William M. Foster, who has been suffering for sometime with stomach trouble, is now in a critical condition. He had hemorrhage of the stomach last week.

From the number of reserved seats already sold for the literary contest at Assembly hall Friday night it is evident that there will be a large crowd in attendance.

Squire E. Neff, who was dangerously ill the past week with erysipelas, is recovering and is out of danger. For several days the doctor had little hopes of his recovery.

Last Friday night Gold Leaf Circle No. 540, Protected Home Circle, was organized at Rural Valley by District Deputy D. W. Atwater, of Reynoldsville, with a membership of 40.

Rev. T. T. Vulkoff, pastor of the First Baptist church of DuBois, who has been seriously ill since Christmas, having undergone three surgical operations, is now thought to be out of danger.

The train due here at 6.44 a. m., which starts from DuBois, carries a mail pouch to this place. This is a late mail that leaves Pittsburg on the B. & P. flyer at 9.00 p. m. every day.

Prof. W. M. Brown, of Brockwayville, superintendent of the Snyder township schools, attended the principals' meeting in Reynoldsville Saturday and also visited his aunt, Mrs. J. J. Shaffer.

Miss Grace Clawson gave a party Monday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Cora Berg, who has been visiting Grace several weeks. Those present had a very pleasant time. Refreshments were served.

The first grand ball of the season will be held in the Wishaw Park Pavilion next Tuesday, March 24, under the park management. Trolley cars pass directly through the park. The last cars for Reynoldsville and Eleanor leave there at 1.30 a. m.

The report of the public schools for the month ending March 10 is as follows: Boys enrolled, 260; girls enrolled, 288; total enrollment, 548; boys' average per cent. of attendance 91; girls' average per cent. of attendance 92; total average per cent. of attendance 91.5.

The Brockville Republican says that S. B. Arthurs has bought a large interest in the old fair grounds at Brockville and that a move will be made to organize a new fair association, and if successful the grounds will be fitted up in time to hold a county fair at Brockville the coming fall.

After the morning services last Sunday the First Baptist church of Punxsutawney extended a unanimous call to Rev. Charles H. Fitzwilliam, of Cobleskill, New York, to become pastor. Rev. Fitzwilliam is a platform lecturer and has addresses of merit. His strongest and best lecture is "The Battle of Life."

The Daughters of Rebekah of Falls Creek invited the ladies of the Reynoldsville and DuBois Rebekah lodges to Falls Creek last Thursday to partake of an excellent supper provided by Falls Creek Rebekahs. Mrs. William Barclay, Mrs. C. A. Herpel and Mrs. Anna Winslow were the only Rebekahs of Reynoldsville that went to Falls Creek.

Miss Hazel McFadden, of West Reynoldsville, who was on her way home from work at silk mill last Thursday evening, was knocked down by a horse on the alley crossing near where Hotel McConnell stood, fracturing her left shoulder. Some person was riding the horse down street with a rope around its neck and he could not stop the horse when it came to crossing.

"Just For Fun" is the title of a new march and two-step recently composed and published by Arthur H. Haskins, of Reynoldsville, who is gaining a reputation as a composer. Mr. Haskins is composer of "The Sentry" march, "Don't Leave Old Kentucky," and several other popular compositions. "Just For Fun" was handed to us last week too late to give it a notice in THE STAR.

The Katherine Ridgway Concert Company, which is booked for Reynoldsville for April 6, is one of the most popular literary and musical companies that can be secured. Miss Kidgway herself is a most excellent reciter and her assistants are artists of the first rank. The company meets with most hearty approval wherever it goes. The public schools are to be congratulated for securing such unexcelled talent.

Auditors' Report. In this issue of THE STAR will be found the auditors' report of the finances of Reynoldsville borough for year ending March 2, 1903.

Election Contest. Mention was made in THE STAR several weeks ago that there would be a contest over the February election of school directors in Winslow township. Judge John W. Reed has fixed Monday, April 6, as the date when he will hear the case.

Buried Sunday. Samuel Skivington died at his home in this place Friday forenoon, March 13, 1903. Consumption was cause of death. The deceased was about 56 years old. Funeral service was held at his late residence at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

Birthday Party. Bert McConnell, son of F. A. McConnell, proprietor of Frank's Tavern, was given a birthday surprise party last evening. Thirty boys about Bert's age attended the party, and it is hardly necessary to add that they had a loud and enjoyable time and that the boys gave evidence of healthy appetites. Bert received a number of presents.

Birthday Surprise Party. Mrs. Josiah Deter was given a birthday surprise party on Monday evening of this week. There were twenty-one women present. They all had a good time. Mrs. Deter received some useful presents, also a nice sum of money. Among those present were Mrs. Carrie Marshall and son, Morgan, of Hawthorn. Mrs. Marshall is a sister of Mrs. Deter. She will remain in town a few days.

Visiting Odd Fellows. Fifty members of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Lindsey, visited the Reynoldsville lodge Saturday night. They brought three candidates with them for the second degree, which was conferred by Reynoldsville Degree Team. The visitors came over on trolley cars. The Daughters of Rebekah of Reynoldsville served lunch for the visitors and home members—one hundred altogether—in the I. O. O. F. hall after lodge.

Juvenile Party. Last Thursday evening Mrs. M. J. Farrell gave a party at her home to a number of little people, not any of them over five years old. The party was given in honor of Master Vincent Farrell Malloy, of Pittsburg, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Farrell, who had been visiting his grand parents since Christmas, returning to home of his parents last Saturday with Mr. Farrell and Tay. The little people had a good time. Refreshments were served.

Death of Mrs. Thompson. Mrs. P. H. Thompson died at her home near Coraica on Saturday, March 14, 1903. Funeral services were held in the Pisgah Presbyterian church, Coraica, yesterday. Interment in Pisgah cemetery. Her maiden name was Margaret J. M. Reynolds. She was a daughter of William and Elizabeth Reynolds, deceased, and a sister of Samuel T. Reynolds of this place. The deceased was born at Hatfield June 30, 1851. She was married to P. H. Thompson in 1879. The husband, one daughter and two sons survive her.

Accepted Good Position. D. H. Northamer, who is a skilled workman in cabinet shop or planing mill, has accepted the position of superintendent for the Phillipsburg Planing Mill Company. He will go to Phillipsburg the 15th of April to take up the work of his new position. Mr. Northamer has been in Reynoldsville four years and during that time he and his excellent wife have made many warm friends who will be sorry to see them move away from Reynoldsville, but will wish him success in his new position. About two years ago Northamer & Kellogg started a cabinet shop and art store in Woodward's building, but on account of Mr. Northamer moving back to Phillipsburg the cabinet shop is now for sale.

Fine Singer. The singing of Prof. Alfred J. Mooney in the Beechwoods Presbyterian church for the past two weeks was very much enjoyed by every one. Singing becomes contagious when he leads. His sonorous voice is always heard above the congregation and the organ under his leadership the singing is spirited and good. The range of his voice is something remarkable. He has the ability to sing more than 2 1/2 octaves, giving a full clear tone to every note. The singing of his solos gave a fine preparation for the sermon, and at its close the truth was again forced home on the hearts of the hearers with a song. While his voice is voluminous, yet it is mellow and well cultivated. He enters into the spirit of the song and makes the audience feel its power and beauty. His singing was a great help to the meetings.

FOR SALE—White bed and dresser. Inquire of Mrs. C. H. Hamilton on Jackson street. Just a few overcoats left at Millirons that will go at almost half price.

Jim Thompson Dead. James R. Thompson, who was familiarly known as "Stuttering Jim" or "Rattlesnake Jim," died at the county home Saturday, March 14, 1903. Body was brought to undertaking rooms of J. H. Hughes in this place Saturday evening, from where the body was taken to Beulah cemetery Monday afternoon for burial. Some of the Grand Army men and a firing squad from Sons of Veteran Camp attended the funeral. A short funeral service was held at the grave, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek.

James R. Thompson was born July 4, 1829. He served in the war of rebellion about three years in 156th Pennsylvania Volunteers. He was honorably discharged and drew a small pension. Jim had been ailing for four months. The cause of his death was dropsy and a complication of diseases. He had been in the county home a month before he died. The deceased is survived by his wife and several children.

Good Entertainment. The entertainment in Assembly hall last Friday night, under the auspices of the Mothers' Club, program of which was published in THE STAR last week, was attended by a large audience. The program was carried out as advertised with the addition of a male quartette by Wallace Mitchell, Frank King, Leonard Harris and Craig King. The boys were called back the third time. All who took part in the program did very nicely. The net receipts amounted to almost $77.00. This money is to be used to buy a new encyclopedia for the public schools of this borough. The members of the Mothers' Club deserve credit and praise for the laudable work they are doing for the schools.

Presented Nine Jewels. Last Thursday night Dorset Castle, Knights of Pythias, of New Bethlehem, held a public meeting at which time nine K. of P. Jewels were presented to nine members who have been members of the Castle twenty-five years. Rev. J. C. McEntire, of West Reynoldsville, who joined Dorset Castle a quarter of a century ago, made the presentation speech and was one of the nine to receive a jewel. The K. of P. Castle at New Bethlehem was organized twenty-nine years ago with fifty charter members. The Castle now has only a membership of forty-nine in good standing. This Castle is in about as good financial condition as any other K. of P. Castle in the State.

Centenarian Passed Away. Mrs. Sarah O'Rourke of 608 W. Washington avenue, died just before noon to-day aged 103 years, 7 months. The cause of her death was pneumonia although she was very feeble before the attack. The death of Mrs. O'Rourke removes from our midst one of the oldest persons in the state and perhaps the oldest pensioner on the pay roll of the U. S. government.—DuBois Express Monday, March 16.

Good Idea. The public school lecture course entertainments are supposed to begin promptly at 8.15, but it is seldom that the entertainments begin before 8.30, and even then people enter the hall after that hour. If possible entertainments should begin as near as possible at the time advertised, and part of the audience will not have such a long wait. Some one has suggested that the doors be closed at a certain hour and that no one be admitted after that time.

For Sale. 127 acres of land, 15 acres cleared and balance in woods, with a lot of second growth chestnut and other hardwood, and a two story house, 18 x 28 ft., stable and other outbuildings, and 50 growing fruit trees. Located one mile west of Emerickville. Inquire of A. G. Dinger, Emerickville, Pa.

In the new five-cent postage stamps will be made the first attempt to represent allegorically upon postage stamps in this country incidents of a historical character. Efforts have been made in designing the new stamp to symbolize the cementing of the ties between the North and the South, and the cessation of feelings of bitterness between the combatants of two-score years ago. The stamp, which will be known unofficially as the "Union" stamp, will show an engraved head of Lincoln centered on an oval, while on either side will be the figure of a woman, one representing the South and the other the North. Each supports a palm and is draped in the American flag.—EX.

Ten young ladies from Reynoldsville and ten young men from Punxsy were the guests of Charlie Eberhart at his home on hospital hill last night. They had a royal good time and the Punxsy boys declare that Reynoldsville has some of the nicest and sweetest girls that ever was, while the visiting girl's admiration for our boys is an unknown quantity. The young ladies came over via trolley cars and returned home on the last car out.—Punxsutawney News.

No Settlement Yet. Altoona, Pa., March 17.—The operators' and miners' scale committee battled all day in an effort to reach a settlement on the wage scale. The chief bone of contention is the "8 hour day" and the miners are standing firm for it and the 20 per cent. advance in wages demanded by them.

The operators during the day submitted a proposition to the miners, which was 12 1/2 per cent. advance for pick mining, 14 per cent. for machine mining and $2.70 per day for drivers for a 9-hour day and all other labor advanced in proportion. The miners acted on the proposition in convention and unanimously voted it down. The result was reported to the operators on the scale committee when it went into session at 8 o'clock tonight.

At ten o'clock the committee adjourned being no nearer a settlement than when it was first appointed.—DuBois Courier.

The Howard Cathedral. There are a number of members of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry of the Valley of Williamsport, in Reynoldsville who have been invited, and will attend, the dedication of the Howard Memorial Cathedral in Williamsport on the 25th, 26th and 27th of this month. This body is known as the 32nd degree and ranks next to the highest in the world. The DuBois Courier says: "The Howard Cathedral is the finest structure of its kind in the state, outside of the famous old Masonic Temple of Philadelphia, and is the gift of William Howard, a deceased member of Williamsport, to whose memory a marble statue, the work of one of the best sculptors, costing thousands of dollars, contributed by members of the consistency, is to be unveiled."

Death of Mrs. S. E. Morrison. Ninian Cooper, James K. Johnston and wife were at Brockwayville Sunday attending the funeral of Mrs. Sophia Elizabeth Morrison, a relative, who died at her home in Brockwayville Friday morning, March 13, 1903. Mrs. Morrison had been ill three months. Old age was the cause of her death. She was 85 years old the 14th of last month. Her husband, John Morrison, father of Robert F. Morrison, of Allens Mills, is 90 years old and is in poor health. Funeral services were held in the Brockwayville Presbyterian church at 11.00 a. m., Sunday, conducted by Rev. C. L. Bradshaw. Interment was made in Wildwood cemetery.

Pastor at Johnsonburg. Rev. John H. Cooper, nephew of Ninian Cooper, of Reynoldsville, has accepted the call and is now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Johnsonburg. Rev. Cooper was born in the Beechwoods, where he is well known. He was pastor of the Presbyterian church at Congruity almost seventeen years, resigning pastorate at that place in March, 1902, to accept a call to Piedmont, W. Va. The climate at latter place was not favorable to health of his family and he only remained there one year.

Death of John M. McClelland. John M. McClelland, one of the most prominent and influential citizens of the Beechwoods district, died at his home near Rockdale Mills Thursday morning, March 12, 1903, after an illness of several weeks' duration, aged 57 years. The news of Mr. McClelland's death is a sad intelligence to the people of this section as he was well and favorably known throughout the county. The deceased was born in the Beechwoods and spent all his life in the vicinity of the home of his birth. He was the son of Oliver McClelland, deceased, who was one of the early pioneers of the Beechwoods. John M. was reared on a farm and he followed the occupation of farming all his life. He was a hard worker and success followed his efforts. His death is a sad blow to the bereaved family as well as a loss to the community.—Brockwayville Record. Funeral service was held at the McClelland home at 1.00 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Geo. H. Hill, and interment was made in the Beechwoods cemetery. The deceased is survived by his wife, one son and two daughters, Ellwood, a student at Lafayette College, Maude and Myrtle, who are at home, Mr. McClelland is also survived by four brothers and two sisters, George B., of DuBois; Scott, of Brookville, who is president of First National Bank of Reynoldsville; Alex and Joseph McClelland, of Rockdale Mills, Mrs. Heilman, of Manorville, and Mrs. Eliza Hovor, of Bisbee, North Dakota. Mr. McClelland's sudden death was caused by pneumonia.

Thought They were being Kidnapped. About fifty Italians who landed in New York on the 5th of this month, arrived in Punxsutawney from Buffalo on the belated flyer yesterday morning. They were met at the depot by one of the contractors of the B. & P. extension to Indiana, who later in the day offered them employment. Being unaccustomed to the American way of doing business two of them got it into their heads that they were being kidnapped and took to the tall timber. Their action created the impression among the natives that they were suspicious characters, and officers Palmer and Walker were summoned to arrest them. They were soon located, having secreted themselves in William Baughman's summer kitchen on Jefferson street. When the officers learned the nature of their troubles the Italians were given their liberty without further hindrance.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Many parents in an honest effort to give their children advantages of which they themselves were deprived simply succeed in training them to habits of indolence. The boy who gets it into his head that he can go through life without work has started in wrongly; the girl who is content to sit in the parlor and be a lady while mother does the cooking and scrubbing has been taught the wrong view of life. The greatest failure in life is to be of no use to the world, and unfortunate, indeed, is the parent who does not teach the boy or girl that he or she must be worth something to society.—Clarion Republican.
