

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1903. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville Pa., as second class mail matter. SUMMERVILLE TELEPHONE NO. 51.

If You Have Eye Trouble

Of any kind call and have your eyes examined free. Permanently located, always to be found. Work guaranteed. Prices reasonable.

C. F. HOFFMAN, The Jeweler.

PHOTO SUPPLIES PHOTO SUPPLIES PHOTO SUPPLIES

Fresh Kodak Films, Plates, Printing Papers, Chemicals, Tripods, Printing Frames, Graduates, Drying Clips, Cameras, Kodaks, and Developing Machines.

If you are a beginner and do not know just what to do, come in and ask us; we will gladly give you pointers.

STOKE, The Druggist STOKE, The Druggist STOKE, The Druggist STOKE, The Druggist

A Little of Everything.

Temperance Institute in Centennial hall every night this week.

The spring session of the Clarion Presbytery will be held in East Brady.

The Clarion Republican, an excellent weekly paper, was 36 years old on the 24th inst.

M. Singlebach had his left hand poisoned last week and it developed into a very sore hand.

The tannery was idle Saturday afternoon on account of a boiler inspector coming to inspect the boilers.

On account of Fast Day, A. Katzen's store will be closed from 6.00 p. m. to-day until 6.00 p. m. to-morrow.

Judge John W. Reed held naturalization court at Brookville Monday of this week. Naturalization papers were granted to 114 persons.

Dr. A. J. Meek and wife, Mrs. A. M. Woodward, Mrs. J. M. Hays and several others composed a party that was out after chestnuts yesterday.

Mrs. Flora B. Weidner, who moved from Clarion to this place a few months ago and resided on Sixth street, will move to Butler this week.

The Winslow township school board held its regular monthly meeting at Frank's Tavern last Saturday. About the only business transacted was to pay bills.

It is whispered about Falls Creek that a flying machine is to be used to complete the electric ride between the bridge and DuBois.—Falls Creek Herald.

At the fall session of Clarion Presbytery, held in Edenburg last week, steps were taken to provide for a missionary to work among the foreign element in this section.

The Altar Society of the Catholic church will hold an ice cream festival in the Reynolds building, next door to Gooder's jewelry store, Saturday afternoon and evening.

Communion services were held in the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning. Seventeen persons were received into the church as members since the communion in May.

The annual reunion of the 105th Regiment, Penn'a Vet. Volunteers, will be held in Butler October 20th. Members of the 105th will receive personal notice in time, and transportation rates, if to be had.

Dr. F. Q. Smith, of Kaylor, was a guest at home of William Barclay, on Jackson street, over Sunday.

The Daughters of Rebekah held a social at the home of Mrs. William Anderson last Thursday evening.

An Italian was murdered at Wilson camp, near DuBois, last evening by two negroes. The murderers are unknown.

The Hilda Tucker Stock Co. closes a three night engagement at the Reynolds opera house to-night. It is a good company.

Paul Riston and F. T. McClure, of this place, played lawn tennis at Punxsutawney last Saturday with a couple of Punxsy's best players and defeated them.

S. C. McGara, of Punxsutawney, Miss Myrtle Smith, of Pittsburg, and Miss Nulu Neale, of Reynoldsville, have enrolled as students in the Reynoldsville Business College.

James V. Murray, our present efficient and worthy district attorney, was in Reynoldsville last week looking after his political interests. Mr. Murray is a candidate for re-election in November.

H. W. Eason has broken up house-keeping until next spring and has stored his household goods. Mrs. Eason and son, Jack, went to home of Mrs. Eason's mother in Pittsburg yesterday to remain for some time.

Naturalization court at Brookville took a large number of foreigners to the county seat Monday, many of whom returned as American citizens. One hundred and thirty tickets were sold at Reynoldsville for Brookville Monday.

P. H. Smith, formerly proprietor of Bon Ton Bakery in this place, who has been in business at Rural Valley, Pa., has sold out at that place and has returned to Reynoldsville. Mr. Smith is not positive yet where he will locate.

The devotional exercises of the public schools were conducted by Rev. P. A. Reno last Wednesday morning. The teachers and students greatly appreciated the brief but timely and practical address which he gave at that time.

On account of the temperance institute being held in Centennial Hall this week there will not be any prayer meeting held in the Presbyterian and Baptist churches to-night, nor in the Methodist Episcopal church to-morrow night.

Rev. Perry A. Reno was called to New Castle to attend the funeral of a nephew, P. T. Reno, who died Saturday morning of typhoid fever and was buried Monday. The young man was twenty-four years old. He leaves a widow and one child.

A. Katzen, proprietor of the People's Bargain Store, has returned from eastern markets, where he bought a large stock of goods for the fall and winter wear. Goods have advanced considerably, but Mr. Katzen bought his goods at a bargain and can sell them at a bargain. He has a fine line of clothing, hats, caps, &c.

Mrs. G. Botzer, who was known by some of our townspeople, as she was a resident of Reynoldsville some years ago and resided on Mabel street, died at DuBois at 2.00 a. m. yesterday. Mr. Botzer is in the asylum at Warren. Three children survive Mrs. Botzer. The body will be brought to Reynoldsville to-morrow forenoon and buried in Beulah cemetery.

The two vacancies in the corps of teachers in Winslow township, caused by resignations, have been filled and all the schools in the township are now open. Miss Blanche Gardner was elected to fill vacancy in Rathmel school, caused by resignation of John G. Anthony, and Miss Gertrude Moroy is teacher of Snyder school. Miss Vina Miller resigned.

Lewis Ludwick, a prominent citizen of Winslow township, who is greatly troubled with asthma, not having been able to sleep in a bed for several years, but has to sleep in a chair, started yesterday in a buggy on an overland trip to Clarion, New Kensington and through Westmoreland and Indiana counties on a pleasure trip. He is in hopes that the trip will benefit his health.

Rev. W. L. Barrett, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Worthington, Pa., assisted Rev. A. D. McKay in the communion service in the Presbyterian church at this place last Sunday. Rev. Barrett preached Sunday morning and evening. He is a bright and able young man. The congregation was well pleased with his sermons. Rev. Barrett was accompanied by his wife. They made the trip—65 miles—overland in a buggy with one horse in one day, arriving here Thursday evening. They returned home yesterday.

The International Bioscope Co. was at the Reynolds opera house Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week with a moving picture show. The pictures were good, but not as realistic as Howe's because appropriate sounds did not accompany the pictures. However, those who attended the show enjoyed the pictures. "Life of a New York Fireman," "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "Rip Van Winkle," "Robinson Crusoe," and a number of comic and mysterious pictures were shown on the canvas. Charles Haywood, a singer who possesses four cultivated voices, added to the enjoyment of the entertainment.

The directors of the Water Company will hold a meeting to-night and will reduce the water rate, to take effect October 1, 1903. Just what the reduction will be is not known positively yet.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Reduction of Water Rates To-Night. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Water Co. was held at the office of M. M. Davis, Esq., Monday afternoon, at which time two directors were elected, A. G. Milliren and Ab. Reynolds. Mr. Milliren succeeded himself and Mr. Reynolds was elected instead of C. Mitchell, deceased. Mr. Reynolds was re-elected treasurer.

The directors of the Water Company will hold a meeting to-night and will reduce the water rate, to take effect October 1, 1903. Just what the reduction will be is not known positively yet.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Special Sermons.

Next Sunday evening the pastors of the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist Episcopal churches will preach special sermons on the same subject: "Moral and Intellectual Needs of the Town."

Presto Change. There is a new proprietor at The Mansion. Frank J. Black has sold his interest to John C. Dillman, who has had considerable experience in the hotel business. An application has been made for transfer of license.

Farewell Party. Miss Mary Jackson, who left here yesterday for Minneapolis, Minn., where she will be put under special treatment for her lame knee, was given a farewell surprise party Monday evening. About fifty of Mary's friends attended the party. Excellent refreshments were served. It was a very enjoyable party.

Died at Cripple Creek. Mr. Joseph Arnold, brother of F. K. Arnold, deceased, who was known to many Reynoldsville people, having visited Mr. F. K. Arnold in this place about eight years ago, died at his home in Cripple Creek, Col., Monday, September 21st, 1903. Mr. Joseph Arnold was the youngest of five brothers, all of whom are now dead. Manasseth Arnold died in Clarion the 29th of last August. The widows of the five brothers are all living.

Give it a Name. A couple of years ago some Reynoldsville gentlemen organized a company, known as Reynoldsville Cemetery Co., and bought a suitable piece of land near Pleasant Avenue to be used as a cemetery, but the company has failed to give the cemetery a name and some people call it the new cemetery and others speak of it as the Reynoldsville cemetery. Why not give the cemetery a name at your next meeting, gentlemen? Highland Cemetery would be an appropriate name for it. Give it some name.

Died Monday. Monday morning, September 21st, Frank H. Ressler, a farmer residing near Pansy, was kicked on the head by a horse, which caused his death one week later, Monday morning, September 28. He never fully regained consciousness after being kicked. The deceased was a brother of Samuel Ressler, of Reynoldsville, and Mrs. J. B. Johns, of Paris. He was 46 years old. Leaves a widow and two sons. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ressler and son, Homer, drove to Pansy yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral, which takes place this forenoon.

Public School Lecture Course. As has been the custom for several years, the public schools will conduct a lecture course this year. Arrangements have been made and are being made to have most excellent attractions for the course, which will consist of five numbers. The talent employed will be that which has been tested by many years of experience on the platform and the lectures and entertainments will be of such a nature as to present what the people of Reynoldsville cannot fail to enjoy. Full particulars about the course will be given in the near future.

Experimenting on Faster Time. The Jefferson Traction Co. has concluded that one hour and a half to make the trip from Reynoldsville to Punxsutawney is too slow, and the company is experimenting, successfully, this week in making the trip in one hour and ten minutes. It required three through cars on the slow time while two cars are doing the work on the fast time. The first car leaves here at 6.00 a. m., second car at 7.10, third car at 8.20, and so on through the day. If the company is satisfied with the experiment a schedule will be arranged and published or stuck up in the hotels.

Reduction of Water Rates To-Night. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Water Co. was held at the office of M. M. Davis, Esq., Monday afternoon, at which time two directors were elected, A. G. Milliren and Ab. Reynolds. Mr. Milliren succeeded himself and Mr. Reynolds was elected instead of C. Mitchell, deceased. Mr. Reynolds was re-elected treasurer.

The directors of the Water Company will hold a meeting to-night and will reduce the water rate, to take effect October 1, 1903. Just what the reduction will be is not known positively yet.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Cherub Goss. Willa Emeline, nine-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rea, died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Hoon, on Main street, at 8.15 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from catarrh of the stomach. She had been ill six weeks. Mr. Rea lives on a farm in Winslow township, but when Willa took ill Mrs. Rea came to the home of her mother to be near the doctor so that the baby would receive special attention. Willa was born December 25, 1902. Funeral service was held at home of Mrs. Hoon at 3.30 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment in Reynoldsville Cemetery. The floral offering was as follows: Bouquet, Baptist choir, bouquet white carnations, Thomas D. Hoon.

Was It Incendiarism?

About ten minutes after eight o'clock Monday evening fire was discovered in the hay mow of one of Solomon Shaffer's barns on corner of Willow and Pine Alleys. The fire alarm was promptly given and the fire company was not slow in getting to the fire and in short order a stream of water was playing on the fire, which by that time was blazing high. The quick work of the fire lads soon got the fire under control. The mow was full of hay, and that is where the fire started. There was a team of horses in the barn and the men who got them out experienced considerable trouble in doing so, as the horses did not want to go out of barn. A coat had to be thrown over one horse's head before they could get the horse out of barn.

The roof was burned off the barn, but the other barn, within two feet, was only slightly damaged on side of roof next to the barn where fire started. The cows, chickens, pigs and two car load of lumber were in the barn that escaped the blaze.

The origin of the fire is a mystery and savors a little of incendiarism. William Yount, the teamster, who does not smoke nor carry matches in his pocket, threw down hay out of the mow for the horses before dark and was not in the mow after dark. He was in the barn ten or fifteen minutes before the fire was discovered and there was no sign of fire in the barn at that time. There was some insurance on the barn.

Temperance Institute. A temperance institute is being held in Centennial hall four nights this week, beginning last night and closing Friday night. The program for remaining three nights is as follows: Wednesday, 7.30—Devotional, Thos. Gulliford; The Liquor Traffic and the Church, Rev. A. J. Meek; Effect of the Liquor Traffic on Finances, M. C. Coleman; music of the evening conducted by choir of the Presbyterian church. Thursday, 7.30—Devotional, A. J. Postlewait; Progress of the Liquor Traffic in this County, Rev. J. A. Simpson; Progress of Temperance Work in this County, Rev. J. H. Myers; Song; The Pulpit and Christian Citizenship, Rev. A. D. McKay; recitation, Miss Cora Shaffer; Relation of the Liquor Traffic to Crime, Capt. W. B. Bradford; music of the evening conducted by the choir of the Baptist church. Friday, 7.30—Devotional, Rufus Kirk; Home Influence, Mrs. G. G. Williams; Song; recitation, Miss Elvie Coleman; Present Political Conditions and their Influence on Society, Rev. P. A. Reno; Song; Can the Present Political Organization be Trusted to Handle the Liquor Traffic in the Interest of Society? Rev. J. A. Simpson.

Strawberries in September. Strawberries and cream the 25th of September is a rare dish in this neck o' woods. Thursday last week Mrs. Amos Deemer, of Deemer's Cross Roads, who has a fine strawberry patch, was going through her garden and happened to spy some fine large ripe strawberries hanging on the vines. She had strawberries and cream for supper that evening and when she came to town Friday she brought a few of the delicious berries to THE STAR office and ye editor had strawberries and cream for supper that evening. Generally speaking, a country editor can highly enjoy delicious dishes of most any kind without fear of injuring his stomach, as the opportunity for such things is about as rare as fresh strawberries and cream in September. Mrs. Deemer has our thanks.

Public Schools Receive Specimens of Fish. Monday morning of this week the Public Schools received 74 specimens of fish preserved in alcohol as a gift from the Smithsonian Institution, located at Washington, D. C. These specimens were donated to the schools in compliance with the request of Hon. William O. Smith, of Punxsutawney. They were selected from the duplicates in the National Museum and they have been collected from the different parts of the world. The schools are fortunate in getting this collection as the specimens will be very helpful to the students of natural history, and the kindness of the Smithsonian Institution and of Mr. Smith is greatly appreciated.

Men you will save money by buying your fall and winter clothes at H. W. Eason & Co's. All goods are greatly reduced.

John H. Doubles, the butterine dealer, will re-open his old stand, two doors above hose house No. 2, to-day. High grade butterine at 22c per pound.

All the latest novelties in street hats at Miss Sayers.

Save money by buying your wall paper now at Stoke's.

Our lemon has that refreshing fruit-taste. With or without cream. Reynolds Fountain.

When you want a lady's fine and up-to-date shoe go to Nolan's shoe store. Ask for the Krippendorf-Dittman shoe.

Summer is about over, but we put the same thought and care into the making of our sodas as ever. Reynolds Fountain.

NEW RAILROAD FOR CLARION. Daniel Nolan, of Reynoldsville, is one of the Contractors on the New Railroad.

The Clarion and Summerville railroad, from Summerville, six miles west of Brookville, to Clarion, is a sure thing. The contract for building the new railroad has been let to Bennett & Co., James A. Bennett, of Greensburg, and Daniel Nolan, of Reynoldsville.

The main line of the road will be fifteen miles in length, with a three mile branch. Bennett & Co. will begin the work immediately and expect to have it completed in six months. There is only one large bridge on the line and that is the bridge over Red Bank creek at Summerville. There are no big cuts or fills on the line. The new railroad will run through a fine farming country underlaid with coal.

Mr. Nolan, who has had charge of the gravel, or work train on the Low Grade Division about a quarter of a century, has been granted a six month leave of absence by the P. R. R. Co. John C. Richards is now conductor of the work train.

Death of Little John Euser. John Irvin Euser, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Euser, born May 18, 1901, aged 2 years, 4 months and 6 days, died at 3.18 a. m. Thursday, September 24, 1903, from convulsions. He had been sick one week. John was a very bright little fellow, and being allowed in and around the Imperial restaurant, of which Mr. Euser is proprietor, with residence over restaurant, he attracted considerable attention, with his cunning way, and almost every person had something to say to the lad, consequently he seemed older than his years. He had many friends among men and children. John loved little children, and in return was loved by the little boys and girls who knew him. Funeral service was held at residence of parents Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, and interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

John loved flowers and the floral tribute was large for one so young: wreath, Mrs. Lena Myers, of Lock Haven, bouquet, Miss Annie Euser, of Lock Haven; bouquet of roses, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Crist, of DuBois, bouquet of roses and carnations, L. P. Bryne, pillow, with name, "John," on it, from Grandmother Bryne, uncles and aunts, bouquet and wreath, Mrs