Schultze's residence on Grant street about 8.30 Saturday morning caused some excitement and got the fire company out in quick time. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done. A big freight wreck occurred on the C. & M. Division of the B., R. & P., east of Curwensville last Saturday afternoon. There were 28 cars wrecked. The track was not cleared until Monday afternoon, two days after the wreck occurred. J. M. Neff. J. J. Pifer, of Paradise, was in town Saturday hobbling around by the assistance of a cane. Thursday he was using a foot adz and either because he had nothing else to cut, or by accident, he slashed the adz into the calf of his left leg. A doctor had to sew up the wound. A hive of S. T. Reynolds' honeybees swarmed last Thursday afternoon and found new lodging on the limb of a tree near the public fountain on Main street. When they all got settled the limb was sawed off and the little warm ended rascals were induced to go into a hive that had been set under the tree. The following Reynoldsville people attended the harvest home picnic at Alcola Park, Oak Ridge, last Thursday: Jerry Heckman and wife, J. O. Johns, G. W. Swartz, M. C. Coleman, Harry Copping and wife, Mrs. Samuel Ressler, Homer Ressler, Addison Wells and wife, Mrs. L. Myers, G. M. Swartz, W. T. Cox. The Presbyterians of New Bethlehem intend building a new brick parsonage and D. W. Gohen, of New Bethlehem, was here Monday as a committeeman looking at the Presbyterian parsonage in this place, with a view of building a parsonage over the same plans. The Reynoldsville parsonage is a neat and convenient dwelling. All the county papers, and some outside papers, published an account of the shooting of an Italian at Wishaw on the night of August 16th, and almost every paper had a different name for the Italian that did the shooting and the fellow that was shot. THE STAR got the names, Pasqual Spino and Tony Luca from Constable Walker's warrant. C. Frank Wilt, who had been in jail at Indiana for nearly a month, Monday pleaded guilty of assaulting Margaret Jane Barkley, aged 11, daughter of John M. Barkley, and was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary by Judge Harry White. Wilt was shot by a deputy sheriff while resisting arrest, but was captured.—Punxsutawney News. It is claimed that the union picnic of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian Sunday school and the Punxsutawney Presbyterian and Cumberland Presbyterian Sunday schools, held at Wishaw Park last Friday, was the largest picnic held at Wishaw this summer. It was a large picnic and those who attended had a fine time. It was an ideal picnic day. Mat Cochran, a carpenter, was injured by falling off a ladder while working at H. S. Belnap's house on Fourth street last Thursday morning. Mat was standing on top of ladder tearing off batten and one piece came off easier than he expected and he tumbled to terra firma. His right leg and arm were badly sprained and he was considerably bruised. Turner S. Arnold, of Clarion, who has been a visitor at Dr. W. B. Alexander's a month, returned home Monday. Turner has a brother traveling through Europe, from whom he received a letter several days ago containing an account of the good time he is having, and after reading it Turner said, "I would just as soon be in Reynoldsville." A large number of doctors and invited friends attended the picnic of the Jefferson County Medical Society at Wishaw Park last Wednesday afternoon. There were people present from Brookville, Brookwayville, Falls Creek, DuBois, Punxsutawney and Reynoldsville. An orchestra from DuBois furnished music to enliven the picnic and give those so inclined an opportunity to "trip the light fantastic." Miss Dora E. Hetrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Hetrick, of this place, and Harry O. Watts, formerly of Ohio, were quietly married last Sunday afternoon, August 23, 1903, at Chalfont, Pa., by Rev. Harry M. Chaffman, a Methodist Episcopal minister. Mr. Watts is bookkeeper for the Squire Carriage Co., of Pittsburgh. The will reside in Pittsburgh. Dora's Reynoldsville friends will wish her happiness. The Lutheran churches and Sunday schools of Reynoldsville, Chesnut Grove and Emerickville will hold a harvest home picnic in Mr. Deemer's grove, between Lovi Schuokers' and Frank Best's farms, on Wednesday, Sept. 2nd. A harvest home sermon will be preached by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Myers, service beginning at 10.30 a. m. The remaining portion of the day will be given to social enjoyment and innocent amusements. The public is kindly invited to attend. At Adrian Hospital. Miss Sarah Brandt, of Niagara Falls, who has been on a visit at the home of W. I. Hay of East Long avenue underwent an operation for appendicitis, Saturday at the Adrian Hospital, latest reports are favorable for an early convalescence.—DuBois Express. Miss Brandt visited Jacob Schwem's family at this place ten days ago. Coming—The Red-Keggers will arrive in force Sept. 5, 1903. Ask Alex Stoke.

TEN YEARS IN PENITENTIARY. August Davis Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter—Sentenced by Judge Bouton. August Davis, of Rathmel, who was charged with the death of his neighbor, William Dinkuh, and whose case came up in the Jefferson county court on Tuesday of last week, pleaded guilty on Wednesday morning to voluntary manslaughter. Judge Bouton, of McKenn county, before whom the case was being tried, immediately sentenced Davis to pay a fine of $500.00 to the Commonwealth, the costs of prosecution and undergo imprisonment by separate and solitary confinement at labor in the Western Penitentiary for a period of ten years. The thirteenth of last March Davis and Dinkuh had a dispute and trouble over land rights and Davis hit Dinkuh on the head with a hammer. Dinkuh was taken to the Adrian Hospital several days afterward, where he died May 6th. FINE VEIN OF COAL. Struck Workable Vein at Depth of Two Hundred and Twenty-Two Feet. Mention was made in the town papers last week that a diamond drill was at work on the Tom Reynolds property in this borough testing for the lower vein of coal. At the depth of 222 feet the drill found a fine vein of about five foot coal. A number of enterprising citizens contributed the money to make the test, and it is likely that one or two other tests will be made at different points in this immediate vicinity, although there is little doubt now about a large vein of coal underlying this entire section, which means a great deal to Reynoldsville in more ways than one. Perhaps another railroad into town. Not An Angel Yet. Last Saturday evening it was reported on the streets of Reynoldsville that John E. Flynn, merchant tailor of Clarksburg, West Va., had been killed in a railroad wreck near Pittsburgh Saturday. John's friends who heard the report were very much exercised over the matter. We are glad to state that the report was false. In some manner it had been reported at Clarksburg that Mr. Flynn, who was visiting in Reynoldsville, had been killed in a wreck near Pittsburgh, and some of his Clarksburg friends telephoned to Reynoldsville to inquire if the report was true, and some one here got the report twisted and said that a telephone message had been received that he had been killed. Mr. Flynn is still on this mundane sphere. He went from this place to Houtzdale Saturday. Cow Committed Suicide. Mention was made in THE STAR last week about extinguishing a fire on the roof of G. W. Fuller's residence with fresh milk. J. K. Womeldorf, son-in-law of G. W. Fuller, who has charge of the farm, says: "My cows heard that the item had been published and one of my best cows was so thoroughly disgusted and discouraged because the rich milk was wasted in such a trifling manner—to keep a house from burning down—that on the evening of the day THE STAR was published last week she committed suicide by breaking her own neck." The cow was tethered and she got tangled in the rope and threw herself, with above result. Leavenworth-Daily. Prof. H. C. Leavenworth, of Alliance, Ohio, who was assistant principal of the Reynoldsville public schools during the term of 1900-1901, and Miss Margaret Dally, who taught several terms in the Reynoldsville schools, will be married at 3.00 p. m. to-day, August 26, 1903, at the residence of Miss Dally's parents at Penfield. This evening Prof. and Mrs. Leavenworth will start east on a wedding trip to Atlantic City, New York, Boston and other places. The many friends of this couple will wish them success in life. Stole Revolvers and Razors. Thursday night of last week robbers gained entrance into the Keystone Hardware Co. store through a window in rear end of store and stole fifteen revolvers, several razors and about six dollars in small change. They broke into J. C. McEntire's blacksmith shop to get tools to get into the store. The robbers attempted to pry open the back door but were not successful and they pried open a window. Fourth Quarterly Meeting. The fourth quarterly meeting of the present conference year will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church at this place Thursday evening and Sunday, as follows: Preaching at 7.45 Thursday evening by Presiding Elder Rich, followed by the fourth quarterly conference. Preaching at 11.00 a. m. Sunday, followed by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. At Adrian Hospital. Miss Sarah Brandt, of Niagara Falls, who has been on a visit at the home of W. I. Hay of East Long avenue underwent an operation for appendicitis, Saturday at the Adrian Hospital, latest reports are favorable for an early convalescence.—DuBois Express. Miss Brandt visited Jacob Schwem's family at this place ten days ago. Coming—The Red-Keggers will arrive in force Sept. 5, 1903. Ask Alex Stoke.

MURDERERS HAVE NOT BEEN SENTENCED YET—Application for New Trial for Aiello. In the courts of Jefferson county last week two Italians were convicted of first degree murder. The first case was that of John Battista Aiello for stabbing Frank Carfa to death at Walsort, May 2, 1903. This first degree verdict was reached by the jury on Tuesday afternoon of last week and was mentioned in THE STAR August 19th. The second case was that of Michael Pallone for shooting Rosso Crocco June 14, 1903. The jury came in Friday afternoon with a first degree verdict. Judge Reed has not sentenced these two men yet. A. C. White has made an application for a new trial for Aiello, but Judge Reed has not stated whether he will grant a new trial or not. These two cases make four first degree murder verdicts in the courts of Jefferson county. The first was Chas. Chase in 1867, who was hung. The second was an Italian named Aiello in 1896, whose sentence was commuted to life imprisonment, and he is now in the penitentiary. The date for hanging Aiello was never set. PAVING CONTRACT LET. Curbing Stone Being Quarried—Reynoldsville Brick to be Used. The contract for paving Fourth street, from Grant street to Deitz, below Jackson street, has been let to Charles B. Hastings, of Brookville, who now has men at work in a stone quarry getting the curbing ready. Mr. Hastings expects to begin the work of putting in the curbing next week and as soon as that is completed he will begin grading and pushing the paving as fast as possible. The paving brick is to be furnished by the Reynoldsville Clay Manufacturing Co. The brick have been pronounced No. 1 brick and the Clay Mfg. Co. has put up $5,000 bond guaranteeing the brick for five years. We believe that the paving of Fourth street means that Main and Jackson streets will be paved in 1904, for when the people see what a great improvement the paving makes in the appearance of a street they will want more of it. The Dog Ordinance. At the regular meeting of town council, August 3rd, an ordinance was passed making it necessary for dogs that run in this borough to wear muzzles during July and August of each year, and to wear a collar all the year with the tax number and owner or keeper's name legibly stamped on the collar. The ordinance had to be published a number of days before it became a law, but with to-day's issue of THE STAR the ordinance has been published the required number of times, and people who have dogs that they value had better see to it that the dog has a collar on with owner's name on before it runs the streets many more days. There are only five days of August left and it is not likely the muzzling part of the ordinance will be enforced this year, but Burgess Simmons says that dogs running the streets without collars, as required by the dog ordinance, will be killed. If you value your dog very highly have it collared immediately or keep it at home. S. of V. Camp Instituted. Sons of Veteran Camp No. 42, to be known as Wm. M. Fairman Camp, was instituted at Punxsutawney last Wednesday evening. L. G. Liddle, W. P. Woodring and Tom Sharp, members of Phil. Kearney Camp of Reynoldsville, assisted in instituting the new Camp. There were also Sons of Veterans present from Brookville, New Bethlehem and other places. Merchant's Picnic. Arrangements have been completed for the merchants' picnic to be held at Wishaw on Labor Day. The Keystone band and Strauss orchestra have been engaged. Everybody is cordially invited to attend this picnic. A Full Attendance Requested. A full attendance of the members of the Women's Relief Corps is requested at the hall Friday evening of this week. Business of importance to be considered. MRS. J. D. WOODRING, Pres. Monday of this week W. S. and H. J. Weaver, of the Brookville Republican, sent THE STAR office a copy of the premium list of the Jefferson County Agricultural Society and Driving Park Association of Brookville. It contains over 80 pages, including advertising pages. Typographically and otherwise it is a neat pamphlet and reflects credit on the Republican printing department. The managers of the Memorial Home are having a neat and substantial iron fence placed around the grounds.—Brookville Democrat. Why? Our vanilla is made from the finest Mexican beans. This gives our sodas and sundaes a distinctive flavor. Reynolds' fountain. Go to John H. Doubles' ice cream parlor, east Main street, near No. 2 Hose house, for fine I X L ice cream. Your pictures taken at the Alpha Mfg Co's studio. Corwin's old stand. Men's and Boy's clothing reduced at Millirens.
