

IMPORTANT CHANGE IN METHOD OF COLLECTING STATE AND COUNTY TAXES.

COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.
County of Jefferson, Brookville, Pa.,
May 28, 1903.
JOSEPH B. MEANS, Esq.,
County Treasurer.

Dear Sir:
In view of the opinion of the Court, rendered by Judge John W. Reed to No. 33 August Term 1903, and filed May 26, 1903; notwithstanding the fact that the petition for Mandamus against the County Commissioners was dismissed at cost of the petitioner; we have decided to follow the opinion of the Court fully, and you are therefore advised to return duplicates for 1903 tax and cancel all appointments for customary annual visit for receiving of taxes.

The Semi-Annual White Goods Sale

SHICK & WAGNER

—THE BIG STORE—

In keeping with the custom of The BIG STORE on

Wednesday and Thursday of Next Week

We will conduct our Semi-Annual White Goods sale comprising White Goods, Undermuslins, Children's White Dresses, Infants Wear, Shirt Waists, and other things. This is not a cut price sale and yet the prices have received careful attention. Our many friends who have attended these sales in the past know what this means. We hope to make this the biggest sale of the kind yet attempted, hence we have given the utmost attention and pains to securing the best possible assortment of goods. We have given quality our attention rather than price as we have found out long ago that flimsy goods for nothing merchandise is very dear at any price. The goods that we have secured and are offering in this sale is just what is in demand for the following months and with the assortment in connection with good values and low prices we think we have many reasons to anticipate one of our biggest sales. Remember this sale when these lines will be on display will be for two days only, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, June 3rd and 4th. This is the regular June White Goods Sale.
