News of Interest to the Grangers

A very interesting and profitable meeting of Cambria county Pomona Grange was held in the Parochial Hall at Loretto, on the 8th of June. The sessions of the day were filled with profitable discussions and literary work. Sisters hour opened at 3.30 p. m. with Mrs. Karlheim in the chair. In the evening the meeting was open to the public. It was presided over by the Worthy Master, Hon. J. J. Thomas and was addressed by Rev. Ferdinand Kittell and Hon. N. B. Critchfield, Secretary of Agriculture.

The Thirty-first Annual Session of the Pennsylvania State Grange will be held in the city of Wilkesbarre, on Dec. 8th to 11th, 1903. This promises to be one of the largest and best State grange meetings ever held. Railroad and hotel arrangements are already well under way.

Prof. T. C. Atkinson of the University of West Virginia and Master of W. Va. State Grange, organized seven granges in that state in four days recently. He reports the order in good condition in that state and proposes to give at least half of his summer vacation to the work.

State Grange Master, Hill, will speak during the summer in the interest of the Order in New York, New Jersey, West Virginia and Maryland.

F. M. Baldwin, Sec. of South Auburn Grange, No. 1188, Susquehanna county, Pa., says: "We are growing slowly but surely. There seems to be an interest in the grange by those outside that is encouraging."

The Man Who Doesn't Care.

A man who is "his own worst enemy" is one of those reckless individuals who plunges into folly regardless of its consequences, reduces his wife and children to beggary, bankrupts his friends if he can induce them to become surety for him, and frivolously wastes his own time and other people's money without compunction and without regret. He is perhaps guilty of no crime for which he can be indicted, is willing to pay for drink for others in order to be thought a good fellow, and laughs and tells vulgar stories when he is maudlin. "Poor fellow! He was his own worst enemy," is the charitable comment of his acquaintances when his weakness and debauchery bring him to an early grave. But he wasn't. He was his family's and friends' worst enemy. He was selfishly and unfeelingly indulging in all sorts of dissipation in order to enjoy himself in a swinish fashion without caring enough for his friends to spare them the humiliation and deprivation which he deliberately and persistently imposed upon them.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Railroad News.

The N. Y. C. is making an extension from Burnside, this county, to Cherry Tree, Indiana Co. This is a new outlet into the new soft coal region of this section of the state. It is stated that the Central will establish large yards, at or near Cherry Tree. It is believed that ultimately Cherry Tree will become an important railroad center.

An immense force of men are engaged in grading, and in cutting through the Cherry Tree tunnel. It is also reported that the Isllins of New York have made heavy investments in this section including 1,000 acres of land near Harper's Run.—DuBois Express.

San Francisco and Los Angeles.

On account of the National Encampment, G. A. R., at San Francisco, Cal., August 17 to 22, 1903, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to San Francisco or Los Angeles from all stations on its lines, from July 31 to August 13, inclusive, at greatly reduced rates. These tickets will be good for return passage to reach original starting point not later than October 15, inclusive, when executed by Joint Agent at Los Angeles or San Francisco and payment of 50 cents made for this service. For specific information regarding rates and routes, apply to Ticket Agents.

Woman Used Broom on Sheriff.

Sheriff Curry was in town one day this week and made the Record office a pleasant call. "Speaking of slang phrases," said the Sheriff, "I have often wondered at the terms used by some in talking who use slang words to express themselves that are far from conveying any particular meaning. I have heard people remark about 'putting the cleaner on' but never saw the term demonstrated in its real purport until the other day at Anita when I attempted to explain to a foreign woman that her property had been ordered seized by the Sheriff for sale. She got mad and attempted to drive me off the premises by using a broom for a weapon. I confess that I have 'had the cleaner put on me,'" and the Sheriff displayed a good sized black mark on his arm.—Brockwayville Record.

The Passing of the Bark Wagon.

A few years ago at this season a constant procession of heavily loaded bark wagons could be seen slowly moving toward the tanneries. Along all the roads leading into the town they came, and as they returned to the country they carried boxes and bundles of store goods purchased with the proceeds of the load of bark, which sold at one time as low as $2.50 per ton. Now the bark business is practically a thing of the past, a load being seldom seen on the roads. The little there is left commands a price that would have turned the heads of the people who some years ago sold it for $3 to $5 a ton. The price this year is $10 at the tanneries.—EX.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25c, at H. Alex Stoke's Drug Store.

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the town council of the borough of Reynoldsville in council assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same, that the grading, paving and curbing, etc., of Fourth street from the north line of Grant street where said Grant street crosses said Fourth street to South line of Deitz alley where said alley crosses said Fourth street, is hereby authorized and ordered, and James B. The Blood and Thunder Novel.

The sale of cigarettes to boys is properly forbidden by law, and the sale of trashy literature, which is vastly more injurious in its effects, should also be made a crime by act of assembly, as it is in fact. In the meantime any parent, or anybody else, who sees a small boy with a cheap blood and thunder novel in his possession should take it from him and destroy it, and feel that he has done the boy as great a service as if he had struck down a poisonous reptile that was in the act of striking him.—Punxsutawney Republican.

Absorb Humidity and Save Barn.

After the crops are stored there will be many reports of barns being burned, often due to spontaneous combustion instead of being incendiary, as supposed. If farmers would sprinkle few handfuls of ordinary salt between the layers of grain or hay the humidity would be absorbed and fermentation prevented. It is this fermentation which evolves sufficient heat to produce fire and consequent loss of barn and contents. The salt gives a taste to the forage which is healthful to the cattle and well liked by them.—Lock Haven Democrat.

A Great Coal Vein.

The R. & P. Coal & Iron Company's shaft between Big Run and Eleanor reveals the presence of the finest body of coal in this part of the state. The vein at that point is fourteen feet thick, and as an indication that it is not simply what is known as a "pocket," a drill hole nearly a mile away shows twelve feet of coal. Nature was lavish with her carboniferous deposits at that point and the removal of this immense stratum of coal will give employment to a large number of men for many years.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

A run down system, or despondency invariably precede suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. A Large Radish.

It measured 18 inches in circumference and 6 1/2 inches in diameter and 6 1/2 inches in diameter and was 16 inches long. He says he has a much larger one but is saving it for seed. If anyone beats this he will bring the big one in.—Ponfield Press.
