

Both Known Here.

Wm. F. Martin, lately engaged in the mercantile business at this place, and who will take possession of the Gerhelm hotel, Fairmount, in two weeks, was married on Wednesday morning to Miss Hattie Snowden, of Brookville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Driscoll at the parsonage early in the morning. They left on the 9.30 train for a two-weeks wedding trip. The Vindicator extends congratulations.—New - Bethlehem Vindicator. Mr. Martin was clerk at Hotel McConnel and National Hotel in this place at one time, and Mrs. Martin was dining room girl at the National Hotel about two years ago.

Glass Blowing Machine Successful.

A telephone message from Manager McCoy of factory No. 5, of the American Window Glass Co., announced that the glass blowing machines which have recently been installed were put in operation yesterday. To a question as to how they worked Mr. McCoy replied "very satisfactorily," and he was of the opinion that they would prove successful. Like every new invention there are undoubtedly minor defects which will be remedied in time.—Kane Republican.

County Teachers' Institute.

County Superintendent Tetrick has fixed his county institute for the last week in December, beginning on the 28th. Following is the list of instructors and entertainers: Dr. W. G. Brumbaugh, professor of pedagogy in the University of Pennsylvania; Dr. F. C. Schmucker, of West Chester State Normal School; Dr. Lincoln Hulley, of Bucknell University; Deputy State Supt. John Q. Stewart; Brockway Jubilee Singers Monday night; Senator J. P. Dolliver Tuesday night; Lulu Tyler Gates and her company of specialists Wednesday night; Charles Emory Smith Thursday night. There were two bad disappointments at the institute last year. Senator Dolliver was one of them. The people expect every promise to be kept to the letter this year, and want no substitute lecturers.—Brookville Democrat.

THE FAMOUS SHOE FOR WOMEN
Most Important!
Of what use is a hat that does not fit your head. Of what use are corsets that do not fit, dresses that do not fit, or gloves that do not fit?
Now take shoes! The one absolutely necessary thing about shoes is that they shall FIT.
Unless they fit you feel "slouchy," you walk clumsily, dragging the feet along because they are tired. You acquire corns. And all because you bought shoes that were perhaps loudly advertised and smart in appearance, yet made with no regard to fit. The one shoe for women for FIT is the
