A Little of Everything.

Did you see the Indians? Saturday is Decoration Day. G. W. Fuller has typhoid fever. Bids are wanted for paving Fourth street. Reynoldsville is getting to be quite a show town. Gentry Brothers' Famous shows June 4th at Reynoldsville. The rains of past few days have invigorated vegetation. The Republican State convention will be held at Harrisburg to-day. Attend the Harris Stock Co. plays and get a chance on the watch. The Sons of Veterans are requested to meet at G. A. R. hall at 7.30 a. m., sharp, Decoration Day. Monday night the Harris Stock Co. played "Thrown on the World," last night "Chuckles." A new play every night this week. Harris Stock Co. is filling a week's engagement under canvas at Reynoldsville this week. Show is on vacant lot near opera house. Judge John W. Reed, of Brookville, will be one of the speakers at the Memorial Day meeting in Frank's Park next Saturday afternoon. Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church. Sunday school 9.30 a. m.; Children's P. M. service at 7.30 p. m. All are cordially invited. D. W. Atwater has bought the vacant lot across the alley from Baptist church, on Main street, and will erect a residence on it next spring. A little over five weeks until the Fourth of July and we have not heard of any preparation being made for celebrating the day. Are we to celebrate? It has been some time since the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Improvement Company has had a meeting and we understand there is some talk of holding a meeting in the near future. Rev. A. R. Rich, D. D., Presiding Elder of Clarion District, preached a fine sermon in the Reynoldsville M. E. church Sunday, after which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered. Reynoldsville is afflicted with the laudable desire to be favored with free delivery. Have patience Prof. Stephenson and your desire will be granted in the "Sweet and by."—DuBois Express.

See the watch in Hoffman's jewelry store to be given away by the Harris Stock Co. Dr. J. Ebon Russ, of St. Marys, who owns real estate in Reynoldsville, was in town Monday. Quarterly meeting will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church at Rathmel at 2.30 p. m. to-morrow, Thursday. Presiding Elder Rich will be present. This is the second and last day of the Epworth League Sub-District convention in the M. E. church. Dr. J. W. Blaisdell, of Brookwayville, will preach this evening. The mock leap year party given in the Elk rooms last Thursday evening was one of the best parties ever given in the new Elk rooms, which means that it was a splendid affair. R. L. Miles, Major Levi Epler, Squire E. Neff, Squire J. T. Guthrie and G. W. Stoke, members of the G. A. R., were unable to attend memorial services at the Baptist church last Sunday morning. Hon. P. S. Weber, at one time a citizen of Reynoldsville, is now editor of the DuBois Evening Express. Mr. Weber is a bright gentleman and the Express, no doubt, will be greatly improved under his editorship. Indian Bill's Wild West show gave a street parade and two performances under canvas at Reynoldsville yesterday. On account of poor lights the show was not as good at night as it was in the afternoon. Some part of the show was good. Robert S. Williams, register of West Reynoldsville, has just completed his work and makes following report for past six months: Number of voters in borough 165; births 17; deaths 2; school children, between ages of 6 and 15 years, 186. Last night there was an entertainment at Salvation Army hall, Epworth League convention at M. E. church, Indian Bill's Wild West show on ball grounds and Harris Stock Co. under canvas near opera house and still there were a number of people on Main street all evening. The following Reynoldsville Republicans are attending the state convention in Harrisburg to-day: Postmaster E. C. Burns, M. E. Weed, Charles P. Koerner, W. T. Cox, John H. Kaucher, John H. Corbett, Herb Burns, Perry B. Love, Dr. J. W. Foust, John Trudgen, Dr. J. C. Sayers, Dr. B. E. Hoover. Any subscriber to this paper who will watch the advertisements and take advantage of the inducements offered, will save many times the subscription price in the course of a year. Instead of the poor man saying he cannot afford to take his home paper, he would come nearer the truth by declaring he cannot afford to do without it.—St. Marys Gazette. Correct. Rev. C. L. Bradshaw, of Brookwayville, will preach in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening. Evening theme will be, "Forward Movement." This sermon will be of special interest to the young people, especially members of the Christian Endeavor. Rev. A. D. McKay will preach in Brookwayville Presbyterian church Sunday. The thirteenth annual convention of the Jefferson County Sunday School Association will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church in Brookwayville on Thursday and Friday, June 4 and 5, 1903. Mr. S. S. Robinson, of the Reynoldsville M. E. Sunday school, and Miss Doshia Brooks, of Reynoldsville Presbyterian Sunday School, are on the program. Mr. Robinson is to talk about "The Home and the Sunday School," and Miss Brooks "The Cradle Roll." S. S. Robinson, Misses Caroline and Lois Robinson were at Kittanning Sunday attending the funeral of Edward Wilson, who was a clerk in Robinson's shoe store at this place some years ago. Mr. Wilson had been out in Mexico on business when he took ill. He started for home but only got to St. Louis, Mo., where he was taken to a hospital and died three days after entering hospital. Septic pneumonia was cause of death. Deceased was 38 years old. He is survived by his wife and one child. By an act approved by Governor Peenypacker it shall be the duty of each county superintendent of schools to call together during the school year beginning June, 1903, and annually thereafter, at the county seat, or some other suitable place in the county, all the school directors of the county, for the consideration and discussion of questions pertaining to school administration. These annual meetings shall not be held during the week of the annual county teachers' institute.—Ex. A large audience attended Memorial services at the Baptist church last Sunday morning. Quite a number of the veterans of the Civil war were present, also Sons of Veterans and Woman's Relief Corps. Special music was rendered by the choir. An interesting sermon was preached by the pastor, Dr. A. J. Meek, from the text, "There is no discharge in this war." The pulpit was covered with a large flag. Bunting was drawn across the room and plants and flowers in abundance.

New Ballot Law. The new ballot law, which was approved by the Governor on 29th of April, 1903, will be found on eighth page of this issue of THE STAR. Leg Broken. Frank McKee, son of Mrs. Maggie McKee, of this place, who was a driver in the mines at Byrnodale, Pa., had his right leg broken two weeks ago while at work in mines, came to his home in this place last Saturday. New Industry. An effort is now being made to organize a company to start a cotton hose factory in Reynoldsville. It would not be started on an extensive scale, only giving employment to about a dozen persons at first, but it could be increased until it becomes a large industry. Fine Timber Tract. James Degnan, a veteran lumberman of Reynoldsville, has bought a six hundred thousand tract of fine timber from Henry Stevenson, near Sandy Valley. There is pine, oak, hemlock, birch and maple timber on the tract. In about two weeks Mr. Degnan will have a well equipped portable saw mill in operation on this timber tract. Good Singers. Prof. Luther F. Mezlek and Miss Mezlek will sing at the temperance rally in the M. E. church, Rathmel, Wednesday evening, May 27th, at 8 o'clock; in the M. E. church, Reynoldsville, May 28th, at 8 p. m., and at the mass meeting in Salvation Army Hall, Reynoldsville, May 29th, at 8 p. m. W. T. Bundick will make the principal address at the mass meeting. Dairyman Injured. J. M. Hays, proprietor of the Star Dairy, was injured by being thrown out of his wagon at the P. R. crossing in West Reynoldsville yesterday morning. Mr. Hays had been up to Sandy Valley in his spring wagon for cans of milk and as he turned the corner from Broad to Pike street, near Moore house, the tongue of wagon dropped out of neckyoke and the lock would not hold the wagon from running on the horses and the horses started to run down the street. When they got to railroad the tongue struck a rail, Mr. Hays was thrown out on the railroad track and was considerably bruised but not seriously injured. The singletrees were broken and the horses got loose from wagon. Reynolds-Gray Nuptials. Frank Reynolds, son of David Reynolds, and Miss Winnie Gray, daughter of O. A. Gray, of Pleasant Avenue, were married at the home of the groom's parents on Mabel street at 8.30 p. m., Friday, May 22, 1903, by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, in the presence of a few invited guests. A splendid wedding supper was served, after which Mr. David Reynolds, a violinist of the "old school," played a number of his favorite old time tunes, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. F. P. Miller and Miss Sue Reynolds. It was a delightful informal home wedding. This young couple are well known in Reynoldsville and have many friends who will wish them unlimited happiness and success as they travel life's pathway together. Frank is a fireman on the R. & F. C. R'y. Veteran of Two Wars. Major Levi Epler, an old veteran of two wars, who is now 86 years old, was badly injured last Friday morning by falling out of a spring wagon backwards, lighting on his head and shoulders. Major is a painter and paper hanger, and is very active for a man almost 90 years old. He still works at his trade. He was standing up in the wagon and was in the act of throwing a gun coat over his shoulders and had one foot raised to step over seat when horse started. Last Sunday was the first Memorial service Major has failed to attend in twenty-eight years, and unless he improves considerable before Saturday he will not be able to go to the cemetery on Decoration Day. Major Epler served 18 months in the War of Mexico, which began in 1848, and served 3 years and 4 months in the War of the Rebellion in the sixties. Fairy Operetta. Cinderella in Flowerland, or the Lost Lady's Slipper, given in Assembly hall last Friday evening under the auspices of the Work Society of the Presbyterian church, was one of the best entertainments of the kind ever given in Reynoldsville. Misses Belle Arnold, Georgie and Sara Corbett, Mrs. J. L. Graham and Mrs. F. P. Alexander, who trained the boys and girls, succeeded admirably in their work. There was a fair sized audience present, but not as large as should have been present for such an excellent entertainment. The rain kept some people away. All the little people who took part in the program deserve praise. Following is a list of the boys and girls as they appeared on the program: Corbett Graham, Ruth McKee, Paul Kirchbarts, Henry Stoke, Hazel Hoffman, Florence Elliott, Corina Ross, Esther Bell, Grace Stoke, Margaret McClure, Mary King, Florence Watson, Christina Hoy, Margurite Froehlich, Gertrude Wilson, Bessie Rowan, Mary Loding, Ethel Loding, Nellie Small.

Large Wedding. Mention was made in THE STAR last week that Frank C. Wiley, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Leta L. Reinard, of Knoxdale, would be married at 4.30 p. m. on Wednesday, May 20, 1903. The ceremony was performed promptly at 4.30 by Rev. Long, pastor of the United Brethren church of Knoxdale. Fred B. Wiley, of Kersey, Pa., brother of the groom, was groomsmen, and Miss Mamie Rodgers, of Knoxdale, was bridesmaid. It was a very large and pretty home wedding, the nuptial knot being tied at home of Mr. and Mrs. John Reinard, parents of the bride. The parlor was nicely decorated with flowers. After congratulations the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley received a number of useful and valuable presents. The Knoxdale calthumpian band serenaded this couple Wednesday evening. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wiley came to Reynoldsville and are now at home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wiley. Frank has not fully decided where he will locate. He has several propositions under consideration. Frank is a brother of W. W. Wiley, general proprietor of the City Hotel. THE STAR joins in congratulations and best wishes. Squire Wyse Dead. Squire H. B. Wyse, who had been a resident of Rathmel six years, died at his home in that place at 2.10 a. m., May 23, 1903. Dropay was cause of death. Deceased had been indisposed about one year. He was born in Scotland 52 years ago. Came to America 30 years ago. Had been in the mercantile business a number of years. Squire Wyse moved from Crenshaw to Rathmel and while at Crenshaw was elected justice of the peace. He joined the Masonic lodge in Scotland, was also a member of Knights of Pythias lodge of St. Marys, Pa., and a member of the Knights of Golden Eagle Castle of Crenshaw. Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church. Funeral services were held in the Church of God at Rathmel at 2.00 p. m. Monday. Interment in Reynoldsville cemetery. Squire Wyse is survived by his widow and nine children: J. B. and Robert Wyse, of Anita, Mrs. T. H. Brennan, of Bradford, James Wyse, of Brookwayville, Harry, William, May, Jennie and Agnes Wyse, of Rathmel. William Hill's Obituary. William H. Hill died at his home at Prescottville May 19, 1903, 11.30 p. m., after an illness of more than five months from a complication of diseases. He was born April 7, 1841, and when a young man enlisted in the late civil war. He was a member of Co. B, 9th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, and for about three years he served his country. He was a brave soldier and faithful in duty. He came to Reynoldsville about fifteen years ago and shortly after united with the Presbyterian church. About six months ago he united with the Reformed church, in which fellowship he died. His last sickness was borne patiently and he was anxious for the time to come when he would be relieved from his suffering. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his death. Funeral services were held at the Prescottville church on Friday, 22nd, at 10.00 a. m., conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, after which he was laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery. A Good Show. The Harris Stock Co., under the management of A. F. Harris, opened a week's engagement at this place Monday night to a packed house and gave entire satisfaction both in the dramatic and vaudeville performances. Not only has Mr. Harris selected a company of actors and actresses, but ladies and gentlemen. They will appear in a new play each night and give an entire change of specialties. The services at the Baptist church next Sunday evening will be under the B. Y. P. U. A program will be carried out consisting of hymns, short addresses and papers. The exercises will open at 7.45 p. m. A cordial welcome to the public. Public interest has been aroused by Mr. John Burrow's attack on Mr. Thompson-Seton's interpretation of animal life. Mr. Seton will doubtless have something to say for his philosophy when he speaks at Chautauqua next summer. Go to the Big I X L ice cream parlor of John H. Doubles. Best cream in town. Two doors east of hose house No. 2, Main street. Hard shell crabs and shrimps at City Hotel restaurant. See the new white goods at Millirens, Copying and letters written from dictation at Reynoldsville Business College office. Visit Millirens for crevannet suitings. Bing-Stoke Co. have footwear for all the family, and save you 15 to 35 per cent. If you want a good buggy cheap call on J. A. Meyers. See Millirens $1.50 solid leather shoes for men. Turtle, oyster, chicken, clam and vegetable soups at the City Hotel restaurant.

Cut Down Telegraph Poles. Last week the section men along the Low Grade Division, and other divisions of the Pennsylvania railroad, cut down the Western Union Telegraph company's poles, reeled up the wire and plied it along the railroad for removal by train. This action will be a great financial loss. It is estimated that between $800,000 and $900,000 worth of property has been destroyed in this fight between the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. and Western Union Telegraph Co. Private wires strung on W. U. T. Co. poles, went down with the others. A National Transit wire owned by the Standard Oil Co., which runs from Oil City to Reynoldsville and DuBois, used by the gas office at this place, which was strung from Brookville to Reynoldsville on the Western Union poles, was cut off and now Burgess L. M. Simmons, superintendent of the Oil City Fuel Supply Co. in Reynoldsville, has to communicate to general office by using telephone to Brookville and having his message wired from Brookville to Oil City. New Schedules. New schedules went into effect on the P. R. R. and B. & P. R'y last Sunday. On new schedules P. R. R. trains arrive at Reynoldsville as follows: Westbound—6.31, 8.18 a. m., 1.29, 5.27 and 7.58 p. m. Eastbound—6.39, 11.32 a. m., 12.52, 6.15 and 9.50 p. m. There is a change of time on four trains. The first westbound train is thirteen minutes earlier than it was on old schedule; the first eastbound is five minutes earlier. The train that formerly arrived here at 8.23 a. m., arrives here at 8.18, and the train that got here at 1.32 p. m., is now due at 1.29 p. m., three minutes earlier. There is no change of time of arrival and departure of B. & P. R'y trains at Reynoldsville. The early morning train from Punsutawney to Falls Creek, and the evening train from Falls Creek to Punsutawney, have been discontinued, and an early morning train from Clearfield to DuBois and a late evening train from DuBois to Clearfield have been added to C. & M. service. A Fortune in Animals. Gentry Bros. famous shows, which have been united for this season, number among the personnel of their company no less than one hundred superb, perfect, Shetland ponies. At the consolidation of Gentry Bros. Shows the stock was carefully inventoried and only the very best retained, consequently, this season those appearing in the exhibition are the most aristocratic, well-bred, intelligent animals in the entire world, and their cost alone, not including the many painstaking years of slow tuition, would represent an immense fortune. The animals are all seen to advantage in the superb street display, which in its augmented appearance makes it exceptionally and is doubly worth seeing. The date of exhibition of Gentry Bros. famous shows united has been definitely fixed in Reynoldsville for Thursday, June 4. Letter List. List of unclaimed letters remaining in post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., for the week ending May 23, 1903: Bert R. Lewis, Sam'l Young, Mrs. Henry Mowery, Mrs. Ann Kiser, R. E. Sherman. Foreign—Antonio Golino. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above. E. C. BURNS, P. M. Hats! Hats! Is your old one looking a little shabby? Call here and see how much we can save you on your next hat. Bing-Stoke Co. Professor Frederick Starr in the early years had charge of the work of geology in the Chautauqua schools. He is now professor of Anthropology in the University of Chicago. His old friends will be glad to learn of his appearance on the Chautauqua platform next August. His lectures are full of originality and are always a source of entertainment as well as of instruction. Attend the plays of the Harris Stock Co. all this week under canvas. The I X L ice cream can be bought at the following places: Mrs. Edith Philippi, Butler Bros., John H. Doubles and Dr. S. Reynolds, at following prices: 1 pint 20 cts, 1 qt. 35 cts, 3 qts. $1.00, 1 gal. $1.20, 2 gal. $2.25, 3 gal. $3.15, 4 gal. $4.05, 5 gal. or more $1.00 per gallon. C. S. Kirchartz, general agent. See the fit of a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit at Millirens. A great theatrical organization, The Harris Stock Co., at Reynoldsville all of next week. J. E. Mitchell, merchant tailor, in Stoke building, above department store. Douglass shoes for men at Millirens. Buggies and wagons for sale. J. A. Meyers. DECORATION DAY. Preparations Being Made for a Proper Observance of the Day. The Grand Army and Sons of Veterans of Reynoldsville are making arrangements to observe Decoration Day, Saturday, May 30, in an old time manner. The parade will form on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, and start for Beulah cemetery promptly at 9.30 a. m. in the following order: Presbyterian Sunday School, Catholic Sunday School, Baptist Sunday School, Methodist Sunday School, Lutheran Sunday School, Eleanora Brass Band, Eleanora Order of Red Men, Reynoldsville Order of Red Men, Reynoldsville Order P. O. S. of A., Reynoldsville Drum Corps, Reynoldsville Women's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans, Grand Army of the Republic. The usual Decoration Day ceremonies will be carried out at cemetery. At two o'clock in the afternoon a meeting will be held in Frank's Park when the following program will be given: Prayer by Rev. A. D. McKay, of Reynoldsville; music by Eleanora brass band; address by Rev. P. A. Reno, of Reynoldsville; music by Eleanora band; address by Hon. John W. Reed, of Brookville, president Judge of Jefferson county. Judge Reed is an able and eloquent speaker. The members of the Grand Army and Sons of Veterans earnestly request all who can to join with them in observing this Memorial Day. Joseph Shaffer will be chief marshal and Dr. B. E. Hoover assistant marshal. The Stars and Stripes should be conspicuous in Reynoldsville Saturday. Get out your flags. Gem Moistener Co. The Gem Moistener Co., inventors and manufacturers of the "Little Gem," the most convenient little device that was ever invented as a stamp and envelope moistener, has rented rooms on second floor of Nolan block, over First National bank, where the "Little Gem" will be put together and packed for shipment to fill orders. This company has been delayed in getting the "Little Gem" on the market on account of being unable to get their bottles manufactured, but a large order for bottles is now being filled. Two or three large orders have already been received for "Little Gem," although no orders have been solicited yet. At least thirty persons have written for positions as agents for "Little Gem" and the company has not advertised for agents yet. The "Little Gem" will be in great demand inside of six months, as it is so cheap—50 cents—and convenient that all that is necessary is to show it to a business man and he immediately wants one. C. F. Hoffman and W. J. Weaver, both of Reynoldsville, are the inventors of the "Little Gem." These gentlemen have a good thing, and THE STAR wishes them success, which they are sure to have. Gentry Brothers' Parade. The street parade presented by Gentry Brothers' Shows this season is twice larger than before. It is composed of nine sections, each one complete in itself. Numerous kinds of music are interspersed at intervals in the pageant. Nearly every clime is represented by some of its baby animal potatoes. Fine camels, comical monkeys, dainty ponies, pretty dogs and sagacious elephants make up one section which surpasses the parade of most shows to say nothing of the score or more of gold bedecked chariots and miniature dens. The consolidated parade of the Gentry Bros.' Shows is a sight worth seeing and the little folks should not be denied this privilege. It will start from the show grounds at 10 a. m. Thursday, June 4. Notice to Shavers. On Friday evening, May 29, we will keep our barber shops open until nine o'clock; will close at 12.00—noon—Saturday, May 30—Decoration Day. JAMES DELANEY, H. W. HERPEL, R. J. THOMAS, J. T. BUTLER. Shoes and Oxfords. We give you largest selection, 95c to $3.00, and guarantee you a saving of 15 to 35 per cent. Bing-Stoke Co. Mr. Hamlin Garland whose stories have so graphically depicted western life will appear at Chautauqua for four lectures in August. This is the first time that Mr. Garland has been a guest of the institution. Estray Notice—Came to my premises May 18, 1903, white goat, piece out of left ear. Owner will please call, pay damage and take pig away or it will be sold according to law. C. M. LEACH, Rathmel, Pa. Visit Millirens shoe department for bargains. Douglass patent corona shoes at Millirens. J. C. DeMott Co., of DuBois, are sole agents for the Willtom Gas Light. For your spring suit get a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit at Millirens. Dinner pails, 3 sizes and shapes for 25c at Bing-Stoke Co. See the line of new shirt waists at Millirens.
