Mrs. Mary Zufall.

Mrs. Mary Ann Zufall, widow of the late Samuel Zufall, of Henderson township, died at the home of her son, Josiah Zufall, Tuesday, June 2, and was buried in the old Lutheran cemetery at Desire on Thursday, June 4. The deceased was born in Somerset county, May 25, 1813, and was therefore 90 years of age at the time of her death. She came to Jefferson county early in life and resided in what is known as the Paradise settlement ever since. She was beloved in that community for her uniform cheerfulness and womanly virtues, which she practiced all her life.

The deceased is survived by seven children, namely: Jacob G., George, Alexander, Josiah, Mrs. J. G. Rudolph, Mrs. Wm. Foltz and Mrs. Phillip Kuntz. She is also survived by 52 grand-children and 51 great grand-children.—Big Run Tribune.

Hardly Worth Mentioning.

Thomas Denn on Saturday cleaned a turtle that had 23 shelled eggs in it, besides a lot of small ones. He has had considerable experience with the "snappers," but this one beat them all for eggs.—Bellevue Enterprise.

Psalm! That's nothing to "blow" about. Last Thursday W. W. Wiley, proprietor of City Hotel, had a turtle cleaned that contained 39 eggs ready to lay, with dozens of small eggs formed. Yesterday morning Mr. Wiley had another turtle cleaned that had 30 shelled eggs in it. Mr. Wiley says he frequently has turtles cleaned in which they find from 30 to 40 shelled eggs.

Stole Money.

Lewis Servebrant, an Italian 17 years old, stole $80.00 from another like at Adrian Monday and skipped out. Policeman King received a telephone message Monday afternoon to look out for the youth and arrest him. When Mr. King stepped out of telephone office he saw a fellow standing on Main street that looked like the person he wanted and he stepped up to him and inquired where he was from and his name. The guileless youth said he was from Punksutawney and his name was Lewis Servebrant. Policeman King put the Ike in the borough jail. Over $80.00 of the stolen money was found in the Ike's pocket. Policeman Palmer came over from Punksy on the 5.30 p. m. car and took Lewis over to Punksy.

Old Charters Hold Good.

The Foelt-Emery Street Railway bill, which created a sensation two years ago, gave charters to many companies, a large number of which have not yet commenced business. The impression is that their charters are void, but this is not correct, and applications for new charters will not have to be made.—Philadelphia Inquirer June 5.

The Punksutawney Spirit expects to install new presses this week and have that paper appear in "a brand new suit of clothes." In speaking of the new presses, new type, &c., the Spirit concludes by saying: "And if any measly foreign invader should present himself and ask you to send your printing out of town, say unto him: 'Stranger, get thee gone! For have we not a print shop of our own that equalth, yea surpasseth, thine own? Scatt!'"

Big Time Anticipated.

Independence Day in Wishaw Park July 4, 1903, will be celebrated in a somewhat different manner from the celebration held in this beautiful park July 4, 1876. Taking the published report in the Wishaw Item Chaser of date of Thursday, July 11, 1876, we find that owing to the rudimentary state of the roads, abominable trolley service, and epizootic among the livery horses, the attendance was very limited, making it impossible to carry out program as advertised. Now for the coming Fourth no such impediments exist. Supervisors have hustled road repair, trolley service is vastly improved, and the horses have never enjoyed better health. In fact, everything seems to be conducive to a good time at Wishaw Park on July 4, 1903. For particulars see poster bills.

Notice to Taxpayers.

The duplicates for borough, school, county and state taxes have been delivered to me, and all persons paying their taxes, within sixty days from June 15, 1903, will save five per cent, and if not paid within six months from this date 5 per cent will be added.
