An order was placed yesterday for new seats for the Baptist church. A copy of THE STAR goes to a subscriber in Chingehow, China, every week. Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday School 9.30 a. m. Service 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Rev. J. C. McEntire, of this place, delivered the Memorial Day address at Beechtree last Saturday. "Why Men Don't go to Church," will be Dr. A. J. Meek's subject in the Baptist church next Sunday evening. The person who borrowed "Squire Joseph T. Guthrie's" "Andersonville Prison" book will kindly return same. The Ingelo Club and a number of invited friends will go to Punxsutawney this evening on a special car on trolley line. Summerville phones were put in the Ross House, C. C. Ramsey's residence and S. M. McCroight's residence this week. William Novoski, a nine-year-old lad of West Reynoldsville, had his right shoulder bone broken several days ago by fall of a fence. Ralph D. Albright, a young plumber of Reynoldsville, has been granted a valuable patent for an automatic air pump. It's a good thing. The auditors' report of Winslow township school account for year ending June 1, 1903, will be published in THE STAR next week. Rev. A. D. McKay preached in the DuBois Presbyterian church Friday evening, and in the Brookwayville Presbyterian church Sunday. The entertainment that was given in Salvation Army hall on Tuesday evening of last week will be repeated next Saturday evening, June 6, by request. One of the most active and effective religious forces in the country is Dr. Wilbur Chapman who will devote a week to Chautauqua during the coming summer. William Burge, jr., who was working at Hillville, punctured his right hand last week by falling on a nail and had to come to his home in this place to nurse his hand. The thirteenth annual convention of the Jefferson County Sunday School Association will be held in the M. E. church at Brookwayville on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Sixteen members of the Protective Home Circle of Reynoldsville attended a reception and banquet given at Falls Creek last Thursday by the Protected Home Circle of that place. John Trudgen, register 1st precinct, Reynoldsville borough, has finished his work and makes following report for six months: Voters 306; school children 310; births 27; deaths 7. Gentry Bros. famous shows that will be in Reynoldsville to-morrow, goes from here to Kittanning, then to Butler and from Butler to Pittsburg. Will be in Pittsburg all of next week. The monthly meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Foreign Missionary Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Shaffer Friday afternoon. Luncheon will be served at five o'clock. W. J. Bonner, of Sandy Valley, has a team of large gray horses which he had weighed in Reynoldsville one day last week and there is not an ounce difference in the weight of the horses. Each one weighed 1,460. A number of young people from this place held a party in the Wislaw park last Thursday evening. They found it to be a delightful place for a party. Mr. Newcome, proprietor of the park, served refreshments. The morning sermon in the Presbyterian church next Sunday will be especially for the Sunday school children. Evening sermon for the young people. Subject, "Young People and their Church Perplexities." Dr. J. B. Neale and H. Alex Stoke have been at McDonald's Camp, in Bradford county, Pa., the past week trout fishing. They sent a telegram home Saturday in which they said: "Fishing good; catching poor." Captain Fry and Lieut. Sweitzer, who have had charge of the Salvation Army work in this place four months, will hold a farewell meeting in the hall next Sunday evening. Captain Fry is going to her home on account of illness of her mother. Thomas E. Evans, contractor of Reynoldsville, has the contract to build twenty-five houses for Frank Williams Coal Company at Upper Hillville. He also has the contract to erect the buildings for the Powhattan Coal & Coke Co. at Sykesville. Mrs. J. D. Woodring is at Allentown, Pa., this week attending the G. A. R. State Encampment as a delegate from the Woman's Relief Corps of Reynoldsville. Before returning home she will visit in Bethlehem, Wilkesbarre, White Haven and Hazelton. The attendance at the Young Men's Reading Room the past month was 210—a decrease from past months. There is not as much interest taken in the Association by the officers as there should be, and no business meeting was held the past month. The breaking of the middle cord of the three span wooden bridge east of Brookville on Monday afternoon made the bridge unsafe to run trains over it until a trestle was put under bridge. The 6.15 p. m. P. R. R. passenger train was delayed over two hours. A special meeting of the Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church was held last evening and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. S. S. Robinson; vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Gillespie; secretary, Mrs. J. M. Cathers; treasurer, Mrs. Albert Reynolds. About one hundred Salvation Army members from Punxsutawney and DuBois will visit the Salvation Army in this place next Monday evening. The Punxsutawney Army will bring a band with them. Admission to hall free. Ice cream and cake will be sold after the meeting. George Burtop was in town Saturday on business and while waiting for a doctor to return from Beechwoods, where he had been called to see George's aged mother, George took an automobile ride with C. F. Hoffman. He has not yet decided to buy one of the horseless carriages for farm use. Hon. W. T. Bundick, a temperance apostle from Virginia, delivered an earnest and able temperance address in the M. E. church Sunday evening. He strikes hard blows against the great evil of intemperance. Prof. L. F. Mezik and sister, who are temperance singers, sang several selections after Mr. Bundick's address. Last Thursday, May 28, was the thirteenth birthday anniversary for Miss Audra Brumbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Brumbaugh, of Winslow township, and the event was celebrated with a surprise party. Twenty-five of Audra's young friends attended the party and all had a delightful time. Supper was served. Audra received a number of presents. The Harris Stock Co., under the management of Al. F. Harris, one of our town boys, played under canvas at Reynoldsville every evening last week. New play each evening. Al. has selected a good company and the theatre going people of Reynoldsville were well pleased with the show. Should the Harris Stock Co. come this way again they will be given a warm and hearty welcome. The company is playing at New Bethlehem this week.

Strike Settled. The miners' strike at Fuller, which had been on one month, from May 1st, was settled Monday of this week, June 1st, and the men are all at work again. Sioux Indians Coming. Saturday afternoon and evening of this week, June 6th, the Genuine Sioux Indian Base Ball Club will play the Reynoldsville ball team. The afternoon game will be called at 2.30 and the evening game at 8.00. The evening game will be played by electric light. There will be a street parade before each game. Prof. Smith Re-elected Principal. The Reynoldsville school board re-organized last night. J. S. Hammond was elected president and W. H. Bell secretary of the board. Ira S. Smith is the new member of board, Dr. J. C. King retiring. Prof. C. V. Smith was re-elected principal, Prof. Frank T. McClure assistant principal and Miss Janet Snedden teacher of primary department. Millage: School purpose 6 mills, school building 6 mills. Four mills less than last year. Need More Room. The old wooden building on the rear of the Syndicate brick block has been razed to the ground and a two story brick addition will be erected. The new addition will extend back to the alley and both floors of new part will be used by Hills & Co. furniture dealers. Their present room is not large enough for the large stock they carry. The first floor will be 150 feet deep, and on the second floor of the new addition there will be an exclusive carpet room. This will give Hills & Co. an excellent store room. Postoffice Moved. The postoffice was moved last Wednesday night from the Arnold block, corner Main and Fifth streets, into Postmaster Burns' new brick building, west of Tapper's livery stable. The office is now located in a commodious room, new lock boxes have been added, the old case has been varnished and rearranged and Reynoldsville has one of the finest postoffices in this section. There was a hard fight put up to keep the postoffice in the Arnold block, where it had been a dozen or more years, and there is considerable dissatisfaction because the office was moved so far down town. New Lodge Instituted. Twenty-nine members, including the degree team, of Mystic Commandery No. 313, Ancient and Improved Order Knights of Malta, were at Punxsutawney Monday night instituting a Knight of Malta Commandery at that place, which was instituted with a charter membership of 45. The Reynoldsville delegation had a trolley car chartered to leave Punxsutawney at 3.00 a. m. Tuesday, but there was something wrong at the power-house and the car did not leave Punxsutawney until after six o'clock and it was 7.30 a. m. when the Knights of Malta got into Reynoldsville. Candidate for Jury Commissioner. John Trudgen, one of our highly respected and worthy citizens, who worked in the mines until recently, now engaged in the insurance business, has decided to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for jury commissioner and has authorized the county chairman to announce his name for the office. Mr. Trudgen has been a worker in the Republican party for a number of years and is more than deserving of the office he now seeks. He has the ability to fill a more responsible and lucrative office than jury commissioner, and this may be a stepping stone to something higher. Death of a Young Woman. Mrs. Anna Hillis, wife of Edward Hillis, of Paradise, died at 1.00 a. m. Thursday, May 28, 1903, and was buried in Syphrit cemetery Friday afternoon. Funeral service was held in the Syphrit church at 2.00 p. m. Friday, conducted by Rev. W. Selmer, of Luthersburg, assisted by Rev. J. W. Myers, of Reynoldsville. The deceased was a daughter of John Hollenbaugh. She was married to Edward Hillis three years ago last month. She was about twenty-four years old at time of death. Was a member of the Lutheran church. Was an excellent young lady and was highly esteemed. Husband and two weeks' old baby survive the deceased. An Autopsy Held. The body of William Dinkuhn, who died at Adrian Hospital May 6th and was buried in Prospect cemetery, near Rathmel, May 8th, was exhumed last Saturday and an autopsy held. Drs. Lawson and Matson, of Brookville, County Coroner Kyle, of Richardsville, Dr. Harry B. King, of Reynoldsville, District Attorney J. V. Murray, of Brookville, Lawyer W. M. Fairman, of Punxsutawney, Lawyer G. M. McDonald, of Reynoldsville, and members of the Dinkuhn family of Rathmel, were present. It is generally known that a Rathmel man has been arrested on a serious charge in this case and this autopsy was held by the defendants in the case. The commonwealth held an autopsy at the Adrian Hospital the next day after Dinkuhn died.

PEOPLE PAY TRIBUTE OF HONOR TO HEROES OF THE CIVIL WAR. Memorial Day Observed in Reynoldsville with More Than Usual Impressiveness—Large Parade to Beulah Cemetery and Speeches in Frank's Park. Not for many years have the people in general taken such an active interest in the observance of Memorial Day in Reynoldsville as they did this year. The day was observed in a manner becoming a patriotic and heroic-loving people. Early in the morning the firing squad from Sons of Veterans visited the cemeteries near Reynoldsville and did honor to the memory of the brave men who are sleeping in the silent cities. People began gathering on Main street before the time for march to Beulah cemetery and at 10.00 a. m. there was a large crowd in town and they remained all day. The parade to cemetery was unusually large this year, in fact it was the largest procession that has moved up the winding road to Beulah cemetery in ten years. Sunday schools, Eleanor brass band, Eleanor and Reynoldsville Improved Order Red Men, P. O. S. of A., Sons of Veterans, drum corps, Woman's Relief Corps and Grand Army Veterans, with Chief Marshal Joseph Shaffer and Assistant Marshal Dr. B. E. Hoover, made up the flower-laden procession. At the entrance to Beulah the marchers halted and opened ranks, allowing the silvery-haired veterans, with uncovered heads, to march into the cemetery. The usual Grand Army Memorial Day exercises were performed at the mound of the unknown dead, after which the graves of the dead comrades in various parts of the cemetery were decorated with beautiful flowers. At two o'clock in the afternoon a meeting was held in Frank's Park, which was attended by a large crowd, larger than even the most hopeful expected. Chief Marshal Shaffer presided. Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor Presbyterian church, made the opening prayer, which was an inspiring petition. Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of M. E. church, made a very interesting and timely address. Charles Wisor gave a recitation which was exceedingly well delivered for a lad. It would be hard to find a boy of Charles' age who can surpass him in giving a patriotic recitation. Judge John W. Reed, of Brookville, was introduced and as was expected by all who know Judge Reed, he delivered a scholarly and patriotic address. He is an able and eloquent talker. The Sons of Veterans had charge of the arrangements for the observation of the day and to them is much credit due for the success of Memorial Day in 1903. Prohibition Convention. The Jefferson County Prohibition convention was held in Centennial hall on Friday, May 29th. The following party officers were elected for ensuing year: Chairman, Philip Koehler; assistant chairman, Solomon Shaffer; secretary, J. C. Sprinkle; treasurer, John B. Bair. Six delegates and six alternates were elected to represent Jefferson county in the state convention, which meets in Gettysburg June 10th and 11th. Inspiring addresses were made during the convention by Dr. A. J. Meek, Rev. A. D. McKay, Rev. K. T. Jaquay and others. The convention closed with a mass meeting in the evening. Hon. W. T. Bundick delivered an able address on "Personal Responsibility." He is an eloquent and forcible speaker. The Mezicks, who are excellent singers furnished music. The convention was full of interest to Prohibition workers and those who attended the convention returned to their homes encouraged and determined to continue to work for the Prohibition cause. Klingensmith-Smith Nuptials. Walter Klingensmith, of Rockdale Mills, son of W. C. Klingensmith, and Miss Kate Smith, daughter of James B. Smith, of Beechwoods, will be married at the Presbyterian parsonage in Beechwoods this, Wednesday, evening, June 3rd, 1903, by Rev. George H. Hill. A reception will be held at the home of groom's parents to-morrow. This young couple are both highly esteemed in the Beechwoods. Miss Smith attended the public school in Reynoldsville three years ago. She taught the Walto school in Washington township the past winter. Operation for Appendicitis. Miss Clara Siple, of Reynoldsville, was operated on at the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia last Friday for appendicitis. The appendix was beginning to decay and had the operation been delayed a little longer Miss Siple would not have recovered. She is getting along nicely now, however, and the doctors do not anticipate anything to prevent her speedy recovery. This will be good news to Miss Clara's numerous friends in Reynoldsville. Al. Siple accompanied Clara to Philadelphia. Sunday School Delegates. Reynoldsville Sunday schools have elected following delegates to attend the Sunday school convention at Brookwayville on Thursday and Friday of this week: Presbyterian, Jay McGaw, Miss Dora Brooks; Methodist Episcopal, Misses Ollie Ross and Mildred Ridgeway; Baptist, Mrs. A. J. Meek, Miss Maude Rea; Rev. A. J. Meek, Mrs. G. G. Williams, Miss Anna Davis, of Baptist church, will also attend the convention. Sub-District Convention. The ninth annual convention of the DuBois Sub-District Epworth League was held in the M. E. church at Reynoldsville on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. There were not as many delegates and visitors present as were expected, but the convention was very interesting. The next convention will be held in Punxsutawney. Full line of Armour's toilet soaps, 10 cts cake, 25 cts box. See window, Reynolds Drug Store. Special in muslin underwear at Millirens. Hard shell crabs and shrimps at City Hotel restaurant. Straw hats at Millirens.

OF INTEREST TO TAX-PAYERS. County Treasurer Will Not Collect Taxes—Trip Cancelled This Year. At the May term of argument court W. L. McCracken, Esq., appeared for a number of the tax collectors of Jefferson county and prayed for a writ of mandamus against the commissioners of Jefferson county to compel them to place the tax duplicates in the hands of the collectors instead of the county treasurer, as has been the custom in this county for forty years. We have not seen Judge Reed's opinion in the case, which is quite lengthy, but the result of the case is that County Treasurer Means will not make his annual trip over the county, which he was to have made this month, to receive taxes. The duplicates have been returned to county commissioners and the dates cancelled. Hereafter all taxes will be paid to the regular collectors in each township or borough. The tax collectors will have more work to do and will receive less money for the work, because the percentage will not be as high as it was before. The collector in Winslow township, for instance, will have to collect all the taxes and will not get within $60.00 as much for that work as he usually did for collecting what taxes was left for collection after the county treasurer had made his trip through the county. The county treasurer is from $80.00 to $100.00 ahead by not making the trip over the county and does not have that extra hard work to do. If the tax collectors who prayed for a writ of mandamus had it to do over again they would not likely ask for a mandamus now. Gentry Bros. Show. The name of Gentry will be handed down to posterity as the greatest educator of the dumb brute during the 19th and 20th centuries. No other man, living or dead, has ever been able to accomplish half so much with dogs, ponies, monkeys, elephants and camels as have the four talented brothers who own and operate the four largest trained animal shows in the world. Animal actors will do that in this city which ten years ago even, would have surpassed the comprehension of the most enlightened and best posted individual in this country on animal education. Even the Gentry Brothers themselves have been repeatedly surprised at the marvelous results they have attained and when the statement is made that the only exhibition of this kind on earth will be witnessed here when the Gentry Bros. give their exhibition, there is no fear of the statement being challenged and no fear of the public failing to acquiesce. Gentry Brothers are making a feature of their street parade this season, and when the beautiful pageant passes along the principal streets of Reynoldsville at 10 a. m., Thursday, June 4th, all those who delight in the beauties of gorgeous displays should witness it. Like the rest of the performance the parade is larger and grander than ever, and every adjective used in praising it is not misused or misapplied. Unique Display Window. In one of the large display windows of Millirens department stores was a Memorial Day scene that attracted considerable attention Saturday. There was a large white mound on which the words, "In Memory of Our Fallen Heroes," stood out prominently in black letters. On one side of the mound stood a large figure representing a soldier and on the other side of mound a figure representing a widow dressed in black with heavy veil over her face, holding handkerchief to her eyes. Guns were stacked in front of the mound. It appeared so real that people were seen to wipe the tears away from their eyes as they stood looking at the scene. Excursion to New Kinzua Viaduct. Sunday, June 7th, the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh R'y will run the first excursion to the new Kinzua viaduct from all stations on its line Punxsutawney to Johnsonburg, including Reynoldsville. This excursion will afford an excellent opportunity for spending a delightful day's outing in the early summer days at the world's greatest bridge. The immensity of the structure can only be imagined, as it must be seen to be appreciated. Special train will leave Reynoldsville at 9.00 a. m. Round trip fare only $1.00. For full information see excursion bills and agents B. R. & P. Ry. Death of B. N. McEntire. Rev. J. C. McEntire received a telegram yesterday morning announcing the death of his brother, B. N. McEntire, of Frampton, Clarion county. Rev. McEntire drove to Frampton yesterday afternoon to attend his brother's funeral. His sister, Mrs. J. T. Coax, who is ill herself, was not able to accompany Rev. McEntire. Deceased was a veteran of the civil war, was 81 years old. His wife died five years ago. He is survived by five sons. Five Dollars Reward. Joseph Johnston, one of the supervisors of Winslow township, was on the war-path yesterday forenoon when he discovered that some person was dumping rotten fish and other rubbish along the public road between Reynoldsville and Hopkins. Mr. Johnston says the stench from this rubbish was sickening. The supervisors offer five dollars reward for information against persons engaged in dumping rubbish along the public roads in Winslow township. That Throbbing Headache. Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25 cents, money back if not cured. Sold by H. Alex Stoke, Druggist. The distinguished governor of Wisconsin, Hon. R. M. LaFollette, is a student of literature and a man of eloquence as well as a forceful publicist. Chautauqua is fortunate in securing him for a lecture next summer. Full line of Armour's toilet soaps, 10 cts cake, 25 cts box. See window, Reynolds Drug Store. Suits that hold their shape at Millirens. If you want a good buggy cheap call on J. A. Meyers.
