Punxsutawney fair next week. Y. M. C. A. outing at Butler Aug. 25. The Brookville fair will be held September 1, 2, 3 and 4. Gas lights have been put in the National Hotel dining room. Great opportunity to visit Butler on Y. M. C. A. excursion August 25th. Prof. L. Walls Clary will sing in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. The Reynolds Building and Loan Association sold $3,400 Monday evening. The P. R. R. pay car was over the Low Grade Monday cheering the employees. The public schools of Reynolds will open the second Monday of next month, Sept. 14. District Deputy D. W. Atwater will institute a Protected Home Circle at Sligo to-morrow evening. We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket for the county fair to be held at Brookville Sept. 1, 2, 3 and 4. Martin L. Hetrick went to Oak Ridge yesterday to superintend the construction of the branch railroad for the Alcola Coal Company. Tickets for the excursion to Alameda Park, Butler, Pa., are on sale at the Building and Loan office. Round trip from Reynoldsville $1.65. Protected Home Circle at this place initiated twenty-one new members Monday evening and seven applications for membership were acted upon. Train No. 113 on P. R. R., due here at 11:32 a. m., was two and one-half hours late Monday on account of a freight wreck near Red Bank. Class No. 6 of the Baptist Sunday School will hold a market Saturday, August 22, in the Star milk depot. The patronage of the Star is solicited. James Bolger, four-year-old son of D. M. Bolger, merchant tailor, had one bone of his right arm broken below the elbow while playing one day last week. Jacob Rayback, a Beechwoods farmer, was in town Saturday with his right leg in a sling. His hand had been poisoned and he came to town to have a doctor lance it.

The piano to be given away by the B. P. O. Elks of Reynoldsville is on exhibition at Hills & Co.'s furniture store. Landis Brochey, eight-year-old son of Constable Jack Brochey, was kicked by a horse Saturday. The horse's hoof struck him near right eye. G. W. Fuller, who had a hard tussle with typhoid fever, was able to come to town Monday for first time since stricken with fever. He looks well bleached. H. M. Hetrick, a carpenter of this place who was working at Upper Hillville, was brought home on a cot last Wednesday. He had sprained his back. Dr. A. J. Meek will be home Friday or Saturday of this week and preaching services will be held in Centennial Hall at the usual hour-Sunday morning and evening. Frank Stauffer, of West Reynoldsville, brakeman on the Low Grade Division of P. R. R., had his right hand smashed while making a coupling last Thursday. A test is now being made for the lower vein of coal on the Tom Reynolds property in this borough. The drill is at work between The Mansion and the London store room. William Schugars, a Washington township farmer, threshed wheat last week that he got off a three acre field, and the yield was 102 bushels, or 34 bushel to the acre. On account of the fifth annual exhibition of the Punxsutawney fair, the B. R. & P. R'y will sell excursion tickets from all points between Johnsonburg and Butler. Forty-six people from Reynoldsville attended Prof. Clarence Hine's dancing school and ball at Punxsutawney last Friday evening. They returned to Reynoldsville in a special car after the "ball was over." The Jefferson County Medical Society's picnic will be held at Wishaw Park this afternoon. It was stated on the invitations that arrangements had been made for pleasant weather. In the game of baseball yesterday afternoon at DuBois between teams selected from DuBois Elks and Johnsonburg Elks, Joe Williams, of this place, played short stop in the DuBois team. At 10:25 last Friday night as Harry Bepko and Dr. Clifford Kaucher were passing THE STAR office Harry said: "I am going away in September, make a note of that," and Dr. Kaucher said: "I expect to get out of here sometime." Services in the old Baptist church, Prescottville, next Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock by Rev. S. C. Stover, of Troutville. This will be the last service held there by him, as he has been called to the Wilhelm charge, Keim, Somerset county, Pa. David McConnell, who makes his home with his son, F. A. McConnell, proprietor of Frank's Tavern, has been very ill at home of his son. Ray McConnell, near Brookville. He is improving and expects to be able to return to this place this week. A large number of Reynoldsville people attended the picnic held at Wishaw four days last week. The Famous Keystone band of this place gave concerts at the Park in the mornings and evenings, which was one of the best features of the four-day picnic. Rev. W. H. Filson and wife, of Easton, Pa., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnston Monday. Rev. Filson was pastor of the Beechwoods Presbyterian church twelve years, leaving there twenty years ago. Rev. and Mrs. Filson are visiting friends in Beechwoods. Joseph Evans, who enlisted in the U. S. Navy last year and has been on the receiving ship, Prairie, is at home of his parents in this place on a fifteen day furlough. Joe came from Boston to Reynoldsville. He will go from here to Philadelphia and will go on the Battleship Missouri. Nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Watson, of Soldier, died Saturday, August 15, 1903. Rev. Jacob Booth, of Reynoldsville, conducted funeral service at residence of the bereaved parents Monday forenoon and the little body was interred in the Sikesville cemetery. C. C. Smith, of Hopkins, who has been braving on the River Division of P. R. R., had his left arm broken below the elbow recently by jumping off an engine. Some linemen were putting up telegraph poles and a pole had fallen across the track in front of the freight train Smith was braking on, and he and the engineer jumped off the engine. A young man was tried in the Jefferson county court last week on charge of cruelty to animals and was convicted. His sentence was $50.00 fine, costs of prosecution and 30 days in the county jail. If the matter was carefully looked after Reynoldsville could furnish a "cruelty to animal" case every term of court, and if some of the fellows of this place who abuse dumb brutes were made an example of, it might have a good effect on some of the other chaps. A man or boy that is mean enough to abuse dumb animals is not too good to languish in the county jail a few months.

Girl's Arm Broken. Myra, eight-year-old daughter of Martin Plyler, fell out of a hammock last evening and fractured her right arm below the elbow. Leg Broken. Harry Cribbs, of Sandy Valley, had his right leg broken below the knee by a fall of coal in the Panther Run Coal Co. mine at Pardus one day last week. Vacancy Filled. The school board has elected D. C. Bacon, of Granville Summit, Pa., as teacher of room No. 13, to fill the vacancy caused by resignation of Miss Myers. Now on Trial. The case of August Davis, who is charged with the death of William Dinkuhn, who died at Adrian Hospital May 6th, was taken up in the county court yesterday morning. Catholic Picnic. Almost five hundred people attended the Catholic picnic at Wishaw Park yesterday. It was a delightful day for a picnic and those who attended had a delightful time. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the day. Trolley cars were run every half hour in the forenoon and the crowd was handled nicely. Fire Saturday Morning. At 2:15 Saturday morning the people of town were startled by the fire alarm and the scurrying of feet was soon heard on the streets. The fire company responded promptly. The fire was in the residence of John Brennan, on Jackson street. The roof was burned off the building before the fire was extinguished. Birthday Party. Mrs. Jessie Lowther, of Lambertton, Pa., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Barclay, on Jackson street, was 74 years old on Thursday of last week, August 13th, and Mrs. Barclay gave a small six o'clock dinner party in honor of her mother's birthday anniversary. Most of the guests being ladies well along in life's journey. Small Wreck. Last Friday forenoon when R. & F. C. R'y crew was swinging some empty coal cars on the Wishaw branch in the yards at this place, two or three cars were wrecked, but not damaged much. John Winslow, a brakeman, was on one of the wrecked cars and escaped with slight injury by jumping. The B. R. & P. wreck crew from DuBois came down in the afternoon and cleared up the wreck. New Directors. Monday afternoon the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Clay Manufacturing Co. held a meeting in their office on Fifth street and elected the following directors: Rufus Kirk, Fred Zeitler, Daniel Sypritt, G. W. Arblaster, A. M. Applegate, Joseph Pentz, W. D. Williams. Ab. Reynolds was elected treasurer. In the evening the directors met and elected Joseph Pentz president, A. M. Applegate vice president, W. D. Williams secretary. Farmers Displeased. On Main street last Saturday afternoon the editor of THE STAR met a number of farmers who expressed themselves as being very much displeased with the picnic held at Wishaw four days last week under the name of a "harvest home picnic." One farmer said: "If there ever is another such a picnic held there under the name of 'harvest home picnic,' a barrel of tar, a lot of feathers and fence rails will be used." Communication from "A Farmer" will be found in this issue. Injured by Scaffold Breaking. Henry A. Swab, a contractor of Reynoldsville, who is building a new brick house for himself on Fifth street, was badly injured Saturday afternoon by one board of a scaffold breaking, throwing him to the ground, a distance of sixteen feet. His left knee cap was split, back injured and slight internal injuries received. Camp Run Rioters. By referring to criminal court news on first page of THE STAR it will be seen that the foreigners who took part in the riot at Camp Run July 23rd, were sentenced to fifteen months in the penitentiary. Night School. For the benefit of those who cannot attend the day sessions of the Reynoldsville Business College, night school will be started August 31st, for a six months term. All courses will be taught. School will be open on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. Bargains. In all departments in our end of August sale. Bing-Stoke Co. Coming-The Red-Keggers will arrive in force Sept. 5, 1903. Ask Alex Stoke. Remember the Alpha Mfg Co. for enlarged portraits. Shoes for the whole family reduced at Millirens. Are you going to the Y. M. C. A. outing at Alameda Park August 25th?

"Don" Dead. "Don," A. T. Bing's pet dog, died last night. Old age seems to have been the cause of his death. He was about fourteen years old. He refused to eat anything for a week before he died. It has been suggested that he was pining for Mrs. Bing, who is at West Lebanon, N. H. "Don" was a frequent and always welcome visitor at THE STAR office. He followed ye editor so often that we must have been asked at least a thousand times, "Is that your dog?" "Don" was the best natured dog we have ever known. He never liked to be alone and was always best contented when near enough to somebody for them to lay their hand on him or touch him with their foot. Democratic Convention. The Democrats of Jefferson county held their primary election last Saturday and the county convention in the K. of P. Hall at Brookville Monday afternoon. G. M. McDonald and Henry C. Deible were the delegates from Reynoldsville. A. C. Smith was re-elected county chairman. The following ticket was nominated: W. L. McCracken, Esq., of Brookville, for district attorney; Thomas Kearney, of Brookwayville, for jury commissioner. Delegates to the State convention to be held at Harrisburg Sept. 2nd: Charles M. Dinger, of Reynoldsville, G. W. Blakeslee, of Washington township, and Charles G. Henneigh, of Punxsutawney. Punxsutawney Fair. The fifth annual county fair, under the auspices of the Punxsutawney Fair Association, will be held on their grounds at Punxsutawney on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, August 25, 26, 27 and 28. It is claimed that every possible effort is being put forth by the management to make this the best and most attractive fair in Western Pennsylvania. The Tanner's Fair Attraction will exhibit all four days. The races promise to be warm sport this year. It will be the banner race meet for this fair association. The exhibition of cattle, sheep, swine and horses will be large. The Oleo Case. The case against the Commissioners of Jefferson county and superintendent of county home for furnishing oleomargarine to the inmates of the home, came up in court on Wednesday of last week. A special verdict was taken and the further consideration of the case was reserved on the question of law raised by the defendants as to the constitutionality of the law under which they were prosecuted, and also upon the question as to whether the county home is recognized as a charitable institution under the provisions of the Act of Assembly. Union Picnic. The Presbyterian Sunday school and members of the congregation with their friends will join with the Presbyterians and Cumberland Presbyterians of Punxsutawney and Lindsey in a union picnic at Wishaw next Friday, August 21st. Fill up your basket and bring your friends with you. A special rate of 10 cents for the round trip has been secured. Tickets on sale at the Building and Loan office, at the store of the Keystone Hardware Co., and at W. L. Johnston's. A. J. POSTLETHWAITE, Supt. Birthday Party. Tuesday evening, August 11, Miss Myrtle Hiney was given a birthday surprise party at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Binney, on Jackson street. About 30 young people were present. Miss Myrtle was given a number of presents. Refreshments were served. It was a jolly and lively birthday party. Martin Plyler, a carpenter, who has been working at Summersville this summer, has sold his residence on corner of Fifth and Mabel streets to Policeman J. M. King. Consideration $1,500. Mr. Plyler will move to Summersville about the middle of September, where he has accepted a good position as manager of a meat shop. Mr. Plyler has been a good citizen and has an excellent family, whom their many friends will be sorry to see move away. A. W. Smith, of Grove Summit, conductor for the Washington Township Mutual Storm and Fire Co., was in town Monday. The latter part of June the dwelling of John Nofske, of near Beechtree, was burned, and the 25th of July the fire company laid a tax of four mills to pay the insurance due Mr. Nofske, who is a member of the company. Mr. Smith is out collecting the amount due from each member of the fire company. As it is soon time for public schools to begin another term, County Supt. Teitrick suggests that all parents see to it that their children are vaccinated before schools open so it will not be necessary for the children to lose time staying at home with sore arms in case small-pox breaks out in the community where the children are not vaccinated. Special trolley cars will leave Reynoldsville at 5:30 and 6:30 a. m., August 25th, to accommodate those desiring to go to the fair.

FIRST DEGREE MURDER Was the Verdict in Case of John Battista Aiello.

It is Almost Two Score Years Since there was a First Degree Verdict in this County. John Battista Aiello, who stabbed Frank Carfa to death at Walston on the evening of May 2nd, 1903, was convicted of murder in the first degree yesterday afternoon. The case came up before Judge Reed Saturday morning. The jury went out at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday and came in at 2:00 p. m. with a first degree verdict. The evidence was such that the jury could not have given any other kind of a verdict. Not since Chase was hung, over 35 years ago, has there been a first degree murder verdict in the courts of Jefferson county. It is most likely that Sheriff Curry will have a hanging job. Aiello is about twenty-one years old. He had only been in this county a few weeks. Fall Term August 31st. The fall term at the Reynoldsville Business College and Correspondence School will commence August 31st, 1903. The school has been growing steadily ever since its organization, and there is every prospect that the coming year will surpass previous records, even that of the year now closing during which over 200 students were enrolled in the college. Prof. Hughes has been improving his system in many ways and now offers both commercial and shorthand courses to pupils at the college or by mail. The latter department of the college has been growing rapidly the past few months and the low rate of $3.00 per month should induce many more persons, young or old, to improve their evening's studying. The music department, started last spring under the management of Miss Isabel Arnold, had a large enrollment this summer and will be continued. Viewed from all points there is no reason why students should leave town to attend other schools when our home institution is equal to any in the state, offering the best of equipment for students use and placing its graduates in good positions. Not Correct. It has been announced in several of the county papers that County Supt. Teitrick will hold special examinations for teachers at Brookville on Saturday, August 29th, on account of not having enough teachers for all the schools of Jefferson county. This statement is not correct. It has been Prof. Teitrick's custom to hold a special examination at Brookville one day the latter part of August each year. There are about six schools in the county that teachers have not been provided for yet, and of these schools three want principals and the others are high grade schools that want experienced teachers. Therefore, the special examination is not a necessity so far as a lack of teachers is concerned. The Presbyterians Sunday school and members of the congregation with their friends will join with the Presbyterians and Cumberland Presbyterians of Punxsutawney and Lindsey in a union picnic at Wishaw next Friday, August 21st. Fill up your basket and bring your friends with you. A special rate of 10 cents for the round trip has been secured. You can save 5 per cent on all 1903 taxes by paying them on or before Aug. 14th, 1903. I. M. Swartz, Collector. Go to John H. Doubles' ice cream parlor, east Main street, near No. 2 Hose house, for fine I X L ice cream. The turtle soup at the City Hotel restaurant is genuine. Shoes of all kinds at Millirens.
