Fire Monday Afternoon.

About 2.15 p. m. Monday fire was discovered in the wholesale liquor store barn on Gordon alley. The fire started in a mow full of straw and it was only a few seconds until it was a hot fire. It happened that street Commissioner Clawbaugh and several assistants were using fire company hose to open i sewer in the alley near the barn and when the fire was discovered they immediately turned the stream of water from the sewer pipe to the barn and this prompt work kept the fire down until the fire company got another hose connection made and the two streams of water kept the fire from spreading. although it was a stubborn fire, fanned by a strong breeze. The firemen worked hard to get the fire under control, as it would have been a big fire had they not been able to control it. The barn is in the rear of two frame buildings that face on Main street and there are a number of frame barns, sheds, &c., in close proimity. The origin of the fire is unknown. John O'Hare and James Hughes, proprietors of the wholesale, estimate their loss at about $300, with $100 insurance. Two sleds Sandy Valley-No. 1, Myra Z. Kelley;

About 2.15 Monday afternoon the fire company was called out to fight a fire in the wholesale liquor store barn, and at about the same hour Tuesday afternoon there was a small blaze in Hotel Imperial barn, but a few buckets of water extinguished the fire and the company was not needed, but the firemen responded very promptly to the fire alarm. The fire started in some oldsville.

straw in one of the stalls in Hotel Imperial barn, on which Charles Grubbe was sleeping. Had it not been for the timely arrival of Lon Dickey, Imperial bus driver, Grubbs might have been burned to death. When Dickey stepped into barn there was quite a blaze in the straw near Grubbs, but he was sleeping soundly and was not disturbed by the fire. The supposition is that Grubbs had a cigar in his mouth when he went to sleep and it had fallen in the straw, causing the blaze and excitement. The burning of the straw and scorching an old bicycle was the only damage done.

Lookout for Mad Dogs.

A mad dog created some excitement in town Sunday and was the cause of the death of three or four canines that his dogship had bitten. The hydrophobia distributing dog ran through several streets and bit every dog that he could catch. Some of the dog owners killed their dogs Monday, but there were others who that did not kill the dogs that had been bitten, consequently, mad dogs may be numerous before many weeks.

Considering the fact that dog days will soon be here and that a mad dog has hitten a number of dogs in town. would it not be wisdom for the proper officials of this borough to take som precaution to protect the citizens from the danger they may be exposed to in allowing dogs to run the streets without being muzzled ? This is certainly a matter worthy of careful consideration.
