Court next week. Next Sunday is Easter. Last Sunday was Palm Sunday. Trout season opens Wednesday of next week, April 15. News from our correspondents will be found on 8th page this week. This week most all the pages of THE STAR are crowded with advertising. Ice cream festival at Grange hall, Paradise, Saturday evening, April 11th. The Reynoldsville Brick and Tile Co. expects to begin to make brick next week. April term of court begins at 10.00 a. m. next Monday, April 13, at Brookville. John Howlett, who sprained his left ankle four weeks ago, is able to hobble around. The attendance in the Young Men's Reading Room during month of March was 449. Mrs. Edith Phillippi has opened an ice cream parlor in one of the store rooms in Murray block. Arthur A. Weidner and his mother and three sisters moved from Clarion to Reynoldsville last week. W. A. Stanford moved to Hagersburg the first of this week, where he has secured work with a coal company. Jonathan Deemer, who was at Denmark, S. C., several months, has returned to his home near this place. The editor of THE STAR went to Lock Haven this morning to attend the funeral of Robert F. Smith, a brother-in-law. Ex-County Commissioner W. C. Murray has rented the McEntee house on corner Fifth and Grant streets. He will move from Brookville to this place next week. Charles T. Dean, a well known and prominent citizen of Winslow township, moved to New Kensington last week, where he has accepted a position in single mill. Mrs. H. Eugene Phillips, Misses Edith and Florence Harris, were at Brookville the first of this week attending the funeral of Mrs. S. E. Barton, sister-in-law of Mrs. Phillips.

Wilson Gross and son, Lloyd, went to Pittsburg the first of this week to work. Mr. Gross will work for a street car company. Rev. C. C. Rumberger, of Emlenton, was in town last evening. He will attend the funeral service of Engineer D. A. Blakely at DuBois at 4.00 p. m. to-day. John Zimmerman moved to Ferris, Butler county, Pa., this week where he will be in the employ of the Bessemer Coal Mining Co., which company is composed of Reynoldsville gentlemen. At the annual business meeting of the Baptist church held last evening, Geo. H. Rea was elected a member of the board of deacons and Joseph E. Kirkwood was granted indefinite license to preach. Dance in Wishaw Park Pavilion Tuesday night, April 15. Good orchestra will furnish music, and good order will be maintained. Tickets 50 cents. Cars for Reynoldsville and Eleanora will leave at 1.30 a. m. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Brick and Tile Co. was held yesterday and the following directors elected: G. W. Lecker, Ira Smith, George Mellinger, A. O'Donnell, Henry Herpel, Dr. J. H. Murray. Prof. W. D. Howe, of New York City, arrived here Saturday evening to train the graduates and junior class for the high school commencement next month. Prof. Howe trained the graduates and juniors last year. He is a good instructor. Twenty-two applicants were examined last Saturday in the High School room of the public school building for common school diplomas. The committee of examiners were Supt. R. B. Teitrick, Miss Anne Kunes, A. J. Hamilton, O. B. Kerr, J. E. Good, and C. V. Smith. Mrs. Edward Jennings, Mrs. James V. Young and Mrs. David Postlethwait were at Brookville last Thursday attending the funeral of a cousin, Mrs. J. Malcolm Humphreys, who died at Port Barnett on 1st of March. Mrs. Humphreys' maiden name was Blanche Lattimer. Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church, Reynoldsville, J. W. Myers pastor. Sunday School at 9.30 a. m., confirmation and communion service at 10.45 a. m., service at 7.30 p. m. Chestnut Grove Evangelical Lutheran church: confirmation and communion service at 2.30 p. m. Prof. J. W. Huntzberger, principal of the Brookwayville public schools, was visiting the public schools of this place last Friday morning. At chapel services he gave a brief but interesting and thoughtful address on the self-control and self-reliance as important factors in the students life. A young man stepped into THE STAR office recently and subscribed for the paper, and when asked if his first name was Thomas, he said: "Make it Tom. That's what mother calls me, and that is good enough for me." A young man that has that much love for his mother need never be ashamed of it. The law suit between A. C. Huntington and Albert Reynolds, concerning coal land in Winslow township, which was tried in Jefferson county court last fall and was decided in favor of Mr. Reynolds, and was to have been taken to the Supreme Court by Mr. Huntington, was settled in Brookville yesterday. Robert Fevury, of Easton, Kan., who was raised in the Beechwoods by John Morrison, is now visiting Robert F. Morrison and other old time friends in Beechwoods. When brave men were needed during war between north and south, Mr. Fevury enlisted and joined Company H, 105th Regiment. After the war he went west and located. The elevator at Big Soldier tippie fell on Wednesday morning of last week. Fortunately the usual number of men were not at work around the elevator at time it fell or it would have been a horrible disaster. Lewis Womeldorf and John Mulholland were injured. Womeldorf's right knee was dislocated and fractured. Mulholland was not badly injured. The Presbyterian congregation of Brookville decided at a meeting held on Tuesday evening of this week, to proceed at once to the erection of a new church building. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions, consisting of G. A. Jenks, James Braden, T. L. Templeton, J. B. Henderson, H. H. Brosius and C. Z. Gordon. It is expected that the new building will cost from $30,000 to $35,000. The vote in favor of building was unanimous.—Brookville Democrat. C. P. Mitchell, of Knoxdale, member of the Improved Order of Red Men, of Reynoldsville, who died Monday night, March 30th, was buried at Knoxdale Thursday forenoon. The following members of the Red Men from this place attended the funeral: J. C. Cavender, Thomas Claubaugh, William Holbig, George Hartman, Charles Ritzke and Robert J. Porter. Undertaker J. E. Hughes, who had charge of the funeral and who is also a member of the Improved Order of Red Men, read the ritual burial service of the Red Men in the cemetery.

Fire Goes Out Next Week. The glass plant at this place will shut down on Saturday of next week, April 18th. Tannery Trouble Likely to be Settled. We were reliably informed last evening that the trouble between the Elk Tanning Company and employees would likely be amicably settled to-day and that the men would return to work. Frank-Adelsperger. Charles Frank, of Pittsburg, and Miss Nettie Adelsperger, of Reynoldsville, were married recently at Punxsutawney by Rev. W. C. Miner. Mr. Frank has returned to Pittsburg, but Mrs. Frank is at her home in this place yet. Closed Meat Market. Martin Plyler, who conducted a meat market near Imperial Hotel, has closed his market and will work at the carpenter trade. He feels very grateful to his many customers for their patronage during time he ran the market. Home on Furlough. Ralph Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Carr, of Hill street, who joined the navy last July and was assigned to the Buffalo, one of our large cruising vessels, is home on a short furlough. The Buffalo has been cruising in the West Indies. His furlough expires next week. Arrested for Desertion. L. D. Rupert was arrested and taken to county jail last Friday on the charge of deserting his wife and sons. At the hearing before Squire J. D. Woodring Friday forenoon Rupert acknowledged that he had not provided for his family since December, 1901. The case will come up at April term of court. Stockholders' Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Woolen Mill Co. was held at the company office on Jackson street Monday evening, at which time the following officers were elected: President, S. B. Elliott; vice-president, Dr. S. Reynolds; secretary, J. T. Evans; treasurer, John H. Kaucher; directors, Daniel Nolan, Charles A. Herpel, James V. Young, F. H. Beck, S. B. Elliott, Dr. Reynolds and J. T. Evans. Four Horses Burned. There was a fire at Brookville early Sunday morning and it was only by hard work of the citizens that a serious conflagration was prevented. The Commercial Hotel barn, John Pfaff's livery stable and the warehouse of W. English, groceryman, were burned. The fire started in Commercial Hotel bake-house. Four of Mr. Pfaff's horses were burned to death. Mr. Pfaff also lost a number of carriages, hacks, harness, &c. His loss will amount to about $2,000. New Pastor's First Sunday. Rev. A. D. McKay, new pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, preached his first sermons last Sunday as pastor. There were large congregations at both morning and evening services. Rev. McKay gives evidence of being an able and earnest preacher. He delivers his sermons without even using notes and he puts force into them. Mrs. McKay and two children are visiting her parents and will not come to Reynoldsville until week after next. A. W. Adam Dead. A. W. Adam, of Brookwayville, formerly of this place, died at his home yesterday morning. Funeral at 10.30 a. m. Friday. Mr. Adam was a highly respected citizen of Reynoldsville a number of years. He moved from this place to Brookwayville four years ago when his son, G. R. Adam, took charge of Brookwayville Record. He was the father of Thos. F. and Walker Adam of this place. Enlargement of the liver was cause of death. We are not in possession of the facts that will enable us to give a sketch of Mr. Adam's life. Annual Banquet. The Masons of Reynoldsville held their annual banquet in Frank's Pavilion last Thursday night. Frank A. McConnell, proprietor of Frank's Tavern, served the banquet and according to reports it was a fine banquet. Six tables were set in compass shape, providing plates for fifty-five persons. There were eighty-seven present. After the production of the culinary department had been partaken of to the satisfaction of the banqueters, the tables were removed and several hours were pleasantly spent in playing different games or "tripping the light fantastic," according to desire of those present. Death of Mrs. Barton. Mrs. S. E. Barton, who made numerous friends in Reynoldsville when her husband was in the hardware business with C. R. Hall, died at her home in Monessen at 1.00 a. m. Saturday, April 4, 1903, from heart trouble. Mrs. Barton had not been well for some time, but about ten days before she died her little daughter, Sara, fell down stairs and Mrs. Barton got very much excited and ran down stairs, which hastened her death. She had a weak heart. The body was brought to Brookville Sunday and funeral was held Monday. Mrs. Barton's maiden name was Nannie Kennedy. Her parents reside in Brookville.

NEW MACHINE SHOP. Herpel Bros. Will Erect a Large Stone and Brick Building. Charles A. and Henry Herpel, machinists, who have been running a machine shop in West Reynoldsville almost twenty years under the firm name of Herpel Bros., have decided to erect a new machine shop and foundry. Their present shop not being large enough for the increased work that is crowding in on them. The new machine shop will be built near the P. R. R., just above Charles A. Herpel's residence. It will be built of stone and brick, will be 40 by 80 feet, two stories high. The second story will be one large room with traveling crane in it to handle any kind of heavy work. A foundry will be built on rear of the machine shop. This will be quite an improvement in West Reynoldsville when completed, and will give Herpel Bros. the most up-to-date machine shop in Jefferson county. Herpel Bros. are first-class machinists and the new shop, with modern equipment, should increase their work and make it necessary for them to employ more help. Concert Monday Evening. The last number of the public school lecture course for present term was given in Assembly hall Monday evening by the Katherine Ridgeway Concert Company. It was an excellent entertainment, which delighted the large audience. Miss Ridgeway is one of the best, if not the best, reciter that has ever appeared before a Reynoldsville audience. She captivated the audience from the start and was vigorously applauded. Miss Ridgeway has a convincing personality. She is tall, but very graceful. Her voice is of a rich quality, resonant and flexible. Its tones vibrate pleasingly, and it is resourceful in dramatic intensity. G. W. Jenkins, tenor, has a powerful voice. It was too strong for Assembly hall when given full force. Percy F. Hunt, bass, is a good singer. Miss Maude Paradis, pianist, is a skillful player. In fact it was a first-class and high grade entertainment. A good ending for an excellent lecture course. Hauling Ore on Wagons. On account of not being able to secure cars for shipping ore the Reynoldsville Lead and Zinc Co. have commenced with fifteen teams to haul it to Carthage for shipment over the Missouri Pacific. This will mean that Reeds will not get credit for the ore produced by this camp.—Carthage (Mo.) Press April 2. The Press says: "Ore continues to command a high price. It was rumored last night that $42.00 per ton had been paid for one lot of zinc ore." The Reynoldsville gentlemen who compose the Reynoldsville Lead and Zinc Co. have a paying mine at Reeds, Mo. Cheap Excursion to Pittsburg. The first spring time excursion to Pittsburg will run over the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Railway on Sunday, April 10th. A pleasanter trip at this season of the year could not be planned, and the opportunity offered will be the only one via this popular route until late in the fall. Ample time will be given to visit the points of interest, including Carnegie Library and the grand floral display in Phipps' Conservatory, Schenley Park. Special train will leave Reynoldsville at 7.20 a. m. Fare round trip $1.50. For full information see excursion bills or consult agents of the company. Notice to Public. On and after April 6th I will be found up stairs in Stoke building with a complete line of spring and summer samples, where I will be prepared to give you first-class workmanship and clothes artistically cut, and the price will not be compared to what you get for your money. The Forger is in Jail. Jos. Tot, alias Dalot Tot, the Hungarian who stole a bank book from Walk Babiaz, a Slav of Wishaw, and forged a check for $200.00 on the First National bank of Reynoldsville, is now in jail at Brookville. Pictures of Tot and a reward for his arrest was sent out to different points and he was apprehended near New York City. An officer arrested Tot in a saloon and he played very innocent and wanted to know what he was arrested for. When the officer pulled a picture of Tot out of his pocket and showed it to him, Tot was more surprised than he was at being arrested. "Where you git that?" was his exclamation. As stated in THE STAR last week, Ex-Sheriff Burns and Cashier John H. Kaucher went to New York Tuesday after Tot. They arrived here Thursday morning with him. He was taken before Squire J. D. Woodring, where he acknowledged that he had forged the check and in default of bail Tot was taken to the county jail. His case will be tried next week. Tot had given a sister at Wishaw $60.00 of the money, had bought himself a new suit of clothes and claims that somebody stole $60.00 from him while he was asleep on the train to New York. He had about $100.00 in his pocket when arrested. Engineer Blakely Died Monday. David A. Blakely is dead. The veteran engineer who was so badly injured in a collision on the Pennsylvania road at Reynoldsville last Monday evening, succumbed to his wounds shortly before 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon. David Blakely was 54 years of age and was born in Blairsville. He was employed on the Allegheny Valley road for 29 years and was the fourth oldest engineer in point of service on the Low Grade division. He belonged to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in which order he carried $3,000 insurance. The deceased also was a member of the G. A. R., belonging to the East Brady post. He is survived by a wife and ten children. The body will probably be taken to Blairsville Thursday morning for burial.—DuBois Courier, April 7. An Evening With Field. "A Evening with Eugene Field" will be given in the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, April 14. The entertainment will consist of recitations and songs taken from the children's poems of Eugene Field's, interspersed with drills. Admission 10 cents. PROGRAM. Special Easter Services. PRESBYTERIAN. The following musical program will be given in the Presbyterian church Easter Sunday by a chorus choir, assisted by orchestra. MORNING SERVICE. Prelude. Hymn Anthem—"Day of Wonder, Day of Gladness." Anthem—"I am the Resurrection and the Life." "Come, see the Place Where Jesus Lay." Basso Solo—"O Gladsome Day," violin and cornet obligato. Postlude. EVENING SERVICE. Prelude. Carol—"Hallelujah, Death is Vanquished." Anthem—"Christ the Lord is Risen." Anthem—"I am the Resurrection and the Life." Soprano Solo—"O Gladsome Day," violin and cornet obligato. Postlude. METHODIST EPISCOPAL. There will be the usual Easter services at the M. E. Church next Sunday. Theme for morning session, "What it Teaches," with extra Easter music. In the evening, the choir will give a service of song interspersed with Bible reading. A cordial invitation is extended to all. BAPTIST. Next Sunday morning the services at the Baptist church promises to be full of interest. The pastor will preach appropriate Easter sermon at eleven o'clock. The choir will render special music. A cordial welcome to the public. The Bible school will distribute souvenirs to all its scholars. The little children will sing. In the evening at 8.30 a sermon will be preached by Jos. E. Kirkwood, who will in a few days leave for Chicago, where he will enter the Moody Bible Institute. CATHOLIC. The Easter services at the St. Marys Catholic church in this place promises to be very impressive and, as usual, an excellent musical program will be rendered by the Reynoldsville orchestra. Farmer's Mass in B-flat will be the music sung; Messrs. R. Bowen, E. C. Hartnet, Charles McGinty and J. Biggle, Misses May Bowen, Evelyn Fissette, Althea Satter, Elizabeth Schugrou, Mary Bargon, Emma Fissette, Kate Schugrou and Susie Schultze. Death of an Estimable Lady. Mrs. Anna Long, wife of Squire J. L. Long, of Sykesville, died at her home at 10.00 p. m. on Thursday, April 2, 1903, after two days illness with pleurisy. Funeral service was held in the Baptist church at Sykesville at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. M. V. S. Gold, pastor of the church. The funeral was very large. Interment was made in Grand View cemetery at Sykesville. Mrs. Long's maiden name was Anna Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Estes, both deceased. She was born near Sykesville, April 6, 1851, and would have been 52 years old had she lived until Monday of this week. She was married to J. L. Long at Punxsutawney July 3, 1870, by Rev. Samuel Miles. Three sons and one daughter were born to this couple and, with their father, survive the wife and mother. Their names are: S. B., Earl, Percy and Ethel. The two younger are married and live in Sykesville and the other two are at home. Mrs. Long joined the Reynoldsville Baptist church when fourteen years old and remained a member of it until the Baptist church was organized at Sykesville fourteen years ago, when her membership was transferred to Sykesville. She was always one of the faithful and zealous workers in the church. Mrs. Long was an estimable lady and her sudden death was quite a shock to her many friends. CRAZY TO SEE HER. Wives and Daughters Anxious to See and Hear Iola. "Are you going to see the Dudleys and Princess Iola next week?" asked one citizen of another to-day. "Going," was the reply, "why I've minded and I go. My wife and daughters won't give me a minute's peace unless I do, and take them along. They say that Iola can tell anything and everything and they're just crazy to see her. And then," and the speaker grinned guiltily, "I'm just a little bit interested myself." "McCool," said that first citizen as they shook hands and parted. 4 Per Cent. on Savings Deposits. And 2 per cent. on checking accounts paid by Pittsburg Trust Company, 323 Fourth avenue, Pittsburg. Capital, surplus and profits, $6,000,000. Bank by mail. A Thoughtful Man. M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured.
