WILLIAM SMITH.

A USEFUL LIFE ENDED.

William Smith is Summoned to Join the Hosts Beyond. William Smith, father of Mrs. Francis D. Smith, of Reynoldsville, died at the home of his son, Andrew Smith, on the old Smith homestead in Beechwoods at 3.00 p. m. Friday, April 9, 1903. A general giving out of his once rugged constitution, the result of old age, was the cause of his death. Funeral service was held in the Beechwoods Presbyterian church Saturday forenoon, conducted by Rev. George H. Hill. The funeral was a very large one. Interment was made in the Beechwoods cemetery. Mr. Smith was born in Ireland July 5, 1816, making him 86 years, 9 months and 5 days old at time of death. When ten years old the deceased moved with his parents to Beechwoods where he ever afterwards resided, almost 77 years, making Mr. Smith the oldest settler in Beechwoods at time of his death. He was an industrious farmer, an honest upright neighbor and a christian gentleman. Was honored and highly respected in the Beechwoods settlement where he was well known. Politically Mr. Smith was a Republican and religiously a Presbyterian, being one of the charter members of the Beechwoods Presbyterian church. Mr. Smith's wife died about twenty-two years ago. He is survived by four sons and three daughters, James, Andrew, Logan and Howard Smith, Mrs. Ellen Starrett, Mrs. Daniel Groves and Mrs. Francis D. Smith. The old pioneers of Beechwoods are slipping away one by one and their bodies are being placed beneath the sods of the silent city—Beechwoods cemetery. It will not be many years before the early settlers of Beechwoods settlement will have gone the way of all flesh.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of Mazonia Tribe, No. 341, I. O. R. M., of Reynoldsville, April 3, 1903, the following resolutions on the death of Brother C. P. Mitchell were unanimously adopted: WHEREAS, It pleased the Great Spirit to call from the hunting grounds of our fathers to the hunting grounds of the Great Spirit, Brother C. P. Mitchell, Resolved, That we sincerely mourn the loss of our deceased brother, who was always obedient and encouraging, and took an active part in the Hunt of the Tribe. Further be it Resolved, That in calling our brother away from the hunting grounds of his fathers we recognize the warning of the Great Spirit, "Be ye also ready." Be it further Resolved, That to the parents and pale friends of our departed brother, we tender our heartfelt sympathy, fully recognizing their loss of a dutiful son and kind friend. Be it further Resolved, That as a token of respect our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved family, one copy sent to the Tribe, and that they be spread on the records of the Tribe and published in THE STAR of Reynoldsville. JAMES BUTLER, GRANT RHODES, } Com. R. L. VASHINDER, } A Great Sensation. There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by H. Alex. Stoke, druggist. By depositing tickets with joint agent at New Orleans between April 12 and 19, and payment of fee of fifty cents, an extension of return limit may be obtained to reach starting point not later than April 30. Robbed The Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store. Suits to order from $15.00 to $30.00 at Bing-Stoke Co. 54 inch crevannet suitings $1.50 to Millirens. See the latest in Corless Coon Company collars at Bing-Stoke Co. #### THE HIGH SCHOOL BULLETIN

EDITORIAL STAFF
Editor—Jay McIlwain
Assistant Editors—John Coleman, Cora McCright
Local Editor—Hessie Benson

The members of the high school, at the request of Prof. Smith, attended the literary program of the Mothers' Club in the Assembly hall Friday afternoon, March 27th. The program consisted of a piano solo by Miss Erma Robinson, a duet by Misses Florence and Marion Harris, and an address by Mr. Lenkerd. The address was on "Memory Training" and altho treated philosophically it was very interesting and beneficial. Dr. Murray then gave a short talk on the benefits of an encyclopedia to the schools. Prof. Lenkerd, Dr. Murray, Misses Verdi Dougherty and Effie Milliron visited the high school Friday afternoon, March 27. Miss Electa Carrier, of Summerville, the guest of Golda King, visited the high school Tuesday morning, March 31. Miss Ollie Dunn visited the high school Wednesday morning, April 1st. Prof. Hunzinger, principal of the Brookwayville schools, was in town Friday, April 3rd, inspecting the course of study taught in the public schools. He gave a short talk in the Assembly hall on "Self-Reliance and Self-Control."

pupil is influenced by his environments, hence his gift. The school pupil could not have a better model to follow than "Honest Abe." We wish to thank Mr. Murray for gift and know the Mothers' are very grateful to him. Will other citizens follow the Doctor's example? Could any one imagine a tenth grade pupil translating five lines of English into Latin by writing, "Will you meet me at the gate at 9 o'clock?" There has been over $2,000 deposited by the pupils of the schools in the Pittsburgh Bank for savings, and about $500 drawn out, leaving a balance of over $1,500 in the bank. Deposits have been made for about 3 years. The Mothers' Club have purchased an encyclopedia for the use of the school, costing $85—the receipts of the entertainment given by them. The Shakespearean Literary Society held a short business meeting in Room 14 last Friday and it was decided to discontinue meetings for the present school year. The following editorial staff was elected to serve four weeks: Editor, Ed Hardman; 1st assistant, Nulu Neale; 2nd assistant, Coe Shaffer; local editor, Lawson Reed. Yo editor wishes to thank the local and assistant editors for their generous aid given in the preparation of this bulletin and the one preceding.

Resolution of Condolence.

The following resolution of condolence was unanimously adopted by Mt. Cliff Castle No. 359, K. G. E., April 9, 1903: WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father has called from our midst a faithful brother and a good friend, whose many virtues remain with those who knew him, resting on him in that bliss of never ending joy, our beloved brother, James H. Rickard, Jr., therefore be it, Resolved, That we express our sympathy to the widow, child and friends of the late departed brother, and commend them to Him who doeth all things well, and who shall say when the arch angel's trump shall sound, "Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful in a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Be it also, Resolved, That as an expression of sympathy we drape our charter for a period of thirty days, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow and friends of our late brother, and that the same be spread upon the records of our Castle.
