entertainment given by this club, the members used mandolins, violins, guitars, bells, chimes banjos, ocarinas, trombone, cornet, tuba-phone, xylophone and other instruments. They present two hours of refined comedy, vocal and instrumental music. The club receives hearty endorsements from its audiences. It will be in Reynoldsville Jan. 29 under the auspices of the public school and is the second attraction of the lecture course. Railroad Officials. R. L. O'Donnell, general superintendent, who took the place of G. W. Creighton, and C. T. Dabney, division superintendent who takes the place of S. C. Long, and several other officials, were over the Low Grade Division of P. R. R. on a special train Monday. Card of Thanks. We adopt this method of expressing our heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors for their kind assistance during the illness and after the death of our darling Helen. MRS. G. W. DEMPSEY AND FAMILY. Is Not Crazed. Our Semi Porcelain, English, German, Austrian or Haviland China dinner sets are beauties and guaranteed not to be crazed. C. R. Hall, With every loaf of Mother's home made bread, price 5c per full pound loaf, we give a handsome lithograph calendar free on Jan. 9, 1903 only. J. W. WOODRING & SON. A. G. Milliren, who has had six or seven years experience in the grocery business, has opened a store in the Centennial building at corner of Main and Fourth streets. Everything fresh and strictly first-class. Call and see. Overcoats from $2.50 up at Millirens. Call on John H. Doubles, the butter dealer, near home house No. 2, Main street, if you want good butter at low price. His trade is continually on the increase. Try his butter. Read Millirens muslin underwear ad. Gibson's rapidly increasing optical practice is the best recommendation that can be asked. See his dates.

Political Suggestion Meetings. Below we publish the announcements of political suggestion meetings to be held by Democrats and Republicans of Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville and Winslow township: REYNOLDSVILLE REPUBLICANS. The Republicans of Reynoldsville borough will hold a suggestion meeting in home house No. 2, first precinct, on Wednesday evening, January 14, 1903, to suggest names of persons to be nominated at the primary election on Saturday, January 24, as candidates for the various borough offices at the February election. WINSLOW TOWNSHIP DEMOCRATS. The Democrats of Winslow township will hold a suggestion meeting at home house No. 1 in Reynoldsville, between 2.00 and 4.00 p. m., on Saturday, January 10, to suggest persons for township offices for spring election. WEST REYNOLDSVILLE REPUBLICANS. The Republicans of West Reynoldsville will hold a suggestion meeting in the town hall of that borough on Tuesday evening of next week, January 13, 1903, from 7.30 to 9.00 p. m., to suggest names of persons to fill the various borough offices at the February election. Annual Banquet. The first annual banquet of the Knights of Malta took place at the City Hotel on Wednesday evening, Dec. 31. It was a success in every particular. About eighty companions and their wives wended their way to the dining hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion in the Malta colors, red and black, and an hour or more was spent in relieving the tables of the many good things that mine host Wiley had prepared. A handsome souvenir in the form of a maltese cross was presented to each lady. The guests on returning to the hall, enjoyed themselves in various amusements, welcomed the coming and bid adieu to the parting year. The only flaw that marred the occasion was the failure of the "Famous" Star orchestra of our town to fulfill its engagement, it having been engaged for six weeks previous, otherwise the affair was a complete success in every way, and the first annual banquet of Mystic Commandery No. 313, will recall pleasant recollections to those who participated in it. Common Lot of Man. There is no use worrying, fretting and losing sleep because some one has found fault with what you do. 'Tis the common lot of a man in business. The merchant doesn't please all of his customers; the postmaster is cuffed and kicked for alleged mistakes; the railroad agent is frequently backed up in the corner and given to understand that that and the other thing; the butcher is forever reminded of the tough steak, and even the minister finds it hard to please all the congregation with his best sermons. If you do not believe this ask these men. The newspaper man gets more than his share of it and is expected to get out a cheerful newspaper all the same. A man befriends another for years and is turned down and abused. Such things are not pleasant, but they always have been and doubtless always will be and the man who goes through them the easiest is the one who pays least attention to them and goes right along trying to be pleasant and useful. County Officers Sworn In. The new county officers were sworn in at Brookville Monday and are as follows: Treasurer, J. B. Means; Register and Recorder, Gil. C. Reitz; Prothonotary, Cyrus H. Blood; Sheriff, J. W. Curry; Commissioners, Newton Webster, Harvey D. Haugh and Al. Hawk. The commissioners organized the new board with Newton Webster as president and appointed A. E. Galbreath clerk, John M. White, Esq., attorney, and George Groves janitor. Heads Should Never Ache. Never endure this trouble. Use at once the remedy that stopped it for Mrs. N. A. Webster, of Winnie, Va., she writes "Dr. King's New Life Pills wholly cured me of sick headaches I had suffered from it for two years." Cure Headache, Constipation, Bilioussness, 25c at H. Alex Stoke's drug store. Letter List. List of unclaimed letters remaining in post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., for the week ending Jan. 3, 1903: Thomas Welch, E. J. Conroy, Esq., Miss Beas Richards, Harry Feeley, Esq., Foreign—Marco Posca. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above. E. C. BURNS, P. M. Marriage Licenses. Are not issued by us but we do have everything needed to furnish a house. Furniture, carpets, lace curtains, kitchen utensils, stoves, lamps, dishes, at C. R. Hall's. Annual Sale. Furs at one half their actual value at Millirens.

MIDNIGHT FUNERAL. Harry Whitmore Died Sunday With Small-pox and Was Buried Sunday Night. Harry K. Whitmore, who was working for the Adams Express Company in Pittsburg, came to home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Whitmore, in this place on 23rd of December to spend Christmas, but was sick with the same home and on the following day a doctor was called to see him and he pronounced it a case of small-pox, and it did not develop into the worst case of small-pox ever known in this section. Mrs. Whitmore nursed Harry for awhile, but finally James Justham, Sr., who had the small-pox himself some years ago, became Harry's nurse. At 1.10 p. m. Sunday, January 4, 1903, Harry died and at midnight Sunday the body was wrapped in sheets, placed in a casket and buried in the Baptist cemetery. The nurse and undertaker were only persons at the funeral. Death is a sad blow for a family at any time, but it seems doubly sad when a son and brother has to be laid away as was this young man. Harry Whitmore was born in Reynoldsville December 28, 1876, making him 26 years and 7 days old at time of death. He was a member of the Baptist church, an exemplary young man, well liked by every person who was acquainted with him. His sad and early death is a severe blow to his parents, brothers and sisters, and has cast a sadness over his numerous friends in this place. Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore have the deep sympathy of their many friends in this their time of sorrow. Death has not only taken one of their beloved sons, but the indications now are that soon they will lose their oldest daughter, Miss Minnie, whose life is being sapped away by consumption. Minnie went to Casper, Wyoming, last year and accepted a position as school teacher in hope that the change of climate would restore her health, but the change was not made in time and she has been compelled to resign her school. She will return home in a couple of weeks. WHITE GOODS SALE. 1903 Muslin Underwear Sale Commenced Monday and will Continue all Season at Bing-Stoke Company's Store. Miss Sara Belle Mohney, artistic reciter of refined and popular selections, will give an entertainment in the P. O. S. of A. hall at Rathmel this (Wednesday) evening. She is highly recommended. Admission 15 and 25 cents. The Brookville Democrat says: "Miss Mohney's recitations were superior and made her hosts of friends. She will be warmly greeted at any time she may appear before a Brookville audience. She is among the finest elocutionists our people have listened to." Carpets and Rugs. Velvet Tapestries and Ingrain Carpets, Body Tapestries, Brussels-Tapestries, Art Square and Smyrna Rugs in stock at C. R. Hall's. Annual Meeting. REYNOLDSVILLE, PA., DEC. 20, 1902. Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville and Falls Creek Railroad Company will be held at the Company's office in Reynoldsville, Pennsylvania, on Tuesday, January 20th, 1903, at ten o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing a President and Board of Directors for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. LUCIUS W. ROBINSON, President. Attest: JOHN H. WHITMORE, Sec. If you are in need of underwear to polee the winter out visit Millirens.
