Y., is the guest of Mrs. P. A. Hardman. Thomas Black has charge of the Adam's Express during Mr. Shaffer's absence. Fred Knapp sprained his ankle badly Monday by tripping and falling off a sidewalk. John Schoenacker had his right foot badly injured yesterday by stepping on a rusty nail. Balloon ascension at Reynoldsville July 4th. Fire works display from balloon in the evening. Mrs. J. P. Haskins returned last evening from a five weeks' visit in the eastern part of the state. Officials of the P. R. R. went over the Low Grade Division last Friday on special train, two private cars. At the monthly meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday evening $1,000 was sold. Prof. D. A. Barnell and lady will make two balloon ascensions and parachute drops at Reynoldsville July 4th. William Skivington had the large finger of right hand crushed while at work in Big Soldier a couple of days ago. "Sunny Italy from Venice to Venetian" at Assembly hall Friday evening of this week. Lecture free. Hear it.

The P. R. R. pay car passed over the Low Grade last Thursday distributing "coin of the realm" to employes. Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Alexander were in Clearfield yesterday attending the funeral of James L. Leavy, who died Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. David Forsht, of Lock Haven, spent last Thursday with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. C. McEntire, in West Reynoldsville. Members of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association are enjoying the summer outing of the Association at Atlantic City this week. Prof. O. B. Kern, of Landsburg, Pa., who was assistant principal of our schools during the recent term, was in town the first of this week. Mrs. Riston's Sunday school class will hold a cake sale Saturday afternoon in the Keystone Hardware Co's window. A liberal patronage is solicited. Mrs. James T. Reynolds and son and daughter, Marvell and Edna, of Johnstown, Pa., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Samuel Resler, on Fifth street. The mercantile tax will have to be paid to the county treasurer same as heretofore, but the treasurer will not make a trip over the country to receive the tax. R. E. Scott, Bradford, is visiting relatives in town. Ralph is bookkeeper for a piano firm of Bradford and he does not miss an opportunity to try to sell a piano. Rev. Perry A. Reno was at New Bethlehem this week attending the semi-annual meeting of the Clarion District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. The annual vacation of the Jefferson County Bar Association began on Monday of this week, June 22nd, and will end July 20. The law offices of the county will be closed during that time. "Why Men Don't Attend Church" will be Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek's subject at the Baptist church next Sunday evening. This will be the second sermon on this subject. At the meeting of the Clearfield Baptist Association in DuBois last week, Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek was appointed messenger to the State Missionary Society meeting at Lewisburg next October. Jarvis and Joseph Williams, experienced barbers, have bought Robert J. Thomas' barbershop, next door to postoffice. The new proprietors took charge of the shop Monday morning of this week. "My Old Keystone Home" is the title of song and chorus composed by Elmer E. Beck and published by J. P. Haskins & Son, of Reynoldsville. Mr. Beck left a copy of his song in our sanctum last Friday. Frank A. Herpel, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Herpel, of this place, went to Wilmington, Del., last Saturday to accept a good position in the office of the Repauco Chemical Co. Frank is a fine young man. L. W. Robinson, general manager of the R. & P. C. & I. Co., was in Reynoldsville last Friday on his special car, which is a combination coach and engine. The engine is under the car. It is a small engine. A beautiful and fragrant Kaiserin Augusta Victoria rose, which was grown on the lawn of Mrs. G. M. Rea in Winslow township, was brought to our sanctum Monday. When fresh the rose measured 4 1/2 inches in diameter. The Clearfield Baptist Association meeting held in DuBois last week was well attended. There were over one hundred delegates and a number of visitors present. The Association meets at Barnesboro, Pa., next year. Mrs. David Jones and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Merton Jones, who were in Philadelphia four weeks, where Mrs. Merton Jones had an operation performed in the Jefferson Hospital, returned to their homes in this place last week. P. T. Walsh, the West Reynoldsville grocer, has had an addition built on to his store-room and has had the entire building nicely painted, which makes a decided improvement on corner of Broad and Pike streets from what it was a year ago. Frank McCann, of Zanoville, Ohio, Rev. and Mrs. Earle, Mrs. Edith Leonard and daughter, Miss Mary, and Miss Doria Miles, of Ansonville, Pa., and Sam'l Miles, of McPherson, Pa., were visitors at home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Miles on Main street during the past week. Rev. A. D. McKay and wife were called to Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, at the first of last week by the serious illness of Mrs. McKay's mother. Rev. McKay returned to Reynoldsville Friday. He received word yesterday that his mother-in-law was a little better than she was last week. Mrs. A. Keith, of Chicago, Ill., who spends the summer with her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Hall, in Reynoldsville, came to town last week. Mrs. Hall met her at Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. Keith was very ill since she left here last fall, but her numerous friends here are glad to hear she has recovered and is able to visit Mrs. Hall again. Members of Mystic Commandery, Knights of Malta, of this place attended services at the Methodist Episcopal church in a body last Sunday morning.

Arm Broken. William Adamson, a driver in Big Soldier, had his left arm broken below the elbow while at work last Saturday by having his arm caught between a car of coal and roof of mine. Back Broken. Harry Rodwell, the young man who had his back broken by a fall of rock in Soldier mine ten days ago, and was taken to Adrian Hospital for an operation, is getting along nicely. Stricken with Paralysis. Mrs. George Snodden, of Rathmel, mother of Miss Janet Snedden, one of our borough school teachers, was stricken with paralysis Saturday and has been hovering near the gates of death ever since. Two-Story Building to be Erected. W. S. Ross, owner of the Arnold block, is having the one-story brick annex to Arnold block, in which the postoffice was located for a number of years, razed to the ground and a two-story brick building is to be erected. Christian Endeavor Convention. Rev. A. D. McKay, Misses Belle Arnold and Margaret Butler and a number of other members of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Society of this place will attend the Christian Endeavor County Union convention to be held in the Presbyterian church at Falls Creek to-day and to-morrow. Will be a Trained Nurse. Miss Minnie Truitt, who is a student in the Passavant Memorial Hospital at Chicago, Ill., preparing herself to become a trained nurse, spent three weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Truitt, in this place, returning to Chicago the latter part of last week. It requires three years to complete the course. Miss Truitt has been at Passavant Hospital fifteen months. She likes the work. Fourth of July at Rathmel. Arrangements are being made for celebrating the Fourth of July at Rathmel. There will be a street parade in the forenoon, in which all the secret societies of that town will participate. There will also be foot races, bicycle races, sack race, potato race, wheelbarrow race, horse race, &c., in forenoon and basket picnic at noon. In the afternoon a fantastic parade and ball game, balloon ascension and fire works in the evening. It Will be Good. At Assembly hall on Friday evening of this week Prof. A. M. Hammers, of Indiana, Pa., will deliver an illustrated lecture. Subject: "Sunny Italy," or "Venice to Vesuvius." It will be a good lecture. The lecture will be free. It is given in connection with the school directors' convention. Prof. Hammers is highly spoken of as a lecturer. Assembly hall should be packed Friday evening. Don't imagine because it is free it will not be well hearing. Drunken Armless Man. An obstreperous drunken armless man was arrested on Jackson street Saturday forenoon and it required two men to take him to lock-up. He was a supple fellow and was hard to handle on account of not having arms and officer and assistant had hold of the empty coat sleeves and the fellow would jump out of his coat occasionally. He was extremely profane. The fellow was fined Saturday evening and given a short time to get out of town. He claims Johnstown, Pa., as his home. Graduated Last Week. James G. Pentz, one of Reynoldsville's promising young men, graduated at the Allegheny College at Meadville, Pa., on Thursday of last week. On Saturday Mr. Pentz was appointed an agent for the Alta Vista Land Company, of Pittsburg, and came to his home in this place on Monday. He intends spending a couple of weeks in town taking a much needed rest and incidentally try to persuade some of our townspeople to take stock in the company he is representing. Mr. Pentz was elected principal of the Greenville, Pa., schools for coming term at a salary of $700.00 per year, but resigned to accept a position with the above company. Reynoldsville Brick. At the regular meeting of town council on first Tuesday of June C. B. Hastings, of Brookville, was awarded the contract to pave Fourth street from Grant street to Deltz alley. There were three different kinds of brick bid on for the paving. "Mark" brick, $1.55 per square yard, Johnsonburg brick, $1.50 per square yard, and Reynoldsville brick $1.30 per square yard. At a special meeting of council Friday evening it was decided to use the Reynoldsville brick, which will cost almost $600.00 less for the paving of Fourth street than it would have cost had the "Mark" brick been used. The Reynoldsville Clay Manufacturing Co. is to furnish the brick. The samples of paving brick made by this company have been pronounced by experts to be a first-class paving brick. Members of Mystic Commandery, Knights of Malta, of this place attended services at the Methodist Episcopal church in a body last Sunday morning.

MORNING WEDDING. John H. Wagner and Miss Mary Long Join Matrimonial Ranks. At 9:00 a. m. to-day, June 24, 1903, John H. Wagner, one of Reynoldsville's prominent and successful merchants, and Miss Mary Long, an accomplished young lady of Altoona, will be united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Long, at No. 2530 Maple Avenue, Altoona, Pa., in the presence of a few invited friends. Rev. Bentley, pastor of First Presbyterian church of Altoona, is the officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner will leave Altoona this afternoon on a wedding trip to Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York City and Boston, Mass. Mr. Wagner is a bright, sober and industrious young man, in fact one of our finest young men. He is a member of and business manager of Shick & Wagner's "Big Store," one of the leading stores of town. Miss Long is a highly esteemed young lady of Altoona. The acquaintanceship of this couple dates back to school days at the Lock Haven State Normal School, from which institution they both graduated at same time seven years ago. Mr. Wagner's host of friends will extend hearty congratulations and wish he and his wife unlimited happiness and prosperity in life's journey. Republican Primary and Convention. There was a light vote polled at the Republican primary election in Jefferson county last Saturday. There were only two candidates, J. V. Murray for District Attorney, and John Trudgen for jury commissioner, hence there was no contest and the vote was not large. The county convention was held in the court house at Brookville Monday afternoon. G. W. Lenker, of Reynoldsville, was elected temporary chairman. He appointed a committee on resolutions, consisting of William Coping, of Reynoldsville, U. G. Sheafnocker, of Winslow township, and two other committeemen from other districts. In the resolutions presented by this committee President Roosevelt was endorsed for the presidential candidacy in 1904. There were two candidates for county chairman, Will T. Darr, of Brookville, and Lex N. Mitchell, of Punxsutawney, but by holding several caucuses and "counting noses" it was learned before convention opened that Mr. Darr would get the majority of votes in the convention, and when the time arrived for the nominating of candidates for county chairman the name of Mr. Mitchell was withdrawn and Mr. Darr was unanimously elected county chairman. Breaky-Strouse Nuptials. Wayne Breaky, of Winslow township several terms, and Miss Inez Strouse, a popular and fine young lady of Paradise, daughter of Mrs. Mary Strouse and sister of Mrs. W. C. Murray, of Reynoldsville, were united in marriage at Brookville on the afternoon of June 18, 1903, by Rev. J. T. Adams, pastor of the Brookville United Presbyterian church. Mr. Breaky and bride went from Brookville to home of his parents at Stanton to spend a few days. These are both excellent young people and they start out in life with bright prospects before them. THE STAR joins their numerous friends in extending congratulations and best wishes. Second Degree Candidate. Twenty five Odd Fellows from Anita visited the I. O. O. F. lodge at Reynoldsville last Saturday evening. Ten of the visitors were initiated in the second degree. After the "goat" was tied the Daughters of Rebekah served lunch in the I. O. O. F. hall to the visitors and home members. Elk Lodge Instituted. An Elk lodge was instituted at Ridgeway last Friday night and the following members of B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 519, of Reynoldsville attended the institution of the new lodge: James E. Mitchell, W. E. Lucas, George Hughes, Alex Riston, W. W. Deible, Ben C. Reed, Joseph Williams and Henry Redding. School directors' convention will be held in Assembly hall at Reynoldsville on Friday and Saturday of this week, June 26 and 27. C. W. Park's Big Stock Company next week. Go to John H. Double's ice cream parlor, east Main street, near No. 2 Hose house, for fine I X L ice cream. Reynolds', famous chocolate soda better than ever. Fresh oysters at the City Hotel restaurant. Krippendorf-Dittman shoes for ladies at Nolan's shoe store. Just received a new line of walking skirts at Millirens. You can get a bargain at Nolan's shoe store. They have about fifty pair of shoes that they will sell at a big reduction. These shoes are good styles. All America shoes for men at Nolan's shoe store, price $3.50 and $4.00. Good buggies and wagons for sale cheap at J. A. Meyers' harness shop. Remember you can get the Queen Quality shoes at Nolan's shoe store at $2.50 a pair. Monarch shirts at Millirens. J. E. Mitchell, merchant tailor, in Stoke building, above department store. See Millirens parasols.

TWO BALLOON ASCENSIONS. Parade, Athletic Games, Patriotic Speeches, Fireworks, &c., July 4th. One of the big attractions booked for the Fourth of July celebration at Reynoldsville is two balloon ascensions and parachute drop by Prof. D. A. Barnell and lady. First balloon ascension at 2.30 p. m., and second, an illuminated ascension, at 8.30 p. m. There will be a fine display of fire works from the balloon during the evening ascension and this feature alone will be worth coming a long distance to witness. Besides the balloon ascension there will be many other attractions, such as big parade, athletic games, patriotic speeches, greased pig, barrel races, sack, wheelbarrow, bicycle races and other amusements. An effort is being made to make this the greatest celebration held in Reynoldsville for a number of years. Everybody and their friends should make arrangements to come to Reynoldsville on Saturday, July 4th. Fye-Zimmerman Wedding. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Zimmerman, of Sykesville, was the scene of a very pleasant event on Thursday evening of last week, being the occasion of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Clara, to Mr. John Fye. The happy couple were attended by Miss Ida Fye and Mr. Thos. Zimmerman, Miss Ada Fye and Mr. Dallas Dapp, Miss Minnie McPherson and Mr. David Fye. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, of Reynoldsville, in the presence of about 30 guests. After congratulations they repaired to the dining room where a very excellent supper was served and to which all did ample justice. Their many friends wish them a happy voyage through life. Hammers' Lecture. In speaking of Prof. A. M. Hammers, who will deliver a lecture in Assembly hall on Friday night of this week, Prof. John B. DeMotte, the noted lecturer says: "I had the pleasure of hearing one of Prof. A. M. Hammers' Illustrated Lectures last winter. He is an easy, eloquent speaker, using the King's English with the touch of a master. The audience was greatly pleased. His illustrations are the best." An Able Preacher. Rev. E. R. Palmer, D. D., of Philadelphia, Secretary of the American Baptist Home Missionary Society, was the guest of Dr. A. J. Meek from Saturday noon until Sunday afternoon, going from here to Brookville. Dr. Palmer preached an able and eloquent sermon in the Reynoldsville Baptist church Sunday morning. Letter List. List of unclaimed letters remaining in post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., for the week ending June 23, 1903: J. H. Harmon, Prof. H. S. Raymond, Miss Lizzie Wilson. Foreign—Wojcieck Seluea, M. Luigo Carripino. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above. E. C. BURNS, P. M. Card of Thanks. Words seem idle and inadequate when we try to express our thanks to all those who so kindly and sympathetically ministered to us in our sore bereavement. We shall hold all in grateful remembrance. DR. J. C. KING AND FAMILY. Card of Thanks. We desire to gratefully acknowledge the kindness and sympathy accorded us during the illness and after the death of wife and mother, and tender sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends who assisted in the time of our affliction. J. A. MEYERS AND FAMILY. Horses for Sale. Will offer for sale driving horses: Maud "Wilks," 5 years old, trotter; Nellie "Knulton," 4 years old, pacer; one colt 3 years old; Bell "Wilks," 2 years old, pacer; two yearling colts; brood mare with "Polo Alto" colt at her side. DIED AT BUFFALO, N. Y. Mrs. J. A. MEYERS EXPIRES AFTER LONG ILLNESS. Operation Performed Friday from Which She Never Recovered—Burial at Corsica. Mrs. Margaret A. Meyers, wife of J. A. Meyers, the harness maker, died at the General Hospital in Buffalo, N. Y., at noon on Saturday, June 20th, 1903. The announcement of her death was not a surprise to her family or friends, as it was known that there was very little chance for her to live. For four years she had suffered intensely from tidedouloureux, or facial neuralgia. In May, 1902, Mrs. Meyers went to the General Hospital at Buffalo, N. Y., and was operated on by Dr. Roswell Park, a famous doctor of Buffalo. The operation was performed on the right side of face. It was a delicate and dangerous operation. The 30th of April of the present year Mrs. Meyers had to go to Buffalo for a second operation. She remained at hospital until the 18th of May and then returned to her home in this place. The Reynoldsville doctors taxed their best skill to dress the wound and give her all possible attention and care, but hemorrhages were frequent and finally the attending physician and his assistants pronounced the case beyond their aid and on the 16th of June, one week ago yesterday, Mrs. Meyers was taken back to the hospital at Buffalo accompanied by her physician and daughter, Miss Edna Meyers. On Friday a third operation was performed, but Mrs. Meyers never rallied from that operation and was unconscious until dissolution took place and her suffering was over. Miss Edna was the only member of the family that was at the bedside of Mrs. Meyers when she fell asleep never to awaken in this life again. The body was brought to Reynoldsville on the 4.30 p. m. train Sunday. A short funeral service was held at the residence at 8.00 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church. Early Tuesday morning the funeral procession left Reynoldsville for Corsica, where funeral service was held in the Pisgah Presbyterian church, where deceased had worshipped for so many years. Rev. F. P. Britt, pastor of Pisgah church, conducted the services. Interment was made in the Pisgah cemetery. Mrs. Meyers was a noble woman. Although the suffering she had to endure was excruciating at times, yet she was a patient and gentle sufferer. She was a good wife, a loving and indulgent mother, kind neighbor and a christian woman, highly esteemed and loved by those who were personally acquainted with her. She will be greatly missed in the home circle. Mrs. Meyers' maiden name was Margaret A. Moore, daughter of John C. and Nancy Moore, deceased. She was born and raised in Limestone township, Clarion county, near Corsica. Was born April 4, 1848, and died June 20, 1903, making her 55 years, 2 months and 16 days old at time of death. Margaret Moore was married to J. A. Meyers at Leatherwood, Clarion county, Feb. 27, 1867, by Rev. Shumaker. Unto them seven children were born, four sons and three daughters, one of the sons dying in infancy. The husband and following sons and daughters survive Mrs. Meyers: Mrs. Nannie L. Smith, of Patton Station, Pa., John Harvey Meyers, Grace I., Audley M., Harry Blythe and Edna L. Mr. and Mrs. Meyers spent 28 years of their married life at Corsica, moving to Reynoldsville in September, 1896. When about 18 years old, a year before she was married, Mrs. Meyers joined the Pisgah Presbyterian church at Corsica and was a faithful and consistent member of that church until six years ago when she transferred her membership to the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church. She was a member of the Work Society and Missionary Society, but on account of poor health she had not been as active in church work the past four years as she had been previous to that time. The floral offerings were beautiful, consisting of anchor of roses and carnations from Miss Grace Meyers; harp of roses and carnations, from members of Presbyterian Work Society; bouquet of carnations from Mrs. S. T. Reynolds and Miss Olive Reynolds; bouquet of carnations from Mrs. H. Alex Stoke, Misses Margaret and Julia Stoke; bouquet of roses from Mrs. R. H. Wilson; basket of roses from Mrs. U. G. Scheafnocker; bouquet of roses, Mrs. W. S. Ross; pillow, roses and carnations, Retail Clerks' Union; bouquet from members of Woman's Relief Corps; wreath of pansies, Mrs. Sam'l Resler; bouquets of roses from Mrs. J. W. Dempsey, Mrs. H. M. Iseman, Mrs. Wesley Motter, Mrs. John O'Connor and Mrs. John H. Corbett; sickle and sheaf, John H. Wagner and clerks; bouquet of roses and carnations, from nine young ladies. Admission to Park's Big Stock Co. is only 10 and 20. Large line of Mason glass jars, one quart, at 49 cents per dozen at the Cash New York Racket store. Shoes for the whole family at Millirens. Reynolds' famous chocolate soda better than ever. See the new wash goods at Millirens.
