Chamberlain Bros.' Big New Triple Plate Railroad show was in Reynoldsville Monday. By some mistake the show was billed to show in this town on Monday and Tuesday, but they only stayed here one day. However, we did not hear of any person being disappointed because the show did not remain two days. The only trained ponies, donkeys and pigs the show had was what was pasted on the bill boards. The entire outfit of the great railroad show was hauled in one baggage car.
A street fakir, with a concert company for attraction, was in town yesterday and wanted a license to sell his stock on the streets for six nights. Burgess Simmons asked $10.00 per night for license. The fellow would not pay that much for license and said he would sell without license, but he didn't. Burgess Simmons proposes to make the license so high that street fakirs will not stop long in Reynoldsville. Proper thing to do, Your Honor.
The Harris Stock Co. is playing a week's engagement at this place, and is giving good satisfaction. The company is composed of ladies and gentlemen in the truest sense, and produce a better class of plays and specialties than many higher priced companies. Mr. Harris will open his summer engagements, under canvas, at his home town—Reynoldsville—on May 25th, with fifteen artists. He is a genial and affable gentleman and a very clever comedian, and knows a good thing when he sees it.—Driftwood Gazette.

Quarterly Meeting.
The third quarterly meeting of the present conference year will be held in the Reynoldsville Methodist Episcopal church Sunday. Quarterly conference will be held after prayer meeting Thursday evening, presided over by Presiding Elder Rich. At 11.00 a. m. Sunday Dr. Rich will preach, after which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

Formerly of Hopkins.
Mrs. Elizabeth Newcome, who was well known to a number of our citizens, having lived at Hopkins a number of years, died at home of her daughter, Mrs. M. C. Kelley, in DuBois, at 9.00 a. m., Friday, May 15, 1903, aged 73 years. Consumption was cause of death. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. James Cochran, of Reynoldsville. Funeral was held at the Kelley residence in DuBois at 1.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Dr. J. Bell Neff, pastor DuBois M. E. church. Interment was made in Salem cemetery.

Two Automobiles.
A. B. Weed, train dispatcher in P. R. R. office, and C. F. Hoffman, jeweler of this place, have each one bought an automobile. Both machines were brought to Reynoldsville Monday. These two gentlemen will be very popular this summer. Mr. Weed says the fastest time he has made on his auto yet has been at the speed of 129 miles per hour. Automobile excursions will now be in order. If the people of this section see a cloud of dust that looks like a whirlwind passing by they can say, "there goes Hoffman or Weed on an automobile."

Philip Koehler Resigned.
Philip Koehler, who was foreman of the beam house at the tannery in West Reynoldsville, resigned that position, resignation taking effect last Saturday evening. Mr. Koehler has been an employe at the tannery in this place twenty years. Mr. Koehler is not positive yet just what his employment will be in the future, but it is to be hoped that he will engage in something that will not make it necessary to move away from Reynoldsville. Mr. and Mrs. Koehler are numbered among our best citizens and are highly esteemed, and their many friends would be sorry to see them move away.

Stock Company Coming.
The Harris Stock Co. will open a week's engagement at Reynoldsville under canvas on Monday, May 25. Everything new, bright and sparkling. A company especially selected and admirably suited to the parts to which they have been assigned. There will be a new play each evening. Following are some of the plays produced by this company: Tags, the Waif, Light in the Window, Under two Flags, Fire Brand, The Bells, The Lady of Lyons, The Prince of Liars, A Wife's Peril, Ten Nights in a Bar Room, Thrown on the World, Lady Audley's Secret, &c., &c. Popular prices.

Miners on Strike.
The miners at Fuller have been out on a strike several weeks. The men want the company to sign the wage scale and want a check weighman. The company don't object to a check weighman but have refused to collect his wages through the office. The company has been paying the scale price, but has not been willing to sign the scale. Sub-District President Sullivan and Thomas Haggerty, member of the National Executive Committee, U. M. W. of A., were at Fuller yesterday afternoon trying to get the trouble adjusted, and it is very likely a settlement will be reached to-day.

ROBIE HUGHES INJURED.
Fell From a Pony and Was Dragged Some Distance on Ground.
Monday evening Robie Hughes, ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes, who was learning to ride a pony, fell off the pony, her foot stuck in the stirrup and she was dragged about two hundred feet on the street. She had a very narrow escape from instant death. Her clothing was almost all torn off, there is an ugly gash in her stomach where horse tramped on her and she was badly bruised about the face and on one leg. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes both witnessed the awful sight of the pony running to the barn dragging their daughter at his side. They expected to pick Robie up dead. If the girl is not injured internally she will be able to be up again in a few days.
Mr. Hughes bought two white ponies for his son Jay. One of them is a very quiet animal and Robie was learning to ride it. She and Jay were out riding Monday evening and when near home Jay got off his pony and was allowing it to eat some grass along the street, when it frightened at something and started to run to barn. The pony Robie was on started after the other one and Robie got excited and instead of trying to stop the pony she tried to jump off and her foot caught in stirrup.
Do You Want Free Delivery?
In these days of hustle, bustle and sharp competition a town that does not have good water supply, electric lights, street cars, paved streets, free delivery, &c., is not strictly up-to-date. Reynoldsville has all the above requirements for a live time excepting paved streets and free delivery of mails. The paved streets we will have within a year, possibly, and the free delivery we can have within a year if the citizens of town are interested enough in the matter to do what they can to reach the required $10,000 per year business in the postoffice. The business of the Reynoldsville office is now about $9,000 a year, and this can be easily increased more than enough to get the free delivery if the merchants and other people of town will pay their small out of town bills, any amount under $3.00, in postage stamps. Quite a number of town people send small amounts out of town every day, some of them put the money in the envelope and run more of a risk of losing the money than there would be in sending stamps. Try it and see if we can not have free delivery in Reynoldsville within a year.
Killed in Mine.
John Hiles, a miner aged 27 years this month, was killed in a mine at East Brady Friday forenoon, May 15, 1903, by a blast. Hiles and another man were working a cross cut between headings only four feet in thickness and two other men were working on other side. Hiles and his partner had notified the other two men and then had fired a shot. The other two men had a shot to fire and they either gave notice of their intention to fire shot while Hiles and his partner were out or failed to give the warning, for shot was fired when Mr. Hiles and his partner were at work. Hiles was killed and the other man was badly injured.
Andrew Hiles, John Hiles, John Scott, Henry Thomas, D. J. Thomas and wife, George Scott and wife, Mrs. David Hamilton, Miss Jennie Thomas went to East Brady Saturday to attend the funeral, which took place Sunday.
Grady-Salus Libel Bill.
On the 12th instant Pennypacker signed the Grady-Salus libel bill and since that time the daily papers of Pennsylvania and other states have been lampooning him unmercifully. The Governor made the mistake of his life in signing the bill. The men who voted for the bill will likely find it a boomerang if they run for office again.
Notice to Shavers.
On Friday evening, May 29, we will keep our barber shops open late and will close at 12.00 noon—Saturday, May 30—Decoration Day.

MRS. DAVID HARTMAN DEAD.
Patient Suffered Over Two Years—Funeral This Afternoon.
Mrs. Margaret Hartman, wife of David Hartman, departed this life at 7.10 p. m. Sunday, May 17, 1903. She had been a patient and uncomplaining sufferer for over two years, always willing to say, "The Lord's will be done." The immediate cause of her death was heart failure, or exhausted vitality. Deceased was born in Cumberland county, Pa., February 6, 1828, making her 75 years, 3 months and 11 days old at time of dissolution. Was married to David Hartman October 17, 1855. Five children were the result of this union, two of whom preceded the mother into the Great Beyond. The husband and three sons survive Mrs. Hartman: Ezra and Clinton S. Hartman, of this place, and John K. Hartman, of Allegheny City. Mr. and Mrs. Hartman moved to Reynoldsville in 1874 and Mrs. Hartman was highly esteemed by all the citizens of this place who had known her so many years.
Mrs. Hartman had been a member of the Lutheran church over a half century. She knew that her pilgrimage was drawing near the close, but she did not dread death. It had no terror for her. She was sweetly trusting the Great Shepherd. Funeral service will be held at the Hartman residence on Hill street at 2.00 p. m. to-day, conducted by Rev. J. H. Myers, pastor of Lutheran church, and Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of Methodist Episcopal church. Interment will be made in the Synchrit cemetery, Paradise.

Discussion. 2.45 The Ideal Cabinet—President, Miss Iva Groves, Big Run; 1st Vice-Pres., Harvey Deter, Reynoldsville; 2nd Vice-Pres., A. A. Kennedy, Froestburg; 3rd Vice-Pres., A. V. Mason, Falls Creek; 4th Vice-Pres., Miss Carrie Beyers, Punksutawney; Secretary, Wm. Mizule, DuBois; Treasurer, I. G. Mansfield, Sykes; Junior League Superintendent, Mrs. C. H. Frampton. 4.15 Question Box, Rev. A. R. Rich, D. D., DuBois.
WEDNESDAY EVENING—7.30 Song Service, Rev. W. O. Calhoun, Lindsey. 8.00 Reports of Committees. 8.15 Sermon, Rev. J. W. Blaisdel, D. D., Brookwayville. Consecration service, Rev. C. H. Frampton.

DEATH FROM APPENDICITIS.
Edward L. Sykes Died at Adrian Hospital—Large Funeral Tomorrow.
The announcement on Saturday morning of the death of Edward Lee Sykes, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sykes, was a great surprise to a number of people of this town, as it was only a few days before that Ed. was walking around the streets in apparently good health. The cause of his death was appendicitis. A couple of weeks before a doctor was consulted Ed. lay down on lawn in front of his home and said to his mother that he had an awful pain in his bowels. Soon he got up and walked away and did not say anything more about the pain. Other times after that he complained of severe pains, which he called "belly ache." Wednesday morning of last week he was feeling so badly that he walked over town to see Dr. Murray and doctor informed Ed. that he had appendicitis. He kept getting worse and on Thursday three or four doctors were called in on consultation and it was decided that an immediate operation was necessary. Friday morning Ed. was taken to Adrian Hospital where an operation was performed Friday noon, but the disease had performed its deadly work and the operation could not save the young man's life, and at 4.00 a. m. Saturday, May 16, 1903, Edward Sykes crossed over the border line between time and eternity. All the members of the family were at his bedside when he expired. The body was brought to the home of the bereaved parents on Jackson street Saturday by Priestler Bros. and prepared for burial. It is estimated that about two thousand people called at the residence Saturday evening and Sunday to view the body of the dead youth. Funeral service was held in the Baptist church at 2.30 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of Baptist church, and Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of Methodist Episcopal church. Reynoldsville Male Quartette did the singing. It was a very large funeral. Interment was made in Reynoldsville cemetery.
Edward Lee Sykes was born in West Reynoldsville May 30, 1882, and would have been twenty-one years old the 30th of this month. Edward was kind hearted, had a jovial disposition and was well liked by the young people with whom he associated. He took great delight in treating boys and girls. He was not stingy. In fact was extremely liberal. He was naturally bright and witty.
The floral tributes were elaborate and beautiful, consisting of star and crescent from family, anchor from Mr. and Mrs. M. D. McCreight, pillow from a number of young men with the words, "Our Friend," on it, anchor from employes of the Sykes Woolen Mill, bouquet from a number of young ladies, bouquet of roses from Mr. and Mrs. Now.
Scenes Among the Indians.
At every performance of Indian Bill's Wild West scenes of Indian life are enacted. The men show how they hunt; how they go upon their war path; how they trail, how they attack wagon trains upon the plains. Rites and ceremonies of all kinds are illustrated and it is positively true that no such insights into Indian manners and customs has ever been given to the general public before. Indian Bill's Indian Encampment is one of the most interesting features of the Wild West. The wigwams or tepees have been purchased in Indian Territory and shipped east so that the public can see how the Indians live and dress and also that the redskins themselves might be comfortable in their own way. Will exhibit in Reynoldsville on Tuesday, May 26.
Bids Wanted.
In the matter of the grading, paving, etc., of Fourth street from Grant street to Deitz Alley in the Borough of Reynoldsville, Bids therefore can be filed with L. J.
