The "Style of a Dorothy Dodd"

Let us assume that your shoes fit you. Now what next? What is most important? Unquestionably "style." Demand that a shoe shall possess "style." If it has style and little else, you want it; if it has not style but everything else, you don't want it. The style of a "Dorothy Dodd" is unique. It cannot be duplicated by any other make, because the "Dorothy Dodd" is a totally different construction from any other shoe made. It holds the foot firmly at the waist (that's the instep), prevents the toes from slipping forward, and thus gives a correct pose in walking. Yet it makes the foot look nearly a whole size smaller. That's curious and you won't be long to see it. Just for once try the style of a "Dorothy Dodd."

A Tonic Laxative.

Cathartics are not tonic-laxatives. Pills and salts and castor-oil are cathartics. They leave the system in an exhausted and depressed condition. Many cathartics contain drugs that produce watery bowels and other unfavorable conditions. Celery King is a tonic-laxative. It restores the intestinal and digestive organs to their normal condition. It cures constipation from inactive bowels. Price, either 10c or 25c per bottle.

Legal Decision.

Last fall or early in the winter Constable Spence of Dayton, Armstrong county, arrested a man named Wadding on a warrant from a constable at Vandergrift Heights. Wadding wanted the constable to take him before a justice of the peace that he might secure and enter bail. Having no bail ready to offer, the constable refused his request, and put him in the Dayton lockup where he was kept two nights and a day. The charge against him was desertion and non-support of his wife. Wadding sued Spence to recover damages for not being allowed to enter bail for a bailable offense.

Defendants answer was that he had acted as advised and as a prudent man should have done. In the trial of the case at Kittanning Judge Patton ruled that it is not the duty of the constable to take a prisoner to the office of a justice of the peace to give bail until the prisoner has notified that he has bail to offer that will probably be accepted by the justice. Under the court's instruction the jury returned a verdict for the constable without leaving the box. The decision does away with the commonly accepted idea that a constable must go with a prisoner in search of bail.—DuBois Express.

Failed to Tell Name of Murderer.

New Castle, Pa., May 10.—The Dudleys, calling themselves clairvoyants, advertised that they would tell the name of the murderer of the late city treasurer, John Blevins, at the opera house last night, and an audience composed of the best people of the city attended. The "Princess Iola" went into a supposed trance and stated facts about the murder which everybody knew, finishing by saying: "It was committed by John—" "Hold on," cried her companion. He then announced that the name would be given to the chief-of-police privately. Mayor John C. Jackson after the performance asked for the name. The "princess" pleaded fatigue and made arrangements for the chief-of-police to meet her at her hotel this afternoon. Chief C. C. Horner called this afternoon and was informed that the Dudleys had left the city during the forenoon.—Pittsburg Times.

The same marvelous (?) Dudleys who tried to bamboozle the people of Reynoldsville last month.

Death of Ollie Cyphert.

Ollie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cyphert, died at the home of her parents in Zelienople Monday, May 4, 1903, after a lingering illness of catarrh of the stomach. Deceased was born at Brookville, Jefferson county, Pa., and was 22 years old at the time of her death. She is survived by her parents, three sisters and a brother. The Cyphert family have lived in Butler county for eleven years and in Zelienople for the last four years, during which time Miss Cyphert made many friends and acquaintances by whom she was held in highest esteem and love. Funeral services were held from her late home Wednesday afternoon and were largely attended. Rev. Hugh Leth of the Presbyterian church where Miss Cyphert was a member, conducted the services. Interment was made in the Zelienople cemetery.—Connoquessing Valley News. Deceased was a niece of G. B. McKee, of Reynoldsville.

Troublesome Sinners. The bible says that in the grave "the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest." The inference from this statement is, that trouble is caused by wicked people. It is a general truth that trouble is caused by bad people. As a rule good people don't make trouble. If there is a man or woman in the community making trouble, it can be set down as a fact that they are not good people. And this is true whether they are old or young, learned or ignorant, high or low, rich or poor, "saint" or "sinner." Think it over, and see if we are not correct in our view.—Brookville Democrat.

Notice.

Attention is hereby called to an ordinance prohibiting the throwing of waste paper, peelings, skins, hulls or shells of any kind on the pavements, streets or alleys of the borough. Any and all persons found guilty of violating this ordinance will be dealt with the provision of said ordinance.

News of Interest to the Grangers

The subordinate grange is a link in the great chain now stretching from ocean to ocean, binding hundreds of thousands of the men and women of the farm in a fraternal body and by sacred obligation to put forth every effort to raise the standard of intelligence among the tillers of the soil and secure a just distribution of the burdens of society, as well as of the fruits of our labor.—O. Gardner.

The principle of Direct Legislation through the Initiative and Referendum is of late attracting wide-spread attention. Many thinking men regard it as the hope of the republic. Under it ours would truly be a government of the people. Through it the people can, by petition, secure the consideration of any measure in which they may be interested and by the same means they can require any bill passed by the legislature to be voted upon by the people before it becomes a law.

The states of South Dakota and Oregon have by amendments to their constitutions adopted the Initiative and Referendum. In the latter state the Grange was one of the main factors in securing it. Since last November the State Granges of Illinois, Wisconsin,

Hustling News Agent.

Leslie H. Sowers, who since November a year ago, has handled all of the papers, excepting the local ones, that have been sold and distributed in this city, has sold out his interest and will retire from the local field. He has not determined where he will go although he has had good offers from at least half a dozen newspapers in Pittsburg, Cleveland and New York where good circulation men are always in demand. It is claimed that no man was able to make a go out of the foreign newspaper routes in this city until Mr. Sowers came here. He broke the hoodoo and also shattered his health by his persistent efforts to advance the interests of the papers for which he worked. In the 18 months he has been here Sowers has cleaned up profits that would be flattering to a man conducting a much more pretentious business.—Youngstown Daily Vindicator.

Mr. Sowers, who is married to one of Emerickville's fair daughters, is known to a number of the readers of THE STAR.

Popular Resorts.

The management of the Wishaw Park Pavilion wishes to inform the patrons of this popular resort that beginning on Monday, May 11, 1903, the series of dances now being given by the management will be held weekly on successive Mondays; the balance of the week we will reserve for social dances, clubs and parties.

In this connection we would state that having taken over the management of the Mitchell Park Pavilion, located on Traction line near Punxsutawney, we extend a general invitation to our Reynoldsville, Wishaw and Eleanor friends to favor us with their patronage at the series of dances to be conducted this season at this beautiful resort. The standard of excellence in music and order will be maintained.

Parties wishing terms of open dates apply to T. J. NEIDOME, Wishaw, Pa.

This Puzzling World.

When a person minds only his own business he is called selfish. When he takes care of his means and buys only what he can pay for he is called stingy. When he keeps his own counsel and keeps control of his family he is called a tyrant. When he lets everybody do as they please and take what is left, he is called soft. When he makes fun at his own expense to amuse others, he is crazy. When he does what he can to help another at his own inconvenience, he is called a fool. What shall we do, then? Go ahead as near right as you can, without any concern for what men say.—East Brady Review.

Quick Arrest.

J. A. Gulledd, of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at H. Alex Stoke's, druggist.

AMOS STROUSE, Collector.

New hats at Millirens.

West Virginia, Minnesota and Rhode Island have gone on record as favoring it. Granges everywhere should discuss it until all become informed as to the principle and its possibilities.

In the road bill recently passed by the Pennsylvania Legislature the Grange won two important points. 1st. A state appropriation. 2nd. The distribution of this appropriation to the local communities in proportion to the number of miles of road therein. The first bill ever introduced in the Legislature mentioning a State appropriation was presented as an amendment to the Hamilton bill, by Hon. Louis Pollett, member of the Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania State Grange and then a member of the Legislature. The distribution of the money to counties in proportion to the number of miles of road therein, was secured through the active efforts of Hon. W. T. Creasy, a member of the State Grange Legislative Committee, assisted by Hon. S. R. Brungs, Hon. A. C. Barrett and Worthy Master, W. F. Hill. These men were heartily supported by 25,000 active members of the order. Again demonstrating that in union there is strength.

Farmer Don't Need License.

The full text of the new law approved by Governor Pennypacker April 22nd, 1903, to permit farmers to sell their own products without a license, is as follows: "Be it enacted—That after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any borough or city of this Commonwealth to levy or collect any tax or money, as a license fee, from any farmer who sells his own products in or about the streets of any borough of this Commonwealth. Any and all acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed."

Reynoldsville has an ordinance relating to hawkers and peddlers, but it is "provided, that this ordinance shall not apply to persons resident in the county selling their own farm produce." Thus it will be seen that the new law was not necessary for Reynoldsville borough.

The Tanning Industry.

Col. A. A. Clearwater, of the Elk Tanning Company, Ridgway, is in town today. Colonel Clearwater says the tanning business in Pennsylvania will soon have to depend on some other than the local supply of bark for its tannin. Tannic acid from chestnut timber is now being largely used, and certain plants, which might be cultivated in different sections of the country, contain a large percentage of tannin, which may ultimately be substituted for bark for the purpose of making leather. There is still, however, considerable hemlock bark in this country, but it is being rapidly consumed, and must be exhausted in a comparative few years.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van etre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by H. Alex Stoke, druggist. ### A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. McKeonpary, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach.
