

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1903.

If You Have Eye Trouble

Of any kind, call and have your eyes examined free. Permanently located, always to be found. Work guaranteed. Prices reasonable.

C. F. Hoffman, The Optician and Jeweler.

Your Favorite Soda Drink

We serve all the favorites—phosphates, frappes, plain sodas, ice cream sodas, plain ice cream, egg combinations, grape juice mixtures, bracers, stomach settlers, tonics, crushed fruit combinations, and all the old stand-bys as well as the newest fancy concoctions. We did the biggest soda business in town last year and we expect to do a great deal bigger this year.

STOKE'S - PHARMACY.

A Little of Everything.

No paper next week. Park's Big Stock Co. Saturday we celebrate. Two balloon ascensions. Today we start in on last half of 1903. THE STAR will not be issued next week. The eagle will scream here Saturday. Come and hear it. The trolley cars now run down Jackson street as far as Fourth street.

Fine dinner and supper will be served in Frank's Park on July 4th for 25 cents by the L. C. B. A. Mrs. Mary Shoemaker, of Fairmount City, Pa., is visiting at home of J. W. Dempsey in West Reynoldsville. The ladies of the Lutheran church will serve ice cream, cake, coffee and lunch in the Woodward building all day and evening of July 4th. Last Saturday afternoon, June 27, Tony Manco and Santo Puoco, both of Sandy Valley, were married by Squire E. Neff at his office in Reynoldsville.

Arm Broken. Addison, five-year-old son of Dr. A. H. Bowser, fell off a cherry tree last Saturday morning and broke both bones of his right forearm. No Paper Next Week. THE STAR will not be issued next week. We will take a short vacation. The office will be open every day except July 4th to do job work or receive subscriptions to THE STAR. Clean Main Street. There never has been more dirt on Main street since it was paved than there is now. It is in bad condition. It should be cleaned, and no doubt will be, before the Fourth of July. Street Commissioner Claubaugh will see that the dirt is hauled away if the business men see that it is piled up. Trolley Dangerous for Boys. Curtis Gray, young son of Addison Gray, of Jackson street, was injured Sunday by falling off a trolley car, and had narrow escape from horrible death.

Death of Bernard McAuley. On Wednesday, June 24, 1903, at 3.15 p. m., Bernard McAuley, son of Mrs. Mary McAuley, of Prescottville, died of diphtheria. Funeral service was held in the Catholic church Thursday afternoon and interment was made in Catholic cemetery. Bernard was born November 3, 1893, and was 9 years, 7 months and 21 days old at time of death. Mrs. McAuley has the sympathy of her friends. Surely she has had her share of sorrow. She has buried her husband and five children and is now left without a child, Bernard being the last one to die. Mrs. McAuley will sell her property and household goods and will go to Palestine, Ohio, to live. Arthur McAuley and wife, of Palestine, Ohio, were called here on account of serious illness of Bernard, but the little fellow had departed this life before his uncle and aunt arrived here. Oil on Floors. One of the matters up for discussion at the directors' convention held in this place Friday and Saturday of last week was the using of oil on school house floors to keep down the dust. We have been informed that some of the directors of this borough are in favor of oiling the floors of the Reynoldsville public school building, but it is not likely that it will be done. It would not be advisable, and would certainly meet the disapproval of the public in general. The experience of those who have tried the oiling process is that the oil can be tracked around and that it will stick to clothing. That being the case the ladies would have their dresses destroyed when they attend entertainments in Assembly hall. E. D. Seeley's Birthday. Last Thursday was a birthday anniversary in the earthly career of "Uncle" Ed. D. Seeley, and as he is so well preserved, the years having glided over him without leaving traces of the actual number, and he can palm himself off on the general public as being younger than he really is, we will not state the number of his own birthdays he has attended. However, this birthday was celebrated with a small party, composed mostly of relatives. L. P. Seeley, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Ada Van Schoick, of Bloomington, Ill., being among the number who sat down to an excellent birthday dinner. It Was a Fine Lecture. Friday evening of last week Prof. A. M. Hammers, of Indiana, Pa., gave an illustrated lecture in Assembly hall on "Sonny Italy" to a large audience. The pictures thrown upon the screen were exceedingly fine, and the lecture was delivered in clear and elegant language and the matter in it was historic and entertaining. All present seemed to enjoy the entertainment thoroughly. Month's Vacation. Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, will leave here the first of next week on a month's vacation at the home of his parents at Lake Ainslee, Nova Scotia, Canada. There will not be any preaching in the Presbyterian church during July. Alpha Mfg Co. The Alpha Manufacturing Co., which was organized at this place several months ago, with Dr. O. A. Jenner manager, has opened business in the Corwin building, near the opera house. This company will handle all kinds of novelties, enlarge pictures and are advertising manufacturers. Better Than Ever. C. W. Parks' Big Stock Co. opened a week's engagement under canvas on Monday evening with the "Irish Arab." The company is larger and better this year than it has been any other time the company has ever visited Reynoldsville. Mr. Parks has a very strong company this time. Going to Boston. Misses Julia Kirk, Maud Meek, Lulu Black, Edyth and Effie Clark, all successful school teachers, will start from here Friday morning to attend the National Educational Association meeting to be held in Boston, Mass., July 6-10th. On all goods which people need for the 4th of July you will find at out prices at A. Katzen's Bargain Store. See the opera slippers at Millirens. Drink Reynolds' Famous Chocolate. Better than ever. Douglass shoes at Millirens. The Wright hand made shoe for workmen is sold at the Nolan shoe store. Copying and letters written from dictation at Reynoldsville Business College office. Reynolds' soda always the best and served as you like it. Full supply of men's and boys' shoes at a greatly reduced price for the 4th of July at A. Katzen's Bargain Store. Rubber rings for glass jars 3 cts per dozen at Cash New York Racket store. See Millirens parasols. Mitchell, the merchant tailor, in Stoke building. Bran, middlings and corn chops at wholesale at Reynoldsville Mills. Our soda is so very taking it keeps us busy selling—making. Reynolds Drug store.

JUNE WEDDINGS. Some of Our Young People Join the Matrimonial Ranks. JONES-HARTMAN. Daniel S. Jones, son of Benjamin Jones, and Miss Grace M. Hartman, daughter of George Hartman, were married at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in Brookville on Monday evening, June 29, 1903, by Rev. Perry A. Reno. Mr. Jones is a fireman on the P. R. R. at Pittsburg. POSTLETHWAIT-MEANS. Charles C. Postlethwait, now located at Driftwood, brother of A. J. Postlethwait, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Clara Means were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Means, at Valley, at 4 p. m. yesterday, June 30. Mr. Postlethwait was an employee in the P. R. R. freight depot at Reynoldsville last year and is known to a number of our people. SHAEFER-BURGE. R. Atmore Shaffer and Miss Mary M. Burge, both of Reynoldsville, were united in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in Brookville at 7.30 p. m. on Wednesday, June 24, 1903, by Rev. Dr. William P. Graham. Clarence Hines and Miss Mollie Greenwalt, of Reynoldsville, witnessed the nuptial ceremony. The wedding party drove to Brookville in a carriage. Mr. Shaffer and Mrs. Burge have many friends here who wish them much happiness and success. GOURLEY-SCHUGERS. At 8.00 p. m., June 25, 1903, a pretty wedding took place at the residence of L. H. Boyle, in West Reynoldsville, when Lyle O. Gourley, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Gourley, and Miss Cora E. Schugers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Schugers, of Winslow township, took the solemn vows that joined them as husband and wife. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. It was not a large wedding, only fourteen persons present, immediate relatives of the contracting parties. After congratulations an excellent luncheon was served. Mr. Gourley and bride left here Friday morning on a wedding trip to Pittsburg, Philadelphia and Atlantic City. They will go to house-keeping as soon as they can secure a suitable home. This young couple have a host of friends who wish them happiness and success in their journey through life. Mrs. Snedden Dead. Mrs. Janet Snedden, wife of George Snedden, superintendent of the Bloomington mines near Rathmel, died at 1.35 a. m. Sunday, June 28, 1903. The 29th of June Mrs. Snedden had a stroke of paralysis, mention of which was made in THE STAR last week, which was cause of her death. Deceased was about 57 years old. She is survived by her husband and nine children, four sons and five daughters. She was a member of the Presbyterian church. Funeral service at 2.00 p. m. today in the Church of God at Rathmel, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, of Reynoldsville. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. Mrs. Snedden was the mother of Miss Janet Snedden, teacher of primary department in the Reynoldsville public schools. The Sparks Circus. The circus given by John Sparks and his aggregation at Seventh and Cherry streets, is the best 15 and 25 cent show ever seen in this city. Every performer is a star in his or her class and the entire exhibit from start to finish is clean, wholesome and enjoyable. The trained dogs are the finest ever seen here, the dancing of a big elephant, the trapeze and tumbling is all of the highest order and no one who goes tonight will regret the money spent. People can always afford to give such a show as this, careful as it is in its management, a liberal patronage, and if the tent is packed to-night it will be no more than that such an exhibit is worthy of. So says the Erie, Pa., Daily Herald, Aug. 7, 1902. At Reynoldsville July 8. Program for Each Evening. The program for Parks' Big Stock Co. for each evening during the balance of this week is as follows: Wednesday, "Little Lord Fawceter"; Thursday, "The Resurrection"; Friday, "Tracy, the Outlaw"; Saturday afternoon matinee, "Foxy Grandpa"; Fourth of July evening, "Gettysburg." The "Red Cap" juvenile ball team of Reynoldsville, Frank Burns captain, and the "True Blues," a juvenile team of Rathmel, had an exciting game of baseball on the lawn near the Reynoldsville opera house last Thursday afternoon. Score 10-9 in favor of the "Red Caps." Sparks' show gives a grand, golden and glittering street parade at noon of open days of wild animals, headed by a challenge ever contest band of solo musicians. Don't miss it. It alone is worth going many miles to see. Remember the day and date, Wednesday, July 8th. Bing-Stokes Co. department store will keep open until 10.30 Friday night of this week, July 3. Look for honest bargains and the right goods at the right prices on men's and boy's clothing, hats, caps, and jewelry for the 4th to fix you up for the big celebration. A. Katzen, Reynoldsville. Go to John H. Doubles' ice cream parlor, east Main street, near No. 2 House, for fine I X L ice cream. See the new wash goods at Millirens. Dr. Gibson has a thorough training in one of the best optical colleges and a long experience in optical work. See him if you need work done. Fresh oysters at the City Hotel restaurant. Krippendorf-Dittman shoes for ladies at Nolan's shoe store. Just received a new line of walking skirts at Millirens. Remember you can get the Queen Quality shoes at Nolan's shoe store at $2.50 a pair.

Married at Franklin. Mr. Albert P. Sutter, formerly a resident of Reynoldsville, Pa., and Miss Ethel E. Brassington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brassington, of Chestnut street, above 14th, were married last night at the parsonage residence of St. Patrick's church by Rev. Father Bernard Donohoe. The ceremony took place at 9 o'clock and was only attended by the contracting parties and a few of the most intimate friends and nearest relatives. After the wedding the happy young couple started on a bridal tour east which will include a number of different points of interest. Mr. Sutter has been a resident of this place for some time, where he has been employed in the machine shops of the Air-Compressor Works. Since coming to Franklin by his genial ways and obliging disposition he has made a host of friends who will be only too glad to offer congratulations and best wishes to the young couple on their return home. It is hardly necessary for us to mention the charming young bride. She has spent her life in Franklin, attended school here from early childhood, graduated from the High School with honors and numbers her friends by the list of her acquaintances.—Franklin Evening News, June 24. Mr. Sutter and bride have been spending a few days of their honeymoon at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sutter, on Pleasant Avenue. Wagner-Long Wedding. The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Long at 2539 Maple avenue, was given over to friends yesterday morning to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Sabina Long, to Mr. John H. Wagner, of Reynoldsville. It was a pretty affair and the parlors were prettily decorated with laurel, daisies, and roses by Leek Haven Normal school classmates of the bride, Misses Mary Shaefer, of Bellwood; Bess McNall, of Salora; Emma Ross, of Bixford, and Clara Long, of Salemville. The high contracting parties, attended by Mr. Frank McCloskey as best man, and Miss Frank McCloskey, a sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, entered the parlor at 9 o'clock, and were met by Rev. Robert Bruce Beatty, of Franklin, Pa. The bride was given away by her father and the solemn and beautiful Presbyterian ritual was used in tying the nuptial knot. The happy couple were showered with congratulations after which a wedding breakfast was served. The bride is a most estimable and excellent young lady and for several years has taught school in this city and Logan township. She is popular in a wide circle of friends and received numerous pretty and useful presents which attest the esteem in which she is held. The groom is a young man of sterling worth and is one of the young rising business men of Reynoldsville, Pa.—Altoona Tribune, June 25. Winslow Township School Board. The regular monthly meeting of the Winslow township school board was held at Frank's Tavern last Saturday. Allen Cathers, who had been elected secretary when board was organized June 1st, resigned and P. A. Smith was elected secretary, and W. H. Reber treasurer. J. W. Boner is president of the board. The regular meetings of each month. A committee, consisting of P. A. Smith and W. H. Reber, was appointed to investigate the school buildings and school books in the township. At 9.00 a. m. on Saturday, July 25th, the board will hire teachers for the coming term of school. All applicants for schools are requested to be present at that time. Unconscious a Second. Joseph S. Hammond, superintendent of the Reynoldsville & Falls Creek RY and secretary for the J. & C. C. & I. Co. at this place, was injured last Friday in jumping off a trolley car while it was gliding along at a brisk speed. Mr. Hammond had been at Wishaw and when near the Gourley place on return he noticed something along the R. & P. C. RY track that needed attention and he was in the act of swinging off the trolley when he discovered a mud hole just where he would alight. He tried to stay on car but could not do so, and he fell with his head on rail, cutting a three inch gap in his head. He was unconscious a few seconds. It might have proven serious. In the attempt to save himself Mr. Hammond wrenched his left side badly. Daughters of St. George. Last Friday evening Mrs. William Coping installed the new officers in the Daughters of St. George lodge at this place, as follows: Past President, Mrs. Frances Reed; Worthy President, Miss Lizzie Northey; Worthy Vice-President, Miss Grace Hockings; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Jennie Barclay; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Ella Deter; Treasurer, Mrs. Maggie Trudgen; Chaplain, Mrs. Annie Justham; Second Conductor, Miss Polly Mitchell; Trudgen; Inside Guard, Mrs. Emma Northey; Outside Guard, Mrs. Dorothy McGinnes. See the new shirt waists at Millirens. All summer goods such as lace, embroidery, lace curtains, white muslin underwear and linen goods can be purchased at Katzen's Bargain Store, at prices as low as any store in Reynoldsville. Call and examine these bargains. Reynolds' soda always the best and served as you like it. The Dr. Reed Cushion Sole shoes are sold at Nolan's shoe store. Shoes for the whole family at Millirens. If you want a good buggy cheap call on J. A. Meyers. Drink Reynolds' Famous Chocolate. Better than ever. A. Katzen's People's Bargain store will sell at from 20 to 35 per cent. off on men's and boy's shirts, suitable for the 4th. Don't miss this great opportunity. J. E. Mitchell, merchant tailor, in Stoke building, above department store. Monarch shirts at Millirens. Our soda is so very taking it keeps us busy selling—making. Reynolds Drug Store.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Oltmpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro. Eddie Smith was in Brookville Monday. C. M. Laird and wife spent Sunday in DuBois. Miss Frances King visited in Clarion last week. David Motherwell was in Pittsburg this week. Andrew Wheeler was at Hicks Run last week. Mrs. T. J. Davis visited in DuBois last week. Ninian Cooper visited in Beechwoods the past week. Miss Ette Mohney visited in Brookville last week. Mrs. D. M. Dunsmore visited in Driftwood this week. Ellis Richards, of New Kensington, is visiting in town. G. M. McDonald, Esq., is over on Media Run fishing. Mrs. Dan'l Bowley visited in Puncxsutawney last week. Mrs. Perry B. Love is visiting relatives near Brookville. L. P. Snelley, of Pittsburg, was a visitor in town last week. F. H. Gallagher, of Hawley, Pa., was in town the past week. W. C. Holmbold, of Curwensville, was in town yesterday. Charles H. Young, of Tyler, was a visitor in town Sunday. Miss Edna Spear, of DuBois, visited in this place last week. Mrs. H. E. Clawson, of New Kensington, is visiting in this place. Mrs. O. H. Johnston is visiting her parents at Day, Clarion county. Mrs. A. F. Yost and daughter, Miss Celia, are visiting at Putneyville. Misses Maggie Stoke and Florence Stoke are visiting at West Newton, Pa. Charles Alman, of Verona, visited his parents in this place the past week. Mrs. C. J. Arnold and son, John Arnold, is visiting in Brookville last week. Miss Sadie Quinless, of Puncxsutawney, is visiting Mrs. Thomas Shannon. Mrs. H. Earl Swift, of Brookville, is visiting her parents on Jackson street. Alex Adam, foreman of the Brookwayville Road, was in town yesterday. Miss Marion Hamaker, of Wilkingsburg, is the guest of Miss Lydia Mellinger. Daniel Jones, of Pittsburg, visited his parents in this place the past ten days. Mrs. L. C. McGaw, of Puncxsutawney, visited her parents in this place last week. Joseph Macro, student in Bucknell University, is home for the summer vacation. Mrs. W. T. Darr, of Brookville, visited her mother, Mrs. C. R. Hall, over Sunday. Henry Snyder, who has been in Ohio a year, is visiting his parents in West Reynoldsville. Robert Lusk, of Birmingham, Alabama, is visiting his uncle, James Lusk, in this place. Mrs. Jane Nichols, of Bradford, visited her son, J. B. Nichols, on Jackson street the past week. Mrs. George Mulford, of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. T. Bing, on Grant street. Mrs. F. E. Knapp, of Brookville, was the guest of Mrs. W. W. Deible the latter part of last week. Charles O'Donnell, of Bradford, visited his daughter, Mrs. Frank J. Black, at The Mansion last week. Misses Lulu Black and Gortrude Hammond are visiting the former's home at Irvana this week. Misses Iva Moore and Susie McKernan visited Miss Nellie Stephenson at Garco, Pa., the past week. Mrs. C. F. Hoffman was called to the serious illness of her mother. Mrs. John Ferguson and daughter, Miss Edna, of Milroy, were guests of Mrs. J. A. Welsh the past week. Miss Carrie Albright returned last week from a ten-month visit at Pequaning, Mich., and other places. Walter Hover and wife, of Mosgrove, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pomroy, in this place. Miss Anna Greenhalge, of Venango, will be the guest of Miss Blanche Thornton the latter part of this week. S. M. McCroight and wife returned home yesterday from a visit at Perry Station, Pa., and Burgettstown, Pa. H. Bruce Kline and wife, of New Kensington, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kline. Mrs. Edwin Gozzard, of Pittsburg, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. W. Gillespie and Mrs. H. Alex Stoke, in this place. M. M. Davis, Esq., and wife will leave here today on a two weeks' pleasure trip to Thousand Islands and Montreal, Canada. Fred Reed left here Monday evening for New York City to accept a position with Cas Gilbert, one of the best architects in the metropolis. Misses Olevia and Lella Jenks, of Puncxsutawney, and Miss Emma Yorganshott, of Shamokin, Pa., were guests of Miss Lulu Black last week. Joseph Spear was in Allegheny City last week having a monument erected at the grave of his son, George Spear, in the Allegheny Cemetery. James G. Pentz, who already has considerable oil territory leased in the Franklin oil field, went to Franklin Monday to lease an additional tract. Tom Cathors and Miss Susie Dougherty, who were students in the Central State Normal School at Lock Haven, returned to their homes in Paradise last week. Richard Bowman, who is looking after some coal lands in West Virginia, returned to that state Saturday after spending ten days with his family in Reynoldsville. Mrs. Annie Marble, of Coudersport, Pa., whose husband died May 25, 1903, visited her mother, Mrs. Isaac Cochran, and other relatives in this place the past week. G. J. Corwin, the photographer, goes to Friendship, N. Y., this week for a few days and will then make a trip into Canada to take some pictures of silver mines that some capitalists are interested in.