

High School Bulletin.

Edited by Members of the Reynoldsville High School

Tuesday morning, Sept. 29, saw the opening of the school library. Prof. Smith has given the complete control of the library to the Senior class. The Seniors in turn, devoting the remaining thirty weeks into three periods of ten weeks each, giving the first term to Mildred Ridgeway and Lawson Reed, the second to Coe Shaffer and Clyde Murray and third and last to John Coleman and Anna Klair. The library will be open from 8.40 to 9.00 o'clock in the morning, from 1.00 to 1.15 and 4.00 to 4.15 p. m. on Tuesdays and Fridays.

A very interesting educational meeting was held in Assembly Hall Friday evening. Among the various instrumentalists of the occasion were Mrs. Carmalt and Miss Mansfield, of Indiana Normal.

One of the most pleasant events of the school year was what might be termed a reunion of the Senior class, when after school Wednesday evening a number of the Seniors wended our way first to West Reynoldsville, then, in accordance with a dare, we continued our meandering until we reached Shaffer's farm near Sandy Valley. After a short, but pleasant visit on the farm, we proceeded a lumber wagon on which we found a conveyance home, not to our respective homes but to that of the nearest Senior, Coe Shaffer, where we partook of a hearty supper prepared by Coe, himself. After this very pleasant ceremony we spent a very pleasant evening until properly invited us to our respective homes at fashionable hours.

Reverend Reno gave a very interesting address in chapel a few mornings ago.

Miss Myers, daughter of Rev. Myers, of the Lutheran church, has cast her lot with the Junior class. The members of High School are all glad to welcome Miss Myers.

One of the humorous events of the past week was the answering to the speaking tube when the class bell rang by one of the High School teachers.

Senior No. 1 in speaking of jackstones in the physics class the other day said she had played them in infancy. Meaning of course, that she had played jacks.

Ed. Hardman of '03, visited the school last Monday.

Miss Annie Bechtol, of Leck Haven, and Miss Mary McClure, of this place, visited the Shakespearean Literary Society Friday.

Bertha Bowser, Geneva Milliren, Carl Kirk and Frank Strouse, from Room 14, were members of a chestnutting party one day last week.

Prof. Bacon gave the Seniors a very interesting examination on Macbeth, last Friday.

The Sub Juniors in their first annual class meeting elected the following class officers: Pres., Bertha Bowser; secretary, Garfield Harris.

Prof. Bacon and Prof. Smith visited Punksutawney a few hours Saturday.

Lawson Reed has the distinction of being the first apparition of the Senior class.

The Juniors in a continual series of class meetings elected their class officers which are: Pres., Amy Bollinger; vice pres., Bessie Sensor; secretary, Geneva Milliren.

The T. C. C. of Room 13 have selected orange and black as their color, and motto: "Do unto others as they would like to do unto you."

A trio of No 13 boys will have a marching contest for the purpose of learning to keep step.

Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted by Washington Lodge No. 124, Order Sons of St. George:

WHEREAS, The Great and Supreme Ruler of the universe has, in his infinite wisdom, removed from among us one of our worthy and esteemed brothers, Past President Edwin Honor; and

WHEREAS, The long and intimate relation held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in this society makes it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of him, therefore be it

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a life from our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members of this organization and will prove a loss to the community and the public. Be it also

Resolved, That we express our heartfelt sympathy to the widow, fatherless children and friends of our departed brother and commend them to Him who shall say at the last great day, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful in a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Be it further

Resolved, That as an expression of our sympathy our charter be draped for thirty days, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow of our departed brother, the same to be spread on the records of the lodge and printed in the Reynoldsville Star.

SHICK & WAGNER

— THE BIG STORE —

WE HAVE NOW ready to show to the public the largest and best assorted stock of merchandise we ever attempted to carry. It is impossible for us to enumerate and describe the lines we have. Suffice to say that we have given most careful attention to both style and quality and every one knows what our progress has been in the last few years in this direction. We have taken even greater pains to please you and provide you with the right merchandise than ever and you all know what that means.

Just a hint of the different lines we carry may direct you to THE BIG STORE when looking for something in DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, CLOAKS AND SHOES.

It will be necessary for you to inspect these to form any conception of them.

And now when we add that we have put our business on a strictly CASH basis you will realize that we are in a position to save you many dollars. As we study the great stores of our nation and their methods of doing business from our Retail Journals we realize more and more that SLOW COACH CREDIT IS DEAD and THIS IS THE DAY WHEN READY MONEY TALKS. We therefore from today on buy for strictly cash and in order to do this must sell for strictly cash. In a year's time we will all realize what an advantage this is to both the trade and to ourselves. With the economical prices on all lines of merchandise we cannot possibly afford to bear the extra expense of keeping a set of books. We therefore do away with books entirely and sell for cash only. With our guarantee to please you in every way or your money cheerfully refunded you have no risk to run whatever.
