Farmers' Institute at Allens Mills.

A farmers' institute was convened at Allens Mills, in the commodious hall at that place, on February 25th at 1.30 o'clock. An organization was effected by calling R. F. Morrison to the chair and the election of J. G. Allen as secretary. The session was opened by singing "My Mountain Home," by the choir; prayer by Rev. G. H. Hill. The address of welcome, delivered by Mrs. M. A. Boyer, had a beneficial influence on the institute, waking up a fraternal feeling that was not lost sight of during the entire meeting. The gentleman to whom the response had been assigned not being present it was carried over. The first question brought up for discussion was "Shall we fertilize the land or the crop," which was ably discussed by A. M. Wilson, Lewis Evans and others, and generally accepted that the best plan was to fertilize the land. The question "How to get a catch of grass for hay or pasture," was opened by John Marshall and discussed by state speakers Cooke, Phillips and Mahler. This was considered a hard question, one that would have to be governed by the condition surrounding the plot proposed to be seeded. Question box opened and the many questions appearing were ably answered. Music and adjournment.

EVENING SESSION.

Institute convened at 7.30 sharp. Music by the orchestra and song by the choir, after which the question of the "Central School" was taken up and very ably opened by W. C. Smith and the discussion participated in by many others, including the state speakers. An essay was then read by Miss Margaret Dickey, which won many favorable comments. Music by the choir. Question box opened. Song by Miss Milliron, then adjournment.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Thursday morning's session opened at 9.30 o'clock with music, followed with prayer by Rev. J. K. Adams. The question of "Poultry for Profit" was taken up and opened by R. F. Morrison, who was followed by Elmer Cooper. This was one of the most interesting topics of the institute, and judging from arguments presented poultry raising is becoming one of the greatest industries of the present age. The question of "Noxious Weeds and How to Eradicate Them" was next presented. Mr. Smith and Mr. Corbin, to whom had been assigned this question, both being absent, it was taken up by Prof. W. W. Cooke, who discussed the subject at length and advised thorough cultivation of the land and three year rotation of the crops. Question box opened and questions answered. Music by the orchestra, followed by adjournment for dinner. It was, to say the least, a great dinner. It was gratifying to know that the inner man was being well filled and pleasing to note how the social hour was being enjoyed by the sitting down of families together.

Dinner hour being over the afternoon session was called to order by the chairman. Song by the choir, after which the subject of "Road Improvement" was taken up and opened by J. G. Allen, who was followed by G. W. Wilson, Martin Hetrick, the state speakers and others. It was generally accepted that we must have better roads. The question of "The Cow, the Feed and How to Handle the Milk," was opened by Thomas Mayes and others, including the state speakers. Question box opened and questions answered; adjournment.

EVENING SESSION.

The evening session opened with an overflowing house. Music by the choir. The Forage Crop question was opened by Frank Keys, N. P. Clark and others, and ably discussed by the state speakers. It was agreed that oats and rye were best suited to our conditions as forage crops. Recitation by Miss Mabel Daugherty, which was delivered in an able manner. "Has the Institute Been a Benefit to Us," discussed by N. J. Buchanan and others. The verdict was that it had been a decided benefit to all. An essay was then read by Mrs. Dillis Allen, which was a capitulator. In fact both essays were such winners that the state speakers requested a copy from the writers for the public print. This finishing the general business of the institute a few remarks were indulged in by those present in a fraternal way, the remarks indicating that the opinion of all was that it was the most successful institute that has yet been held. Mr. Phillips, in his concluding remarks, said that this was the sixty-fourth institute he had been with this season and that this was unquestionably the best he had yet attended. Too much praise cannot be given those in charge of the affair, also the choir and orchestra for their excellent music. We must remember also that many from a distance rendered substantial aid and comfort to the meeting, notably Hon. S. B. Elliott, of Reynoldsville, for his able address on Forestry and all in all we can congratulate ourselves on having the best institute ever held in Jefferson county. Thus ending the institute the parting handshake was made and a happy throng separated for their homes, hoping for a renewal the coming winter.

R. F. MORRISON,
J. G. ALLEN, Chairman.
Secretary.

THE NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS.

Reported by The Star's Special Correspondents.

Sykesville.

A fight took place in the upper end of town one day last week in which one of our townsmen was badly used up by five or six Polanders. But then such things will be common as long as we do not have officers.

There has been some talk of having our town incorporated into a borough. By all means let us do so, or else let us start some other industry, anything at all so that we get sidetracked.

Now that the future of our town is assured why don't some enterprising man or men build some houses for rent. Vacant houses are as scarce as snow in July.

Work at the Buffalo & Susquehanna shaft is not progressing as rapidly as expected on account of the large amount of water they have to contend with. They are down about sixty feet.

Rev. A. R. Rich, presiding elder, preached in the M. E. church last Sunday night, after which the Lord's Supper was observed.

The population of our town is increasing very rapidly by numerous births and people coming in to work at the new shaft.

Some of boys attended a dance at Big Run last Friday night. They report a good time, but oh how tough they felt the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hilliard, of Butler, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McPherson.

Milton Zimmerman wears a smile of very long dimension since a little boy came to live with him.

Rev. Gold's sermons are more interesting than ever since a little preacher has come to his home.

Mory Wilson's smile has increased to a 6x10 because of a son that came to his home.

Paradise.

Among those who attended the pop corn social at Deemer's Cross Roads Saturday night were Frank Hillis, James Sheesley, John Strouse, Leo and George Sheesley and Mr. Shepp. All report a good time. Mr. Shepp regrets that he was so unfortunate as to lose one of his rubbers, which he had just bought before starting to the social.

John Howlett Spencer spent a couple of days in Butler last week. He came home Friday to make arrangements to move his family to Butler. He has bought a number of acres of coal land and expects to operate it this summer.

Mildred Sheesley, who has been working at the Park Hotel, Eleanor, for almost one year, came home for a week's vacation.

Mrs. Allen Cathers expects to leave here this week for Pittsburg, where she expects to remain for a couple of months.

John Cathers and James Rudolph spent Saturday evening in Punxsutawney.

J. I. C. Smith, of Big Run, was a welcome visitor in Paradise the past week.

C. E. Strouse transacted business in Reynoldsville Saturday afternoon.

Ambrose Strouse is layed up with the grip at present.

Edward Hillis, who has been foreman of the Ludwick saw mill the past year, resigned his position Saturday to accept a better job. During the time mentioned above there has been no boiler explosions or any accident occurred. It will be hard to get another man to fill the position as well as did Mr. Hillis.

Wishaw.

The trolley car has preference of the buggy these days.

James Beattie had business in Reynoldsville on Wednesday.

Mrs. Alex Dickey, of Eleanor, visited relatives in town Sunday.

A few more weeks until Prof. Miller will be flying west.

It seems that undertone speaking is getting to be the style.

P. A. Smith, of Soldier, had business in town one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Tedrick visited in Bellevue a few days last week.

Calvin Dickey and Cleveland Deemer drove to a picnic at Deemer's Cross Roads Saturday night.

Mrs. Velt, Mrs. Sphrit and Mrs. Fuller were in Reynoldsville on Monday.

There will be a picnic at the Bolinger school house on Monday.

News of Interest to the Grangers

An oyster supper for benefit of Fleming Grange, No. 1221, Clarion county, will be held at residence of S. Park Reynolds, near Frampton, Pa., Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week. Mr. Reynolds was formerly a Paradise Granger.

The Master of the State Grange hopes that 5,000 more farmers in Pennsylvania will this year see the need for standing together and will join with their fellow farmers in the Grange in a united effort to advance the interests of the farmers throughout the State.

Coming in contact with one's neighbor in the Grange enables a farmer and his family to feel "at home" in society.

Hon. E. B. Norris, Master of the New York State Grange says: "Fraternity is the hand-maid of civilization, the parent of hope, joy and goodness. Fraternity has garnered lofty aspirations. It has made fraternal society a paradise and home a heaven. All honor to fraternity. Wisdom sits within her gates and beauty adorns her courts, but the greatest of all her achievements is the growth of fraternity in the minds and hearts of men and women."

During the year 1902 the Granges in New York increased their membership by over 6,000 members. Two new counties were added, forty new Granges were organized and the interest is spreading and is destined soon to cover the state.

Michigan claims "nearly 35,000 paid-up members in good standing" in her 550 subordinate granges. And yet Michigan is not satisfied, but is organizing new granges faster than any other state.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by H. Alex Stoke, the Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

John H. Doubles, butterline dealer, East Main st., has just received 1,000 pounds of fine butterine which he is selling at 22 cents per pound.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by H. Alex Stoke, druggist.
