MRS. J. C. KING'S FUNERAL

Largely Attended—Floral Tribute Finest Ever Seen in Reynoldsville.

The funeral services of Mrs. Dr. J. C. King was held in the Baptist church Thursday afternoon, and it was a very large funeral, not more than about half the people could get into the church. People began assembling at the church an hour before time for the funeral. About noon the indications favored a wet and disagreeable afternoon for the funeral, but before one o'clock the rain drops were wiped from the face of the sky and the weather was fair. The funeral procession left the King residence at 2:00 p. m., headed by four ministers and twelve young ladies carrying the floral tributes, and marched to the church. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Reynoldsville Baptist church, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. J. E. Dean, Rev. J. Booth, Baptist ministers, and Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church. Scripture lesson by Rev. Booth, prayer by Rev. Dean, short talk by Dr. Meek, who was so visibly affected that he could not preach the short sermon he had prepared, short talk and prayer by Rev. Reno, few remarks by Rev. Dean. The casket was not opened in the church for people to look on the face of the departed. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville Cemetery.

Never before has there been a funeral in Reynoldsville where there was such an elaborate and magnificent floral tribute as there was at the funeral of Mrs. King. Following is a list of flowers and names of those who thus gave expression of their high esteem and love for the woman so suddenly summoned from time to the Eternal Land:
